A LAD'S SAD END.

Young Edward McDermott Crushed While at Work at Coal Brook Breaker.

Edward McDermott, son of Peter McDermott, of No. 4, had his leg crushed so badly while at work yesterday morning that he died a few hours later at Emergency hospital.

The victim of the sad happening was employed at the new Coal Brook breaker. About 9 o'clock yesterday morning, he started for the interior of the breaker to check the rush of coal to the screens. En route, he was obliged to pass where there were revolving cog wheels. The spot, usually covered, was unprotected, and he stepped on the moving wheels. In an instant, his foot and leg were being crushed. His fearful shrieks brought workmen to his aid. The machinery was stopped, but the work of destruction had gone so far that the machinery had to be taken apart before the poor lad could be extricated.

Weakened from loss of blood and shock, he was taken in an almost dying condition to Emergency hospital. Whatever chance he had of surviving the terrible disaster lie in amputating the crushed limb. This was done at once, but the boy was too exhausted to rally and expired at 1 o'clock in the afternoon.

The news of McDermott's death caused much sadness among the employees about the collieries, who had a kindly feeling for him because of his willingness and his cheerfulness.

The boy's parents are living, also two sisters, Mary and Maggie, and one brother, William.

MORE COAL STEALING.

Interest Is Lacking and the Alumni Project Goes Under.

Because of a lack of interest the band project of the Carbondale High school alumni association has met with the same fate as the boy who ventured on thin ice—it has fallen through.

The fate of the banquet was decided at a meeting held last night at which there was a somewhat meager attendance. A canvass was made of the proposed enterprise, who decided that the affair would not reach the success that it had been in former years, which the members would like to see mock their efforts. A proposal was made to hold the banquet near New Years, but there was the same fear of its success. It was decided then to call it off, though this was done reluctantly, as heretofore the annual banquets always ranked as a great social event.

The doors on the bottom of the car, which stood on a siding, broke open and the coal spilled over the tracks. The women, who live in the Italian settlement on the West Side, discovered what, to them, was a find, and in a brief time themselves and their children were industriously hustling the coal off. They carried off great quantities, which they dumped into the old coal bed, until such time as they could carry it to their homes. During this time, they were discovered and arrested on warrants issued at the instance of the company's detective, Martin Crippen.

The accused were given a hearing before Alderman Jones at 8 o'clock last night. In the line-up of the accused ones were two or three small girls, who wore shawls and had the most pitiful-looking faces. There was no defense. The alderman fined each $1 and costs.

REV. D. E. LEWIS TO SPEAK.

Well Known Minister from Pittston Be Here Friday.

A church happening that is being anticipated among the young people of the Borean Baptist church is the coming of Rev. D. E. Lewis, of the Luzerne Avenue Baptist church of Pittston.

Rev. Mr. Lewis will be at the church tomorrow evening, when he will address the young people, beginning his work at 7:30. The older people of the congregation are invited as well.

Mr. Lewis is eminent in religious work in this part of the state. He is a speaker whose appearance is appreciated everywhere and this appreciation will not be lacking, it is certain, on the occasion of his visit to-morrow evening.

Making Home Made Shoes Celebrated

Thomas F. Walsh, of Scranton, was in the city yesterday, increasing the sales of the Olyphant Shoe Company, thereby demonstrating that this valley can produce as good a shoe as the New England states, "the great mart of footwear and home of industry."

Mr. Walsh was over twenty years a salesman for the best New England factories, but he was so impressed

KNOWS NO DISTINCTION.

Rich and Poor Alike Suffer from Catarrh in This Climate.

All observant physicians have noticed the enormous increase in catarrhal diseases in recent years, and the most liberal and enlightened have cheerfully chard, visited in Carbondale yesterday.

Mrs. Elsie Mannington, of Canaan street, is the guest of her parents in Aldenville.

Deputy Sheriff Ferber, of Scranton, the genial "Jake," was in Carbondale yesterday.

Mrs. Fraley has returned to her home in Wilkes-Barre after a week's visit with Mrs. Thomas Payne, on Summit avenue.

Among the guests at the Harrison House yesterday were: J. W. Pello, C. M. Street, T. F. Walsh, Scranton; Joseph F. White, Forest City.

