A DAY'S SAD OBSEQUIES.

Impressive Services of the Late Thomas Morgan and Mrs Orestia L. Hiller, Wife of Rev. William H. Hiller.

There were two sad and solemn ceremonies in this city yesterday, when the obsequies of two greatly esteemed persons of the community, Thomas Morgan and Mrs. Orestia Hiller, wife of Rev. William H. Hiller, took place.

The solemn service was opened with Scriptural reading by the pastor, Rev. H. J. Whalen, D. D. The quartette, William M. Clark, Mrs. Frank E. Burr, Mrs. Lucy Haddock and William A. Roberts, under the leadership of Mr. Roberts, who is director of music at the church, sang with impressive feeling "This Only a Little While."

Dr. Whalen delivered the eulogy. He asked that those who mourned and who gathered with the mourning ones to look beyond the human side of death and mourn to the Christian side, where in they would receive sustaining strength.

His eulogy of the deceased was beautiful and touching. If there was ever a man who walked in the valley of the shadow of death, without fear, as spoken of by the Psalmist, that man was Mr. Morgan.

Dr. Whalen paid a strong tribute to the patience of Mr. Morgan during his weary sickness and his resignation when the clouds of death began to darken all about him. "I am conscious," said Dr. Whalen, "that his must have been a delightful experience when he came to the gate at the end of his journey in the valley of the shadow of death and beyond was the glory of the kingdom to come. His life was lived so successfully and was closed so triumphantly."

The attendance at the obsequies, which almost filled the auditorium, embraced persons from up and down the valley.

The Clergymen who assisted in the solemn services were Rev. Dr. Austin Griffin, presiding elder of the Wyoming district; Rev. W. L. Thayer, of Plymouth; and Rev. A. P. Chaffee, Bristol was made in Maplewood cemetery.

Grateful It's Not Buoic.

The Carbondale representative of the Scranton Tribune devoted nearly two columns to the game and the report was written in the same hyperbolic style as was his article on the Waymart detective and constable. Further comment is unnecessary.

WIT OF THE IRISH RACE.

Dr. Whalen Will Happily Relate Many Stories.

The wit and humor of the Irish race will be happily illustrated by Rev. Dr. H. J. Whalen in his lecture on this subject in the assembly room of the Central school building, on Tuesday evening next.

The lecture is for the benefit of the Athletic association of the High school, which of itself will be quite a factor in the evening. It will be well attended and the speaker will have an audience to greet Dr. Whalen. This is the expectation, and there is little doubt of it being realized.

Many Carbondale persons have heard this lecture of Dr. Whalen and they have pronounced it a gem. It is filled with Irish wit and humor, with an audience to greet Dr. Whalen. This is the expectation, and there is little doubt of it being realized.

The young people connected with the enterprise have been industrious and energetic in disposing of tickets, and there is a warm but good-natured rivalry, of course, over who can claim credit for selling the largest number of seats.

A warm commendation of Dr. Whalen's lecture, coming as it does from nearly, and from one who himself enjoys a reputation as a public speaker, is that of Attorney Charles A. McCarty, of Honesdale. Mr. McCarty's glowing words are as follows:

"Dr. H. J. Whalen's lecture on the 'Wit and Humor of the Irish People' is a masterpiece of deep, interesting and instructive."

"The speaker shows deep historical research, bringing to light many of the salient points of Irish history which are too apt to be overlooked and permitted to be dormant."

"The treatment of the Irish character is broad, liberal and unbiased. The wit and humor attributed to the Irish people is pure, refined and wholesome."

"I will always be pleased to hear of the delivery of this excellent lecture and feel that humanity is benefited by every repetition of it."

"This, A. McCarty, Honesdale."

INTEREST INCREASES.

Carbondale Will Be Well Represented at Nordic Concert.

There is a steadily increasing interest among Carbondalians in the Nordic concert in Scranton, on Thursday evening next, at the Lyceum. The concert is every day that the musical and society element of the town will be out in force on the extraordinary occasion of Nordic's coming.

In musical circles in Carbondale, and by this is covered every quarter of the town, the proceedings are being variously discussed, and anticipations are rife over the rare musical feast in store.

Manager Hand's wise thoughtfulness in providing for patrons of the concert from Carbondale is appreciated here, as can be well inferred from the approving remarks that are heard.

YOUNG WOMANHOOD.

How Often it is Made Miserable by the Lack of Proper Advice at Just the Right Time.

This picture tells its own story of sisterly affection. The older girl, just budding into womanhood, has suffered greatly with those irregularities and menstrual difficulties which sap the life of so many young women.

Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound can always be relied upon to restore health to women who thus suffer. It is a sovereign cure for the worst forms of female complaints, that bearing down feeling, weak back, falling and displacement of the womb, inflammation of the ovaries and all troubles of the uterus or womb. It dissolves and expels tumors from the uterus in the early stage of development and checks any tendency to cancerous humors. It subdues excitability, nervous prostration, and tones up the entire female system.

Mrs. Pinkham especially invites young girls to write her about their sickness. She has made thousands of young sufferers happy.

Two young women authorize us to publish the following letters.

"DEAR MRS. PINKHAM:—I cannot praise Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound enough. It is simply wonderful the change your medicine has made in me. Before I took your medicine, I could hardly stand the pains in my back. I tried different doctors but none did me any good. I took three bottles and feel like another person. My work is now a pleasure while before it was a burden. To-day I am a well and happy girl. I think if more women would use your Vegetable Compound there would be less suffering in the world. —MRS. MATHILDA J. LAGASSE, 829 9th St., New Orleans, La. (Dec. 30, 1900.)"

"DEAR MRS. PINKHAM:—I suffered for several months with pains in my back and sides. I felt worn out and weak. I tried many different medicines but nothing seemed to do me any good until I began taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. After taking several bottles, I feel entirely well. My improvement was simply wonderful. Thanking you for the benefit I have derived from your medicine. I am sincerely yours, FANNIE CLIFTON, La Du, Mo." (Jan. 12, 1901.)"

Do not be persuaded that any other medicine is just as good. Any dealer who suggests something else has no interest in your case. He is seeking a larger profit.

Follow the record of this medicine and remember that these thousands of cures of women whose letters are constantly printed in this paper were not brought about by "something else," but by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

$5000 REWARD

Being in the fact that some skeptical people have from time to time questioned the genuineness of the testimonial letters we are constantly publishing, we have deposited with the National City Bank of Lynn, Mass., $5000, which will be paid to any person who will show that the above testimonial letters are not genuine. —Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Company, Lynn, Mass.
