WILL ENFORCE SUNDAY CLOSING

Orders Issued by Mayor Kilpatrick to Chief of Police McAndrew to Arrest Violators of the Sunday Closing Laws-Saloonkeepers, Merchants and Others Who Have Been Disregarding the Laws with Impunity.

Merchants and saloonkeepers and al others, who have been violating the Sunday closing laws, were notified yes terday that the laxity of their observance of the law must cease and give way to a religious adherence to the same, or arrests would follow. The order came from Mayor Kilpatrick and was given to Chief McAndrew who immediately set out on his mission of informing those whose observance of the law was in question, as well as all saloonkeepers and merchants who were known to make sales on Sunday morning. If all were not apprised yesterday of the mayor's purpose to give Carbondale a "closed Sunday, they will be informed before Sunday, so as to be fully warned as to

It can be stated that Mayor Kilpatrick has been asked to take this move, the petition arising from the fact that flagrant violations of the law have been noticed and are known to have continued for many weeks. This had the effect of stirring up the indignation and protest of a good number of citizens, among them the clergy of the city, who brought the condition of the Sabbath before the mayor for his action. To bring about a more strict observance of the law the order was sent from the mayor to the chief of police to insist that there be no violations whatever.

cluded to make the movement consist-There is another factor in the movement against merchants who perpetuate the "open" Sunday. This is the Retail Merchants' Protective association of Carbondale, Umbrage was taken by this organization against certain merchants who appeared to be doing a profitable Sabbath business, while their neighbors' doors were closed. At a recent meeting of common council a resolution was introduced, requesting action against these

The laws under which the violators are amenable are the old blue law and a city ordinance. The former is the least severe. The penalty prescribed therein is a fine of $4 and costs. In the city ordinance, which was passed in 1899, the penalty is greater, the minimum fine being $3 and the maximum

LAFE SMITH TO RESIGN.

The Heroic Village Policeman, of Waymart, to Relinquish Office.

The good people of Waymart seemed destined to suffer a severe loss some of these days. Lafayette Smith-Lafe, by way of the short circuit-the heroic village policeman, whose name makes trespassing fishermen from over the Moosics shiver, is going to resign his office of constable of the borough of Waymart and chief of detectives of Wayne county.

Lafe is going to step down and out. No more will the law-evading fishermen from Scranton and such places, tremble as they steal surreptitiously, or otherwise, to Lake Lodore and defy Lafayette and incidentally tempt fate by decoying the forbidden pickerel and catfish from the lake's depths. Lafe, if he has not already drawn up his resignation, will do so in a few days. He so informed The Tribune man at Honesdale a few days ago, and also spoke of his plans for the future.

"Yes, I'm a-goin' out o' the constable business," continued Lafayette, when The Tribune man recovered from his

"You see, I'm a-gittin' thred of it," the wise-looking vidocq went on to explain. "Yes, I'm a-gittin' tired. I had it so many years, you know; and mebbe some one else wants a turn at it. I

WILL STOP CRITICISM.

The Right of Constable Neary and Chief McAndrew to Arrest Nathan

Cobb Clearly Established. The conviction of Nathan Cobb. the eccentric old hermit, who murderously assaulted Constable Edward Neary, will be the means of ending the critieism that was feeely made among Cobb's friends after the happening. The cry was raised that Constable Neary and Chief of Police McAndrew had ac right to go to Cobb's Louse, on the night of May 13, without a warrant. It was clearly established, however, tha the police had been informed that Cobb had almost nurdered Dempsey and Osborn, and it was the right and duty of the officers to apprehend the assassing On this point Judge Edwards partieularly instructed the jury. The settlement of this point, as to : policeman's right to act in a case of this character, will have its effect in several ways, but especially in silencing the sharp and caustic tongues of persons who have jumped at criticizing the police of this city in taking vigorous action in cases like the one which serves as an illustration, when there was no time to be lost in swearing cut

CRANE-STOCKER

NUPTIALS

Gorgeous Nuptial Event at the First

Presbyterian Church. wedding ceremony attended with all the richness of display that goes to make these events splendid and gorgeous, was solemnized at the First Presbyterian church last night in the union of Miss Marion Crane, daughter of

Frank R. Stocker, of Jermyn. It was a nuptial event over which society has been agog for weeks, and the pleasurable interest and excitement which it created were strikingly attested by the splendid gathering at the church, which was a beautiful picture of light and color, formed by the illuminations and the bright robes of the guests, who filled every part of the pretty edifice. It was 8 o'clock when the bridal party reached the church, and when the first joyful strains of the wedding march broke forth the expectancy of the animated guests reached its height.

