CELEBRATION OF HALLOWE'EN FEAST

How the Night Was Passed in Carbondale-Boys Indulge in Their Usual Pranks, and Young People Gather at Various Homes and Pass the Evening in Joyful Frolics

Last night, Hallowe'en, was observed by the small boy in Carbondale in high carnival style, while his older brother and his older sister gathered here and there in the homes of fair hostesses and passed the night, on which the fairies are said to engage in happy frolics, in social pleasures and the games that are a part of the tradition of the day of fancies.

There were no public affairs, but there were Hallowe'en parties galore, at which the younger society of the town and a few of the older, were out

MORE NEWS FROM "DORIE."

The Man from Newton Lake in Town with a New Outfit and a Bunch of Dorrance Buckley Burdette, locally known as "Dorie" Burdette, the best natured man in Greenfield township, paid another visit to town yesterday. The Tribune office,

The Tribune man was out when Dorrance came; he was corralling the news items of the town. Of course, "Dorie" felt what he missed, but he made the most of it, and left a grist of news with the young man in charge of the office. The news, however, while interesting, was the least attractive thing about Dorrance. His new fall outfit. or rather an outfit that was new to this autumn, claimed a good deal of petite and digestion are restored. attention. He had discarded the picturesque costume, Rough Rider hat, overalls of brown and ulster, and instead was togged in his working dothes. He had blue overalls, a derby hat, a pitchfork and a maroon sweatr. It was quite a departure from his conventional garb and his best friends passed him on the street without recognizing him. The derby hat is what appeared to make the transformation so

The grist that Dorrance left follows: "Carbondale, Oct. 31, 1901. "Very fine weather. Have not been to town for a week. Found the office boy in; you were out gettin' news around the town,he said. NO TRACE OF ROBBERS.

Constable Moran Still After Assailants of the Wells Family.

Constable Michael Moran has not succeeded in getting any trace of the masked robbers who made such an outrageous attack on the Wells family, on he Greenfield road, early Wednesday morning, though he is following a chee that he is hopeful will lead to the identity of the lawless crowd.

Mrs. Wells has regained possession of herself, but her son, who is not sharp-witted, suffers some from the attack made on him by one of the robbers. He was struck over the head by a sapling, when two of the masked men rushed into his room, while the other we were binding his mother. He was given two or three fercible blows on the forehead, which made him helpless. His forehead is contused where the sapling

The robbers had improvised torches made from pieces of packing, saturated After committing the deed and ransacking the house, they blow out the lights and threw the balf-contage. They were all armed, and used white handkerchiefs as masks. Both Mrs. Wells and her son were too confused and frightened to have any recollection of the size, or dress, or appearince of the robbers.

It is the belief that the parties had somewhat of an intimate knowledge of the doings of the Wells. A few days ago Mrs. Wells received about ninety dollars for cattle she disposed of. This was probably known to the visitors and was their metive in making the attack In the search for booty, the robbers ransacked curboards and closets, and scattered papers all over the house. The reason Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets are so valuable and successful in curing stomach troubles is because they contain, in a pleasant concentrated tablet form all these absolutely necessary essentials for perfect digestion and assimilation of food. Complaints have poured in all week from the residents along Belmont and Burkett streets, who make sufficient charges against the wild spirits of the vicinity to send them to a reformatory for a few days more than a week Every night this week has been calling night for these unruly youngsters. The first night was ushered in by pelting houses along these two streets with tones, a long line of split door panels telling the tale of the bombardment, There was a change in the programme the next night. The stones gave way to eggs of the possible age of Methusaleh and the strength Sampson. The houses that were the targets for these were fit objects of attention of the board of health. The fumigation process would have been proper, but in its absence the garden hose had to do duty.

As suggested before, these things might be winked at, if the boys' pranks ceased with them; but they became inlecent and disgraced the sidewalks with the most obscene sentences. These were not confined to one section of the but were widely scattered and ould be read in almost any part of the town. They were more numerous, however, along Belmont street. This led the police to make some inquirles

THE STORY OF A COW.

