

Here are ten crullers, made from Cleveland's Baking Powder, entire cost—a few cents only. They are light, sweet and crisp—perfectly delicious. These qualities come from the use of Cleveland's Baking Powder, which makes the best food at least cost. What so delicious with breakfast or lunch as a crisp cruller with the coffee?

CLEVELAND BAKING POWDER CO.
NEW YORK

SOUTH SCRANTON

MEETING OF REPUBLICAN COMMITTEEMEN.

Hon. John J. Scheuer Was Chairman, and Addresses Were Made by the Candidates. County Chairman Taylor and Others—Funeral of George Reusch from His Late Residence on Palm Street—Fourteen Friends Are Arranging a Reception for Mr. and Mrs. Best.

The Republican county and district committeemen held a largely attended and enthusiastic session in Athletic hall last night, and most encouraging reports were heard from all sections of the South Side. Hon. John J. Scheuer was chairman, and James Shorten, of the Twentieth ward, acted as secretary. The reports from each district were made by the workers and every district was heard from. Their canvass showed that a hearty and healthy response was made by the citizens of their various districts, and presences were noted from the Republican ticket from top to bottom. Judge J. W. Carpenter, County controller E. S. Jones and Coroner J. J. Roberts were present and addressed the workers.

Addresses were also made by County Chairman Herbert L. Taylor, Recorder of Deeds Emil Bonn and Hon. John J. Scheuer. The meeting, which might more appropriately be called a grand rally of the Republican workers of this side, was the means of infusing new life in the campaign, and from now on a determined effort will be made to get out every vote on November 5. Another meeting of the committee will be held before election.

Laid at Rest.

George Reusch, an aged resident, who died Monday evening, was laid at rest with appropriate services yesterday afternoon at 2 o'clock. Services were held at the residence, 725 Palm street, by Rev. Jacob Witke, of the Christ Lutheran church, and interment was afterwards made in the Minooka cemetery.

The pall-bearers were chosen from the Arbitrators, as follows: August Miller, David Schmitt, Charles Motter and Gottlieb Kizer. The flowers, which were numerous, were borne by members of the Carpenters' union, as follows: Ulrich Ziebold, Vincent Winkler and Edward Reisch.

To Honor a Comrade.

A largely attended meeting of the Fourteen Friends was held last evening in Best's hotel parlor, to take action on the case of Andrew Best, who recently entered the ranks of benefactors, and thereby made himself liable to run the gauntlet of the remaining members.

A committee was appointed, as follows: John Lentz, Ben Moore and George Miller, who were authorized to arrange a reception for Mr. and Mrs. Best on their return from their honeymoon.

NUBS OF NEWS.

Councilman Charles Gehr and Fred Weichsel are enjoying a fishing trip, and will return home today.

The remains of Mrs. Michael Davis, of Oak hill, were interred at Minooka cemetery yesterday. Services were held in St. Joseph's church, Minooka, and the funeral arrangements were in charge of Undertaker Neesham.

A surprise party was tendered Miss Helen O'Hoyle, of Irving avenue, Wednesday evening and a very enjoyable time was spent by a large gathering of young people. Refreshments were served, and dancing was indulged in for several hours.

Division No. 2, Ladies' auxiliary of Ancient Order of Hibernians, met in the basement of St. John's church last evening.

The Halloween party to be given this evening by the Loyalty club of the Young Women's Christian Association promises to be a very pleasant affair. Along with other Halloween fancies, the gipsy fortune-teller will be quite a feature. Every member of the club is expected to be present. Refreshments will be served.

A baby boy has arrived at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Edward McDonough, of Hickory street.

Mrs. Conrad Schaffer has changed her residence from 715 Prospect avenue to 821 Fifth street.

A meeting of General Grant commandery, Knights of Malta, will be held in Hartman's hall this evening.

The Mount Brook club essayed to lower the colors of the Defender basketball team in St. John's hall, on Stone

NORTH SCRANTON.

The funeral of the late Michael Jordan, who died early Tuesday morning, took place yesterday morning from his late home, 220 West Market street. At 10 o'clock the cortège moved to the Holy Rosary church, where a solemn high mass of requiem was said for the repose of the soul of Michael Jordan, after which the remains were borne to the Erie Park Cemetery. The pall bearers were John Mignard, John Langan, P. T. Braun, John Holstein, Hahn, P. M. Mohr and Joseph Messing. The honor bearers were Joseph F. Evans, P. J. Louis, Patrick O'Malley and Edward Gallagher.

The Scranton Bicycling corps, in charge of lunched cars, exhibited an auto on North Main avenue, in front of the Christian church yesterday afternoon about 9 o'clock. One of the cars had a few passengers aboard and stopped in front of the church to let a young lad off, when another car came along at rapid speed and ran into the first car just as the lad alighted from the rear platform. The windows in both cars were smashed, while the fender of the last car was rendered metal. The alarm of fire, sounded from box 85 yesterday afternoon, was caused by a fire in a barn at Huben and Windfall street, owned by Alex. Colting. The fire was caused by children, who were playing around the barn with matches. The loss will amount to about $400.

The Delaware and Hudson company paid dividends at the Aten, Stover, Dickson, Marion and the Lehigh Valley railroads yesterday afternoon.

The Women's Christian Temperance union will meet at the home of Mrs. Belle Von Stover, 610 East Market street, this afternoon at 2 o'clock.

