

THE MODERN HARDWARE STORE.

The Dining Table....

Is not complete without a good Carving Set.

They add to the beauty of the table and make the carving a pleasure. Our line of Carving Sets is larger than ever this year. A glance at our window gives an idea of what's inside.

Foot & Shear Co.
119 N. Washington Ave.

Cold Weather Coats for Children

Stylish little coats with Oxford Buttons, velvet collars, double row of lambton buttons, in Tan, Brookfield, Inverness, navy blue, tan, black, broadcloth, attached velvet collars and cuffs and many more styles just at attractive.

The Baby Bazaar,
510 Spruce Street.

Customers

have a right to expect that their banking business will be treated as CONFIDENTIAL. This we do, and we also aim to protect their interests in every legitimate manner.

THE PEOPLE'S BANK.

PERSONAL.

Mrs. Nettie Hoady, of Archbald, is the guest of friends in this city.

Charles Wankar, brother of ex-Reverend of Deeds Prebster, Wankar, is very ill at his home on Pittston avenue.

Mr. and Mrs. D. L. Morgan, of North Summer, returned home from Washington, D. C., on Saturday evening.

The many friends of Miss Helen Buchanan, who has been seriously ill for the past two weeks, will be pleased to learn of her recovery.

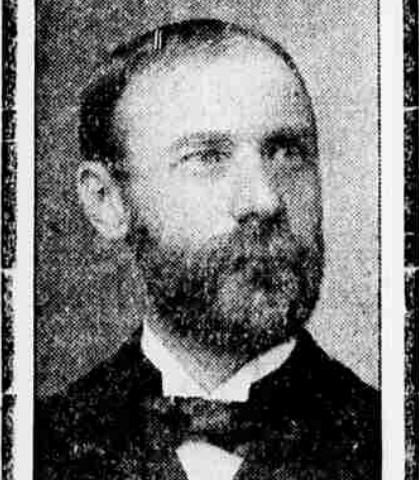

Tony Harbison, who has been a valued attorney of the Scranton House for the past seven years, will today enter the service of the Mahoning oil company as a traveling salesman. His territory embracing several counties, including Lackawanna. Mr. Harbison is a young man, who has hundreds of friends, who will wish him success in his new position.

Mr. and Mrs. David J. Beebe gave a dinner Saturday night at their new home on Prescott avenue to those who comprised their social party and a few relatives and friends. Those present were: Mrs. Catherine Grosse, Mr. and Mrs. John P. East, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph O'Brien, Mr. and Mrs. M. J. Walsh, Miss Margaret Grosse, Miss Josephine Easton, Dr. John E. McGrath, Dr. Walter M. Beebe, Frank J. McGraw, J. J. Mitchell and T. J. Duffy.

$100 Reward.

A standing reward of $100 is offered for information which will lead to the arrest and conviction of any person or persons placing explosives on the tracks of this company.

Scranton Railway Company.
Frank J. Silliman, Jr., Manager.

NOTICE

This notice is here for no other reason in the world than to impress upon you the fact that we have FOR SALE TEN SHARES of the COLLIERY ENGINEER COMPANY STOCK. Buy before advance in price. Room 8, Dime Bank Building, Second floor.

SINGLE HOUSE For Sale Only $1950

Reduced from $3000.

549 Eynon street. Lot 55x133. 9 rooms, ten years old, near street cars. Fruit trees and grape arbor. Will rent for about $20.00. Barn on rear of lot. The house cannot be built for the price we ask.

Apply to
Comeys' Real Estate Offices,
Dime Bank Building,
Or to owner, on premises.

DEATH OF CORNELIUS SMITH.

Widely Known Lawyer Succumbs to Heart Disease.

Attorney Cornelius Smith died early Saturday morning of heart disease at the family home, 430 Monroe avenue, at the age of 63 years. He had been suffering from asthmatic troubles for some time, but it was not until Friday that an affection of the heart caused him to take to his bed.

He was born in Ireland in 1838, and in boyhood was brought by his parents to this country. He spent his early days at Albany, N. Y. While yet a boy his parents moved to Sunbury. His schooling was obtained at Union college, and Bucknell university. At the age of twenty-one he was admitted to the bar of Northumberland county and built up a large practice. Thirty-five years ago he moved to Scranton, where he opened an office in the old Washington hall building. He was in many of the most famous cases, civil and criminal, both here and in adjacent counties, and was very successful.

