WILT THOU BE MADE WHOLE?

THEME OF REV. SPENCER C. DICKSON'S SERMON.

The Only Way to Secure Salvation Is by Professing Christ—Miss Elsie Acker Entertains Little Folks. Young Boy Missing from Home. Boy Struck by the Cars—Harvest Dinner and Social—Notes About People and Other Items of Interest.

Rev. Spencer C. Dickson, of Philadelphia, son of A. W. Dickson, of this city, occupied the pulpit of the Summer Avenue Presbyterian church last evening and preached a sermon based on passages found in the fourth and fifth chapters of John's Epistles. These refer to Christ's action at Jacob's well and the pool of Bethesda.

In these instances, the speaker said, Christ performed miracles that were amazing, and asked of the cripple at the pool, "Wilt thou be made whole?" This could only have occurred when the man professed his sin, and so it is today, the only way to secure salvation is by professing Jesus Christ.

Religion does not consist of freedom from pain, bodily health and strength, soul strength and safety. Christ's cleansing of men merely illustrated his power to dispense spiritual power and welfare. For only those that are pure in heart, their souls will inherit the Kingdom of God.

In the salvation which comes to all men, Christ makes the first step and the many miracles recorded in the Bible are merely illustrations of God's power to redeem.

Missing from Home.
Walter Natman, aged 17 years, has been missing from home, 327 North Fourth street, since Friday morning. He has a fair complexion, is tall, and is wearing a blue and white striped shirt, with black and white trousers.

When he last home he wore a mixed green suit, Oxford grey overcoat with a black velvet collar, white and pink striped shirt, with black and white bow tie.

Young Natman is about 5 feet, 7 inches in height, and weighs 140 pounds. He has a fair complexion, dark eyes and dark brown hair.

Neckwear Means More to Ladies of Fashion This Year.

Than it ever meant before during the life of the present generation. Just why would be hard to answer with any degree of certainty, but we think that its intrinsic beauty and wealth of styles suitable for all occasions, and types of feminine loveliness has much to do with it; for it is a fact that no woman of taste need adorn herself with neckwear that is not becoming to her particular style of beauty, as the designers have left no stone unturned to adapt their excellent creations to every type of womanhood. But the greatest surprise to intelligent buyers, is that the

New Beauties in Neckwear
Cost so little money. We hear comments of this sort every day, and we are vain enough to think them well merited.

Neckwear Prices Range from $1.00 For Nice Styles to $10.00 For Superb Creations.

Ruffs Take the Lead
Of course, for Dame Fashion has said so. But there are Ruffs and Ruffs. We've got the smart, swell kind, in

Liberty Satins, Crepe De Chine, China Silks, Chiffon Taffetas, and Some Choice Extreme Novelties
Not to be seen elsewhere in Scranton. Besides these, there are

Fur and Feather Creations
Shown on a larger scale than ever and under more favorable conditions, in the Ladies' Outfitting Quarters, at rear of the Dress Goods Store.

Ostrich Feather Boas, Fur Scarfs, with Cluster of Tails, Long and Short Fox Boas Muff and Scarf Sets to Match, Etc.

There's no end to the assortment and there's no equal in this city to the values we offer. Besides this, no other firm in town has half the good styles to show you that we have.

Special Display of Neckwear
Every day this week. Inquirers are just as welcome as buyers, for they're sure to talk about what they see to their friends.

A Juvenile Party.

Miss Elsie Acker celebrated her twelfth birthday anniversary at the home of her mother, 422 South Main avenue, Saturday afternoon, between the hours of 4 and 8. Her little friends, the members of this city, assembled there and participated in and enjoyed all the pleasures incident to occasions of this kind, and the many pretty gifts that Miss Elsie received attest to her popularity among her young associates.

Dainty refreshments, cakes, fruit and ice cream were served by Misses Helen Hagen, Sara Williams, Helen Gillette and Ruth Acker, who also assisted in their various amusements. The following little ones were present: Corinne Moore, Mary Evans, Hannah Wilkins, Ruth Carson, Ruth Williams, Harriet Thomas, Adeline Thro, Kate Davis, Martha James, Marion Hall, May Davis, Jeanette Fellows, Elsie Struppel, Joannette Struppel, Edith Shaffer, Joseph Whitman, Mary Hughes, Pearl Jeffrey, Harriet Acker, Margaret Acker, Beatrice Woodling, Langston Lutz, Roy Woodling, Ralph Whitman, Murray Acker, John Hall.

Boy Struck by Street Car.

Thomas, the 4-year-old son of Mrs. and Mrs. Thomas Flaherty, of West Lehigh street, was run down by a street car on Saturday afternoon and quite severely injured. The little fellow was playing with a number of companions near the intersection of South Main avenue and West Lehigh street, when car No. 12, in charge of two imported men, coming along before he could be stopped, knocked the child down. Fortunately, the little fellow tumbled away from the car, and escaped with a severe scalp wound and bodily bruises. Dr. H. G. Babbler and Dr. W. Kowland Davis were called and attended the child, and the accident caused much excitement.

Rally Day Exercises.

The Sunday school of the Simpson Methodist Episcopal church held Rally Day exercises yesterday morning, instead of the regular preaching service and Sabbath school exercises. The main occasion was filled with children and their parents, who thoroughly enjoyed the services.

The opening number was a song by the school, which was followed by prayer by Superintendent George L. Beck. Another song was rendered by the choir, and the responsive reading was from Gen. 18:1-8. Master Arthur Beck rendered a solo, and the school joined in the chorals. The primary department also sang.