Joseph Cline, who came home from the dental school of the University of Pennsylvania to vote in Tuesday's election, returns today to resume his studies.

C. T. Mills and Wesley Mills, of Pleasant Mount; L. O. Rose, of Honesdale, Hyde Park, says: "I suffered for many years with kidney trouble. My doctor said it was catarrh of the bladder. There was a constant dull pain in the small of my back which extended up between my shoulders. When stooping or doing any work about the house the pain was so sharp as to become almost unbearable. I might say that I hardly knew what it was to be without backache. I could not sleep nights and would have to get up often during the night and walk the floor. I heard about Dr. Dean's Kidney Pills and was attracted to them from a moving trip of friends, when, in reaching, he overbalanced himself and fell directly in front of the trip. He was pushed along for several yards before the trip could be brought to a standstill. He was removed to his home as soon as possible after the accident, and attended by Dr. Jackson. While his injuries are of a painful nature, they are not considered serious.

Dr. Morgan was a member of the Order of the Knights of Malta, and, as in all his relations, was faithful to the duties that his membership imposed on him. Among his associates and his friends he was exceedingly popular, his modest demeanor and his integrity and honesty of purpose revealing him as a true man to those who knew him.

Mr. Morgan was survived by his wife, two daughters, Stella and Hazel, and six brothers, Walter, William, circulation agent for the Tribune; David, Oscar, Edward and Frank Morgan.

The funeral will take place Friday afternoon. At 2 o'clock services will be held in the Borean Baptist church by the pastor, Rev. Dr. H. J. Whalen. Burial will be in Maplewood cemetery.

JERMYN AND MAYFIELD.

Will Flanagan, a foot man employed in the Delaware and Hudson shaft, was painfully injured Tuesday afternoon. He was whitening his face from a moving trip of friends, when, in reaching, he overbalanced himself and fell directly in front of the trip. He was pushed along for several yards before the trip could be brought to a standstill. He was removed to his home as soon as possible after the accident, and attended by Dr. Jackson. While his injuries are of a painful nature, they are not considered serious.

Bernice, the young daughter of Mrs. Maines, of Main street, is seriously ill of pneumonia.

Drungrit Will Graves was still alive at 9 o'clock last evening, but his death was momentarily expected.

Sammy, the little son of Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Langman, of Fourth street, is seriously ill.

OLYPHANT

The municipal sewer advocates are jubilant over the result of Tuesday's election on the sewer issue, when the citizens of this borough voted overwhelmingly to increase the indebtedness of the borough to the extent of $3,000 to pay the borough's portion of the sewer already constructed. The only opposition was in the First ward, where the vote was 134 against the increase, and 25 for the increase. In the Second ward only one vote was cast against, while in the Third and Fourth wards there was not a solitary vote against the increase.

Two illustrated lectures will be delivered by Rev. H. J. Whalen, D. D., of Carbondale, at the Susquehanna Street Baptist church next Monday and Wednesday evenings. The subject for Monday night will be "The Life of Christ"; Wednesday evening "The Liberty Social Club will conduct its social as usual on Monday evening at Holland's hall.

THE BRINK IS NEAR

Few Scranton People Know How Near It Is.

Every time you neglect backache, Allow the kidneys to become clogged, Fall to cure urinary disorders.

You get nearer the brink of Bright's disease.

Don't let kidney pills will save you from danger.

Proof of it in Scranton testimony.

Mrs. Samuel R. Jones of 1308 Eynon street, Hyde Park, says: "I suffered for many years with kidney trouble. My doctor said it was catarrh of the bladder. There was a constant dull pain in the small of my back which extended up between my shoulders. When stooping or doing any work about the house the pain was so sharp as to become almost unbearable. I might say that I hardly knew what it was to be without backache. I could not sleep nights and would have to get up often during the night and walk the floor. I heard about Dr. Dean's Kidney Pills and was attracted to them from a moving trip of friends, when, in reaching, he overbalanced himself and fell directly in front of the trip. He was pushed along for several yards before the trip could be brought to a standstill. He was removed to his home as soon as possible after the accident, and attended by Dr. Jackson. While his injuries are of a painful nature, they are not considered serious.

