SPEICHER-STURDEVANT.

Ceremony Performed by Father Griffin at St. Peter's Cathedral.

One of the most charming, October weddings of the year was solemnized yesterday, when Miss Clara Florentina M. Speicher and Edwin J. Sturdevant, prominent young people of this city, were united in marriage. The ceremony was performed in St. Peter's cathedral at 4 o'clock, before a large gathering of friends. Father J. J. Griffin was the officiating clergyman. To the pleasing strains of the "Bridal Chorus" played by Prof. W. P. Schilling, the bridal party proceeded down the aisle. The bride wore a handsome gown of pearls, trimmed with point lace, and carried roses. She was attended by Miss Lou A. Fisher, of Wilkes-Barre, who wore a dress of royal blue material, and carried carnations. Edward A. White, of this city, was best man.

After the wedding a reception was held at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Speicher, of 223 Prescott avenue. The house was beautifully decorated. A large number of guests were present to extend their well-wishes to the young couple, and during the evening a number of congratulatory telegrams were received from various parts of the country. Supper was served by Hanley.

Upon their return from the wedding tour, the young couple will take up their residence at 325 Prescott avenue.

The bride is a handsome and talented young lady, who is very popular among the young people of this city. The groom, Mr. Sturdevant, is one of the city's most promising young business men.

The out-of-town guests present were: Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Keller and daughter Flora, Mr. and Mrs. John Allen and daughter Josephine, Mr. and Mrs. Gustav Fisher and daughter Gertrude, Miss Emma Fisher, Miss Lou A. Fisher, and Mrs. Lena Keller, of Wilkes-Barre; Mr. and Mrs. John Negan and family, of Carbondale; Mr. John McNulty, of Carbondale; and Mr. and Mrs. Albert Kuenzel, of Philadelphia.

D. B. ATHERTON INJURED.

Secretary of Board of Trade and Wife in a Runaway.

Secretary Dolph B. Atherton, of the board of trade, and his wife, had narrow escapes from serious injury on Tuesday afternoon when both were thrown from a carriage near their home on Providence road.

Mrs. Atherton was seated in the buggy and her husband was about to get in beside her when the horse became frightened at a passing team and gave a sudden start. Mrs. Atherton was thrown out, but Mr. Atherton held on to the reins until he had been dragged about fifty feet, when he let go. The animal started toward town and was not stopped until near the Allis-Chalmers works.

Mr. Atherton sustained a badly injured knee and severe body bruises, while his wife received a bruised face and lacerated hands. The buggy was totally wrecked.

Thed diagram for the high school lecture and entertainment course has been placed at Powell's music store, where the remaining ticket-holders can reserve seats for the entire course. Single admissions reserved seats three days before any number. The course will open Monday, November 4, with a concert by the Park street and a recital by the Park street.

AGAIN IT CELEBRATES.

Dime Bank Officers Entertained by Director Goldsmith in Honor of Increase of Deposits.

The officers of the Dime Deposit and Discount bank enjoyed another commemorative dinner last night. It was given at the Scranton club by Director Sol Goldsmith and was commemorative of the bank's deposits reaching the $1,000,000 mark.

There were present Simon Lauer, David Spruiks, C. H. Schadt, James Pith, W. J. Lewis, M. H. Dale, Solomon Goldsmith, E. J. Lyneet, C. S. Seaman, W. J. Garney, R. G. Brooks, Charles du Pont Brock, A. L. Francois, George B. Jerny, H. D. Smith and C. H. Hess.

The dinner was served under the direction of the club's manager, H. F. Wilkins, and was a very elaborate affair. The ten-course menu was as follows:

Roast chicken, Chicken, Chicken, Chicken, Chicken, Chicken, Chicken, Chicken, Chicken, Chicken.

In the center of the table was a floral boat composed of 100 American Beauty roses, and about it, in immortelles on a green base, were the figures "1,000,000." Smilax, lilies of the valley and dainty candelabra added to the beautification of the table.

Mr. Goldsmith's favor to each guest was a paper cutter, with a silver blade, and backboned handle, a new silver dime being imbedded at the end of the handle.

AN ALUMNI FORMED.

Graduates of Bloomsburg Normal School Organize and Banquet at the Jermyn.

