THE BOYCOTTS MUST STOP

STATEMENT TO THE PUBLIC BY CITIZENS' ALLIANCE.

Property Rights in Scranton Must Be Protected and Assaults on Law and Order Must Cease—Individual Liberty of Our Citizens to Work for or Hire Whom They Please Must Not Be Menaced by Decree of Any Union—Rewards Offered.

The Citizens' Alliance, at a meeting in the new armory last night, listened to an address by Mr. Barrett, of Scranton, Pa., and subsequently the following address to the public was issued:

By the Public:

About five years ago the city of Scranton, after a long period of industrial peace, during which it had been the scene of the most successful manufacturing life, was visited by a pestilence of strikes, lockouts, and assaults on the rights of property, and during the city's brief history of industrial peace, it had been the scene of the most successful manufacturing life, and during the city's brief history of industrial peace, it had been the scene of the most successful manufacturing life.

BANQUETS THIS WEEK.

Bar Association, Cornell Alumni and New England Society—Toast List for Each.

Three big banquets are scheduled for Wednesday, Thursday and Friday nights of this week.

The first will be given by the members of the Lackawanna bar in honor of Judge- elect Newcomb. It will take place at Hotel Jerome Wednesday night, beginning at 9 o'clock. Former City Solicitor Ira H. Burns will be toastmaster and it goes without saying that this feature of the banquet will be a big success. That the post-prandial end of the affair will likewise not be wanting in excellence is attested by the array of speakers: Judge- elect Newcomb, Judge J. W. Wheaton, Colonel L. A. Warriner, Colonel E. J. Fitzgibbon, M. J. Martin and W. J. Torrey.

It is also expected that brief speeches will be had from former Attorney General W. U. Hensel, of Lancaster; Judge Frank Wheaton, of Luzerne; John T. Lenthin, of Wilkes-Barre; and others.

The committee in charge of the affair is Joseph O'Brien, chairman; Clarence Valentine, M. J. Ruddy, W. J. Lewis, John M. Corbett, W. A. Wilcox, W. H. Jessup, Jr., Hon. Charles P. O'Malley, George S. Horn, James Gardner Sanderson, Harry C. Butler, D. J. Reedy and W. S. Diehl.

On Thursday night will come the annual banquet of the Cornell Alumni association. It will begin at 6 o'clock at Hotel Jerome. President Jacob South Schumann will be the guest of honor and deliver the principal address. The other speeches will be impromptu. James Gardner Sanderson is to be toastmaster.

Friday night will take place the annual banquet of the New England society in commemoration of Pocahontas day. Colonel H. M. Boies, president of the society, will deliver the annual address and act as toastmaster. Those who will respond to toasts are Rev. Joseph H. Twitshell, of Hartford, Conn.; Hon. Charles F. Litchfield, congressman from Maine; Hon. William U. Hensel, of Lancaster, former attorney general of Pennsylvania, and H. A. Fuller, of Wilkes-Barre.

The Princeton banquet is to be held next Monday night at Hotel Sterling. Wilkes-Barre. A large delegation of Scrantonites will attend. The principal speaker will be Professor Woodrow Wilson, the celebrated writer and teacher who is to represent the faculty of the college. Attorney S. B. Price of this city is talked for the next president of the Princeton Alumni Association of Northeastern Pennsylvania.

The University of Pennsylvania graduates of Scranton and vicinity recently formed an alumni organization styled the University Club, and will hold a banquet in the near future.

CITY OFFERS A REWARD.

Sum of $500 Will Be Paid for the Discovery of the Dynamiters.

Recorder W. L. Cornell yesterday announced the offer of a reward of $500 for information that will lead to the arrest and conviction of any person or persons found plotting dynamite or other explosion on the streets. This is pursuant to the American resolution adopted by both branches of council.

It is believed that many persons are cognizant of the identity of the dynamite boys who have been placing cartridges on the street car tracks, endangering life, destroying property, and leaving the city a bad name and that very likely some one at least has been waiting for the offering of a reward for the reward will have a tendency to discourage and possibly put a complete stop to these reckless deeds.

Yesterday was devoid of any explosions or other incidents of disorder. About the only feature of interest outside of the offering of the reward was the announcement that National President W. D. Mahon, of the street railway men's union, would remain here for a time to assist in the conduct of the strike.

Two more men who were on strike returned to work yesterday. They were W. C. Evans and C. D. Clarke.

THE NEWBOYS' CHRISTMAS.

Every Newsboy of Scranton and Northeastern Pennsylvania Will Be Given All the Copies of The Tribune He Can Sell on Christmas Morning Absolutely Free.

The Tribune desires to give the newsboys an opportunity to make some extra money on Christmas morning, and with this object in view will furnish them with all the copies of the paper they can sell on that day absolutely without cost. This applies to carriers and all newsboys alike, whether they are selling The Tribune now or not. Carriers out of town will be supplied with extra copies upon request. The boys will be furnished with papers as soon after they come from the press as possible, and will be kept supplied from the business office until 9 o'clock in the morning.

Boys out of town should send their requests for extra copies to "Circulation Manager, Tribune, Scranton, Pa.," stating how many copies they expect to be able to dispose of.

Carbondale boys will be supplied from the Carbondale office, from 7:30 to 9:30 a. m.

All local carriers and newsboys who wish to take advantage of this opportunity must secure their papers from The Tribune office personally.

No returns of unsold copies will be allowed the following day.

CABINET MEETING TODAY.

Final Paring Down of Estimates to Be Done.

Recorder Cornell yesterday issued a call for a special meeting of the city cabinet, to be held this morning at 9 o'clock, when the final cutting will be done on the estimates for the coming fiscal year.

The assessors finished their labors yesterday morning and had Clerk Watkins figuring until late last night in order to arrive at a fair estimate of the assessed valuation in order that the amount of revenue which may be derived by taxation may be approximately with a fair degree of accuracy. The figures generally conceded to be the correct one is $6,000,000.

A BANK FOR OLYPHANT.

Local Capitalists Organizing Company to Carry on Banking Business.

A number of well-known local capitalists are organizing a company to establish a state bank in the borough of Olyphant, and a charter will be applied for in Harrisburg within a few weeks.

The capital stock is to be $50,000 and though this has not yet been subscribed as yet, it is all in sight. The gentlemen who are the promoters of the new enterprise and who have subscribed to the capital stock so far are as follows: Recorder W. L. Cornell, City Treasurer J. J. Robinson, Frank M. Lynch, L. P. McFarrell, John T. Porter, Joseph J. Schaefer, Charles Schaefer and Charles E. Chittenden, of this city, and Edward S. Jones, of Olyphant. The financial standing of the above-mentioned gentlemen is a sufficient guarantee that the new bank will be able to meet all payments.

An organization will be effected within a few days and it is certain that E. S. Jones will be elected president and Frank M. Lynch vice president. The selection of a cashier is something to be decided upon later.

It was at first deemed advisable to establish a national bank, but it was found that a capital stock of $100,000 is required to start such an institution in a town of over 6,000 inhabitants. Olyphant has just 6,000, according to the census recently completed.

DATE OF CITY PRIMARIES

Republican City Committee Last Night Selected Monday, Jan. 13, As the Time.

The Republican city committee met last night at the office of the chairman, Alderman W. S. Miller, and arranged the preliminaries for the spring campaign. It was decided to hold the primaries on Monday, January 13, 1902, between 4 and 7 o'clock p. m., and the convention of return judges, Thursday, January 16, 1902, at 10 o'clock a. m., in the Central Republican club rooms.

Chairman Miller, who is still confined to his bed with erysipelas, kept in touch with the meeting by means of the telephone. It was at his suggestion the dates were fixed as above, and another suggestion of his, namely, that the committee arrange to hold the primaries without cost to the candidates for controller, was concurred in to the extent of giving the chairman full power.

It is Chairman Miller's belief that as there is only one candidate to run, he will have to carry the burden of the whole campaign, and in view of this it would be a great hardship to impose upon him also a share of the expenses of about $1,000, which it costs ordinarily to conduct the primaries.

There are now no city vigilance committees, and under the Crawford county rules the city chairman must appoint them. Chairman Miller proposes to appoint only such men as are willing to serve without pay, and already he has practically a full list of men for each district, who are patriotic enough to give a few hours of one day free of cost to their party. The same rule will apply to the men designated as return judges.
