Three Divorce Suits.

Three petitions for divorces were filed yesterday in the prothonotary's office. Mrs. Julia B. Hall wants to be legally separated from her husband. Charles E. Hall, to whom she was married in March, 1896. In November of the same year, Mrs. Hall says, her husband deserted her and has persisted in his desertion ever since.

Mrs. Ardilla D. Enslin asks a divorce from Enos Enslin, to whom she barbarous treatment is the reason for which the divorce is asked. Mrs. Enslin says her husband abused her in a and was attended by the majority of most brutal manner and that he was the members of the company and much given to drunkenness. The parties live at Carbondale.

Caroline Smith, who was married on Dec. 24, 1885, to Philip J. Smith, wants | first-class exhibition of bag punching a divorce, because her husband deserted her April 24, 1893, and has not sluce lived with her or contributed to Suit Against the D. & H. Company. Alfred Mumford and his wife, Margaret Mumford, of Priceburg, yesterday began an action against the Delaware and Hudson company to recover $25,000 damages. They are represented by Attorneys J. Elliot Ross and Joseph O'Brien. On Dec. 3 last Mrs. Mumford was a passenger on a Delaware and Hudson passenger train which had a collision with a freight train just above the Green Ridge station. As a result of old armory.

the collision she sustained internal injuries of a very serious character.

Cruel and cess from start to finish. The affair was conducted in one of the large squad drill rooms on the third floor many of their friends. Corporals Eck and Dippre rendered several songs in splendid style, and a was given by Private Van Buren, superintendent of the armory. Two colored gentlemen gave a burlesque dog fight and rendered some enjoyable music on the mandolin and guitar. Following the regular programme, a social session was enjoyed and refreshments were served.

Lieutenant W. S. Gould was chairman of the committee having the affair in charge, and he was assisted by Sergeants Welner, Courtright and

DEMPSEY THE BEST MAN.

He Took Two Out of Three Falls from Thomas Rielly.

In Golden's hall, at Railroad avenue and Luzerne stregt, a wrestling match. between James Dempsey, of Dunmore, and Thomas Reilly, of England, took place last night. It was for $50 a side, Over one hundred persons witnessed the match, which resulted in a victory for Dempsey.

At twenty minutes after 16 o'clock the men got on the mat. Peter Munley was chosen referee, and after the principals shook hands the battle began. In four minutes Dempsey threw Rellly.

The men rested for ten minutes, and again met on the mat. Each man did Another rest of ten minutes and the men met for the third time. Each re-alized that this would be the final test. St., Philadelphia, will furnish all in-It took just ten minutes to decide who was best man, Dempsey, by a great effort putting Reilly's shoulders squarely

The betting was 5 to 4 in favor of Demonsey at the beginning and even money at the conclusion of the second round. Between two and three hundred dollars changed hands on the result of Dempsey was seconded by Thomas and John Quinn, and Reilly by Patrick Rogan and Thomas Lawless.

THEIR GOLDEN WEDDING.

Mr. and Mrs. William Holtham, Sr. Wedded Fifty Years.

Mr. and Mrs. William Holtham, sr. elebrated the fiftieth anniversary of their marriage Saturday evening, at their home, corner of Washington avenue and Larch street.

Among those who were gathered about them at the festivities were their eight children, twenty-two grandchildren and two great-grandchildren. They were the recipients of many appropriate presents, including $50 in gold from their grandchildren. Mr. and Mrs. Holtham were married in England, December 14, 1851. A few years later they came to this country and settled in Scranton, where they have lived ever since. Despite the fuliness of their years, Mr. and Mrs. Holtham are hale and hearty and give promise of celebrating many more wedding anniversaries.
