be done in the near future when rates for looping and railroad rates are learned. Another matter in which some of the directors believe there is a chance to save money is the sending of a policeman with a patient along with one or two directors. Those matters will probably be discussed further when the board meets again.

Mario, the Magician. The opening number of the entertainment course for this season will be Mario, the magician, at the Grand opera house next Monday evening.

The diagram for reserved seats will open in Reynolds' drug store tomorrow (Wednesday) evening. Checks will be given out at 6 o'clock, and seats reserved at 7:20. Each check will entitle the holder to four seats. Course tickets are $1.50; single admission, 25, 50 and 75 cents.

There were two operations performed in the hospital yesterday, both proving very successful. The first was for the removal of a tumor on the neck of Miss Edgely, daughter of Broadway street. She was admitted to the hospital yesterday morning and the operation performed shortly after.

The second operation was performed upon Thomas Coleman of Dunduff street, mention of his condition being made in yesterday's issue. One finger was cut open and dead tissue removed from the bone. The operation will stop the increase of poisoning to other parts of the hand.

The Carbondale high school football eleven are in no way discouraged on account of the defeat they suffered at the hands of the Scranton high school. The local eleven showed lack of practice in Saturday's game, but Manager Burke intends having them out daily now and perfect their playing.

On Saturday next they will play at Honesdale if a game can be arranged. Wednesday the eleven will play a practice game with local eleven. Manager Burke is trying to arrange dates with a number of out of town teams. Owing to the park here being a thing of the past, but few games will be seen here this year.

Not Discouraged. Henry Austin Adams will lecture in this city on Thursday, his subject being "Twentieth Century," under the auspices of Knights of Columbus. The lecture will be held in St. Rose hall and the proceeds will be sent over to the St. Rose church fund.

This will be Mr. Adams first appearance in this city, but his reputation as a lecturer has preceded him and a large crowd will listen to his words.

Fair Opened. The fair, under the auspices of the Central labor union, opened last night in Watt's hall, under the most promising circumstances. A valuable silk umbrella was the door prize. During the evening refreshments were served. A large crowd was in attendance and were highly complimentary to the hospitality of the labor men. The fair will continue all week.

The Powderly Funeral. The remains of Mrs. T. V. Powderly, who died in Washington, Sunday night, will arrive in Scranton tonight and will be taken to the residence of her aunt, Mrs. M. H. Collins, on North Main avenue. The funeral will take place Thursday morning from the Collins residence.

Two Years' Efforts. The ordinance read in common council in regard to the laying of a sewer on Seventh avenue, has been petitioned by residents on that street for the last two years, they agreeing to stand the costs. They are well satisfied that the ordinance will now go through both councils.

At the Grand. "Pentecost," from the pen of Daniel Hart, was the attraction at the Grand opera house last night. The show gave satisfaction to a good house. On Wednesday, Station's "Two Tom-boys" will be the attraction. Two performances will be given.

Funeral Notice. The funeral of the late Mrs. Patrick Dockerty will be held tomorrow, the remains being taken to St. Rose church at 9:30 and a mass recitation will be read. The remains will be interred in St. Rose cemetery.

Returned to Work. Miss Theresa Tighe, one of the efficient "home" girls in the Carbondale Telephone Exchange, has resumed her duties after a week's absence. Miss Stella Morgan presided in her place, while she was away.

Installation. The Olive Leaf lodge, Independent Order of Odd Fellows, had an installation of officers last night in their hall, on Salem avenue.

OBITUARY.

OLIVER W. SPANGENBERG, who has been closely identified with the early history of this section, died yesterday morning at his home on the east side of the mountain, towards South Canaan. Death followed an attack of apoplexy, which seized him while on his way to this city with a wagon load of mine sprags for the Delaware and Hudson company. He was found in the wagon in an unconscious condition. This was on October 5. Consciousness never returned.

The deceased had an interesting career. He was a native of South Canaan, Wayne county, where he was born in 1826. He was the first lumber contractor for the Delaware and Hudson company in this vicinity, and up to the time of his death he continued his relations with that company. With his father he built the first lumber mill in that part of Wayne county which was his home. He supplied the Delaware and Hudson company with all the finished lumber that came from that vicinity. The first ties used on the Delaware and Scranton, were furnished by him, the shipping being done from Wyoming. The first mill in this vicinity was erected by this company. Mr. Spangenberg was engaged in his country in the timber trade. He had a remarkable knowledge of the tracts in this part of the county, and his services proved valuable in many an instance in locating and dividing lines of tracts that were in dispute. His knowledge was equally valuable in estimating the value of timber lands, and he was eagerly sought by prospective purchasers for his close judgment. Probably no man in this section had as good a reputation in the timber trade.

