

NORTHEASTERN PENNSYLVANIA

BRADFORD COUNTY NEWS.

Dedication of Soldiers' and Sailors' Monument—Other Notes.

Special to the Scranton Tribune.

Towanda, Nov. 24.—The following programme has been arranged for the unveiling ceremonies of the soldiers' and sailors' monument at this place.

Tuesday. The parade of all the soldiers and societies will move at 1 o'clock, and after a short march at the court house, the band will review at the court house, where a large platform will be erected for the notable visitors and participants of the exercises. At 2 o'clock Colonel Edward Overton will take charge of the programme, viz.: Music, band singing; "The Star Spangled Banner" by chorus; prayer by Dr. J. S. Stewart; unveiling of the monument by Nellie Bryant; presentation of monument, by county commissioners; acceptance of monument, by Governor W. A. Stone, in behalf of the Monumental Association; salute of thirteen guns; introduction, by Colonel Edward Overton; dedication and address by General Horatio C. King, of Brooklyn, N. Y., followed by an address by General Daniel E. Sickles, of New York; singing, "America," by chorus; benediction, by Rev. E. J. Rosengrant; salute of thirteen guns. A camp fire will be held at the Methodist Episcopal church in the evening at which all of the prominent speakers will take part. The committee has already secured excursion rates on the Lehigh Valley and Northern Central railroads for the day, and arrangements are being made for several thousand visitors. In the parade, companies of the National Guard from Wilkes-Barre, accompanied by a band and head officers, and the Continental Drum corps of Elmira will take part.

Mrs. Lucretia Elmira has been awarded $450 damages in an arbitration suit against the borough for damages sustained by falling of a defective sidewalk.

A. J. Fisher & Son, the photographers, furnished the Tribune representatives a photo of the monument, which appears in this issue. A cubicle can be viewed at a cost of twenty-five cents or a larger size for fifty cents.

Joseph Ferguson, supported by a clever company, will present "Gipsy Nell" at the Father Matthew Opera House Wednesday evening.

Miss Gertrude Allen, of Wilkes-Barre, is the guest of Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Shultz of Lackawanna street.

Miss Kate Cummings, of Scranton, visited friends here yesterday.

Rev. David Spencer, D. D., pastor of the Blakely Baptist church, delivered an address at the anniversary exercises of the Jackson Street Baptist church, West Scranton, yesterday.

Miss Annie Patten, a student at Bloomsburg State Normal school, is visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Patten, of Dawson street.

Charles J. Watkins desires to announce himself as a candidate for council from the Second ward of Blakely borough.

OLYPHANT

A well attended meeting of Excelsior Hose company was held yesterday, at which the various committees appointed to make arrangements for the coming fair made reports of the progress they are making. Lloyd's hall has been secured. Tonight a special meeting of the executive committee with the chairman of the sub-committees will be held.

The fourth of a series of lectures and entertainments will be given in the Blakely Baptist church next Thursday evening, when a grand concert, under the auspices of the church choir, aided by special talent from abroad, will be given. Tickets 25 cents.

Joseph Ferguson, supported by a clever company, will present "Gipsy Nell" at the Father Matthew Opera House Wednesday evening.

Miss Gertrude Allen, of Wilkes-Barre, is the guest of Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Shultz of Lackawanna street.

Miss Kate Cummings, of Scranton, visited friends here yesterday.

Rev. David Spencer, D. D., pastor of the Blakely Baptist church, delivered an address at the anniversary exercises of the Jackson Street Baptist church, West Scranton, yesterday.

Miss Annie Patten, a student at Bloomsburg State Normal school, is visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Patten, of Dawson street.

Charles J. Watkins desires to announce himself as a candidate for council from the Second ward of Blakely borough.

MOOSIC.

Miss Lila Ostrander was presented a handsome new piano by her aunt, Mrs. Grover on Saturday.

Mrs. C. H. Johnson has returned to her home in Gracedale, after spending a week in town.

Miss Mary Smith spent Saturday in Wilkes-Barre.

Miss Mayme Hinds was a caller in Scranton on Friday.

The programme for the entertainment in the auditorium Monday evening is as follows: Piano solo, Prof. Jones; solo, John T. Watkins; solo, Mrs. Brundage; poem, by Miss Sarah Price (illustrated); solo, Mrs. Brundage; solo, Prof. Watkins; ovation, Dr. de Gruchy, with the following illustrations: 1. "The Raptorial"; 2. "The Witch's Story"; 3. "Drunkennes"; 4. "The Drunkard's Story"; 5. "An Evening in a Saloon"; 6. "Thou art the Man"; 7. "Lotto's Message." Price of admission, 25 cents.

Theatrical.

LYCIA M.—Operatic Carnival, for the benefit of the Hahnemann Hospital. Night.

