A SAD HAPPENING.

H. A. Harper, Brother of Dr. J. G. Harper, of this City, Dies While Enacting the Role of a Hero.

Dr. J. G. Harper, of this city, was deeply grieved on Saturday to receive a telegram which apprised him of the tragic end of his brother, H. A. Harper, at Ottawa, Canada, who met death at his Canadian home while enacting the role of a hero, endeavoring to save the lives of two of the skating party he was with. The New York Herald, of Saturday, describes the sad affair as follows: "Searchers are dragging the Ottawa river for the bodies of two victims of a drowning, which yesterday afternoon turned into mourning the merry-making of a skating party, given by Lord and Lady Minto, near government house. Besides their excellencies and two aides de camp, a score of invited guests were skinning over the frozen surface of the river, when three couples, more venturesome than the others, sped on in advance of the main party. In the lead were Miss Jessie Blair, daughter of the minister of railways, and F. W. Crehman, manager of the Imperial bank. At a point in the river where the current is very swift, they broke through the ice.

HUMPHREY IN BAD WAY.

Weak Hopes in the Case of Victim of O. & W. Accident.

Jacob Humphrey, of Cadonia, N. Y., the brakeman, whose leg was so terribly crushed in the accident near the Onondaga and Westport depot in this city a few weeks ago, is in a bad way. He is making no progress towards recovery and there are the weakest hopes of his surviving. Aside from the bad injury to his limb, his physical condition is the poorest, and so far he has shown almost no powers of recuperation. His vitality was low when he was received at the hospital, and he was greatly run down. The limb from the hip is bruised so badly that it seems necessary to amputate. His condition does not indicate he would survive the shock and for this reason there is little hope that he will rally. The amputation of the limb at the hip seems his only salvation, but to undertake it at this stage would only hasten his death. Mrs. Swingle, who was operated on a few weeks ago, was well enough to leave for her home, of South Canaan, on Saturday. Mrs. Hoffman, of this city, who was operated on a few days ago and was in a dangerous condition for many hours afterward, was considerably improved yesterday.

BLESSED VIRGIN'S SODALITY.

Reception at St. Rose Church Yesterday—Feast of Immaculate Conception.

Yesterday was the feast of the Immaculate Conception of the Blessed Virgin Mary, one of the most significant feast days in the calendar of the Catholic church. Last night its observance in St. Rose church was marked by a reception of the Blessed Virgin's sodality. There was an appreciable number admitted into the membership of the sodality. The ceremonies were edifying and inspiring. The strains of the Blessed Virgin was converted into a beautiful strophe, radiant with the brightness of roses and chrysanthemums and the glow of a score of candles and tapers. There was also a sermon on "The Immaculate Conception of the Blessed Virgin."

Epworth League Officers.

The Epworth League chapter of the First Methodist church held an interesting meeting on Friday night at the home of Mrs. Sadie M. Gell. Among the participating members discussed was the election of officers which resulted as follows: President—F. W. Clark. First vice-president, department of prayer—Miss Gell. Second vice-president, department of mercy and help—Martha Brink. Third vice-president, department of literary work—Mrs. C. H. Horton. Fourth vice-president, department of social work—Clara Arthur. Secretary—Miss Gell. Treasurer—A. M. Brink. Missionary work—Miss Kilpatrick. Plans—Lena Bronson. The business and literary meetings was changed from the first to the second and Wednesday of each month, and on Wednesday.

FUNERAL OF WALTER ROUNDS.

Obsèques of the Victim of the D. and H. Railroad Accident.