During the last six or seven years he gained considerable notoriety by reason of his connection with the case of Jennings against the Lehigh Valley Railroad company. He made wholesale charges of fraud and conspiracy against the judges, court officers and others, and as a result was disbarred for two years.

The deceased is survived by his wife, two daughters, Mrs. W. J. Battin and Miss Regina Smith, and one son, Attorney J. Stanley Smith, of Philadelphia. Two brothers, Dr. P. J. Smith, and Thomas Smith, and a sister, Mrs. Rose Fridley, all of Rochester, also survive him.

The funeral will take place Tuesday morning at 11 o'clock from the home. Interment will be made in the Cathedral cemetery. The bar association will meet at 11:30 o'clock this morning in the main court room to take action on his death.

MAY HAVE BASE BALL HERE NEXT SEASON

A. W. Lawson Says Scranton Will Have a Team in the Proposed Eastern Association.

If the Eastern Base Ball association, which now exists in the minds of a few base ball magnates, becomes an actual reality, Scranton will have a base ball team next year—that is, of course, assuming that A. W. Lawson, of Philadelphia, is telling the truth.

Mr. Lawson, who is one of the base ball men who are promoting the new league, arrived in the city on Saturday night, for the purpose of "looking over the field," as he expresses it. He has been identified with base ball for fifteen years, having been a player in his younger days, and manager of late years. He was president of the Pennsylvania State league last year, and managed the Eastern team, which won the pennant.

In an interview with a Tribune man last night, he explained that plans for the organization of the Eastern Base Ball association have been nearly completed, and that as soon as assurances are received from two or three more cities a permanent organization will be effected.

It is proposed to have the following eight cities included in the association: Scranton, Newark, Paterson, Trenton, Wilmington, Reading, Lancaster and Wilkes-Barre. Mr. Lawson himself is the main promoter of the scheme and associated with him are the following base ball men: J. W. Dobbins, owner of this year's independent Newark team; Abbot Whitman and Ernest Landgraf, owners of last year's Reading State league team; and Jesse M. Frysinger, manager of the Wilmington, Del., independent team.

"Do you think you will succeed in interesting local capitalists in the idea of a base ball team for this city?" ventured The Tribune man, as he thought of the ill-starred and unsuccessful recent years.

"Well, I'll try my best," replied Mr. Lawson, and then in a careless way: "If I can't interest any local men, I'm prepared to finance a team on my own hook. I feel that a base ball team will pay in this city. If it is properly managed and is a good, fast league, such as we propose to make the Eastern Base Ball association, I'm not at all discouraged by failures in the past. I'm not that sort of a chap. I'll look over the ground for a few days, and then can say something more definite. You can say, though, that if this league is formed, Scranton will have a team in it."

GAVE WRONG IMPRESSION.

Mr. Turner's Side of the Story of the Seized Milk Cans.

The article in the local papers concerning the seizure by the Abington Dairy company of milk cans in the possession of Dairyman Al. Turner, of Jackson street, tended, by reason of its brevity, to give the impression that Mr. Turner had surreptitiously possessed himself of the cans.

The fact of the matter, as told by Mr. Turner, is that the cans, six in number, were being used at the Jackson street dairy when it was controlled by the Abington Dairy company, of which Mr. Turner was a member. Cans that belonged to him personally were being used by the company. When the company dissolved he bought the Jackson street dairy with the understanding that he was to have the use of such of the company's cans as were there until he was ready to turn them over. The action of former officers of the company in seizing was prompted by a desire to harass and worry him, Mr. Turner says.

Resumption of Sunset Limited Service Between New York, Philadelphia and San Francisco, Season 1901-1902.

Commencing November 30 and each Tuesday, Thursday and Saturday thereafter, the Washington and Southwestern Limited, operated daily between New York, Philadelphia and New Orleans via the Pennsylvania Railroad and Southern Railway, leaving Philadelphia, Broad street station at 6:55 p. m., composed of dining, Pullman dining-room, sleeping, observation and library cars. In addition will carry a special Sunset Limited Annex Pullman drawing-room compartment sleeping car to connect with the Sunset Limited operated between New Orleans and San Francisco.

The celebrated trans-continental service offered by these luxurious trains makes a trip to the Pacific coast not only very quick, but most delightful. Charles L. Hopkins, district passenger agent, Southern Railway, 328 Chestnut street, Philadelphia, will be pleased to furnish all information.