Graduates of the Bloomsburg State Normal school in this county last night organized in an alumni association. The meeting was held in the Jermyn parlors, on the second floor, and was attended by fifty-three graduates.

Luzerne county has had an alumni organization for the past ten or twelve years, and the Lackawanna graduates have long been striving to form an association. Yesterday was regarded as an opportune time for the forming of such a body, as the county teachers' institute is now being held in this city and it was thought that more teachers could be reached in consequence than under ordinary circumstances.

Dr. J. P. Walsh, principal of the Normal school, and wife, and Prof. G. E. Wilbur, came up especially from Bloomsburg to assist in the organization.

Upon motion of Prof. David Owens, principal of No. 13 school, Prof. Wilbur was made chairman of the meeting. W. H. Jones, of West Scranton, was chosen temporary secretary. The election of officers was then made. Following are the officers: President, J. J. Griffin, of this city; Vice-president, Prof. H. H. Morgan, principal of No. 11; vice-presidents, J. C. Tucker, of Clark's Summit; Miss Martha Vaughan, of Scranton, and Miss Gertrude Reese, secretary-treasurer, Prof. David Owens, corresponding secretary, Miss Besse Davy, of No. 19 school. It was decided that the foregoing officers, together with W. H. Jones, of West Scranton, and Miss Marie Thomas, of No. 25 school, should constitute the executive committee.

After the business session adjournment was taken to the dining room, where a tempting menu was served. Short impromptu speeches were made by the following: President Morgan, Dr. Walsh, Prof. Wilbur, Prof. R. N. Davis, of Dunmore; Prof. Little, of Washington, D. C., and Prof. David Owens.

RUMOR WAS UNFOUNDED.

Men Housed in the Street Car Barns Are Not Ill.

When the report went abroad that the imported ill in the car barns were ill in large numbers, Director of Public Safety Worsner asked Dr. W. E. Allen, superintendent of the bureau of health, to make an investigation. The following letters explain the situation:

Dear Sir: Complaint having been made to the bureau of health that many of the men employed by the Scranton Railway company were seriously ill in the quarters furnished them, and that these places were in a very unsanitary condition, I have to inform you that I, yesterday, made a careful inspection of all buildings so occupied. I found the rooms and beds in good condition and no one complaining of any sickness.

I was informed by the officers in charge that the men who were ill were treated at the Scranton Private hospital. I enclose letter from Dr. Thompson explaining the situation.

Very respectfully,
W. E. Allen,
Superintendent Bureau of Health,
Dr. W. E. Allen, City.

Dear Doctor: We have treated some patients for the season. Many of them were ill with diseases, none of which were contagious or infectious. Most of them were ill with influenza. I have had to sick cases, except those that came to the hospital, and did not know that they were sick at their home quarters or residence.

LAWSUITS ARE VERY LIKELY

COMPANY IS TO PROCEED AGAINST STRIKERS.

Legal Steps to Be Taken to Recover Property of the Company Now in the Possession of the Striking Employees—Explanation of the Strikers' Reasons for Not Giving It Up—General Manager Silliman Declares the Company Needs No Financial Aid.

Suits against the street car strikers for the recovery of property of the company which they have in their possession are among the probabilities. Shortly after the strike was inaugurated the company published a notice calling on the men to return whatever of the company's property they had in their possession, such as punches, transfers, switch turners and the like. The men paid no heed to the notice. Yesterday the company sent its special agent, Morgan Sweeney, among the men to serve them personally with copies of this notice, as the first step in legal proceedings to recover the property. The first man who received one of the notices spurned the agent as to their contents and as a consequence the other men refused to accept them when they were proffered.

This refusal is in line with a resolution, adopted by the strikers early in the strike, which was that none of the men should go to the office to draw their pay and that whatever property of the company the men had possession of should be retained. This was for the purpose of preventing the company from perfecting their discharge, and thereby causing them to forfeit their interest in mutual benefit association.

General Manager Silliman said yesterday that a reasonable time would be allowed the men to return the property and if it was not returned in a reasonable time legal proceedings would be taken to compel them to return it.

STATEMENT OF MEN.

