

NORTHEASTERN PENNSYLVANIA

TUNKHANNOCK.

Special to the Scranton Tribune.
Tunkhannock, Nov. 3.—Mrs. A. Woodcock is the guest of her brother, Frank Packer, at Hazleton, where she will remain about two weeks.

The "Monday Club" will meet at the home of Mrs. Martha Bunnell, on Warren street, this afternoon at 2 o'clock.

Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Eysenbach and Mrs. E. N. Stone returned from New York on Sunday when they have been spending the past week.

Kennard, son of McKeon, was visiting a friend here on Saturday.

Miss Alice Patterson, of Binghamton, is the guest of her cousin, Mrs. Glenn Townshend.

Mr. and Mrs. E. S. Eldridge celebrated their twenty-fifth anniversary last afternoon, was won by the Binghamton team.

BROOKLYN.

Special to the Scranton Tribune.

Brooklyn, Oct. 31.—Mrs. F. A. King has moved her goods to Dalton, where Mr. King has been at work for some time.

A number of enterprising citizens have been laying a new stone walk between the bridge and Wallie's feed store. We should like to see more of such work done in our village.

Miss Alice Patterson, of Binghamton, is the guest of her cousin, Mrs. Glenn Townshend.

Mr. and Mrs. James Densler and Mr. and Mrs. Stephen Johnson, who have been at the Pan-American for a week, returned home on Saturday.

Cony Goodwin and Clayton Sharp, of Windham, were business men in town on Saturday.

Miss Sophronia Luckenbill, who has been the guest of friends at Lehighton the past three weeks, returned home on Saturday.

The Daughters of the American Revolution met at the home of Mrs. J. W. Platt on Saturday afternoon.

Henry Fleischer, a student at Lafayette college, Easton, is visiting his parents at this place.

A man by the name of Stark was knocked down and robbed on Bridge street on Friday night. A warrant was issued and an arrest made on Saturday morning, but the case is reported to have been settled by the justice. When persons charged with highway robbery and burglary are allowed to go unpunished as has been the case in several instances here, further lawlessness cannot fail to be the result. There have been quite a number of burglaries committed here within the past year and it is time something was done.

SUSQUEHANNA.

Special to the Scranton Tribune.

Susquehanna, Nov. 1.—A largely attended and very enthusiastic public meeting was held in Hogan's Opera house last evening, to turn into consideration the subject of creating a public building to be used for general borough purposes.

Dr. Samuel Blitsatt presided, and made appropriate remarks. Excellent speeches all in favor of the proposition, were made by ex-Fire Chief Hickey, of Scranton; Rev. P. F. Broderick, Thomas A. Doherty, R. J. Manning, and W. A. Skinner.

Generous applause greeted the remarks of the speakers and the sentiment of the meeting was heartily in favor of the proposition, which will be voted upon at the election next Tuesday.

Excellent music for the occasion was rendered by the Susquehanna band. Prior to the meeting there was a parade of the fire department, headed by the Susquehanna band. Engineers McMahon's fine team of blacks, attached to Erie Hose company No. 10 wagon, made an excellent exhibition.

In the probable cost of the public building project carrying, at the election next week the Sabin lot, on West Main street, will probably be selected as the site for the building.

Rev. W. M. Bouton, pastor of the Oakland Methodist church, who has been ill for several weeks, is able to walk out.

A number of vicinity Odd Fellows are attending Wilkes-Barre on Wednesday evening attending a special meeting of the grand lodge.

Recorders report a scarcity of squirrels. A well-attended district Sunday school institute was held at Stevens' Point on Wednesday.

The Elite Concert company will appear at Hallstedt Nov. 22.

Mrs. Henry Malone, an aged and expected resident, died at her home on Jackson street on Wednesday morning after a brief illness. She is survived by the husband and five adult children. The funeral will probably take place on Friday afternoon.

WELSH HILL.

Special to the Scranton Tribune.

Welsh Hill, Nov. 3.—The duties of our several school teachers are again resumed after attending a pleasant and instructive institute which was held in Montreal last week.

On the personal property of Dr. J. Thomas was sold to the public Mr. Thomas' house and family to Scranton this week, where they will make their future home. They will be greatly missed from our community.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Snyder and daughter Alice, of West Lehigh, visited at Mrs. W. W. Watson's on Monday.

There is trouble here. Find the dog's master and the cat's mistress.

Solutions for Last Week's Puzzles:

Monday, Oct. 30.—Seth Low.

Tuesday, Oct. 31.—Hold the picture upside down and you will see a stork, the head being just above the artist's hand.

Weebley, Oct. 30.—A close mouth catches no flies.

Wednesday, Oct. 21.—by entertaining a company of friends—the Methodist Episcopal Ladies' Aid society.

Miss Hattie McMillan is visiting her mother Honesdale.

The ladies of the Methodist Episcopal church served dinner today in the Odd Fellows' hall.

