

E. M. Streeter and family, having closed their Dalton home, have taken up their residence in Scranton for the winter, Mr. and Mrs. Zimmer, of Meshappen, have te-served home from a visit with Mr. and Mrz. W.

providing for an electric light on Columbia avenue, between Washington avenue and the boulevard: appropriat

The following ordinances passed first ind second readings; Exonerating Lackawanna hospital from city taxes:

A railroad torpedo, which had been placed on the tracks in front of strike headquarters on Lackawanna avenue was exploded last night about 9 o'clock

FELL-HOWE NUPTIALS.

Scranton Bride.

by a passing car. Fortunately, no damage was done, though railroad torpedoe

Perhaps the marvelous notes in the brilliant Les Filles de Cadiz will echo farther in the memory of many, who may not retain the intangible, fleeting spell of "Elsa" as she sings of the swan night who is to come into her life: o

d. Evans, of Latayette street Mrs. Lewis H. Adams, of Canandaigue, N. Y is visiting her mother, Mrs. W. K. Laverig, ϵ lyttle street, for a lew day-

Mrs. John Dershimer, of Dalton, has return bolie from a visit with her daughter, Mrs. Wi liam Kine, of Bobinson street. President W. H. Truesdale, of the Enchawant tailroad, returned to New York yestarday after noon, after a short stay in Seranton. Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Raif, of Ranson, who have been the guests of the Misses Kresge, of Not)

Hyde Park avenue, have returned beine. Mr. and Mrs. Charles Hubber, of Mullie street, have taken a house at the corner of Hyd Park avenue and Schlager boulevard, West Park James J. Connoliv, for many years in employe of the Truth composing room, has gone to the home of his parents, in Trunon, Carola, where to intends to remain in future

LECTURE ON TEMPERANCE.

Rev. Thomas F. Burke Spoke in St Peter's Cathedral.

the tax on a huck-ter would be $3 more Rev. Thomas F. Burke, an eloquen than the average mercantile tax. Mr Paulist father from New York city, de-Keller thought the fees too high, and livered a temperance sermon in St. also found fault with it because it inathedral last night that was cluded farmers who sell their own produce and should not be subjected to a listened to by a large throng, who were lax. Mr. Evans favored cutting the fees much impressed with the young elergyman's earnestness and cloq ince. The n half.

lecture was given under the auspices of the Catholic Total Abstinence societies Mr. Coleman, in defense of the ordiance, said it was aimed, particularly, of this part of the Scranton diocece. at peddlers who buy berries or some Father Burke's address throughout other such goods and sell them from a was a plea for total abstinence, which rate carried on their shoulders, oftenhe declared to be the most effective times establishing themselves in front remedy for the liquor evil. of the store of some merchant dealing "The enemies of total abstinence in the same line of goods. The grocers' said he, "declare us who have taken the association and many of the permanent pledge to be extremists and families, hucksters, he said, were asking for the and that it is not right to expect the passage of the ordinance. vast majority of people to give up their purchase.

in case lots.

over 1900 prices.

The resolution for opening Vine street pleasure. It is a shame that Christian and Irving avenue was introduced by people should give expression to such Mr. Keller, and as originally offered did a thought. Would not the general pracnot include Irving avenue. Messrs. tice of total abstinence rescue from Naegli and Stipp asked to have the lateternal perdition the souls of countles: ter thoroughtare included, and Mr. Kelmen and women? God pity the men ler consented. He said he would have and women, say 1, who are against the included Irving avenue originally, but felt that the Lackawanna Iron and total abstinence movement."

Father Burke said that he was Coal company ought to open up this ashamed that there are so many who street at its own expense, in consideration of the benefit it will derive from use intoxicating liquors, within the Catholic church. The church itself is too often judged, he said, by the failthe increased value to its property. Smoke the Pocono 5c. cigar, ings of some of its children. The Catholle church, he said, has done many things for the cause of temperance and voice has always been raised against the evil of drink.

