The Country club entertainment committee gave the most original and elaborate entertainment in its history last night at the club. It was a fitting celeoration of Hallowe'en. entire national guard of the state closed ! yesterday, and last night saw the Thireenth regiment with every one of the 625 officers and enlisted men qualified as marksman, a truly wonderful advance over last year, when there were a goodly number who failed to qualify The following figures show the num ber of men in each company who have qualified as marksmen and as sharpshooters: Company A. 52 marksmer and 6 sharpshooters; Company B, 5 marksmen and 3 sharpshooters; Company C, 58 marksmen and 1 sharpshoot er; Company D, 58 marksmen and sharpshooters; Company E. 50 marks men and 5 sharpshooters; Company F 59 marksmen and 5 sharpshooters: Company G, 52 marksmen and 7 sharpshooters; Company H, 52 marksmen and 1 sharpshooter; Company I. 57 marksmen and 3 sharpshooters; Company K. 49 marksmen and 5 sharpshooters: Company L, 53 marksmen and

2 sharpshooters. All of the field, staff and line officers have qualified as revolver experts. The following field and staff officers have qualified as sharpshooters: Colonel L. A. Watres, Lieutenant Colonel F. W. Stillwell, Major Frank Robling, fr., and First Lieutenant Lewis P. Carter, inspector of rifle practice. The latter said last night that the shooting done on the range by the members of the regiment during the season just ended has been the best accomplished since the regiment was re-organized, and ranks with the best ever done in the old regiment's best days.

"The number of men who have qualified as first class marksmen is ex-tremely high," said he, "and, though I have not the exact figures at hand, I feel confident that they will rank with the best accomplished by any regiment in the state.

"The company matches which have been held have had the effect of quick-ening an interest in rifle practice among the men. Our regimental team work has not been as good as might have been expected, but this has been due almost entirely to the fact that the two best shots in the regiment, Captain Fremont Stokes and Commissary Sergeant Harry Hermans resigned early in the year, and their places had to be filled with new material."

Lieutenant Carter said that he expects to lay out an 800-yard range at Dickson City for use next year in team work, providing satisfactory arrangements for another year can be made with the owners of the land on which the present ranges are located. Hé also said that he hopes to have a new set of Krag-Jorgenson rifles for use next year in team work.

National Organizer Reeves, of the amalgamated Association of Street Railway Employes, denies explicitly that the Scranton strike in any way deterred the Philadelphia car men from carrying out their threat to strike. He says the national officers decided that the difficulties in Philadelphia could be settled by mediation and that drastic neasures were not necessary. A number of accidents were reported yesterday by the strikers' scouts A Luzerne car collided with a Quincy evenue car at the Valley House corner and the vestibule of the latter car was wrecked. A car that was stalled on Dutch Hill, Carbondale, was run Into from the rear by another car and badly damaged. A car struck a wagon near the Diamond crossing, wrecking the wagon, injuring the driver and disabling one of the horses.

BARTENDERS ENDORSE.

The Bartenders' association reported to the strikers, through President John E. Grimes, that the bartenders had endorsed the strike and resolved not to sell to imports or trolley company officials. A $50 check accompanied the resolutions.

TONY CORDEILLO KILLED

He Was Employed as a Laborer or the New Railroad-Earth Fell Upon Him.

Tony Cordellia, about 30 years old poarding on Crown avenue, was killed yesterday afternoon by the caving of a bank of earth, while at work on the railroad line being constructed between this city and Wilkes-Barre by the Lackawanna and Wyoming Valley Rapid ' ansit company.

Corden. was working at a point near the old quarry at No. 5, and was engaged, with a number of other laborers in digging out a cut. He was undermining a bank on one side of the cut preparatory to pushing the earth downward from above.

He got a little bold and ventured underneath the overhanging roof of earth. As he did so, it fell and he was caught beneath it and almost completely buried. His neck was broken and he dled instantly.

Mike Base, another laborer, residing at Bunker hill, was caught by the falling earth and sustained severe body bruises. He was taken to the Lackawanna hospital. Cordiella's body was removed to Pallaseum Club Entertained at Bicycle Club House.

A Hallowe'en dance was given last night in the club house of the Scranton Bicycle club by an organization of charming young women who call themselves the Pallaseum club.

The ball room was most originally decorated with branches covered with autumn leaves. There was fastened on the walls and suspended from the ceiling. Oppenheim's orchestra from Wilkes-Barre was ensconced on the platform behind a mass of greenery through which peered, here and there a number of lighted jack-o'-lanterns The effect produced was most novel. Upwards of one hundred and twenty-five couples danced through a programme of twenty numbers and then longed for more. The officers of the club, upon whose shoulders fell the task of arranging for the affair, were as follows: President, Miss Grace Sloat: vice-president, Miss Nell Drake: secretary, Miss Marie Godfrey: treasurer. Miss Bessie Benjamin.

Hon. John J. Scheuer said he has known Mr. Harris, the Republican candidate for state treasurer, for several years in the house and looked upon him as one of the able men of the house. He was on a number of occasions of great assistance to the Lackawanna members in getting legislation for this region. His conduct was in strong contrast to that of Candidate Coray, who fought strongly a bill of most vital interest to Lackawanna, to wit, the bill to make the Lackawanna hospital a

ENTHUSIASTIC MEETING AT

Election Predicted.

The largest and most enthusiastic

The largest and most enthusiastic meeting of the Republican county committee was held yesterday afternoon in the rooms of the Central Republican club. The situation in every part of the county was reported upon in detail and the indications are that there will be a complete Republican victory on Tuesday next. All that is necessary is to keep up the good, earnest work that has been in progress for the last few weeks.

Addresses were made by Congressman William Connnell, Hon. L. A. Watres, Hon. John R. Farr, Hon. John J. Scheuer, Frank Becker, T. H. Dale, Major W. S. Millar, Hon. James Moir, Hon. W. L. Connell, C. E. Olver, Dr. Houser, Wade M. Finn, John R. Jones and M. W. Lowry.

They spoke enthusiastically of the ability of the men who comprise the Republican ticket and the necessity of electing them. Hon. John R. Farr devoted a part of his speech to a refutation of the charges made against the state treasury and the candidate for state treasury and the candidate for state treasurer. Mr. Farr said that, while he was in the house of representatives charges were made that the state was losing money through its treasury department, and a committee containing an equal number of Republicans and Democrats was appointed to investigate the charges. They did so, and, after going over the books of the state treasury twenty-live years, they found that every cent was accounted for. The state has never lost a cent through a Republican treasurer.
