First Race-2.17 Pace.

There were nine starters in this rac out of nineteen named. Tinker, owned by R. G. Norton, of Scranton, drew the pole, and Wilkes Medium, the bay gelding of L. A. Patterson, of Carbondale, was placed fourth. These were the only Lackawanna county horses in the crowd. The field scored twic and then the starter said that he would no longer protect the rear one, Miss Jenuie, who could not seem to get up True to his word they were sent away the next time. At the quarter pole Rachel and Niano were on even terms with Tinker third, close behind their sulkies. Right there Tinker broke and nearly all the field passed by before he settled. At the half Niano was a nose in front of Rachel, with Wilkes Medium a half length back. At the three-quarters Rachel was a triffe ahead of Niano and four others were bunched for the third place. A terrific drive down the stretch to home followed, in which the whips were used to great purpose, for under punishment Oscar L. won the heat by a length Tinker's hobbles broke and he finished last as a result.

In the second heat the finish was a Port Jervis. glorious one, five coming down almost abreast, but Oscar in the van, a head in front of Niano, who led Rachel by half a length. Wilkes Medium was fifth and Tinker eighth.

Third heat-After severe flukes the word was given to a very good start. Oscar L. was the leader all the way around, Pure Gold being his most for midable rival, first at the quarter and then fading away to come again very strong at the finish, closing up a big gap and losing the heat only by a neck. George C. Easton came in third. Summary:
