LAID AT REST.

Sadly Impressive Services of the Late John Farrell, of Mayfield Yard.

The late John Farrel, the Ontario d Western conductor, whose life marging his duties, was laid at rest Thursday morning among the sleeping dead in St. Rose cemetery.

The last rites of the deceased were sadly impressive. There was a great outpouring of the friends of the departed one and the procession was one of the largest ever witnessed in this city. The life of Mr. Farrell had its influence in many walks of life and in the gathering at the bereaved home and at St. Rose church where the services of the dead were celebrated, where the friends and acquaintances whose respect and warmest friendship he held and whose hearts were touched by the sad circumstances that separated the ties that bound them to him. That he lived in their memory, however, was amply attested by the marks of respect and sorrow that their presence showed. The mass of requiem was sung by Rev. George Dixon, who also spoke tenderly of the deceased in the eulogy he delivered at the conclusion of the abso-

About the casket was a profusion of floral remembrances that came from friends to whom the deceased was particularly dear. The pieces were: Broken brake wheel, Priceburg Ontario and Western employes; crosses, employes Ontario and Western yard: Gates Ajar, with discription, "Husband:" Brother Wreath, by brothers; floral pillow, Ontario and Western Railroad company, Floral carriers—Daniel Toolan, Jas.

Quinn, Frank Inch, E. S. Myers, Anthony Tallet, John Quinn and the Peter Storch. pall-bearers were: Owen Loftus, Joseph Gallagher, Peter Dockerty, John Collins and John Harvey. Those from out of town were: Mr. and Mrs. Edward Farrel, Oneonta, N. Y.; B. C. Farwell, Costella, Pa.; James Farrel, Cousport; Mary Farrell, and Mary Frazee, Costello, Pa.: Grace Shanley, Hancock, N Y.; P. O'Hara, Forest City; M. M. Coy Throop, Mame McGowan and Mrs. Kelly, Scranton; Lizzie Tierney, Dunmore; Alice and Nellie Kelly, Olyphant; O. O. Bourke, Cadosia, N. Y.: Hugh M. Granaghan, Hancock, N. Y.; Patrick Walker, Buf falo, N. Y.; Mrs. J. Kelly, Hyde Park, and Frank Gilleran of Olyphant.

Mr. Farrell was not a native of Carbondale, though he showed the same interest in the city and its welfare as those who claim this city their birthplace. He was born in Starrucca, about 29 years ago. He came to this city about ten years ago and was employed on the Ontario and Western soon after the branch to Scranton was opened. He was faithful in every post that he filled and it was while in the faithful discharge of his duties that he was killed at Olyphant on Monday In all his relations he was upright and honest and merited the respect and esteem showered on him.

Those who survive him are his sore stricken wife who was Miss Anna Walker, of Mayfield yard and two young children, Edward and Frank; also two brothers, Edward of Oneonta, N. Y., and Daniel, of Mayfield yard; two sisters, Mrs. John Pidgeon and Miss Genevieve Farrell, both of this city.

NO MORE RENT.

Slogan Raised at Last Night's Poor Board Meeting-Refuse to Pay Rental to City.

"No more rent to the city for past of present," was the slogan raised at the poor board meeting. The minutes of the last meeting had been read, when Poor Director McCabe arose, and in the following words opened the battle-cry; "Gentlemen: I am opposed to paying any rent to this city. We have a room in this municipal building and we are part of the city government, according to the city charter. In that you can read the duties of poor director. I don't see why we should have to pay rent. We have the poorest room in the building. The board of health has a better room than we have, and they do not pay any rent. You are in danger of your life here, when the fire alarm bell over our head is rung. We have a poor farm in Greenfield which belongs to the city of Carbondale. The township of Greenfield releases us from paying tax on it, yet we have to pay rent here for a miserly little room in the garret. To my mind it is a case of 'Go away back and sit down.'

"Secretary Gillespie, of the Scranton poor board, told me that the city of Scranton does not charge them any rent, and they have the whole ground floor. Here we have a bill for $120 for rent of this room in 1897, four years ago, asking us to pay for rooms occupled by directors four years ago. We have already paid $240 rental since we came on the board. One part of the city government does not have to pay rent, yet we do. Let us take some action on this matter, consult our attorney and then appoint a committee to wait on councils." Mr. McMillan-I make a motion that we refuse to pay any rent due for past occupancy, present or future. Let the city take action against us to collect it. Let us refuse to pay both the old and the new bills.

Mr. Thomas thought the opinion of the attorney should be secured before any action was taken. It was decided to have the following committee secure the opinion of the local attorney and go before councils and report at the next meeting: Messrs. Williams, McCabe and Lynch. A number of bills were then read and ordered paid. The auditors' report was received and Messrs, Williams, Burke and Lynch appointed a committee to bills from the auditors were read: H . H. Horton, $31,50.

A motion was made and carried that the bill against former Treasurer of the Poor Board Edwin Moon for $40, for farm produce, be placed in the hands of the attorney for collection.

OLCOTT IN NEW YORK.

The Irish Minstrel's Successful Engagement at the Fourteenth Street Theatre.

Chauncey Olcott, who is a favorite wherever be goes, has a mighty big crowd of admirers in New York city and whenever he appears at the Fourteenth street theatre he is kept there for several months. This is true of "Garrett O'Magh," which will be at the Grand on Tuesday night.