MENTION OF MEN OF HOUR

S. E. WAYLAND'S NEW POSITION IN TELEPHONE WORLD.

He Is General Manager of the Big Consolidated Telephone Company of Pennsylvania—Hon. A. N. Adams of Fairham, Vt., Is in the City—Big Task He Has Set Before Himself—Charles B. Stevens the New Treasurer of the Academy of Music.

When S. E. Wayland first came to this region to introduce a new telephone system, a story was put forth by the opposition lobbyists that he was fresh from a mercantile life in the west, knew nothing of the telephone business and therefore not competent to run a telephone company. Mr. Wayland smiled. He was twice defeated in his efforts to secure a franchise, but all undaunted kept hammering away and finally succeeded. The Lackawanna Telephone company was organized, its system installed and its business opened up. Mr. Wayland. He was at the same time the stock and bond of the People's Telephone company, of Wilkes-Barre. While attending to these two companies, he incidentally busied himself about the formation of the Interstate Telephone company, a long distance system connecting up the independent companies in Eastern Pennsylvania.

Having seen these enterprises successfully launched, he set about the task of consolidating the independent companies. Just what part he played in this does not appear, but it is so it may, the companies were consolidated in a $6,000,000 concern, and last Friday, when they came together at Allentown to organize, Mr. Wayland was elected general manager.

The new combine is known as the Consolidated Telephone company of Pennsylvania. In it are merged the independent companies of Lackawanna, Luzerne, part of Schuylkill, Lehigh, Monroe, Berks, Bucks and Montgomery counties, and negotiations are under way for the purchase of others. The officers of the company are: President, Robert E. Wright, of Allentown; secretary and general manager, S. E. Wayland, of Scranton; treasurer, C. M. W. Keck, of Allentown; executive committee, Robert E. Wright, of Allentown; George H. Bedford, of Wilkes-Barre; W. L. Connell, of Scranton; George O. Albright, of Allentown, and C. W. Kline, of Hazleton. Among the directors are W. L. Connell, S. E. Wayland and W. J. Lewis, of this city, and George R. Bedford, of Wilkes-Barre.

Scranton has now within its borders a man who has undertaken a Herculean task. He is Hon. A. N. Adams, of Fairhaven, Vt., who is visiting his son-in-law, George R. Jermy, Mr. Adams' task being less than the writing of the genealogy of the Adams family. Recently he completed a history of the Adams family in America, after ten years of labor. So thoroughly and interestingly was the work done that the Adamses one and all joined in a demand upon him to extend the work by adding a genealogy of the family before its coming to America. Despite the fact that the Adamses are the oldest family on earth, he agreed to make the effort and is now engaged on the work.

Mr. Adams is 72 years of age, but physically and intellectually is still as virile as he was in middle age. He made a fortune in granite and some years ago retired to pursue exclusively a literary life. He was state senator in Vermont for three terms, and is a close personal and political friend of Senator Proctor. He is prominent in the New England society and an officer of the New England Historical society, which has headquarters in Boston. Mr. Adams' branch of the Adams family is that which gave to the country two presidents of that name.

One of the first things Mr. Adams did on coming to Scranton was to look in the directory for the Adamses. He found twenty-two of them. He said he proposed to see them all before he went away.

Charles E. Stevens, or "Chick" Stevens, as he is popularly called, who was recently appointed treasurer of the Academy of Music, and who has charge of that theater, under Manager A. J. Duffy, is about as well posted on matters theatrical as any man in this city and it has always been a source of wonder to his many friends that he never before took up the theatrical business as a profession.

Mr. Stevens has been one of the most ardent theatergoers in town for years and his ability as a dramatic critic of keen perception and of good judgment has long been recognized. He has acted as local representative of the New York Dramatic Mirror for several years and has done some little dramatic work on local newspapers. He has quite a reputation, also, as a humorist and his series of letters signed "The Lightning Rod Man" which appeared recently in "The Tribune" were widely read and favorably commented upon. He is also an artist of ability and many of his sketches are excellent. In addition to his other talents, Mr. Stevens is proving that he is possessed of executive ability of no mean order by his business-like conduct of the affairs of the academy.

William Abrahamson, the member of the British parliament, who is now in this country, will be the guest of his Scranton friends during the coming week, and will deliver a lecture in Mearns' hall Wednesday evening, Nov. 29, on "A Night in the House of Commons."

This distinguished Welshman is more familiarly known as "Mabon" and has been a leading spirit in the labor movement in England for many years. On Thursday evening Mr. Abrahamson will speak at the Tabernacle in North Scranton on "The Legislative and Labor Laws," and on Friday and Saturday evenings he will be tendered public receptions in West Scranton, and on Sunday, Nov. 24 he will preach in the Bellevue Welsh Calvinistic Methodist church.