Several of the Grand Army of the Republic members here attended a soldiers' reunion at Franklin Forks yesterday October 20.

Mrs. Shadwick has returned from a visit in Factoryville.

Mr. and Mrs. L. S. Ely, Miss Alice Watrous, O. M. Dolaway and the Misses Dolaway are at the Pan-American this week.

C. H. Tiffany, who has been putting in the dam for C. A. Corson, has the work nearly done. The young people hope to have skating this winter.

Ralph Sterling went to Wilkes-Barre yesterday and on his return will bring home as his bride Mrs. White. Their many friends wish them much happiness.

Charley Benjamin visited his father, who is in poor health, last week.

Mrs. Josephine Sterling has returned from a visit with Scranton friends.

Miss Louise Newton and Grace McKeever spent Sunday with their mothers on their return from institute.

Mr. Wescott has moved into C. H. Tiffany's house.

A very quiet wedding occurred last evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. A. S. Walde, when their daughter, Mandie, was united in marriage to George H. Terry, by Rev. N. S. Sage. Only the nearest relatives, about sixteen in number, were invited. Mr. and Mrs. Terry will reside with their parents in Scranton.

Friends of Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Ely gave them a surprise party at the home of his sister, Mrs. Frank Rogers, last evening. Mr. and Mrs. Ely are leaving for the west for the winter and will be greatly missed.

FACTORYVILLE.

Special to the Scranton Tribune.

Factoryville, Nov. 1.—Mr. Charles B. Campbell and daughter, Mrs. Eva, have moved to Dalton, where they will take charge of the toll-gate on the Factoryville and Abington turnpike.

Colonel D. N. Mathewson, of Washington, D. C., is spending a few days with us.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Lindsey, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Lindsey, Mr. and Mrs. Will Rogers, Mrs. J. A. Britton, Mrs. L. D. Armstrong and Miss Josephine Lindsey last night, and Misses Nedra, Lydia and Edith Frazee as the heroine, O. A.

Gilmore has starred in the romantic drama as Billie, G. M. Bertram and D'Aragnon in the play "The Girl in the Moon," supporting Benetis Cossar during the New York run of "Mistress Ned." In which his manly sprightly and elastic robes of state made him a popular matinee favorite second to none on Broadway.

the New York Journal, has an excellent position on the Chicago American.

AVOCAT.

The sequence of a series of burglaries is now the topic among the friends of E. M. Kennedy, of South Main street. Forty-five years ago Mr. Kennedy's father kept a large store near New Milford, Susquehanna county. He did not live over the store and many mornings when Mr. Kennedy went to the store he found that it had been broken into and that his goods were taken. Finally the thieves were captured, convicted and imprisoned. All have since then died. The strange part of the story is that two maiden sisters, aged over 60 years, named Bloxham, residing in a small hamlet called Burnwood on the Jefferson division, have become so poor that they have asked aid from the poor authorities. As the law provides the authorities went to the old homestead which was a miserable hovel. In their search they unloaded after tier of sawed wood and behind it all were hidden more than a hundred dry goods boxes still unopened. On investigation they found them filled

IT'S ALWAYS BAD

The Best of Backs Are Bad When They Ache and Scranton Peop- ple Know It.

A bad back is always bad. Bad at night when bedtime comes. Just as bad in the morning. Ever try Dean's Kidney Pills for it? Know they cure backache, cure every kidney ill?

If you don't some Scranton people do. Read the case of it:

Mrs. Sarah Farrell of 1919 Price street, Hyde Park, says: "I honestly believe I never had such aches in my life as I have had since taking Dean's Kidney Pills. I would have been buried in my grave six years ago if my kidney continued to trouble me. At first I did not pay much attention to it, but it kept getting worse and other symptoms appeared. I consulted a physician without obtaining permanent relief. I was so bad that blood passed from me; my back ached so I could not get up or down. I was short of breath, and finally had to take to my bed. I was receiving electric and magnetic treatments, but the doctor and the physician who was doing the treatment said that I must have a kidney ailment. I often wished and prayed for death, for I had given up all hope of getting relief. My daughter had Doan's Kidney Pill brought to her home and got a box at Matthews Drug store. I took them and the first box did me so much good that she got me some more. After the fourth box I thanked God that I had found a remedy which had relieved me of the cause of my trouble."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Poster-Hillman Co., Buffalo, N. Y. Sole agents for the United States. Remember the name Doan's, and take no substitute.

PICTURE PUZZLE.

There is trouble here. Find the dog's master and the cat's mistress.

Solutions for Last Week's Puzzles:

Monday, Oct. 30.—Seth Low.

Tuesday, Oct. 31.—Hold the picture upside down and you will see a stork, the head being just above the artist's hand.

Weebley, Oct. 30.—A close mouth catches no flies.

Wednesday, Oct. 21.—by entertaining a company of friends—the Methodist Episcopal Ladies' Aid society.

