UNION SERVICES OF YESTERDAY

HELD IN THE FIRST BAPTIST CHURCH.

Attendance Was Very Large and Services Were of an Inspiring Character-Sermon by Rev. E. A. Boyl-General Observance of the Day-Exercises in the Schools-P. O. S. of A. Fair-Little Child Badly Scalded-A. O. H. Entertainment. Notes and Personals.

The union Thanksgiving services at he First Baptist church yesterday norning were of an impressive charac ter, and were attended by a representative assemblage of West Scrantor people, numbering among them th members of the Methodist, Baptist Presbyterian, Congregational and other denominations The augmented choir, comprising the singers from the various churches, aided materially in making the service one long to be rement-

When the services were begun at 10 o'clock, the spacious auditorium was filled with worshippers, many of whom were taking their first look at the beautiful interior finishing of the new edifice. After an organ voluntary and the singing of the developy, an invocation was offered by Rey. Thomas de Gruchy, D. D., pastor of the Jackson Street Baptist church in which he thanked God for the many blessings that have been bestowed on his chosen people during the past year.

Following the singing of a hymn by the congregation, the Rev. H. C. Mc-Dermott, paster of the Simpson Methodist Episcopal church, read a beautiful anthem appropriate to the occasion. fervent prayer was offered by the Rev James Benninger, pastor of the Em bury Methodist Episcopal church, a which he asked that God's blessing might be abundantly bestowed on the

The congregation united in single: another hymn, and then an offering was taken up for the West Side hos pital, Rev. J. P. Moffat, D. The rooms of the Young Men's club of the Church of the Good Shepherd were beautifully decorated last evening for the box social given to the members and their friends. A large num-ber of guests were present and considerable mer-riment was caused by the search for companions at supper, after the boxes had been auctioned off. Each box contained supper for two and the person buying a box was obliged to share the con tents with the person whose name wsa written on the box. John Holmes and George Cook acted as auctioneers, and a reception committee, consisting of John Ray, Percy Hart and Fred Faats looked after the comfort of the guests. A great surprise is about to be sprung upor the members of Green Ridge lodge, Independent Order of Odd Fellows--probably, Thursday even-

Thanksgiving day was very quietly observed on this side. The majority of the people attended morning services at the various churches. Masses vices at the various churches. Masses were celebrated at St. Mary's German church on River street, and also at St. John's church on Fig street. At the German Presbyterian church on Hickory street a Thanksgiving sermon was delivered by the pastor, Rev. W. A. Nordt, at 10.30 a. m., while services vere also conducted at the same hour at the Methodist Episcopal church or Cedar avenue.

The Cedar avenue Christ Lutheray church, St. Paul's Lutheran church or Prospect avenue, the Church of Peace on Prospect avenue, and also at the German Baptist church on Hickory street. Rev. Mr. Ritter, of the Ger man Methodist church on Prospec avenue, held toint services at the M E, church on Adams avenue with the pastor, Rev. J. Bobolin.

A delightful repast was enjoyed by many at St. Paul's Lutheran church on Prospect avenue, which was given under the auspices of the Ladies' society A first class vocal and instrumenta programme was rendered during sup per and was heartily received. The ladies who had charge of the affair vere Mrs. G. Laubert, Mrs. Charles Hoffman, Mrs. J. Klos. Mrs. J. Werhew, Joseph Knoss, Joseph Petroy, and Andrew Griener.

Defenders Still Champion. The long expected meeting of the Defenders' basket ball team and the St. Clair state champions took place at St. John's hall on Stone avenue last night and the visitors were defeated. The hall was packed with local enthusiasts of the game who came with fish horns, tin cans, and whistles to root for the South Side favorites. The game was called at 8.30 p. m. and within a few minutes the St. Clair team made the first basket scoring two points. This nerved the local boys and the started in with a vim. Two baskets were scored in short order and then a point was gained on a foul. Shortly after play resumed Morris, the star player, was injured and had to retire from the game. A substitute was put in and each side scored a basket before the end of the first half, making the score 7-4 in favor of the Defen-

Boland took the place of Snyder in the last half and it was quickly seen that the visitors were outclassed. Baskets were thrown in quick succession by Kane, Tigue and Boland and the ball was in the vicinity of St. Clair's goal nearly all the time. Sixteen points were scored by the Defenders during the last half and the visitors only succeeded in scoring once, making the score 23 to 6 in favor of the locals. That their victory was popular was shown by the noisy demon stration made after the game.

Kane was the hero of the hour as ne scored on less than fourteen points. Tigue and Boland also played in excellent style and had four points each to their credit. The visitors played a fast gentlemanly game. Their show ing would probably have been better but the fact that they played a hard game in Providence during the afternoon and also lost their best man in the first half. The teams lined up as follows:

row and Morris, forwards. The umpires were Murphy and Cosby: scorer, McGrath. A reception, followed by a dance, took place after the game.