The rally day meeting was given by a class of sixteen girls, including Misses Kate Davis, Ruth Williams, Ruth Carson, Myra Smith, Harriet Thomas, Marguerite Utt, Ruth Bryant, Marion Hill, Elsie Acker, Jessie Flores, Florence Flores, Mildred Wrigley, Adeline Thro, Ruth Fellows, Pearl Bryant and Pearl Joffrey.

After another song by the school, the pastor, Rev. H. C. McDermott, delivered a short address to the children, in which he pictured to them the life of Christ and how he died to save the world. The exercises were closed with a song by the school, and benediction by the pastor.

Harvest Dinner and Social.

Extensive preparations are being made for the harvest dinner and social which will be held at Meers' hall next Wednesday evening for the benefit of St. Patrick's Catholic church. The affair will be in charge of Branch 97, L. C. B. A., and Branch 44, C. M. B. A., and this alone insures the success of the undertaking.

Halloween Night Events.

The Ladies of St. Cecilia's Total Abstinence and Benevolent society, assisted by the members of St. Leo's battalion, will hold a ribbon social at Meers' hall next Thursday evening. A "country school" will be the programme at the Electric City Wheeling on their stag next Thursday evening, when prizes will be awarded for the most unique make-up, appealing contest and other events.

Recent Mine Accidents.

Isaac J. Davis, 224 South Main avenue, an employe at the Bellevue colliery, had his foot caught in a "stretch" while running a trip of cars, and severely lacerated the member.

Joshua Elias, of South Lehigh street, a miner employed in the Bellevue, had his face injured by a flying pick recently.

Conrad Donovan, of Exton street, had one of his fingers caught and severed between two cars at the Bellevue recently.

TROUBLE BEGINS

At the Same Point with Scranton People as Elsewhere.

Trouble begins with the first backache. The serious trouble too—kidney trouble. Neglect means other pains more dangerous. Urinary disorders quickly follow. Doan's Kidney Pills cure all kidney ills. And are endorsed by Scranton citizens.

Mrs. E. S. Jones, of 109 Lafayette street, says: "Stiffness of the knees, blotching around the ankles, pain across the loins when stooping, bitter anguish or when I exerted myself, clearly proved I had kidney complaint. Doan's Kidney Pills were brought to my notice through an advertisement I saw in one of our papers and I procured a box from Matthews Brothers' drug store. I followed up the treatment until I used several boxes. The lameness and the blotching disappeared. I know of others in Scranton who used Doan Kidney Pills and obtained great relief."

For sale by all dealers. Price, 50 cents. Foster-McBum Co., Buffalo, N. Y., sole agents for the United States. Remember the name, Doan's, and take no other.

United States Cavalry for service in the Philippines.

Mrs. Fred Davis, of North Lehigh avenue, is visiting friends in Philadelphia. David Dicky, of South Fourth avenue, is attending his father in Susquehanna county, who is seriously ill. Miss Myrtle Ratzburg, of North Main avenue, entertained a large party of young people at her home recently.

Washburn Street Presbyterians.

At the services yesterday, "tabernacles" were furnished to all who were willing to use them for the purpose of raising enough money to meet the additional expenses for the year. It is desired that each person having taken one of the tabernacles, on Jackson street, on or before Dec. 22 they can return it with an increase of one dollar or more.

Our people very much regret the resignation of Miss Lydia Sider, who has been our soprano singer for the past four years. Her resignation is a most remunerative position at the Episcopal church, Carbondale.

Thursday the ladies of the church will hold an all-day session. Lunch will be served for the small sum of 15 cents each. Sabbath the monthly offering for home missions will be received at the Bible school session. The orchestra continues to improve and ably assist in the music.

The Misses Sanders will give a musical at their home, on Elm street, Thursday evening, Nov. 7, for the benefit of the church.

The "Old Union" society will hold an important meeting in their room this evening at 8 o'clock.

Events of This Evening.

The anniversary committee of Esther Assembly, A. O. U. W., will meet this evening at the home of Mrs. McArthur, to complete arrangements for the celebration to be held on October 30 at Finley's hall.

The Leek Glee and Social club will hold their annual banquet this evening at Enoch Evans' hotel on Jackson street.

A most unusual and interesting entertainment will be given by the young ladies of Prof. Back's Elm Park Sunday school class on Monday evening in gymnasium hall. It has been rightly named a "Phantom social" and is the most successful social given by the Lancaster Y. M. C. A. two years ago. A special invitation is extended to the visiting teachers of the County Institute to attend. The proceeds are to go toward the talent fund of the class. All are invited.

The fourteenth anniversary of Bald Eagle tribe, No. 102, Improved order of Red Men, will be celebrated this evening in Red Men's hall with an entertainment and social session.

GENERAL NEWS NOTES.

Miss Elizabeth Roberts, of North Everett avenue, entertained the members of the Young Ladies' Auxiliary of the Simpson Methodist Episcopal church at her home on Saturday evening.

The intermediate grade of the First Welsh Baptist Young People's Union will conduct a Welsh tea at the church on Wednesday afternoon.

W. W. Adair, secretary of the Railroad Young Men's Christian Association, occupied the pulpit of the Hampton street Methodist Episcopal church last evening.

St. Brendan's council minstrel troupe was recognized yesterday by Prof. J. T. Working as instructor. They will give a performance at a date to be announced later.

The Electric City Wheelmen Glee club will meet tomorrow evening at the club house, for rehearsal. All members are requested to be present.

Frank Bloss, of Twenty-second street, and James Early, of Jackson street, had injuries dressed at the West Side hospital early yesterday morning.
