Weddings

Brady-Cunningham.

Frank Brady, of Genet Street, South Scranton, and Miss Catherine Cunningham, of North Ninth street, were united in marriage with a nuptial mass at St. Patrick's Catholic church, at 8:30 o'clock yesterday morning, by the pastor, Rev. J. H. Whelan.

At the wedding party entered the church the organist, Miss Johnson, struck up the familiar chorals of Mendelssohn's march, and as they proceeded down the aisle to the altar a pretty spectacle was witnessed. First came the ushers, William Monahan and John Moran. They were followed by the groomsmen and bridesmaids, John Nealis, of South Scranton, and Miss Kate McDonald of Danmore.

The bride and groom brought up the rear, and when the altar rail was reached the party formed a semicircle where they met the officiating clergyman. The bride wore a cascade of white tulle, and her maid wore a gown of grey material with similar trimmings as those of the bride's dress. Both wore picture hats to match.

The bride carried a prayer book and the maid a bouquet of tea roses, and both looked exceptionally pretty in their wedding gowns. At the conclusion of the mass and ceremony, the wedding party were taken to the home of the bride's mother, Mrs. John Cunningham, where a reception and breakfast was enjoyed with the immediate relatives and friends. Mr. and Mrs. Brady left on the 1:30 Lackawanna Buffalo express for the Pan-American Buffalo express, where they will reside in a newly furnished home in South Scranton.

Curran-Sweeney.

Shortly after the Brady-Cunningham wedding, John J. Curran, of Frink street, and Miss Mary A. Sweeney, of 226 Jackson street, were united in marriage at St. Patrick's by Rev. John Dunne. The bride was accompanied by her sister, Miss Catherine Sweeney, while the groom's brother, Thomas Curran, stood up for him.

Both ladies wore attired in Venetian cloth gowns of blue, with silk trimmings and carried flowers. A host of friends of the young couple were in the church during the ceremony to witness the happy event. The bride is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Sweeney, and the groom is in the

A reception was tendered them at the home of the bride's parents, where a large number of young people participated in the festivities. Mr. and Mrs. Curran left on a night train for Buffalo, and when they return will begin housekeeping in a home of their own at 1808 Sweetland street.

Keller-Piper.

Rev. A. W. Huck, of Shamokin, officiated at the wedding of Edward Keller and Miss Nina J. Piper, of Auburn, Susquehanna county, at noon yesterday at the home of the groom's parents, on South Hyde Park avenue. The bride was Miss Hattie Piper, sister of the bride, and the groomsmen were James Mathewson.

The ladies' gowns were of steel broadcloth, with pink silk trimmings. The house was tastefully decorated for the event and a sumptuous repast was served. The bride is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. M. L. Piper, and the groom has been identified with the Scranton Trolley company for a number of years. When they return from Buffalo they will reside at 502 South Main avenue.

MUNICIPAL OWNERSHIP.

At a meeting of the executive board of the strikers, yesterday, resolutions were passed urging upon the city officials the necessity of the municipality securing the ownership of the trolley lines to insure a decent service and avoid strikes. Copies of the resolutions have been forwarded to Recorder Council and the two branches of council.

The receipts of the railway company at this time of the year average about $100 a day. The company is paying $250 a day in wages; $100 a day for the keeping of the imported men, and probably $100 a day, or a dollar per capita, to the Drummond agency, which furnishes the imported men. The strikers say that the wages of the men on strike, regulars, extras and barn men, numbering 350, averages $1.20 a day per man. This would make their losses run up to about $45 a day. What the business men are losing can not be estimated. Leaving the business men out of consideration, the strike thus far has cost $50,000.

A mass meeting, under the auspices of the strikers, will be held at the old armory tomorrow night. Among the speakers will be Howard L. Caldwell, national organizer of the American Federation of Labor, who was president of the Building Trades council of Philadelphia during the memorable struggle for the establishment of the eight-hour day in that city.