The essential element of total abstinonce, self-sucrifice, he declared to be one of the greatest virtues. He quoted the Savior's words: "Let him deny himself, take up his cross and follow Me," In closing, he exhauted those present to stand with their "races so against the sin of sins which has brought disgrace, ruin and death to many."

ASSIGNED TO THE TWELFTH.

Lieutenant Keck's Regiment Is in the Philippines.

Morris M. Keck, of this city, who recently received a second lieutenant's commission in the regular army, has been assigned to the Twelfth infantry, which is located in the Philippines. Lieutenant Keck has not yet been ordered to join the regiment. He returned from the Philippines only a ort time ago, where he served as a lieutenant in the volunteer army,

Our Coffees are all cleaned, scoured and dry roasted; fresh every week. Imperial Tea and Coffee Co 422 Spruce street.

ing funds for the department of public are dangerous things on account of the tin case containing the dynamite, which flies many feet with great velocity afety; providing for a sewer basin on the corner of Jackson street and Rebecca avenue. The following ordinances passed third reading: Providing for paying Penn avenue, in front of the Coar property by private contract; appropriating $1,-Wilkes-Barre Physician Takes 042.98 to purchase supplies from the volunteer fire companies; providing for A beautiful home wedding was soltwo electric lights on Front screet, two mnized last evening when Miss Rena on Ridge Row and three in the Fourth word; appropriating $110.12 to pay the claim of Joseph Ansley for the ex-rail-Maud Howe, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas B. Howe, of 1725 Capouse aveing that was in ex-Recorder Moir's of-

THE HUCKSTER LICENSE.

The Coleman ordinance, taxing buckters $15 and foot peddlers $10, was

The bride was given away by her faiher, T. B. Howe, and was attended by passed on first reading and laid over her cousin, Miss Winnie Howe, who acted as maid of honor. The groom's for further consideration. Messrs, Gur-rell, Keller and Joseph F. Evans atst man was his brother, David A, tacked it on the ground that fees were

...

Fell. Bauer's orchestra played the Lotoo high. Mr. Gurrell pointed out that hengrin wedding march anghe bridal par-ty entered the parlor; "Cavaleria Rustheana" during the ceremony, and furnished music throughout the evening. The floral decorations were profuse and when they are exploded.

beautiful, smilax, palm, white chrysanthemums and marguerites being effectively arranged about the spacious rooms of the beautiful home.

Only the immediate relatives and losest friends of the bride and groom the only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. June. Her life from her earliest child- never once crude. The work of the orhood has been spent here and her many womanly graces have endeared her to a host of friends, who regret her departure from her home city, The groom is a well known physician left on the midnight train for a wedding trip, which will include New York. 111 Philadelphia and Boston,

HE STOLE BILLIARD BALLS.

Matthew Stanitus Committed to the County Jail. Matthew Stanitus, of West Scranton

as arrested yesterday afternoon at the ustance of L. Rosenburg, the Penn avenue saloonkeeper, who charges him with the larceny of nine ivory billiard balls He alleges that Stanitus came into his place a few days ago and slyly pocketed the balls, after hanging around the billiard room for some time.

Stanitus, when arraigned before Alderoan Ruddy last night, admitted his guilt, and was committed to the county in default of $300 bail KILLED IN MARYLAND.

Superintendent of Police Robling reeived a telegram yesterday from the Now is the time to chief of police of Brunswick, Md., announcing that Fred Heir, of this city, had been killed at Knoxville, near Brunswick. Families supplied at The dead man was 28 years old and was the son of Mr. and Mrs. August lowest wholesale prices | Helr, of 318 Elm street. He left town several months ago. The remains will be brought to this city for interment. The telegram read Fred Heiss, but as No advance at present no person of that name lives at 315 Elm street, it is taken for granted that Heir is meant.

