

WEST SCRANTON

ST. PATRICK'S PARISHIONERS

CONDUCT A MOST SUCCESSFUL HARVEST DINNER.

Crowd That Thronged Mears' Hall to Participate in the Event Would Have Filled a Hall Twice Its Size. B. Y. P. U. Suppers at Jackson Street and First Welsh Baptist Churches—A Number of Accidents Yesterday—Funeral of Two Old Residents—Many Other Events.

When the members of St. Patrick's parish undertake to do anything for the benefit of the church, they not only succeed, but invariably surpass all expectations, and the harvest dinner and social at Mears' hall last evening was no exception. Successively, so that if the hall was twice as large it would not have been large enough to accommodate at one time all the people who passed in and out of its doors between 6 o'clock and midnight.

A half dozen tables were spread the full length of the hall, at each of which there were room for about one hundred at a sitting, and it is estimated that upwards of fifteen hundred tickets were sold for the dinner, a large proportion of which were served during the evening. The menu consisted of all the seasonable delicacies, and was served by the ladies.

The dinner was in charge of the members of Branch 37, L. C. B. A., and Branch 4, C. M. B. A., and the following general committee:

Branch 37—Mrs. John R. Barrett, Mrs. J. B. McConnon, Mrs. P. J. McCormick, Mrs. Joseph McDonald, Misses Ellen Carey, Anna McFadden, Nellie Richards, Sarah McDonald, Anna McDonald, Margaret King and Tessie Conroy.

Branch 4—J. Sweeney, P. J. Moran, Andrew John Devors, P. J. McConnon, Thomas McGraw, John Wright, James Grant, John Boland and Joseph Fahey.

It was after 11 o'clock when the tables were cleared and dancing was indulged in, but the floor was too crowded to be comfortable. Music was furnished by Leo Crossin.

The affair was one of the most successful ever held in Mears' hall, and the receipts will add very materially in decreasing the indebtedness on the church.

Ladies' Waist Materials Of Surpassing Beauty And Rare Excellence...

Their variety is infinite and the care that has been expended in reaching as close to perfection as can be expected from human art and skill, shows a higher development of textile beauty than has ever before been attained.

French Flannels Are Prime Favorites This Season

For Ladies' Waists. The delicacy of their tints and colorings, combined with their softness and evenness of texture, render them peculiarly suitable for this purpose, and as the price is never exorbitant, while their wearing qualities are matchless, it is not surprising that they should be much sought after. Persian Stripes and Figures, Polka Dots, Plain Stripes. Mixed Designs, Plain Colors, Etc., give a hint at the prevailing styles which are now on display for your approval.

Special Waist Cloths in Albatross, Serges, Melrose, Granite, Flannel,

And other weaves also await your inspection in corded, embroidered and other woven effects, also in stripes, plaid effects, in every possible shading, and a few fancy designs that are exclusively our own.

Prices 37½c and Up.

Chapter of Accidents.

Baptist Young People's Union in the First Welsh Baptist church served a Welsh tea and frolice supper in the basement of the church yesterday afternoon and evening, and they were kept busy serving their patrons until late hour. The society was organized three weeks ago and this was the first of a series of suppers they intend serving.

The officers are: President, Rev. D. Hopkins; vice-president, Hayden Jenkins; first vice-president, Bessie Richards; secretary, Elizabeth Lewis; organist, Helen Williams; assistant organist, Lila Watkins; financial secretary, Wilfred Thomas; leaders, Jennie Jenkins and Sarah Meredith.

The candy table was in charge of Bertie and Sarah Lewis, the ice cream was served by Baba Williams, Arthur Resse and Edgar Davis, assisted by Edith Jones, Jennie Jenkins and Sarah Meredith. The frolice was prepared by Mrs. Jones, Mrs. William Davis, Mrs. Ober Jenkins, Mrs. Belvoir and Mrs. Lewis.

The tables were in charge of Lila Watkins, Verma Williams, Stell Thomas, Lizzie Lewis, Hayden Jenkins, Thomas Thomas, Bessie Richards, Elizabeth Lewis, Wilfred Thomas and Bert Thomas.

A Masquerade Party.

Fully one hundred young people were entertained last evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Miner Worden, on North Hyde Park avenue, at a surprise masquerade party in honor of their son, Roy. His friends had led him to believe the party was to be held at another house, and he left his home attired in a special make-up for the occasion.

Table No. 2—Mrs. Roy Williams, Adele Lewis, Louise Beddoe.

Table No. 3—Jemima Bodenier, Bertha Norris, Bessie Powell, Ida Wagstaff, Alice Williams, Edith Phillips, Miriam Parry.

Another Serious Accident.

Joseph Williams, employed as a delivery boy by Williams & Co., of South Main avenue, met with a severe accident yesterday, and as a result he is now suffering from a fractured leg. His horse became frightened while on Eliza street and dashed into Main avenue, where the driver was thrown out, and sustained the injury noted.

The horse kept on running, and the wagon collided with a pole in front of Dr. D. Evans & Co.'s store. The horse finally caught in front of Clarke Bros' store. The young man was taken to the home of John H. Williams, where Dr. D. W. Evans reduced the fracture. The runaway caused considerable excitement.

Fire in Mears' Hall.

At 7 o'clock last evening a fire alarm was turned in from Room 35, at the corner of Main and Jackson street, which caused considerable excitement.

The blaze was caused in the kitchen at Mears' hall, where a gas stove was in use. In some manner, the gas tube became detached, and instantly the flames began to shoot upward, but fortunately the blaze was extinguished before any damage was done.

Only a small area was in the hall at the time, and it is considered fortunate that the fire did not burn an hour or two later, when the hall was crowded with people. The building is a veritable fire-trap, and a panic would undoubtedly have occurred.

Shooting Match Today.

The long-looked-for shooting match between Clem Marsh, Jr., and Sam Davis, two of the best wing shots in Northeastern Pennsylvania will take place at noon today on the brick yard grounds, and it is expected will attract an unusually large crowd of sportsmen. They will shoot at fifty birds each for a purse of $1,000.

The final forfeit of $300 was posted yesterday by each man with The Tribune, and all the money is now up. The first deposit of $100 each was made on Oct. 4, when the match was made, and the second $100 was posted by each man on Oct. 21, the final deposits being made yesterday.

Fireman Severely Injured.

Edward Langen, a well-known fireman on the Lackawanna railroad, met with a serious accident at Waterloo station yesterday, which may yet result fatally. He was running on a wild cat run south when he struck his head against the eaves of the station platform and received several severe cuts on his head and face.

His injuries were temporarily dressed by the train crew, and as soon as possible he was brought to Scranton and taken to the Moses Taylor hospital, where he is now receiving treatment. His condition is critical.

Wedding Last Evening.

Arthur A. Keene, of Jackson street, and Miss Minnie L. Frantz, of North Scranton, were united in matrimony last evening by Rev. H. C. McDermott, at the parsonage of the Simpson Methodist Episcopal church.

The couple were unattached and the wedding was a quiet affair. Both are well-known young people, and will reside in West Scranton.

Funeral of Mrs. Ryder.

The funeral of the late Mrs. William Ryder, of 210 Railroad avenue, occurred yesterday morning. The remains were borne from the house to Holy Cross church at 9 o'clock, where the funeral services were conducted by the pastor, Rev. W. P. O'Connell. A requiem mass was celebrated over the remains and the sermon was preached by Rev. O'Connell.

The pall-bearers were William Lynn, Anthony Mitchell, P. H. Mitchell, Peter Mullany, Bernard Hour and Philip Riley. Interment was made in the cathedral cemetery.