Magistrate W. S. Miller waited on President Judge Edwards yesterday morning and informed him that seven boys under 16 years of age had been arrested by Special Agent Stephen Dyer, of the Scranton Railway company. He asked him if the cases would be heard by one of the judges.

MOTHERS NOT PLEASSED.

Judge Edwards replied that he has not yet had time to provide a method for the hearing of the cases of children under the age of 16 years, as provided by the latest court service, and directed the magistrate to dispose of such cases himself for the present.

A hearing was conducted in the afternoon when Special Agent Dyer offered evidence to show that the boys had obstructed the tracks and had been caught in the act. The magistrate fined each of the following boys $2 and costs: Fred Jones, John Clarke, Michael Farrell, Harry Lisk, Harry Goodman, Benjamin Jones and George Mallan.

Several anxious mothers were present at the hearing and paid their boy's fines. They seemed all inclined to the belief that it was "downright injustice" to arrest the boys for obstructing the tracks. "They only did it for fun," said one of them and the others echoed her sentiments. Not so with the father of the 14-year boy, however. "You get home just as fast as you can get," he said to his offspring as he paid the magistrate's fine, "and prepare yourself for my arrival."

SITUATION IS NOT CHANGED

NO IMPORTANT DEVELOPMENTS IN THE STRIKE.

Company Opens Up the South Side Line and Puts on Two More Cars, But There is No Appreciable Increase in the Number of Persons Riding—Strikers Pass Resolutions Urging Municipal Ownership of the Trolley Lines—Rev. Dr. McLeod Speaks Out.

There was no change of moment in the general situation of the car strike, yesterday, and no very serious disorders occurred. Each side continues in its policy of holding out for the other to make advances for a settlement, and neither gives any indication of weakening.

The company opened up the South Side line and put on two more cars. The strikers engaged a few more hand-wagons to help the public from patronizing the cars, and succeeded, through its visiting committee, in securing various labor organizations endorse the strike and offer financial support.

There was no very noticeable increase in the number of persons patronizing the cars, although at certain hours of the day the Green Ridge and Peterborough lines had a fairly liberal patronage.

Reports were current last evening to the effect that there is discontent among some of the imported men, because they have been given runs which produce no opportunity for commissions, and, according to the reports, a large number of the discontented ones are threatening to leave on Saturday, when they get their pay.

Five busses have been secured from Wilkes-Barre and will be run today. The strikers will run them themselves. The local lodge of the Iron Molders' union, and Mine Workers' Local 862, of Green Ridge, and 1681, of Providence, passed resolutions last night endorsing the strike and offering the strikers moral and financial support.

There was some disorder yesterday, attendant upon the opening up of the South Side line. Obstructions were placed on the tracks before and after the passage of the cars, and near Genet street officials of General Manager Stillman and Agent Morgan Sweeney were hung from a pole. The names of a number of the alleged perpetrators of these disorderly acts were secured and warrants for their arrest will be issued today.

DR. McLEOD'S LETTER.

My Dear Sir: I have just received your personal note and printed Brochure. I have always been a friend of laboring men, and I esteem it an honor to be reckoned as one of their number. In the present case, however, I am persuaded that the course pursued by your organization is not an expedient one, and that the shaver of a shade of merit, your own sense of honor ought to convince you of your error, and your organization ought to recede, at once, from the false position it has taken, and cannot convince the sensible citizens of Scranton that this strike is justifiable. As your friend, I deem it my duty to say to you, very frankly, that I am not in sympathy with your organization at the present time. Your franking of citizens of Scranton to some inconvenience, yet, your strike will not, and it ought not to be successful.

Some of your vulgar sympathizers show their breeding by lining the epithets at respectable citizens who dare to exercise their rights as free Americans. Of course, the scurrilous conduct of these gentlemen does not detract from our approval although I have not heard of any steps being taken to prevent it, either by your organization, or by the recorder and police of our city, when duty is to protect the honor and peace of the community. One of your so-called sympathizers decorated me with one of these foul epithets yesterday, because I dared to ride on a Scranton street car.