Try our "Holland" blend of Mocha and Java Coffee, 25c. lb.; mild, rich, elegant flavor. Why pay more? G. Coursen Imperial Tea and Coffee Co., 422 Spruce street.

again, the soft, tenderest appeal in the little song, "At Parting," by the one American composer on the programme has a haunting pathos which lingers like the beauty of Grieg's pensive little love song with its wild sweetness. There was an indescribable charm in the 'Song of Thanksgiving," into which Madame Nordica threw the soul of her voice as she told her thanks for the love which God giveth to mortals, 'The delicate felicity in Franz' "Stille Sicherheit" is perhaps interpreted by Nordica as by no other, but undoubtnue, and Dr. Alexander Gray Fell, of edly she scored the climax of the even-Wilkes-Barre, were united in marriage. ing in that weird, marvelous Hungar-The ceremony was performed by Rev. ian aria by Erkal. Such dazzling radi-N. F. Stahl, of Delaware City, Del. ance of tone, such rich and brilliant oloring can be interpreted but seldom, and no living singer does it as the one who held us in her spell last night. And was she not gracious? Will her isteners ever forget the darling little song of Nevin's, "Mighty Like a Rose, or that last touch of the finger tips or the laughing good night in the "When Love Is Kind?"

WORK OF THE ORCHESTRA. Too much cannot be said of the work of the Symphony orchestra, under Prof. Hemberger's direction. It is to be hoped most earnestly that our people realize what it means to have the seal of such approval as Madame Nordica's were present. The wedding supper was on a local musical organization. The served by Hanley. The bride, who is accompaniment to the "Lohengrin" number was a delight, so sympathetic Howe, graduated from the Wilkes-1 and delicate in sentiment was its lead-Barre Training School for Nurses last | ing. Never once was it obtrusive, vas superb. of Wilkes-Barre. Dr. and Mrs. Fell tention of becoming a great musician.

"It all happened, you know," he says nodestly. "I really menat to be a physician, I was in the University of Pennsylvania when I began work with Madame Nordica."

That was five years ago, and instead of going about with a little box of pink and white pellets, Mr. Simmons is traveling in a luxurious private .ar

R.E. Prendergast 207 Washington Aye. chestra in the Unfinished Symphony E. Romayne Simmons deserves a newspaper column all to himself. Mr. Oils, Paints and Varnish Simmons did not start out with the in-He does not admit that he is great at Maloney Oil & Manufacturing Company,

We are showing some new Imported German Bird Calendars. Ask to see them.

We Can

Sell Your Property.

Come and

1. C ...

Ladies' Tailoring Jackets, Etons, Raglans and Newmarket Dress-walking and rainyday Skirts. Our prices are reasons able. Guaranteed to give satisfaction Goods furnished. King Miller, Merchant Tailor.

ROYALWORCESTER ting by Ex-

of Ladies Gloves and Muslin

Underwear.

Staight Front pert Fitter.

Best line

432 Spruce Street.

The Glasscock Baby Jumper

Might aptly be termed a a wooden nurse. Suspended from a five foot stand, by tempered steel springs, it neutralizes every injurious jarring motion and combines Bed Jumper and High Chair; to say nothing of the invigorating influence on th · Child and removal of care from Mother.

Detached from springs it becomes a floor rocker or reclining chair, as you like. It is constructed of Quartered Oak and is practically indestructible

Price, $4.50.

Literature describing the Glassese' Jumper scal free, upon request, but a possible examine if all the store. We a de agentes for N. E. Permayleanie, CREDIT YOU? CERTAINLY: 221-223-225-227 WYOMING AVENUE.

See. HOUSES AND LOTS FOR SALE.

Almost new single house on Myrtle avenue, near Monroe. All modern improvements, $2500. Reduced from $3500. Range, bath, gas, hot and cold water, furnace.

Bouble house and single house, near Monroe and Myrtle, $6500, reduced from $8000. Street is paved, Eleven room single house, Madison avenue, near Linden, $8500, reduced from $9500. Very central. Lot on Linden street, 40 feet front, sewered, $975, reduced from $1400. Chance of a lifetime young man. Lot on Colfax avenue for less than it cost four years ago. 40x160, sewered. Bargain, only $375 down balance on monthly payments. If you cannot sell your property, come and see me.

COMEGYS, Dime Bank Building