A Half Dozen Charges Grow Out of the Loss of a Milker.

Alderman Jones this week disposed of a case-the case of a lost cow-that was a record-breaker in many respects. particularly in the number of charges that grew out of one transaction. There was a civil charge in which ludgment was given against one man, Patrick Conellen, of the White Ridge, for the cow that he allowed to go out of his possession without observing the formalities of the law; there were numerous criminal charges, Patrick Corrigan being held on the charges of conspiracy and perjury, and Charles Fish-er and Levi Gleason likewise. The prosecutor in the care is Nathan Kurlancheck, of Gordon avenue. The history of the case, based on the testimony that he produced, is as follows: Patrick Conellen, of the White Bridge, picked up a cow of Kurlancheck's and dvertised it in one of the newspapers. Kurlancheck went to Conellen, but the latter refused to let him identify his own cow, Corrigan came subsequenty and claimed the cow as the property of George Greeley. To substantiate the claim he had two witnesses, Charles Fisher and Levi Gleason, identify the cow as the property of Greeley. It dereloped afterward that Greeley never said he lost a cow or sent Corrigan for it. The story was conceeted by Corrigan, who induced Fisher and Gleason to accompany him and help him deeive Conellen, who had the cow, into believing that the milker was his (Corrigan's). Fisher and Gleason both testified later that it was all a put-up job on the part of Corrigan to get the eow from Conellen, which he did, on the strength of their testimony. Corrigan was held on the charge of conspiracy, and they themselves, Fisher and Gleason, were also held as parties to the conspiracy and false swearing.

AMUSEMENTS.

"The Black Flag" Last Night.

"The Black Flag," which is probably the strongest and best prepared piece of the Bon Ton Stock company, was enjoyed by a great throng at the Grand last night. The specialties, as usual, made a great hit. The usual matinee will take place this afternoon, and tonight the military play, "Chattanooga, '61," will be presented with elaborate scenic effects.

Lyman's Howe's Moving Pictures. The Ladies' Aid society of the Berean Baptist church are not saying much about the Lyman Howe moving pictures, which will be exhibited under their auspices on Wednesday evening, Nov. 20. They know that it is not necessary, and they are just moving around among their friends and disposing of the tickets of admission.

As Mr. Howe only presents the est seenes and events, they know that multitudes of people who have not been able to go to the Pna-American expect to enjoy the whole show at Mr. Howe exhibition. The scenes in connection with the assassination, death, burial of the president will be a leading feature. Better get vour tickets at once.

"The Good old Days"

Of long ago, were bad old days for women. Art and story perpetuate the patch and powder, the minuet and pavan. But history shows us another picture: Women rising by candlelight and toiling until the late hours; women bringing large families into the world, and bearing almost alone the burdens of busy households; women weary, worn and suffering in a day when medical aid at the best was crude and even then often unattainable. It is a far cry from that day to this when help and healing are brought to the very doors of sick and suffering women.

WOMEN OF TO-DAY

Have no womanly ailments which were not known Dr. Pierce's success like the remarkable record of to their great, great grandmothers. But they have what these ancestors never possessed, a means of cure so reliable and so certain that ninety-eight per cent, of all the women who have given it a fair and faithful trial have been perfectly and permanently cured.

Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription has practically revolutionized the life of woman. It has changed nervous women to cheerful, self-reliant women. has changed weak wives to genuine helpmeets. has practically banished the pangs and pains of maternity. Half a million women testify that it has raised them from weakness to strength, changed them from sick to well.

Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription is peculiarly a woman's medicine. It does for women what no other medicine has done so thoroughly. It regulates the periodic function, dries enfeebling drains, puts out the fire of inflammation, heals the eating ulcer, and cures female weakness. It practically does away with the pains of maternity, and strengthens every womanly organ.