Mr. Spangenberg was a resident of Carbondale for several years. The timber in many of the buildings in this city was bought from him. He was engaged, also, for a short time in the retail coal business, supplying the trade from an opening at Wilson Creek, owned by the late Captain William Brennan. He was a type of citizen which is always an important factor in a community and leaves an impress for good in the memory of his friends.

Mr. Spangenberg is survived by his widow and two children by his first wife, Colonel and Miller; and the following by his first wife: Edgar E. Spangenberg, Buffalo; Simon E. and Harry A. Carbondale; Moses E. and Frank E. Waymart; Thomas N., Peckville; Stewart Spangenberg, and Mrs. John Beers, South Canaan; two brothers, Philip and George, South Canaan; two sisters, Miss Rachel, South Canaan; Mrs. Henry Hagler, Scranton; and Mrs. Henry Hagler, Scranton.

The funeral will take place today. Services will be held in the Methodist church at South Canaan.

A telegram announcing the death of the wife of Commissioner of Immigration, T. V. Powderly, of Washington was received with much grief in this city yesterday morning. She died at 10 o'clock Sunday night, after a long illness. Deceased was formerly Miss Hannah Devers and a native of Carbondale and is survived by two brothers, John of Providence and Frank of this city and one sister, Miss Margaret of Providence. The lady will be brought to Scranton this evening. The burial will take place on Wednesday morning after a requiem mass has been read over the remains.

A New Brewery. Application has been made to the governor of Pennsylvania for a charter for a brewery to be erected in this vicinity. Their solicitor is Attorney H. C. Butler. The stockholders in the new concern are Joseph Lee, Joseph Krantz, Joseph Sheek, T. H. Norton and Frank Krantz. One of the men interested was interviewed by the Tribune reporter but he was loath to talk of the matter as it had not as yet been decided as to a location. The brewery will be a large one.

Home from Wales. William Howells and family have returned from Wales after a two months' visit there. They were delighted with the trip.

A Birth. Born to Mr. and Mrs. A. Flannery, of Dunduff street, a son.

Bitten by a Dog. Ex-Select Councilman T. M. Nealon, of South Main street, was severely bitten by a dog last evening. Mr. Nealon, who is a well known citizen, was walking in the park near the old city hall when he was bitten on the leg by a dog.

OLYPHANT. The first of a series of lectures and entertainments will be given in the Blackley Baptist church tomorrow evening, when the people of this town will have the pleasure of hearing Rev. Henry J. Whalen, D. D., pastor of the Berean Baptist church of Carbondale, in one of his celebrated lectures, "The Wit and Humor of the Irish People."

The following will be heard during the course: A. V. Bowen, October 15; Rev. A. Hatcher Smith, November 1; grand concert, November 25; Miss Cora Griffin, the noted elocutionist of North Scranton, December 12.

An excellent programme has been arranged for the entertainment, which will be given in the Primitive Methodist church this evening. A social will be held at the close of the programme.

Cured After Years of Pile Torture.

James Kenton, Memphis, Tenn., says: "I suffered the tortures of itching piles for years and not even mercurochrome ointment would relieve me. One 50 cent box of Pyramid Pile Cure cured me entirely." All druggists sell it. Book, "Piles, Causes and Cure," mailed free, Pyramid Drug Co., Marshall, Mich.

who conducts a store on Tenth avenue, was going through Gummy's court carrying in his hand a can of oil. In front of the home of P. Flanagan a black dog, the property of John Doyle, ran from the yard and sprang for Mr. Nealon, his teeth catching him on the right hip. The dog, an unusually large one, secured a good hold and it was with much difficulty that he was shaken loose. The dog's teeth had penetrated the skin, leaving his impressions and around the marks the skin was black and blue. The dog will be shot. The wound though painful for a time, will not incapacitate Mr. Nealon from his work.

Called to Scranton. Rev. Walter Gorman of St. Rose church was called to Scranton yesterday on account of the serious illness of his father, Mr. and Mrs. P. A. Duffy, the latter a daughter of Mr. Gorman, are also at his bedside.