The many friends of this distinguished visitor will accord him a generous welcome, and his brief sojourn in Scranton will carry with it many pleasant recollections.

Poor Taxes.
The 1901 poor taxes are past due. Pay them now and save costs. Office with city treasurer.
E. M. Vornay, Collector.

The popular Punch cigar is still the leader of the 10c cigars.

RAISE IN WATER RATES.

It Will Affect Every Householder in the City of Scranton.

In the advertising columns of this morning's Tribune the Scranton Gas and Water company gives notice of an advance in its water rates for dwellings.

For a house occupied by one family, where the rate was $3 per annum, it is to be $4. For a single house occupied by more than one family, $5 for the first family was the charge, but under the new rate it will be $4. Each extra family in a single house is to be charged for at the rate of $3, instead of $5, as at present.

The increased rates are to go into effect January 1, 1902, or three months in advance of the date on which will become operative the license tax ordinance, imposing a tax of five per cent, for municipal purposes on the gross receipts of gas and water companies.

This ordinance is alleged to be defective, because it attempts to levy a tax for use in Scranton on all the receipts of public service companies, without regard to whether or not they are collected for service performed within the city limits. The Calpin ordinance, introduced at last Thursday's meeting of common council, essays to cure this defect by limiting the tax to revenues derived for service performed within the city. The Calpin ordinance, it is generally believed, can be enforced.

ANOTHER THEATRE FOR ELECTRIC CITY

Old Thirteenth Regiment Armory to Be Rebuilt and Made the Home of High-Class Vaudeville.

If present plans to not miscarry, Scrantonians will witness the opening of a fourth theater here next Washington's Birthday.

The old armory, on Adams avenue, is to be transformed into an up-to-date play-house, at an expense of $30,000, and Henry Dixie, well known locally and generally as a successful manager, will conduct it as a first-class vaudeville house, playing the same class of attractions as appear at Proctor's and Keith's.

Plans for the transformation are being prepared by Architect Holden and Conrad Schroeder is to carry them into effect. Work will be commenced at once.

The building is to be raised twenty feet all around, to permit of a raised stage, and a gallery. The stage will be at the rear and will have a 45-foot opening, only one foot narrower than that of the Lyceum.

Mr. Dixie has interested some of Scranton's most representative men in the enterprise, assuring it of unlimited backing, and long lease, with the privilege of purchase at any time, has been secured from the City Guard association.

It will be known as Dixie's theater. Mr. Dixie will give to it his personal direction, to the exclusion of various of his other ventures, with the privilege of purchase at any time, has been secured from the City Guard association.

He was a member of the original Boston Idealists. For thirty years he was with the Alice Oates company as comedian, stage manager, business manager and chief director; he was stage manager at the Philadelphia Casino for two seasons, and at one time or another was director of the Brooklyn Amateur Opera association, the Buffalo Opera company, Syracuse Choral club, Ithaca Choral club, Elmhurst Choral club, and for five years dramatic coach at Cornell.

During the past three years he has devoted his time mainly to summer resort theatricals, having had charge of the amusements at Rock's Glen park, Elmira; Cayuga Lake park; Renwick beach, Ithaca, and Smithland park, O. J. City.

He assisted in putting on "The Gondoliers" for the Kindergarten association and the minstrels for the Home for the Friendless, and at present is assisting Mrs. Dixie in conducting the Opera Carnival for the Hahnemann hospital.

It is Mr. Dixie's intention to incidentally bring here big musical attractions like the Nordica concert, and have them presented at the new Armory.

LITTLE GIRLS OUTRAGED.

W. H. Connolly Is Charged With a Serious Offense.

W. H. Connolly, a man aged 55 years, residing in Capouse avenue, near N. Y. school, was committed to the county jail without bail Saturday night by Alderman P. DeLacy on the charge of criminally assaulting Annie Polaski and Lizzie Burke, two little ten year old girls who live in the neighborhood.

The alleged assault was committed on Sunday, Nov. 10, on which day, it is claimed, Connolly enticed the two children into his apartments by a promise of money. His arrest and hearing were conducted as quickly as possible for fear that news of the affair would get abroad and that public feeling would be aroused.

Both children were under the care of Dr. J. P. Salty all last week. Connolly is a carpenter by trade and is a bachelor. For some time he has occupied a room in the basement of a building on Capouse avenue, between Phelps and Ash streets.