The following statement was given out from strike headquarters last night. It deals mainly with the reason the men are refusing to give up the company property:

Outside indications are very encouraging. So far as indications of the cars is concerned, the situation remains unchanged. The empty cars give evidence that the company is not doing for labor's interest in unswerving and should be conclusive proof to the directors of the company that the strikers' purpose is to steadily, and on a basis of reason and disinterested policy of the management.

At their regular meeting today the men avowed no lack of enthusiasm and expressed absolute faith in their cause. It was a unanimous declaration that the men would not be induced to surrender the property in their possession, and that the company, this property consists of punches, punches and transfers.

There is a relief association connected with the Union company, which has a list of all members. The treasury of this association has been built up by monthly deductions from the wages of the men, and now amounts to $2,000. The laws governing the society are such that if they surrender their wages, etc., the company can declare the men no longer members and thus be able to confiscate the funds of the society.

Many of the men as they came from Carpenters' hall would give the company official no responsibility to give the notices, whereas they would call to the top of their heads, and tracing such attention, demanding the surrender of the property. The incident was a novel one, and served to show the official to be possessed of qualification more characterized by a common street vender, rather than that of a Traction official. The men will take further action on the matter at their meeting tomorrow.

HAD AN EFFECT.

It is quite generally believed here that the Scranton strike had an important bearing on the failure of the Philadelphia street car men to carry out their threat to strike. General Manager Silliman said he felt assured that it was the principal factor in preventing the Philadelphia strikers from their remembrance of their defeat two years ago, and the ill success of the Scranton strike. The Philadelphia men concluded they had better hold off," said Mr. Silliman.

Mr. Silliman was asked if it was true he had been supplied with a $250,000 fund by other street railway companies to help carry on the fight against the strikers. He declined to make answer further than to say that his company did not need any outside assistance.

He then went on to tell of extensive improvements and repairs contemplated among them, the widening of all the central city tracks by the new Lorraine method which obliterates joints and makes a track continuous. This latter work was decided upon yesterday. The company is also to spend $150,000 for new cars and about as much more for relaying tracks.

There are now twenty-three buses plying regularly between the central city and the suburbs and their owners are fairly doing money. One team earned $80 in a week. The strikers claim that the company is operating only thirty-three cars and that it now has less than 100 men in its employ.

Resolutions endorsing the strike and guaranteeing support to the strikers were received yesterday from Mine Workers' locals 1709, 1689 and 1653, of Forest City, 641 of Monaca, and 1749 of Scranton.

TO LUMP APPROPRIATIONS.

Plan Adopted in Allegheny May Be Tried Here.

A movement is on foot, backed by local competition and city officials to lump the appropriations for each bureau in the appropriation ordinance for the next fiscal year.

This plan has been in operation in Allegheny for years. Controller Howell has received a copy of one of the Allegheny appropriation ordinances and it is on file in his office for the inspection of any councilman who may desire to look at it.

The present system of appropriating money in this city provides for an itemizing of every single appropriation. For example if a certain sum of money is appropriated for the bureau of health, it is itemized in the appropriation ordinance something as follows: Salary of health officer, $1000; medicines, printing and stationery, $50; salary of crematory employes, $2,000; funeral expenses of crematory, $100, etc., etc.

The advantage of appropriating the money for each bureau in a lump sum will be the doing away with the necessity of transferring small balances from one account to another. At present if one account is exhausted and a balance remains in another it is necessary to have an ordinance passed providing for a transfer of this balance before it can be touched for any other purpose than that for which it was specifically appropriated. If the appropriation was lumped, the director could use his discretion in expending it.

The lumping of the appropriation would not do away with the itemizing of the estimates, in order that councilmen might see what the money was being appropriated for.

ADDRESS TO MEMBERS OF REPUBLICAN CLUBS

Issued by the President, Hon. Frederic W. Fleitz—Coming Election Considered.

Hon. Frederic W. Fleitz, president of the Pennsylvania State League of Republican Clubs, has issued the following address to the members of the club:

Scranton, Pa., Oct. 29.

To the Pennsylvania State League of Republican Clubs:

The coming election is one of the most important held in this state for many years. Our situation, immediately following the tragic and lamented death of our beloved chief, William McKinley, and the installation into office of that splendid young Republican, Theodore Roosevelt, a deceased majority in the electoral college, Republicanism cannot but have a demoralizing effect upon the other states in the Union, and to react with disastrous results upon the congressional election, to be held next year.