A Blossing to Wemen. "Your medicines are certainly a blessing to suffering women," writes Mrs. Ella Sauerwald, 1935 W. Pratt Street, Baltimore, Md. "I suffered with female weakness very badly, was extremely nervous at all times, had indigestion; could not sleep, constant dull headache-in fact, was very miserable when I began to take your medicines, but after taking them a short time I began to feel better. My nerves were better; could sleep at night, headache ceased, diges-tion was improved, I felt like a new woman, and could go around and attend to my household duties, which previous to taking your medicine I could not do. Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets cured me of constipation of many years' standing. I took eleven bottles in all—six of 'Favorite Prescription' and five of 'Golden Medical Discovery,' and also two vials of the 'Pleasant Pellets.' I am sure if more women who suffer would take Dr. Pierce's medicines they would soon be convinced of the good they can do."

Sick women are invited to consult Dr. Pierce by letter free. All correspondence is strictly private and sacredly confidential. Address Dr. R.V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y. A great many women have expressed their gratitude for Dr. Pierce's offer of free consultation by letter, because it enabled them to escape the offensive examinations, the indelicate questions and the obnoxious local treatments still thought necessary by many physicians. The large experience of Dr. Pierce, extending over thirty years (during which time, assisted by his staff of nearly a score of physicians, he has treated and cured more than half a woman, no matter how serious her condition or how long she has suffered. Nothing speaks for ninety-eight per cent. of cures in all the hundreds of thousands of women he has treated.

One Weman Who Knows.

"It is with pleasure that I add my testimony to that of others, hoping that it may induce others to avail themselves of the benefit of your invaluable medicines," writes Mrs. R. G. McAdoo, of Whiting, Mississippi Co., Mo. "Nearly a year ago I was taken down with a severe case of sickness. I suffered untold pains and misery such as no one can describe. Was confined to my bed most of the time. could turn no way without it giving me pain. I was afflicted with falling of the uterus and ulceration. Had a bad drain all the time, and dragging-down pains through my back and hips; no appetite; bowels were costive; had smarting, itching and burning in the vagina all the time. My head and temples, back of my neck, shoulders and sides pained severely. Had kidney trouble, too. I ached all over; had cold feet and hands all the time. I suffered a great deal with pains in both sides, and much tenderness on pressing over the uterus. I was bloated terribly at times in bowels and limbs. I could not sleep; noise it seemed would kill me. I could not get on my leet alone. I cannot describe the constant pain to which I was subject every moment o my life. Was so reduced in flesh and strength that I could scarcely walk across the floor any of the time. I was treated by good doctors, but they just gave me something to ease me for a little while at a time. They said they could not cure me or do anything that would greatly benefit me. My husband suggested one day that I try some of Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription. I asked him to get me a bottle of it. He gave me a tablespoonful, and it soon eased me. He then wrote to Dr. Pierce in regard to my case. We have one of the 'Common Sense Medical Advisers.' Pierce told my husband for me to take his 'Favorite Pre-scription' and 'Pleasant Pellets,' and also his 'Golden Medical Discovery' and 'Extract of Smart-Weed,' according to directions. I did so, and began to improve fast. If anyone doubts this, give name and address. I will always recommend Dr. Pierce's medicines and his advice to all sufferers from diseases to which females are subject. He has been as a father to me; advised me as a child. I believe if my husband had not written to Dr. Pierce last fall and commenced giving me his medicine I would have died in a short time.' Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription is a nervefeeding, strength-giving, body-building medicine. Many put-up medicines for women's use quiet the nerves temporarily by numbing them with some narcotic drug, or give false strength by alcoholic stimulants. "Favorite Prescription" contains no alcohol, neither opium, cocaine or any other narcotic. It is a true temperance medicine. Sometimes a little extra profit tempts a dealer to offer some less reliable preparation as "just as good" as "Favorite Prescription." Sick women who want to be well should insist on "Favorite Prescription," the medicine which has made half a million sick million women), is an encouragement to every women well and weak women strong.