Florida Oranges

25c to 50c per dozen.
Florida Grape Fruit, 10 and 12c. Pecan Nut Meats, finest large meats, 50c per lb. New Walnut Meats, 40c per lb. Finest Shelled Almonds (used by Huyler), 40c per lb. Pink tinted Malaga Grapes, 20c. Lady Apples—Cal Apples—Pineapple, etc. New England Walnuts, 15c per lb. Fancy Figs, 19c per lb.

E. G. Coursen

MEDIATION IS AGAIN AFOOT

ANOTHER EFFORT TO SETTLE THE STRIKE.

Representative Business and Professional Men Spend Sunday Afternoon Discussing Ways and Means of Bringing to an End the Fight Between the Scranton Railway Company and Its Employees—Committee Appointed to Take Action. Strikers Attend and Present Their Side of the Case.

Representative business and professional men to the number of half a hundred met yesterday afternoon, at the Knights of Columbus club house, and inaugurated another movement for the settlement of the street car strike.

The meeting lasted for nearly three hours. Various suggestions were made and discussed, and finally a decision was reached to appoint a committee of seven to take the matter in hand.

This committee consisted of I. H. Burns, attorney; Sol Goldsmith, merchant; William H. Lewis, district attorney; P. J. McMan, merchant; ex-Reverend James Moir, merchant; A. E. Warman, laundryman, and Dr. John O'Malley.

The committee will meet at 7 o'clock this morning at the office of Mr. Burns, in the Mearns' building to formulate its plans. The committee proposes to figure out, if possible, some scheme of settlement that will be acceptable to both sides. It will not present a strikers' proposition to the company or a company's proposition to the strikers, but figuring out a basis of settlement that, in the committee's opinion, ought to be accepted by both sides, it will bring the two parties together and endeavor to have them compromise.

By invitation of the men heading the movement, the executive committee of the strikers, together with National Organizer Reeves, and John Devine and Joseph Oliver of the Central Labor union attended the meeting. A lengthy speech was made by Mr. Reeves, giving the strikers' side of the case.

Attorney I. H. Burns, who was made chairman of the mediation committee, indicated in a thoughtful speech that he has given the strike some careful study, and that when the committee comes together he will likely have some suggestions to make.

The meeting was presided over by P. J. Campbell, insurance agent; and Matt Brown, hatter, acted as secretary.

Among those who attended, besides the men already mentioned were Henry J. Collins, hatter; T. F. Leonard, hardware; William H. McGarrath, druggist; E. M. Reilly, shoemaker; C. G. Holland, insurance agent; M. J. Kelly, baker; T. C. Melvin, hotelkeeper; E. J. Lynett, editor; A. Rose, hatter; Arthur Long, general merchant; M. H. Higgins, tobacconist; John J. Howley, hardware; E. M. Clarke, general merchant; W. F. Joyce, grocer; M. E. Handley, shoe dealer; Aaron Goldsmith, dry goods merchant; J. D. Williams, confectioner; P. J. Honan, tailor.

These are a few noticed in a casual glance at the assemblage. They are mentioned to indicate the general and substantial character of the gathering.

THE smartest line of colored shirts in Scranton are here for you today.

Exclusive patterns—neat colors—detached cuffs, (same with two pairs).

Here are some very fine coat shirts, with attached cuffs, very stylish, made by the maker of our fine custom shirts.

"ON THE SQUARE" 203 Washington Ave.

THE PRENDERGAST STORE.

Only Six Weeks and Christmas Will Be Here. Thinkers are gift-buyers now, avoiding the rush and bustle of the last two or three weeks.

Stationery a Pretty Present.

A box or two of any of the new tints, stamped from a steel die with monogram or address. Can you think of anything more appropriate or acceptable?

Papers from 10c to 35c the quire Address Dies, $1.50 to $3.00 a line Monogram Dies, $1.00 to $5.00 Color Stamping, 15c; gold, silver or white, 25c a quire

No other house in the country can show such an assortment of paper, and few have equal facilities for engraving and stamping.

Christmas Boxed Papers, 25c to $7.50

Rich qualities in dainty packages. The handsomest collection we have ever shown—they are marked very close for quick selling. See them early.

R. E. PRENDERGAST, 207 Washington Avenue

Oils, Paints and Varnish

Maloney Oil & Manufacturing Company, 141-149 Meridian Street. TELEPHONE 26-2.

