Will Be in Charge of Brother of the Deceased—Funeral Tomorrow Afternoon—Electric City Wheelmen Bowling Alleys and Foot Ball Eleven—Oxford Glee Club—Mission at Holy Cross Church—Board of Trade Meeting—Director Roche Will Speak—Other Notes.

The many friends of the late Edwin Thomas were pained to learn of his sudden death at Monongahela City on Saturday. The first intimation his relatives had of his death was in a telegram which was received at Scranton on Sunday. The telegram was from a sister-in-law, Mrs. M. E. Lottus, who had been notified of his death at Monongahela City, in which it was stated that Thomas had been killed.

The full particulars of his death have not yet been learned, but as soon as the telegram was received, his brother, Arthur F. Thomas, left for Monongahela, Pa., to take charge of the remains. Word was received from his sister-in-law that he will arrive in Scranton with the body at 10 o'clock this morning.

The young man was well-known in this city as a merchant and scholar of marked ability. He left here a few years ago to accept a position near Pittsburg, where his talents were recognized.

He is survived by one sister-in-law, Mrs. Gomer Price, Arthur F. Thomas, foreman of the Allegheny River Manufacturing company's plant, Pryor Thomas, salesman for John T. Porter, Daniel S. Thomas, electrician, and Perry S. Thomas.

The funeral services will be held at 10 o'clock tomorrow afternoon at the home of Mrs. Gomer Price, 221 South Hyde Park avenue. Interment will be made in the Washburn street cemetery.

Rev. William Davies, pastor of the Bellevue Welsh Catholic Methodist church, exchanged pulpits yesterday with Rev. Robert T. Roberts, D. D., of Wilkes-Barre. At the morning service Dr. Roberts preached an eloquent English sermon, and at 7 o'clock Davies gave an able discourse in the Welsh language. Large congregations were present at both services.

Hutter, each spoke to large congregations. The latter's morning topic was "A Religion of Reason," and in the evening he gave his congregation a dissertation on "Pharaoh's Agnosticism."

It will be no fault of Dr. Moffat if the present indebtedness is not wiped out before January 1. He is zealously at work with the "talent" fund. If one-half of the membership would give their part it could be easily supplied. The musical last Thursday evening by the Misses Sanders at their home was a very successful one. On Friday evening next Mrs. Moffat's class will serve an oyster supper in the church from 6 to 8 o'clock for 25 cents, proceeds to apply on the talent fund.

POSTAL CARD THAT TRAVELED AROUND THE WORLD.

It Was Sent by F. W. Terpe Last July and Was Returned to Him on Friday After Encircling the Globe. Funeral of Mrs. Hannah Davis. Two Slight Fires Yesterday—Meeting of Maennerchor—Yesterday in the Churches—Other News Notes and Brief Personal Mention.

Fred W. Terpe, Jr., of 731 Cedar avenue, has in possession a curiosity in the shape of a postal card, which has made a trip around the world and is covered with stamps and postmarks of numerous large cities. The card was started on its long journey July 22, to decide a bet as to its return, but it reached home Saturday, after its trip around the globe.

Mr. Terpe addressed it to the German consul in Berlin, with a request to please forward it, and it travelled as follows: Scranton to New York, to Hamburg and overland to Berlin. It was forwarded to the consul at Calcutta, by way of Southampton through the Suez Canal and the Red Sea, to Bombay, where another journey overland brought it to Calcutta. There the consul started the penny traveler on its homeward trip, addressing it to the governor of Manila, Philippine Islands, by way of Penang and Singapore, the names of which places are stamped on its face.

On the last lap of the home stretch, it was stamped at Honolulu, Hawaiian Islands, and San Francisco. The postal card was delivered to the sender last Friday, rather the worse for wear, but covered with stamps and glory, and is now counted among the treasures of the owner.

Edgar Weichel despatched a card at the same time, but, as yet, has heard nothing of it, the address having been different to the one sent by Mr. Terpe.

Laid at Rest. The remains of the late Mrs. Hannah D. Davis were laid at rest with impressive services yesterday afternoon, from the residence of Mr. and Mrs. Evan Francis, of Greenwood. A beautiful tribute was paid to the model life and christian character of the deceased at the residence, by Rev. Mr. Harris, of Taylor, and several selections were rendered by a quartette of singers, who also sang at the graveside, as the body was being lowered, that sweet, pathetic hymn, "Good Night."

The pall bearers were Messrs. Thomas Lovering, Thomas Evans, Michael Shallow and James McDonough.

Maennerchor Meeting. A well attended singing session of the Junger Maennerchor was held at their Cedar avenue headquarters yesterday afternoon, when satisfactory progress was made with some difficult new pieces of music.

Many lovers of music were present, among them being Messrs. Rummann, Lelm and Lipford, of the Wilkes-Barre Liederkreis Singing society, who were the guests of the Maennerchor during their visit in this city.

Two Slight Fires. A fire which threatened to assume serious proportions, was quenched yesterday morning at 7:30 a. m. by the presence of a neighbor, John Ziesemer, who happened to be in the neighborhood. A passing Lackawanna Iron and Steel company locomotive dropped a spark just behind Bests Hotel, 311 Cedar avenue, which ignited a quantity of straw in the barn. Mr. Ziesemer constituted himself a fire chief, pending the arrival of the firemen, and with the assistance of Thomas Murray and James Best, did the work so well that when the Neptunes, Centuries and Connells arrived there was nothing for them to do but congratulate the volunteers.

There were several amusing features in connection with the blaze. In the excitement, Mr. Ziesemer, who rushed into the barn to rescue his brother's horse, did not wait to put on a harness, but dragged the animal out by the tail.

The other blaze occurred at the old Lackawanna Iron and Steel company's saw mill, alongside the Roaring Brook, about 10 o'clock. A still alarm was sent in to the Chemical Engine company, who speedily squelched the incipient blaze. An engine spark is also believed to have started the fire.

In the Churches. Rev. Father Daniel McHale, who was recently ordained in Baltimore, had his second high mass at St. John's church on Fig street yesterday. The sermon was delivered by Father Boland, the parish curate.

The Lord's supper was administered at the church on Prospect avenue yesterday by the pastor, Rev. E. J. Schmidt, Ph. D. The services commenced at 10 o'clock, and there was a very large attendance.

NUBS OF NEWS.

At a meeting of the German Brewery Workers' Union, Local No. 242, which held yesterday and presided over by Berthold Schott, of Pittston avenue, resolutions endorsing the street car men were adopted and a donation of $50 made to the street car employees' union.

Messrs. John Ziesemer and Louis Schumacher, of this side, returned on Saturday from a hunting trip in the vicinity of Lake Ariel with seventeen rabbits, one quail, one pheasant, and three ducks.

Miss Maud Schull held No. 69, the winning ticket that took a costly pillow offered recently by Miss Louisa Blatter for the benefit of the new parish house being built by the congregation of the German Presbyterian church on Hickory street.

Messrs. Peter Haas and August Hahn were hunting on the South mountain Saturday and had the good fortune to bag ten rabbits.

On the 4th, P. O. S. of A. will meet tonight in regular session at Hartman's hall on Pittston avenue.