The late Walter Rounds, the Delaware and Hudson brakeman who was killed in the yard on Thursday, was held at rest in the cemetery at his birthplace in Carbondale yesterday forenoon. At 3 o'clock there were services at the bereaved home, which were largely attended. The services were held at the residence of the deceased among the treatment of those to whom he was bound by fraternal ties. Gov. A. P. Chandler, pastor of the Methodist church, conducted the services. At 4 o'clock the deceased was taken over to the Erie for Carbondale, where there were services in the local Methodist church. Burial followed in the Carbondale cemetery. There was a myriad of flowers, which bespoke the remembrance and sympathies of sorrowing friends. Those that came from the train men and the Patriotic Order Sons of America camp were beautiful. The pall bearers were from the Patriotic Order Sons of America, and were as follows: Charles Cummings, J. F. Stuck, F. L. Bostel, Charles McMillan, W. L. Clark, Frank Shuler. The flower bearers were the train men with whom the deceased worked. They were: Frank Kiefer, Joseph Wilcox, Samuel Barber, Sig Robbins, Fred Penwarden, Hugh McQuade.

DR. WALSH TONIGHT.

Dr. James J. Walsh, of New York city, whose ability has merited for him the degree of master of arts, doctor of medicine and doctor of philosophy, is endeavoring to bring to the attention of the people the fact that the distinction of being an acknowledged literary author will be conferred upon him by the University of St. Rose Parish Hall tonight. He will deliver his celebrated lecture on "Literature of the Protestant Reformation." This lecture, or talk, will be in keeping with the intellectual feast of Colonel Watterston and Dr. Stafford, and will offer as much, if not more, than either of those lectures did. It is the same lecture that has been delivered before select literary circles in this country, and it is a matter of felicitation for Carbondalians to have the privilege of hearing Dr. Walsh discuss the subject. The sixteenth century witnessed the greatest work that has ever come from the hands of man and this is the reason that Dr. Walsh has selected this period in the literature of the world; it offers admirable scope for his talents. Seats are on sale at H. A. Kelly's drug store, where the diagram shows a few choice seats reserved for.

LIGHT ORDINANCE VETO.

Will Come Before Common Council at Its Meeting Tonight.

Mayor Kilpatrick's veto of the ordinance awarding the contract of lighting the city's streets will come before common council tonight and will likely be disposed of as it was in select committee a week ago, when the mayor's disapproval was set aside by a vote of 5 to 1. Up to the present there has been an adequate number of votes. The ordinance will be brought before the council at 7 o'clock, and there are now no indications of a change. It can be safely predicted, therefore, that the veto will also be rejected by common council. Another important item of tonight's meeting will be the resolution providing for street cleaning for the postoffice. At first blush this seems to be unimportant, but it means a good deal of relief to the postoffice attaches who are obliged to stand at the stamp and delivery windows and have the discomforting and dangerous blast of the winter winds, that force themselves in whenever the swing doors of the lobby are opened. Since the snowfall a good deal of trouble has been experienced from the snow that has clung to the shoes of those who come and go from the postoffice. This was deposited on the threshold of the lobby in such quantities that it interfered with the swinging of the doors. Half of the time the doors would remain fast, calling for frequent attention and the judicious use of a hatchet to chop away the frozen ice and snow.

OBITUARY.

Mrs. Reese Hughes.

MRS. REESE HUGHES, one of the most highly respected residents of the city, died yesterday morning about 8 o'clock at her home on Salem avenue, of gastritis. She had been in ill health for about a year but had been confined to her bed since September last. She was a constant attendant at the Baptist church and was the last surviving member of the late Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Hughes, who was born in Myrthelville, South Wales, 76 years ago. She came to this city from there in 1850 and a year later was wedded to Mr. Hughes. They lived twelve years in Myrthelville at the same number in Jersey city but the balance of their married career was spent in this city or vicinity, they living on a farm near Clifford for ten years. Mrs. Hughes in her younger days was a constant attendant at the Baptist church and has a woman of the most estimable traits. She was very charitable and in every way won the highest admiration and esteem of all who knew her. The funeral services will be held at 2 o'clock at the home of her daughter, Mrs. C. A. Benjamin, 29 Laurel street, this city, after an illness of several months. Mrs. Hughes is survived by her husband, Reese Hughes, and five children, as follows: Thomas, who resides in the west; William R., George W., Hughes, Mrs. Sarah Bell and Mrs. Mattie Hughes Brown, all of this city. The funeral services will take place Tuesday afternoon at 2 o'clock at the home on Salem avenue, Rev. Dr. Whalen, of the Baptist church, officiating. Interment will be made in Maplewood cemetery.