Miss Hattie McMillan is visiting her mother Honesdale.

The ladies of the Methodist Episcopal church served dinner today in the Odd Fellows' hall.

Several of the Grand Army of the Republic members here attended a soldiers' reunion at Franklin Forks yesterday October 20.

Mrs. Shadwick has returned from a visit in Factoryville.

Mr. and Mrs. L. S. Ely, Miss Alice Watrous, O. M. Dolaway and the Misses Dolaway are at the Pan-American this week.

C. H. Tiffany, who has been putting in the dam for C. A. Corson, has the work nearly done. The young people hope to have skating this winter.

Ralph Sterling went to Wilkes-Barre yesterday and on his return will bring home as his bride Mrs. White. Their many friends wish them much happiness.

Charley Benjamin visited his father, who is in poor health, last week.

Mrs. Josephine Sterling has returned from a visit with Scranton friends.

Miss Louise Newton and Grace McKeever spent Sunday with their mothers on their return from institute.

Mr. Wescott has moved into C. H. Tiffany's house.

A very quiet wedding occurred last evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. A. S. Walde, when their daughter, Mandie, was united in marriage to George H. Terry, by Rev. N. S. Sage. Only the nearest relatives, about sixteen in number, were invited. Mr. and Mrs. Terry will reside with their parents in Scranton.

Friends of Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Ely gave them a surprise party at the home of his sister, Mrs. Frank Rogers, last evening. Mr. and Mrs. Ely are leaving for the west for the winter and will be greatly missed.

FACTORYVILLE.

Special to the Scranton Tribune.

Factoryville, Nov. 1.—Mr. Charles B. Campbell and daughter, Mrs. Eva, have moved to Dalton, where they will take charge of the toll-gate on the Factoryville and Abington turnpike.

Colonel D. N. Mathewson, of Washington, D. C., is spending a few days with us.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Lindsey, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Lindsey, Mr. and Mrs. Will Rogers, Mrs. J. A. Britton, Mrs. L. D. Armstrong and Miss Josephine Lindsey last night, and Misses Nedra, Lydia and Edith Frazee as the heroine, O. A.

Gilmore has starred in the romantic drama as Billie, G. M. Bertram and D'Aragnon in the play "The Girl in the Moon," supporting Benetis Cossar during the New York run of "Mistress Ned." In which his manly sprightly and elastic robes of state made him a popular matinee favorite second to none on Broadway.

AVOCAT.

The sequence of a series of burglaries is now the topic among the friends of E. M. Kennedy, of South Main street. Forty-five years ago Mr. Kennedy's father kept a large store near New Milford, Susquehanna county. He did not live over the store and many mornings when Mr. Kennedy went to the store he found that it had been broken into and that his goods were taken. Finally the thieves were captured, convicted and imprisoned. All have since then died. The strange part of the story is that two maiden sisters, aged over 60 years, named Bloxham, residing in a small hamlet called Burnwood on the Jefferson division, have become so poor that they have asked aid from the poor authorities. As the law provides the authorities went to the old homestead which was a miserable hovel. In their search they unloaded after tier of sawed wood and behind it all were hidden more than a hundred dry goods boxes still unopened. On investigation they found them filled

A bad back is always bad. Bad at night when bedtime comes. Just as bad in the morning. Ever try Dean's Kidney Pills for it? Know they cure backache, cure every kidney ill?

If you don't some Scranton people do. Read the case of it:

Mrs. Sarah Farrell of 1919 Price street, Hyde Park, says: "I honestly believe I never had such aches in my life as I have had since taking Dean's Kidney Pills. I would have been buried in my grave six years ago if my kidney continued to trouble me. At first I did not pay much attention to it, but it kept getting worse and other symptoms appeared. I consulted a physician without obtaining permanent relief. I was so bad that blood passed from me; my back ached so I could not get up or down. I was short of breath, and finally had to take to my bed. I was receiving electric and magnetic treatments, but the doctor and the physician who was doing the treatment said that I must have a kidney ailment. I often wished and prayed for death, for I had given up all hope of getting relief. My daughter had Doan's Kidney Pill brought to her home and got a box at Matthews Drug store. I took them and the first box did me so much good that she got me some more. After the fourth box I thanked God that I had found a remedy which had relieved me of the cause of my trouble."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Poster-Hillman Co., Buffalo, N. Y. Sole agents for the United States. Remember the name Doan's, and take no substitute.

PICTURE PUZZLE.

There is trouble here. Find the dog's master and the cat's mistress.

Solutions for Last Week's Puzzles:

Monday, Oct. 30.—Seth Low.

Tuesday, Oct. 31.—Hold the picture upside down and you will see a stork, the head being just above the artist's hand.

Weebley, Oct. 30.—A close mouth catches no flies.

Wednesday, Oct. 21.—by entertaining a company of friends—the Methodist Episcopal Ladies' Aid society.

</