

WEST SCRANTON

SMOKER AND SOCIAL HOUR

ENJOYED BY THE MEMBERS OF HEPTASOPHS.

West Side Conclave, No. 211, Entertained Judge Carpenter and Other Visitors Last Evening After Their Business Meeting—Two Cases Before Alderman Kellow—T. E. Price Wins First Prize in Show Window Contest—Coming Events—Notes and Personal.

West Side conclave, No. 211, improved Order of Heptasophs, held a social session in Loretto hall last evening after their business meeting, which was attended by Hon. Judge Carpenter and several other visitors. The social session was presided over by Louis A. Howell, who made a few introductory remarks.

Instrumental selections were rendered by Prof. George Martin in a clever manner, and David Jenkins sang several solos in his usual fine voice. H. A. Parsons delivered himself of a prize-winning speech on the benefits of "Heptasophs," and the benefits to be derived therefrom.

Dr. M. J. Williams also spoke of the advantage of life insurance, which is more essential in life than in business. No insurance is safe if it is cheap, the doctor said, and the increased rate is beneficial. Remarks were also made along similar lines by Thomas Langan, E. D. Jones, E. E. Evans, T. J. Reynolds, Judge Carpenter and others.

Judge Carpenter was called upon to say a few words, and he said he considered the Order of Heptasophs a very commendable one, and stated that he has been a member of the Green Ridge conclave for over eleven years, and during that time he has not missed more than ten meetings. He said he enjoys the meetings very much, and enjoys the fraternalism as well.

At the close of the social session the members, visitors and guests adjourned to the club rooms, where refreshments were enjoyed.

The committee in charge of last night's affair was L. A. Howell, John R. Williams and William E. Scott.

The conclave will celebrate their tenth anniversary on December 11, with another event similar to last night's, only on a more elaborate scale.

Address to Women by the Treasurer of the W. C. T. U. of Kansas City, Mrs. E. C. Smith.

"MY DEAR SISTERS:—I believe in advocating and upholding everything that will lift up and help women, and but little use appears all knowledge and energy if you have not the health to enjoy it.

"Having found by personal experience that Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound is a medicine of rare virtue, and having seen dozens of cases where my suffering sisters have been dragged back to life and usefulness from an untimely grave simply by the use of a few bottles of this Compound, I must proclaim its virtues, or should not be doing my duty to suffering mothers and dragged-out housekeepers.

"Dear Sister, is your health poor, do you feel worn out and used up, especially do you have any of the troubles which beset our sex, take my advice; let the doctors alone, try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound; it is better than any and all doctors, for it cures and they do not."