For Strikers' Benefit.

An Entertainment for the Benefit of the Striking Motormen and Conductors of the Scranton Railway Company.

An entertainment for the benefit of the striking motormen and conductors of the Scranton Railway company has been arranged for to take place in this city at 8 o'clock at the home of Mrs. C. A. JERMYN AND MAYFIELD.

Lafayette Lepp, a resident of South Main street, Jermy, died Saturday morning, presumably from an overdose of morphine. Lepp at noon on Friday on Saturday, and unintentionally had taken too much.

Free Lecture.

The Central Labor union, of this city, has made arrangements with J. W. Clayton and N. P. Geiger, who are some of the ablest labor union advocates, and who fortunately have come into our midst to attend the A. P. of E. convention, to give a free lecture to the citizens of this city on the necessity of a more perfect organization and the concerted assistance of all lovers of liberty, to translate action on the Chicago question. The public in general is invited. The lecture will be held at 7:30 p. m. on Friday, December 13, at 7:30 p. m. By order of the Central Labor union.

An Octogenarian's Birthday.

The birthday of an octogenarian is an occasion that merits more than ordinary celebration and celebration. Accordingly about a score of relatives of Miss Mary Sotter, who enjoyed that distinction on Friday last, surprised her and presented her with substantial reminders of the occasion. The occasion was one of great felicitation and joy. Present were: Mesdames Monard, Brunner, Schroeder, Braun, Pechter, Rosencranz, A. Kahl, P. Kahl, N. Mohr, J. Mohr, Mang, Gerhard, Gardner, Hermes, and the following relatives: Mrs. Carthuf, daughter and three grandchildren; Mrs. E. A. Mohr, Mrs. Robert Bryson, Henry Sotter, daughter and grandchild; the little great-granddaughter Rosamie Munn, who presented her great grandmother with a bunch containing her picture.

An Actress Ill.

The Lovell's Lane company departed yesterday for their leading character, Miss Emma Janney, who is very ill in her room in the American hotel. She is threatened with pneumonia. A professional nurse from New York city is in attendance.

Recognition of Ability.

Miss Sara H. Swigert, Miss Julia Kilhullen and Thomas W. Loftus, of the corps of city teachers, have been appointed as the committee on permanent certificates by Dr. N. S. Schaeffer, state superintendent of instruction. This is quite an honor for the three who have been selected, as it is a recognition of ability and fitness that is quite complimentary to the teachers named.

Lecture by Scranton Minister.

A treat is in store for the Baptist young people in the lectures that have been arranged to be delivered by Rev. Luther Hess Waring, pastor of the German Evangelical Lutheran church of Scranton. The first of these talks will be given this evening when the subject will be "A Sunday in London." The lectures will be given on the second Monday of each month in the following order: December 23—"A Sunday in Paris." January 13—"A Sunday in Holland." January 27—"A Sunday in Berlin." February 10—"A Sunday in Rome." A general invitation is extended to these talks, to which no admission will be charged, nor no collection taken up.

Selling Saving Banks.

Thomas Whitely, of Scranton, has been in the city for several days, disposing of saving banks, the small gold ones, which have become so popular recently. Mr. Whitely has been greatly successful and has placed several hundred of them in the hands of Carbondalians. He is representing the Citizens Guaranty and Trust company, of Scranton.

Came When It Was Late.

The debaters who represented the St. Aloysius society of Jermy in the debate with the St. Aloysius society of this city, were late in reaching Carbondale Friday night and the audience was not going to 8 o'clock, the supposition being that the society delegation was not going to be on hand.