It is the duty, and ought to be the pleasure, of every member enrolled in this strong fighting arm of the party, to devote his time and best energies to maintain the proud position which Republicanism has so long held in the esteem of the people. Let us not be misled by the historical cries of those misguided persons and papers that assume the name of Republicans in their efforts to persuade us to support party tickets and candidates, that seek in their tents or attack us in the rear, whenever the will of the majority is manifestly against them.

The Republican campaign of this year, Hon. William B. Potter and Hon. Frank G. Harris, are worthy and qualified to fill with credit the high and important offices for which they have been nominated. It is our duty to support them, and party they are entitled to and deserve the vote and active support of every true Republican.

I therefore urge every member of every club enrolled under our banner, to make a strenuous effort in these closing hours of the campaign to roll up such a majority for the state and local tickets throughout our glorious commonwealth, as will guarantee us such a successful result, that old Pennsylvania has not received from her former position, but is still loyal to the principles of the party of the free and the true.

Lincoln, Garfield and McKinley.

Frederic W. Fleitz.

NEW HOME FOR THE FIRST NATIONAL BANK

Seymour Davis, of Philadelphia, Selected as Architect—Building Will Cost Over $100,000.

Seymour Davis, of Philadelphia, the architect of the Young Men's Christian association building, has been selected as the architect of the new building which the First National bank is to erect on the site of its present building.

His plans were chosen from among the nineteen sets submitted in competition. They call for a substantial looking and ornate granite and steel building fifty-two feet in height and as long and wide as the present building. It is to cost upwards of $100,000. The new building will be used exclusively by the bank.

A feature of the interior arrangement will be a manganese steel strong-box, twenty feet long, ten feet wide and nine feet high, with walls three and one-half inches in thickness, which will be absolutely burglar proof, and do away with the necessity of safes.

The work of tearing down the old building to make way for the new will be begun in the course of a month. The bank will have temporary quarters in the new Blair building, at 422 Lackawanna avenue, which takes the place of one of the buildings destroyed in the explosion of Aug. 4, 1900. The moving will take place Thanksgiving day.

New Member of D. & H. Board.

New York, Oct. 30.—At a meeting of the board of directors of the Delaware and Hudson company today, C. A. Peabody, Jr., representing the Astor interests, was elected a member to succeed the late Alfred Van Sandtvoort.

BOUND BY FOUR MASKED MEN

BUT 86-YEAR-OLD MRS. WILLIS DIDN'T FAINT.

The Burglars Entered Her Home Near Scott Early Yesterday Morning and Bound and Gagged Both Her and Her Son, Securing Only $1.90 in Money—Plucky Old Woman Worked Herself Free and Went to the Rescue of Her Son, Who Was Nearly Suffocated.

Mrs. "Whistler" Willis, an aged widow nearly 90 years old, but as plucky as if she was only a quarter that age, was bound and gagged by four masked burglars who broke into her home in Scott township at 10 o'clock yesterday morning and succeeded finally in getting all of a dollar and ninety cents.

The burglars burst in the front door and made direct for the old lady's room. They forcibly took hold of her and, when she showed resistance, handled her roughly. She was bound and gagged and tied to the bed. The burglars then entered the room of a son of the aged woman, who was sleeping nearby.

They quickly overpowered him and, after binding his hands, tied a pillow over his face to prevent him from making an outcry. They then ransacked the house, but the only thing they deemed worth taking was $1.90, which they found in a cupboard.

Now the ordinary woman of any age would have been so thoroughly frightened that she would have been powerless to do anything if placed in Mrs. Willis' position. Not so with this old lady of eighty-six, however. She worked and worked at the knot on her hands, and, after an hour's patient trial, succeeded in untying it. She then unfastened the gag and the rest of her fastenings and hastened to her son's room.

She quickly untied the pillow which had been fastened over his head and found him nearly suffocated. He was unconscious and did not regain consciousness until 3 o'clock. When he did he raised the alarm, but the burglars were nowhere to be seen.

Mrs. Willis and her son went to Carbondale yesterday and secured the assistance of Officer Moran, who made an investigation of the premises. Feeling runs high among the neighbors of the Willis' on account of Mrs. Willis' extreme age, and every effort is being made to run down the perpetrators of the outrage.