The Green Ridge State half team will play the Green Ridge State this afternoon at the Old Spring Park grounds.

The Crackjacks will have the High Works team as their opponents in a game of baseball to be played in the Auditorium this evening.

Daniel Hartzel was pleasantly surprised at his home in the neighborhood yesterday evening by a few of his many friends. Family and other acquaintances were invited to make a welcome home when refreshments were served, after which the guests departed for their respective homes. Those present were: Misses Georgia Cino, Ruth Parry, Blanche Walter, Belle Robinson, Ruth Constantine, Anna Schaeffer, Daniel Hartzel and Bella Hirschfeld, Misses Sidney, Emma, Teitel, Joseph Watkins, Ernest Shewell, Roberta White, William Bechtel, George Wheeler, Charles Brant, Daniel Hartzel, Roy Miller, Stanley Miller, James Laird and Raymond Bohrman.

The Providence Women's Christian Temperance union will hold a business meeting tomorrow at 7 p.m. in the parlor of the home of Mrs. Belle Von Stover, 610 East Market street. All women and girls will be welcome.

The North Scranton Republican club met Wednesday evening in Alderman Myrick's office and decided to rent the hall adjoining the Alderman's office. They will meet again next Wednesday evening to agree on the fundings for the room. There will be a meeting of the Providence

Women's Christian Temperance union at 612 East Market street, this afternoon at 3 o'clock.

DUNMORE.

The recent rain at the Union Carbide stores, on Chestnut street, has now extended down Shore maker avenue, and yesterday the property of Peter H. Bradley was considerably damaged. A large trunk containing some valuable papers in the house has rolled out on the floor and windows cannot be moved. It is said that the estimated value of property in that section agree that damages done to the surface shall be collectible from the company holding the end. This clause is not included in many deeds in town.

One of the excursion Bicycling cars, in charge of lunched cars, exhibited an auto on North Main avenue, in front of the Christian church yesterday afternoon about 9 o'clock. One of the cars had a few passengers aboard and stopped in front of the church to let a young lad off, when another car came along at rapid speed and ran into the first car just as the lad alighted from the rear platform. The windows in both cars were smashed, while the fender of the last car was rendered metal. The alarm of fire, sounded from box 85 yesterday afternoon, was caused by a fire in a barn at Huben and Windfall street, owned by Alex. Colting. The fire was caused by children, who were playing around the barn with matches. The loss will amount to about $400.

The Delaware and Hudson company paid dividends at the Aten, Stover, Dickson, Marion and the Lehigh Valley railroads yesterday afternoon.

The Green Ridge State half team will play the Green Ridge State this afternoon at the Old Spring Park grounds.

The Crackjacks will have the High Works team as their opponents in a game of baseball to be played in the Auditorium this evening.

Daniel Hartzel was pleasantly surprised at his home in the neighborhood yesterday evening by a few of his many friends. Family and other acquaintances were invited to make a welcome home when refreshments were served, after which the guests departed for their respective homes. Those present were: Misses Georgia Cino, Ruth Parry, Blanche Walter, Belle Robinson, Ruth Constantine, Anna Schaeffer, Daniel Hartzel and Bella Hirschfeld, Misses Sidney, Emma, Teitel, Joseph Watkins, Ernest Shewell, Roberta White, William Bechtel, George Wheeler, Charles Brant, Daniel Hartzel, Roy Miller, Stanley Miller, James Laird and Raymond Bohrman.

The Providence Women's Christian Temperance union will hold a business meeting tomorrow at 7 p.m. in the parlor of the home of Mrs. Belle Von Stover, 610 East Market street. All women and girls will be welcome.

The North Scranton Republican club met Wednesday evening in Alderman Myrick's office and decided to rent the hall adjoining the Alderman's office. They will meet again next Wednesday evening to agree on the fundings for the room. There will be a meeting of the Providence

THE SMITH PREMIER TYPEWRITER

Occupies an Imperishable Position in the BUSINESS WORLD.

Unquestionable Superior Merit

Annually adds thousands of names to the long list of Smith Premier users, representing every line of trade and every profession

ILLUSTRATED CATALOGUE FREE.

The Smith Premier Typewriter Co.,
No. 23 S. Eighth St., Philadelphia, Pa.
Scranton Branch Office, Nos. 1 and 3, Arcade Building.

HENRY BELIN, JR.,

General Agent for the Wyoming District for

Dupont's Powder

Mining, Blasting, Sporting, Smelting and the Reposo Chemical Company's

HIGH EXPLOSIVES.

Safety Fuse, Caps and Explosives. Room 401 Connell Building, Scranton.

AGENCIES.

THOS. FORD Pittston
JOHN B. SMITH & SON Plymouth
W. E. MULLIGAN Wilkes-Barre

11 a.m., E. M. Hallinan, 1 p.m., O. W. Pet-terson, 5 p.m., F. J. Rogers, 6 p.m., Wm.
Harris, J. J. Costello's crew.

Summers, Pittston, 11 a.m., east, J. H. Hammill; 8

8 a.m., Wm. W. Nichols, 11 a.m., west, M. Golden;

5 p.m., east, J. Corrigan; 8 a.m., west, M. Golden;

5 p.m., east, from Nov. 1st, A. E. McAllister;

7 p.m., east, from Nov. 1st, J. McAllister;