CONSERVATORY RECITAL.

To Be Given at St. Luke's Parish House Tomorrow Night.

The first public recital of the season to be given by the Conservatory of Music, will occur tomorrow evening at St. Luke's Parish house, beginning at 8 o'clock. The programme will include the following pianoforte selections, solo and ensemble, (with four pianos):

Overture to Tannhauser, by Berlioz
Ensemble Class—Miss Emma Bone, Miss Clara Browning, Miss Hildegard Conrad, Miss Grace Gerlach, Miss Edith Kratter, Miss Anna Voris, Miss Mary Wagonhurst, Mr. Harry Wilkins.
(a) "Barcarolle" by Chopin, Miss Hildegard Conrad.
(b) "Light Cavalry" by Schumann, Anna Hand, Lela Jones, Eva Mason, and Anna Spitzer.
"Swallow's Message" by Lange, Norma Jones.
"La Fontaine" by Reynold, Gustavie Elmgood.
(c) "Barcarolle" by Chopin, Gustavie Elmgood.
(d) "Sitting" by Schumann, Miss Hildegard Conrad.
"Alpine Bell" by Schumann, Helen Watkins.
"The Fountain" by Schumann, Helen Watkins.
"Valse Vire" by Schumann, Helen Watkins.
"Scene de Ballet" by Schumann, Helen Watkins.
"Parade March" by Schumann, Helen Watkins.
Sight Playing Class—Miss May Bedford, Miss Gustavie Elmgood, Miss Flora Knutson, Miss Nellie Schlager, Miss Margaret Lane, Miss Hope Pinwell, Miss Leona Stetler, Miss Ethel Watkins.
"Le Comant L'Impromptu" by Schumann, Helen Watkins.
"Le Retour" by Schumann, Helen Watkins.
"Village Festival" by Schumann, Helen Watkins.
"Valse Endolante" by Schumann, Helen Watkins.
"Papillons" by Schumann, Helen Watkins.
Impromptu Waltz, op. 9, No. 2, by Schumann, Helen Watkins.
Polish Dance in C, op. 9, No. 2, by Schumann, Helen Watkins.
"La Begonia Venezolana" by Liszt, Helen Watkins.
"La Gazelle" by Schumann, Helen Watkins.
War March from "Rienzi" by Wagner, Helen Watkins.
Ensemble Class—Miss Emma Bone, Miss Clara Browning, Miss Hildegard Conrad, Miss Grace Gerlach, Miss Edith Kratter, Miss Anna Voris, Miss Mary Wagonhurst, Mr. Harry Wilkins.

Chestnut, Stove and Egg Coal, $3.00 Per Ton.

delivered to all parts of Scranton, Dunmore, $2.00. Address orders to the Mowry Wilson Coal Co., Box 272, Dunmore, Pa.

Smoke the new Kleon 5c. cigar.

Smoke the new Kleon 5c. cigar.

Smoke the new Kleon 5c. cigar.

Smoke the new Kleon 5c. cigar.

Smoke the new Kleon 5c. cigar.

Smoke the new Kleon 5c. cigar.

Smoke the new Kleon 5c. cigar.

Smoke the new Kleon 5c. cigar.

Smoke the new Kleon 5c. cigar.

Smoke the new Kleon 5c. cigar.

Smoke the new Kleon 5c. cigar.

Smoke the new Kleon 5c. cigar.

Smoke the new Kleon 5c. cigar.

Smoke the new Kleon 5c. cigar.

Smoke the new Kleon 5c. cigar.

Smoke the new Kleon 5c. cigar.

Smoke the new Kleon 5c. cigar.

Smoke the new Kleon 5c. cigar.

Smoke the new Kleon 5c. cigar.

Smoke the new Kleon 5c. cigar.

Smoke the new Kleon 5c. cigar.

Smoke the new Kleon 5c. cigar.

Smoke the new Kleon 5c. cigar.

Smoke the new Kleon 5c. cigar.

Smoke the new Kleon 5c. cigar.

Smoke the new Kleon 5c. cigar.

Smoke the new Kleon 5c. cigar.

Smoke the new Kleon 5c. cigar.

Smoke the new Kleon 5c. cigar.

Smoke the new Kleon 5c. cigar.

Smoke the new Kleon 5c. cigar.

Smoke the new Kleon 5c. cigar.

Smoke the new Kleon 5c. cigar.

Smoke the new Kleon 5c. cigar.

Smoke the new Kleon 5c. cigar.