CHARLES FROHMAN HERE.

Saw "Quality Street" at the Lyceum Last Night.

Many who saw the wonderful performance given at the Lyceum last night by Miss Maude Adams noticed a short, black haired man, dressed in a very sober business suit of black, leave an aisle seat on the right hand side of the theatre and pass out into the tobby at the close of each act.

It was Charles Frohman, the Napoleon of the theatrical business, the manwho at the present time has more theatrical ventures than any other one man in the world.

"It is nearly five years since I last saw Scranton," said Mr. Frohman as he chatted with a Tribune man be-tween the acts. "I came here to put on 'Secret Service' and spent several days In the city at that time. 'Secret Service' was a wonderful success and naturally I associate some of its success to the luck that followed it from Scran-

With reference to his present visit Mr. Frohman said he came on yesterday to see "Quality Street " "I staged it," he said, "and was with the show for several nights after it was first put on two weeks ago in the West. I the Club league are from Scranton, had to return to New York and finding I could spare tonight I ran out here to ce how the play is progressing."

He expressed himself as highly pleased with the fine performance given by Miss Adams and her company last night and took a real delight in having had a part in giving the stage a play which last night's big audience gave such unmistakable evidence of liking. "It is very gratifying to me," he said, to have a part in the production of this play. I sat tonight and watched the effect of the play on that fine au-dience in the theatre. I was greatly pleased to see the way young and old enjoyed it. It's something of a lovelty in the way of a drama, but the has already approved of it." Mr. Frohman is a quiet, unobtrusive person who, despite the nerve-racking nature of his business for years, has not a gray hair and tooked last night as if he had not a care in the world. He left early this morning for Nev

BUSY DAY FOR WORKERS

Animated Scenes at Republican Headquarters Yesterday-Executive Committee Meets Today.

It was a busy place about Republian headquarters yesterday. All day long the rooms were crowded with workers making reports and getting Instructions concerning the work to be done between now and Tuesday night Secretary Acker was kept busy reciving and arranging the petitions for the appointment of overseers, etc., which will be made by the court today. The executive committee will have a meeting at headquarters this afternoon at 3 o'clock. It will be an im-arnest, thorough work been accomplished as is now being done for the Republican candidates. The kind of campaigning resorted to by the Democrats has aroused the fighting blood of every worker in the party, and, regardless of factional leanings in the past they are giving their best efforts to the election of the entire Republican ticket.

The men who were betting two weeks ago that the state candidates of the Union party will carry the county are now hedging. They have discovered that Lackawanna will on Tues day retain its old place in the Republican column.

JUST A RAY OF HOPE.

Possibility of a Meeting Between Officials and Strikers.

The effort to effect a compromise in ence was made in Wednesday's Tristrikers and prominent business men has been in communication with officials of the company, endeavoring to bring about a meeting, at which the differences can be adjusted. Holmes, of Phelps street: Jack Nealon of Court street, and Peter Roche, Ben Davis and Charles Clarke, of Wyoming avenue, all boys between the ages of 12 and 16 years, were arrested yesterday at the instance of Superintendent Patterson, of the Scranton Railway company.

They are accused of having thrown stones at a Green Ridge Suburban car on North Washington avenue between Gibson and New street on Thursday night. Several of the windows were smashed and a woman passenger was slightly injured. The boys will be given a hearing today before Magistrate Millar.

FIGHTING FOR PRINCIPLE.

Poor Board Orders a Second Appeal from a $5 Verdict.

Some months ago Dr. Porteus, of Taylor, examined a woman who was believed to be insane and declared her to be of unsound mind. She was later sent to the Hillside Home by the poor

The doctor sent in a bill for $5 to the board, but it was not passed because Director Paine announced that he had given Dr. Porteus no authority to examine the woman, the rule of the board being that the director of the district must authorize such examinations.

Dr. Porteus brought suit before an alderman and recovered a verdict of court and succeeded in having the verdiet set aside on a technicality. Dr. Porteus, not to be so easily vanquished, brought suit again and se cured a second verdict for $5 and costs. The board at its regular meet ing yesterday afternoon, instructed its attorney to appeal the case again, this time on the ground that the cost amounting to $9.50 exceed the amoun of the verdict

CLOSE OF INSTITUTE.

Resolutions Adopted Yesterday Morning-Final Addresses of the Instructors.

The twenty-third annual county teachers' institute was brought to a close yesterday morning, when a final ession was held. Brief addresses were made by Miss Sutherland, who spoke on "Pedagogy from Kipling;" Dr. Willis, whose theme was "Method in Education," and Dr. McLellan, who spoke on "Elements of National Power." All paid but little attention to their themes and devoted large part of their talks to expressions of their thankfulness for the interest taken by the teachers in their lectures. Before the report of the comnittee on resolutions was received. Prof. John T. Watkins rendered "The Holy City" in splendid voice. The resoutions made tender reference to the death of former Superintendent Forbes, of Carbondale, and Miss M. E. Atheron, of Taylor.