There is that I and my family refrain from patronizing the cars. I cannot comply with your request. On the contrary, as long as this strike continues, we will probably ride more frequently than in the past, and I am both patriotic and unchristian, and this seems to me to be the attitude of your organization at the present time. Your franking of citizens of Scranton to some inconvenience, yet, your strike will not, and it ought not to be successful.

All of the delegates to the quadrennial conference of the Primitive Methodists of America arrived in this city yesterday and got down to real business at the Primitive Methodist church on East Market street, where the sessions are being held.

A prayer and consecration service was conducted in the morning, beginning at 8 a. m., by Rev. W. H. Yarrow, Ph. D., the vice president. The morning session was largely taken up with the general business of organization and the appointment of committees.

The devotional exercises at the beginning of the afternoon session were conducted by Rev. W. F. Nicholls, D. D., president of the Pennsylvania conference. Rev. J. Proude, of Fall River, Mass., read an interesting paper on "Church Extension" and a general discussion of the subject followed. In the evening there was a public service conducted by Rev. N. W. Matthews, of Lowell, Mass.

The mission work of the church will be under consideration today. Reports of missionary work accomplished during the last four years will be presented, and in the evening a general missionary service will be conducted. Addresses will be made by Rev. C. LOCAL TEAM IS BADLY BEATEN

THIRTEENTH'S RIFLEMEN DEFEATED AT PITTSTON.

Team Composed of Members of Company M, Ninth Regiment Worst of a Team Picked from the Entire Thirteenth Regiment by Twenty-four Points—Match Was Shot on Company M's Rifle Range at West Pittston—Both Teams Were Entertained by Lieut. Bennett.

A team of picked marksmen from the Thirteenth regiment met defeat yesterday at Pittston, at the hands of a team selected from among the members of Company M, Ninth regiment.

The Ninth regiment marksmen made a total of 453 against the Thirteenth's total of 429, winning by just twenty-four points. The defeat is all the more humiliating when the fact is taken into consideration that where the local team was drawn from the entire regiment the other team was drawn from but one company. The score follows:

THE HOLLAND ENLARGED.

New Apartment Hotel Adds an Annex to Meet Trade Demands.

That Scranton is a growing city is proved among many ways by the growing business of its apartment hotels. The newest of these, the Holland, opened in April by E. H. Thomas, was regarded at that time as in the nature of an experiment. It has fifty rooms, and some doubt was expressed as to whether there would be business enough to make the hotel profitable in view of the many similar though smaller establishments recently opened. These doubts have proved unfounded. From almost the first day the accommodations of the Holland have been insufficient to supply the demand for rooms and Landford Thomas has been compelled to enlarge his quarters. Recently he acquired a lease of the Shoemaker property next door. An additional story is to be added to that property and it is to be used as an annex. This will add ten rooms to the Holland's original capacity.

A PAVING PETITION.

Select Councilman Finn to Introduce a New Ordinance.

Select Councilman Wade M. Finn is circulating a petition for the paving of Providence road to Court street, and expects to have sufficient signatures before the next meeting of select council to enable him to introduce an ordinance. It will be remembered that an ordinance providing for the paving of these streets was passed by council before the reorganization of the city government, but was declared invalid by City Solicitor Watson.

STOLE BASKET OF ONIONS.

A drayman named Beers notified Patrolmen Davies and Evans yesterday afternoon that he had seen two men take a basket of onions from a Lackawanna freight car and then go into the Columbia hotel.

The two officers followed them in and placed them under arrest. The basket of onions was found in the hotel. The men gave their names at the Centre street station as Thomas Ford and James Healey.

The popular Pinar cigar is still the leader of the 10c cigars.