In this play there is an abundance of strong scenes, sparkling comedy and interwoven with the whole main plot -is a pretty love story that makes the whole intensely interesting. Mr. Olcott will sing in his delightful tenor voice, five new songs of his own composition, The diagram will open this evening at 7.30 o'clock. Checks will be given

After services will be the continuance and closing of the annual meet-In the afternoon at 2.39 o'clock, the teachers and children of the Sabbath school will meet in the church, to prepare for Christmas eve exercises.

Second Number of Series.

The second lecture of the series on 'Ancient Types of Modern Men," by Rev. H. J. Whalen, will be heard tomorrow night in the Bereau Baptist church. He will have for his subject. "Thomas, the Doubter." Last Sunda; evening the first of the series was "Demetrius, the Opposer."

Those who heard that will also be glad of a chance to hear the second number, and the probabilities are that the renowned speaker will be listened to by a large audience.

Officers Elected.

The following officers were elected Thursday night at camp 138, Sons of America. They will be installed by Past Captain C. S. Alexander, Jan. 2. 1902: Captain, I. H. Colvin: first lieutenant, James Byden; second lieutenant, V. J. Finch; camp council, G. W. Gilbert, F. H. Smith, and C. W. Myers; delegate at large, F. H. Smith; alternate at large, J. A. States; delegate, U. M. Hobbs; alternate, John Hudson.

Men's Meeting.

The men's meeting at the Bereau Baptist church next Sunday will be held at the usual hour, 9.45 a. m., and will be conducted by Mr. Jason Stoddard. The singing will be in charge of Mr. John Bone, who has kindly consented to act as charister on these occasions.

"Joshua Simpkins" Tonight.

To hear a splendid orchestra composed of professional musicians, discourse a repertoire of standard and popular music, incidental to, and between the acts of a popular comedy, is something that is promised to the patrons of the Grand opera house in the performance of "Joshua Simpkins," which will appear here this afternoon and evening. The orchestra in itself is claimed to furnish an evening's enwig; L. S. V. G., Miss Maud Roberts; I tertainment. Rendering several sensa-

Mrs. Eckis Stephenson of Salt Lake City Tells How Operations May Be Avoided.

The universal indications of the approach of woman's great enemy, inflammation and disease of the ovaries, are a dull throbbing pain, accompanied by a sense of tenderness, and heat low down in the side with occasional shooting pains. On examination it may be found that the region of pain will show some swelling. This is the first stage of ovaritis, or inflammation of the ovaries. If the roof of your house leaks, my dear sister, you have it fixed at once ; why not pay the same respect to your body? Neglect and the dreadful surgeon's knife go hand in hand. How many thousands of our poor suffering sisters might have escaped the hospital and its dreadful experiences if they had only done as the lady whose portrait and letter we are permitted to publish. Oh, what more can we do to make women believe.

MRS. ECKIS STEPHENSON

State Chairman Young Peoples' Temperance Union, Salt Lake City, Utah. "DEAR MRS. PINKHAM: - I suffered with inflammation of the ovaries and womb for over six years, enduring aches and pains which none can dream of but those who have had the same experience. Hundreds of dollars went to the doctor and the druggist. I was simply a walking medicine chest and a physical wreck. My sister residing in Ohio wrote me she had been cured of womb trouble by using Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, and advised me to try it. I then discontinued all other medicines and gave your Vegetable Compound a thorough trial. Within four weeks nearly all pain had left me; I rarely had headaches, and my nerves were in a much better condition, and I was cured in three months, and thus avoided a terrible surgical operation." — Mrs. Eckis Stephenson, 250 So. State St., Salt Lake City, Utah.

Another Operation Avoided in Philadelphia. "DEAR MRS. PINKHAM: - Some time ago I was taken very sick with pains caused by internal trouble (ovarian) and was unable to attend to my household duties. I consulted several doctors but got no relief. They advised an operation which I was almost tempted to undergo when I read in the paper of the wonderful cures Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound was making. So I began taking it and now after taking several bottles feel like a new woman. No praise is too great for it. It is woman's friend and no woman should be without it."—Mrs. Lizzie Milner, 1616 Taniata St.,

Remember, every woman is cordially invited to write to Mrs. Pinkham if there is anything about her symptoms she does not understand. Mrs. Pinkham's address is Lynn, Mass., her advice is free and cheerfully given to every ailing woman who asks for it. Her advice has restored to health more than one hundred thousand women. Why don't you try it, my sick sisters?

Positively-$2.50 is the smallest sum that will be awarded to any prize winner, and the largest $3,500. Full particulars will be sent with copy of publication. Don't you think a prize of Three Thousand Five Hundred Dollars is worth trying for? There needn't be any doubt in your mind as to the legitimacy of this offer. The money is deposited in the bank and must Be paid to those who will name the pub-Understand—This $3,500 prize consists of $1,000 in cash and 100 shares of stock at $25 a share, which is likely to greatly increase in value. Note.—We are preparing to incorporate into a stock company, and in addition to paying $1,000.00 in each we will also give 100 shares of stock at $25.00 a share, making in all $3,500.00 to be paid for the name.

We want a name for the publication, and don't care who names it, or what part of the globe it comes from; those who will send the best name will get both the money and stocks.

No expense will be spared in making this paper the finest and most instructive publication in America, and the 100 shares of stock may, in less than a year, be worth over $100.00 a share and yield you an independent income for the balance of your life. Here is a chance for you to make a fortune, and a few minutes of careful thinking may do it.

Photographers and portrait agents-We have recently purchased a photo-enlarging plant, with a capacity of 3,000 prints a day. Bromide and Solar enlargements, also finishing for the Trade.
