The public is always interested to hear these descriptions end tales and in Father Daly will be found one who is happily qualified to entertain and instruct, as well, for there are many lessons to be learned from such an experience. What gives a local interest to the lecture is that two Carbondale boys,

Frank Newcomb and Alex, Brennan, were volunteers in the regiment of which Father Daly was chaplain. The diagram of seats is open at B. A. Kelly's drug store.

AMONG THE BOWLERS.

Interest in the Game of Ten Pins Increasing Among Carbondale Sportsmen-One Team Formed, Another in Process.

Interest in the sport of bowling is increasing among the sportsmen of Carbondale. One team has already been formed and nnother, from among the Carbondale Cycle club members, can be said to be in process. Before the cold weather is fairly on bowling will be quite the thing among the male population of the city. The team that has been organized is composed of bowlers who have become experts in making "strikes" and "spares" on the one alley in the town, the one at Niessen's, on South Main They have named themselves street. "The Lightweights," though some of he members have piled up merit for them the name of "Top Notchers." "The Lightweights" are George Griswold, John Devanney, E. H. Corbett Charles Chamberlain and Gus Niesser George Griswold, who is the heavy weight of "The Lightweights," has been elected captain. The team is enthuslastic over the season's prospects and are arranging to meet teams from Forest City and Honesdale, if there be any in these towns who care to wander