Dr. Estabrook says, "In patients who had lost the sense of smell entirely and even where the hearing had begun to be affected from catarrh, I have had fine results after only a few weeks use of Stuart's Catarrh Tablets. I can only explain their action on the theory that the cleansing and antiseptic properties of the tablets destroy the catarrhal germs wherever found, because I have found the tablets equally valuable in catarrh of the throat and stomach as in nasal catarrh."

Dr. Estabrook says, "Stuart's Catarrh Tablets are especially useful in nasal catarrh and catarrh of the throat, clearing the membranes of mucus and speedily overcoming the hawking, coughing and expectorating.

Any sufferer from catarrh will find Stuart's Catarrh Tablets will give immediate relief, and being in tablet form and pleasant to the taste, are convenient and always ready for use, as they can be carried in the pocket and used at any time as they contain no dangerous drugs, but only the cleansing antiseptic properties of Eucalyptus bark, Guaiacum, blood root and Hydrastis.

All druggists sell the tablets at 50 cents for complete treatment.

Eleven is seeking new hours and Manager Burke loses no opportunity that is likely to give his players a chance to achieve greater success. Last evening he closed arrangements with the manager of the Jermyn High school for a game to be played on Saturday afternoon next. The contest will take place at Fowler park. In the meantime, the High school boys are training for the new honors in sight.

THE NORDICA CONCERT.

The Diagram for the Big Musical Event to Open Today.

The diagram for the great musical event in Scranton, the concert by Mme. Nordica, on Nov. 14, will open this morning at Clark's drug store, Salem avenue and church street.

The advance sale will not be a big one, as musical circles in Carbondale are agog over the concert. F. C. Hand, of Scranton, through whose enterprise Mme. Nordica is coming to this section, rightly guessed that Carbondale would be well represented at this feast of music, so he provided for the coming of patrons from this city. He has had a section of seats marked off, from which they can select their choice, and to make up the difference, by reason of railroad fares, the price of tickets will be 50 cents less in Carbondale.

TAYLOR.

Just one more week to elapse and the American Protestant fair will open in Weber's rink to continue for three nights. Articles of substantial design will be for sale at the different counters which will be decorated for the event. A door prize will be given each evening. During the progress of the fair a tempting menu will be presented by the ladies in charge.

A treat is in store in the concert to be held at the Welsh Congregational church on November 18, to be given by the Temperance Alliance. Women of the Protestant churches of Blakely and Olyphant will be held in the Welsh Baptist church on Susquehanna street. Rev. George Hague will preside. Addresses will be delivered by Revs. B. F. Hammond, James Hey and David Spencer, D. D.

Miss Daisy Holmes, of South Gibson, who has been the guest of friends here, returned home yesterday.

Hon. P. A. Philbin, of Archibald, was in town yesterday.

Mrs. T. L. Williams spent Tuesday with Providence friends.

FUNERAL OF MRS. HILLER.

The funeral of the late Mrs. Hiller, wife of Rev. William Hiller, of Parsons, at one time pastor of the Methodist church in this city, will take place on Friday.

At 11:20 in the morning there will be services in the Methodist church at Parsons, and commencing at 2:30 in the afternoon services will be conducted in the Methodist church in this city.

The services here will likely be conducted by Rev. Austin Griffin, D. D., presiding elder of the Wyoming district, and Rev. W. L. Thorpe.

Burial will be in Maplewood cemetery.

AN ELECTION DAY ROW.

The only disturbance on election day, so far as known, took place in the booth at the Carbondale school house, Ell Township. James Corrigan, proprietor of the Farmer's Rest, near the Falls, and Charles Fischer, who were intoxicated, began to quarrel. George Brennan stepped between them in the hope of separating them. Fischer, Brennan claims, pulled a knife and attempted to stab him.

Fischer was arrested at the instance of Brennan, and was taken before Alderman Jones, who held him in $300 bail, which he offered.

HAVE TO GIVE UP.

NOTICE TO KNIGHTS OF MALTA.

M. L. Oliver, sir knight commander of Temple commandery, No. 28, Knights of Malta, has issued the following notice to members:

There will be a special meeting of Temple commandery, No.