ACADEMY—Schiller Stock company. Night.

STAM—Sam T. Jack's Burlesque. Night.

WOMAN'S ENEMY.

Tonight the Schiller Stock company, supporting the talented young actress, Miss Ella Fantine, will open a week's engagement at the Academy of Music with an elaborate production of "Woman's Enemy." The play is one of the most popular and London success, "Woman's Enemy." It is a sensational melodrama in four acts, said to be full of heart interest and pathos.

Mrs. Frank Farris has returned home greatly improved in health.

J. E. Birk, of East Lemon, was a caller on friends here on Wednesday.

Bert Hollister will move his family into the house recently vacated by Frank Miller.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Miller have moved to Dalton.

Horatio Colvin, of Clark Place, was a business caller here this week.

Hunter, who has moved into the Continental hotel, is in a general improvement.

John H. Morris, Jr., who was visiting Richard Alts, has returned to Auburn, N. Y., having made many friends while here.

Between Wimmins and Edmundo, they now have the rock cut widened one-half its proper width. Two steam shovels are in operation, with six drivers each at each end.

Alva Masters is hauling store goods for William J. Emery.

Eugene Mitchell is doing carpenter work for Mrs. Masters.

CLARK'S SUMMIT.

Mrs. Howard Wolf and daughter, Frances of Scranton, were callers in town yesterday.

The school children will have their Thanksgiving exercises next Wednesday afternoon at the school house.

Mrs. Oakley Leemer is on the sick list.

Ernest Buckley has moved into the Cornell house, recently vacated by Mr.

At the Star Theater.

Sparkling and effervescent as a bottle of champagne, the new musical comedy, "Sister Act," will open at the Star theater the first three days of the week.

This attraction is the recognized leader in the burlesque world, and has been proclaiming one of the very best shows, and is refined throughout. The star of burlesque is complete with eleven star acts, all from lines from the leading lights of Vaudeville, while the songs and costume mounting is gorgeous and attractive. A dainty French quadille is one of the brilliant attractions of the show.

In the Forest Lakes there are one hundred and ten miles "lakes." A fair average for musical plays would be say, forty or fifty.

Kyrle Bellew kills so many people in "A Gentleman of Fortune" that it has been suggested that he should be allowed a second name than "Lester" when he is buried.

Walter Whitehead is not playing the principal role in "Robert of Sicily" on tour, and will probably take the piece into New York about the first of the year.

He has been replaced by Jessie Bateman as the leading lady in "A Messenger from Mars," the latter role returning to England on account of illness in her family.

Six Farrington has secured her release from the "King's Company" and has signed with the Sir Brothers for their forthcoming musical production.

Annie Thomas is making good headway with her adaptation of Richard Harding Davis' "Soldiers of Fortune," and Robert E. Lewis will have the leading role when it is presented.

Mrs. Patrick Campbell, with her London company, will sail from Liverpool on the Campagna of the Compton Inn Dec. 11, and arrive in New York on Dec. 21. She will open her first season under the direction of Sir Charles & Company at the Grand Opera House, Chicago, Dec. 20, and will remain there for two weeks, when she will come to New York for a three weeks engagement at the Theatre Royal. Her tour after that, so far as I bid, will probably take in the cities of Boston, Montreal, Toronto, Hudson Opera House, New York, Philadelphia, Baltimore, Washington, Newark, N. J., Pittsburg, St. Louis, Detroit and Cleveland.

The contests of the fair of American Protestant association, recently held, have been postponed, at the request of the contestants, until the second week in January. The contestants are: For dinner set, Mrs. John Evans and Mrs. Anna Voile; for gold watch, Miss Ann Davis and John B. Thomas. The bed room suit was won by Mrs. W. J. Davis, she having collected $51.50.

The mortgage of the Sibley Union church was destroyed last evening. Rev. James Wilker preached an appropriate sermon on the occasion.

Thomas B. Jones is seriously ill at his home in the Pyne.

Miss Rebecca Williams, of Washington street, has returned from a four

MOTHER GOOSE PUZZLE.

Mother Goose and her son Jack. Find Tom the piper's son, who stole the pig.

Solutions for Last Week's Puzzles:

Monday, Nov. 18.—Hold the picture sideways and one man's head can be found under the large bear's foot. The other is at the point of the same bear's foot. Next hold the picture upside down and you will find the fox at the end of the fence railing.

Tuesday, Nov. 19.—Admiral Decatur.

Wednesday, Nov. 20.—All the world's a stage.

Thursday, Nov. 21.—You will find one man under the prisoner's left arm, and the other one between his feet.

Friday, Nov. 22.—Cartridges. Firing pieces.