The three nisles were occupied by the party. The bride with her brother, Dwight L. Crane, marched up the center; the white-robed bridesmaids nade a beautiful moving picture of olor as they proceeded up the right aisle, and the ushers, in their sombre vening dress, offered a pretty contrast s they marched up the other aisle.

From the Sunday school room came he groom and his best man, Claude Stocker, his brother, followed by Rev. Charles E. Lee, the paster, who was to solemnize the nuptials. The pulpit was ost behind a bank of green, palms and ferns hiding it. Here the bridal party disposed of itself, forming a beautiful tableau, when the pastor began the solemn service. The rites were impres-sively gone through, while the prayerful and heartfelt wishes went up from the throng of friends who gathered to participate in the joyful ceremony While the bridal party remained before he pulpit, Prof. Thomas rendered the eautiful "Hearts and Flowers," When he nuptials were completed and the procession commenced, Mendelssohn's narch was feelingly rendered. The bride was numerously attended. The matron of honor was Mrs. George Winfield Scott, of Philadelphia; the bridesmaids, Miss Mabel Hutchings, of Moosie; Miss Clara Norton, of Cataaugua; Miss Eunice Lathrope, of Scranton, and Miss Florence Harrison, t this city. George Lathrope, of Nev fork city; Frank Booth, of New York ity; Ralph Rymer, of Clinton, N. Y. and Albert Crane, brother of the bride of Carbondale, were ushers. Miss Crane's queenly appearance was phanced by her beautiful wedding gown, which was of white satin and duchess lace, and veil. The bridesmaids were pretty gowns of white or gandle, over silk, with decorations o Nile green. They carried pink chrysinthemums, tied with pink silk.

After the ceremony there was the reption at the home of the bride, on zincoln avenue, which was respiendent with pink and green decorations, the colors of the Fortnightiy club, of which former home. the bride was a prominent member Fuhrman did the decorating, and Han ley catered with his accustomed style and finish.

AMUSEMENTS.

Shadow Pictures by Maro.

Shadowgraphy is the art of making life-like shadow silhouettes with the hands by projecting them on a white ereen with the aid of a powerful light. Maro, the magician, is probably the reatest living exponent of this art. To see Maro's shadowgraphies is to ce figures of real, every-day life. You see the lover serenade his sweetheart, and the laughable interruption by the father; the fisherman who successfully fishes; the jockey ride the prancing steed, the old maid puff and powder, besides animals and faces innumerable. WHEN LOVE INVITES

The woman follows the man of her choice though the path leads out of Eden into a world untrodden and untried. What is her reward! Many a time when her health is broken by the burdens she has borne for the man's sake, her reward is to see him turn from her to seek rosier cheeks and brighter eyes. It is man's nature to crave beauty in the wife as in the maid. And what woman is there, who would not be happy to keep her maiden bloom when motherhood has crowned her wifely happiness? Some women seem to have found this secret of perpetual youth. "Age cannot wither them." They have learned that fairness of face and form depend upon the health, and that the general health depends upon the local womanly health. They establish regularity of the periods. They dry the disagreeable drains which draw the luster from the eyes and the vermilion from the lips as well as sap the body's strength. They quench the internal fires of inflammation in which the very elements of beauty are consumed. They heal the ulcer which gnaws into the very life. They walk the world as wonders—women exempt from the sacrifice to love. How have they done this? By the use of Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription, which makes weak women strong and sick women well. It matters not how weak the woman is, or how sick she is, "Favorite Prescription" will cure the womaly ills that vex her; will round out the sunken curves of her form, put light in her eyes, tint her cheeks with health's carnation, and make her a glad and happy woman. Hundreds of thousands of women testify to the truth of these statements. Let every ailing woman read the two testimonials given below and remember that these two women speak for more than half a million other women cured by the skill of the Pierre and by the use of his "Favorite Prescription"

"I can't describe the misery it was to be on my feet long at a time. I could not eat nor sleep. Often I wished to die. Then I saw Dr. Pierce's medicines advertised and thought I would try them. Had not taken one bottle till I was feeling well. After I had taken five bottles of 'Favorite Prescription' and one of 'Golden Medical Discovery' I was like a new woman. Could eat and sleep and do all my own work. I would entreat of any lady suffering from female weakness to give Dr. Pierce's Prescription a fair trial, for I know the benefit she

I had been in poor health for four years. Suffered greatly with my right side, also with bearing-down pains, and my nerves were in a dreadful state. After using four bottles of your 'Favorite Prescription' I am now well. I am the mother of two children. With the first child I suffered twentyeight hours, and with the second I used your medicine and was sick only three hours. I believe Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription to be the best medicine in the world for suffering females. I wish you great success, and hope that God will bless you in your noble work."
