

WEST SCRANTON

FUNERAL OF MRS. PRICE

SERVICES HELD AT THE RESIDENCE LAST EVENING.

They Were Conducted by Rev. Hugh Davis and Rev. John P. Moffat, D. D.—Interment Will Be Made This Morning in Washburn Street Cemetery—Marriage of Burton H. Davis and Miss Mary Elizabeth Jones—Supper in the Plymouth Church—Notes and Personals.

Funeral services were held over the remains of the late Mrs. William Price at the family residence on South Main avenue last evening. Nearly every room in the house was filled with sorrowing relatives and friends, who in life had enjoyed the friendship and shared the benedictions of the kindly spirit that had gone out to its eternal home.

The remains were fully prepared in the midst of bowing, the perfume of which seemed to absorb the sweet life of the departed and scatter its fragrance over all who had in life been associated with her. The same contented smile which greeted the loved one through life was visible on the pallid face of the dead.

Rev. Hugh Davis, of the South Main avenue Welsh-Catholic Methodist church, and Rev. John P. Moffat, D. D., of the Washburn street Presbyterian church, each spoke of the tender sympathy, yet purely christian disposition of the deceased, and expressed the satisfaction derived from christian living and faith in the life beyond the vale of tears.

A double quartet sang three selections, "O Paradise," "Jesus Lover of My Soul," and a Welsh hymn, "O Prynithu Chersuol." The singers were Mrs. Frank Brundage, Miss Edith Sailer, Mrs. Margaret Hughes, Miss Victoria Grucner, John T. Watkins, David Stephens, John T. Jones and William Jones. They were accompanied by Mrs. D. B. Thomas, pianist.

The services were very impressive and were attended by a multitude of friends from all over the city, and a number were present from other cities. The interment will be made this morning in the Washburn street cemetery.

AN INTERNAL REMEDY.

A Pleasant Tasting Tablet; Simple, Convenient; Cures Every Form of Catarrh.

The use of inhalants, douches, sprays, salves and powders for catarrh is a nuisance and inconvenience at the best, and is invariably contravened by other remedies in tablet form for internal use.

Internal remedies are the only ones which can really reach the seat of the disease which is in the blood and local application can do no more cure catarrh than rheumatism or kidney trouble, the excessive secretion in nose and throat being local manifestations of a deep seated poison in the blood.

Stuart's Catarrh Tablets, the most successful of the various internal remedies, is composed principally of highly concentrated antiseptics, which destroy the catarrh germs in the blood and causes them to be eliminated through the natural channels.

Protoplasmic physicians use and advise Stuart's Catarrh Tablets because they contain no cocaine, no opiate, no enervating drug whatever, but are composed of Gualacol, Hydrastin, Red Gum and similar catarrh antiseptics, and are so safe and pleasant that even the children may use them with excellent results.

Catarrh sufferers who have wasted time and money on local applications should not despair of a radical cure until a trial of Stuart's Catarrh Tablets has been made.

A complete treatment may be purchased at any drug store for fifty cents.

The remains of Mrs. Mary Manley, who died on Sunday were held at rest yesterday morning, after impressive services in St. John's church on Big street. Hundreds of neighbors and sorrowing relatives of the deceased gathered at the family residence on Beech street an hour before the time set for the services, and viewed the remains.

At 9 o'clock the casket was closed by Undertaker Fisher, and the long file of sorrowing mourners wended their way slowly to the church. Rev. E. J. Meloy celebrated a requiem mass and afterwards paid a high tribute to the goodness and high moral character of the deceased. A number of prayers were made in St. Mary's cemetery, Dunmore.

The pallbearers were: Patrick Nealis, Patrick McNamara, Patrick Rogan, Patrick Coggins, John McNamara and Stephen Ross.

Celebrated Birthday. A very pleasant party gathered at the residence of Mrs. Charles Worth, at 623 Cedar avenue, last evening, to do honor to Mrs. Worth on the occasion of her forty-second birthday.

The party was quietly arranged by intimate friends and the lady was completely surprised, she was most graciously embarrassed, however, by the unexpected party and unbidden guests, and in a short time had made arrangements for their comfort and welfare.

After a short reception a programme of music was rendered by Peter Marker, Charles Miller and Fred Pelegrini. The party was most enjoyable and a substantial supper. Cigars were afterwards passed and dancing was kept up until long after midnight. The guests departed about 2 o'clock, after visiting Mrs. Worth and her husband the best of entertainers.

A building of the St. Vincent Total Abstinence and Prohibition society will be held in the morning at 10 o'clock, and officers for the ensuing term will be installed.

The concert given Tuesday night by the Dunmore and local teams, will be a financial success, and a most successful one was realized.

A number of the representatives of Republicans of this city gathered last night in the Masonic hall, on Stone street, for the purpose of organizing a North-South Republican club. The following officers were elected: President, Otto D. Myers, vice-president, E. J. O'Donnell, secretary, G. W. Tague, treasurer, Fred W. Tague, and reporter, John J. O'Donnell. A constitution for the club was also adopted.

No less than forty medals were awarded last night. The club is not to be a temporary affair but one of permanent character, and it is believed the organization will be of great interest in party affairs among the Republicans of North-South.