Saturday, Nov. 23.—The bear's right paw holds the grandfather and Little Red Riding Hood's tail forms the head of the rat.

Thursday, Nov. 21.—You will find one man under the prisoner's left arm, and the other one between his feet.

Friday, Nov. 22.—Cartridges. Firing pieces.

Saturday, Nov. 23.—The bear's right paw holds the grandfather and Little Red Riding Hood's tail forms the head of the rat.

Thursday, Nov. 21.—You will find one man under the prisoner's left arm, and the other one between his feet.

Friday, Nov. 22.—Cartridges. Firing pieces.

Saturday, Nov. 23.—The bear's right paw holds the grandfather and Little Red Riding Hood's tail forms the head of the rat.

Thursday, Nov. 21.—You will find one man under the prisoner's left arm, and the other one between his feet.

Friday, Nov. 22.—Cartridges. Firing pieces.

Saturday, Nov. 23.—The bear's right paw holds the grandfather and Little Red Riding Hood's tail forms the head of the rat.

Thursday, Nov. 21.—You will find one man under the prisoner's left arm, and the other one between his feet.

Friday, Nov. 22.—Cartridges. Firing pieces.

Saturday, Nov. 23.—The bear's right paw holds the grandfather and Little Red Riding Hood's tail forms the head of the rat.

Thursday, Nov. 21.—You will find one man under the prisoner's left arm, and the other one between his feet.

Friday, Nov. 22.—Cartridges. Firing pieces.

Saturday, Nov. 23.—The bear's right paw holds the grandfather and Little Red Riding Hood's tail forms the head of the rat.

Thursday, Nov. 21.—You will find one man under the prisoner's left arm, and the other one between his feet.

Friday, Nov. 22.—Cartridges. Firing pieces.

Saturday, Nov. 23.—The bear's right paw holds the grandfather and Little Red Riding Hood's tail forms the head of the rat.

Thursday, Nov. 21.—You will find one man under the prisoner's left arm, and the other one between his feet.

Friday, Nov. 22.—Cartridges. Firing pieces.

Saturday, Nov. 23.—The bear's right paw holds the grandfather and Little Red Riding Hood's tail forms the head of the rat.

Thursday, Nov. 21.—You will find one man under the prisoner's left arm, and the other one between his feet.

Friday, Nov. 22.—Cartridges. Firing pieces.

Saturday, Nov. 23.—The bear's right paw holds the grandfather and Little Red Riding Hood's tail forms the head of the rat.

Thursday, Nov. 21.—You will find one man under the prisoner's left arm, and the other one between his feet.

Friday, Nov. 22.—Cartridges. Firing pieces.

Saturday, Nov. 23.—The bear's right paw holds the grandfather and Little Red Riding Hood's tail forms the head of the rat.

Thursday, Nov. 21.—You will find one man under the prisoner's left arm, and the other one between his feet.

Friday, Nov. 22.—Cartridges. Firing pieces.

Saturday, Nov. 23.—The bear's right paw holds the grandfather and Little Red Riding Hood's tail forms the head of the rat.

Thursday, Nov. 21.—You will find one man under the prisoner's left arm, and the other one between his feet.

Friday, Nov. 22.—Cartridges. Firing pieces.

Saturday, Nov. 23.—The bear's right paw holds the grandfather and Little Red Riding Hood's tail forms the head of the rat.

Thursday, Nov. 21.—You will find one man under the prisoner's left arm, and the other one between his feet.

Friday, Nov. 22.—Cartridges. Firing pieces.

Saturday, Nov. 23.—The bear's right paw holds the grandfather and Little Red Riding Hood's tail forms the head of the rat.

Thursday, Nov. 21.—You will find one man under the prisoner's left arm, and the other one between his feet.

Friday, Nov. 22.—Cartridges. Firing pieces.

Saturday, Nov. 23.—The bear's right paw holds the grandfather and Little Red Riding Hood's tail forms the head of the rat.

Thursday, Nov. 21.—You will find one man under the prisoner's left arm, and the other one between his feet.

Friday, Nov. 22.—Cartridges. Firing pieces.

Saturday, Nov. 23.—The bear's right paw holds the grandfather and Little Red Riding Hood's tail forms the head of the rat.

Thursday, Nov. 21.—You will find one man under the prisoner's left arm, and the other one between his feet.

Friday, Nov. 22.—Cartridges. Firing pieces.

Saturday, Nov. 23.—The bear's right paw holds the grandfather and Little Red Riding Hood's tail forms the head of the rat.

Thursday, Nov. 21.—You will find one man under the prisoner's left arm, and the other one between his feet.

Friday, Nov. 22.—Cartridges. Firing pieces.

Saturday, Nov. 23.—The bear's right paw holds the grandfather and Little Red Riding Hood's tail forms the head of the rat.