WELSH PEOPLE HONOR MABON

INFORMAL RECEPTION IN THE WELSH C. M. CHURCH.

Addresses Were Made by Clergymen, Bards, Judge Edwards, Consul Phillips and Mr. Abrahams-Children Injured by the Explosion of a' Torpedo-Willard Howe's Recital in Simpson Church-Union Thanksgiving Services - Shorter News Notes and Personals.

'A typical Welsh reception was tendered the Hon, William Abrahams last evening by the Welsh people of West Scranton at the South Main avenue Welsh C. M. church, which was comfortably filled. All of the autoreses, with one exception, were made in Welsh, and the "bards" were in evidence, as is usual on such occasions. In addition to "Michon" another distinguished gentleman was present in the person of Nev, D. T. Phillips, the present American consul to Condur. Wales. He is a guest of County Commissioners' clerk, W. G. Daniels, at his home on South Main avenue,

The speakers of the evening were Judge Edwards, Rev. Hugh Davis, Rev. 1). II. Harris, Rev. David Jones, Rev. P. Jones, Rev. D. T. Phillips and "Mabon."

Judge Edwards called the meeting to order at $ o'clock when the audience joined in singing an old Weish hymn, led by "Mabon." Chairman Edwards followed with introductory remarks, speaking in Welsh, in which he referred to "Mabon's" achievements. Rev. Hugh Davis was next called on to say a few words, in which he welcomed Mr. Abrahams on behalf of the church, city and country.

Dev. H. H. Harris, D. D., of Taylor said he was very glad to welcome him to our midst, a man who has been one of the great servants of Wides. Every Welshuman is provid of a Welshum who does something for the polifting of his people. Mr. Harris referred to "Mabon's" achievements in the eisteddfod, having also been of service as poet, a singer and a leader of men. The position he has attained has been gained through his integrity. Judge Edwards explained that the needing was to be conducted in Weish. but nucle an exception for Rev. Harthe to speak in English,
