

WEST SCRANTON

WAS KILLED AT BELLEVUE

RODERICK DUNN SQUEEZED BE- TWEEN CARS.

Was Dead Before He Could Be Removed—Richard Evans of North Bromley Avenue Fatally Burned in the Mt. Pleasant Mine—Semi-annual Rally of the Baptist Young People Will Be Held Today—Hyde Park Lodge of Mason's Elect Officers—Notes of Many Kinds.

Roderick Dunn, who is employed as order at the Bellevue mine, met death yesterday morning at 10 o'clock by being crushed while in the act of uncoupling two coal cars. Mr. Dunn had charge of the loading of cars, and yesterday went down the track for a short distance to uncouple a car, so that it could run under the coal trucks and be filled. The unfortunate man had stepped in between the cars and was in the act of lifting the lever controlling the pin, when an engine backed into the trip of cars.

Dunn was thrown down and the cars passed over his legs, cutting them off.
He was also crushed about the head and upper body, one set of wheels resting on the man's body in such a position that the car had to be propped up to get the body out. When follow workers found him, there being no eye-witnesses, he was breathing his last, and before he could be relieved from his terrible position he was dead.

The deceased was 21 years of age and came to this city one year ago from Ireland, where he leaves his father, mother, brothers and sisters.
He boarded with his uncle, James Dunn, of No. 4 Rowland avenue, where the remains were removed in charge of Funeral Director Clisick. Coroner Roberts was notified and will probably hold an investigation.

Church Entertainment.

gramme was rendered, after which refreshments were served. The booths

Lillian Perry, Anna Davis, Jessie Gray and Minnie Gray; fancy, Mrs.
Mills and Misses Alice Orr, Laura King,

Dufour's French Tar

The Merry Hum of Happy Holiday Shoppers

Is heard continuously these days in every corner of the store, and before the week end comes it is quite safe to say that the rush will be greater than we can comfortably attend to. The truth is, we seem to have hit the public fancy in the selection of our Holiday Gift Goods, and the word has evidently gone around among the shrewd buyers that we've got the right things for presents at the right prices. That at any rate is the only reason we can think of for the unusual briskness among the holiday lines, so many days before Christmas. This fact suggests the expediency of an early visit to the store, if you would avoid the rush that is sure to come within a day or two, when it will be impossible to give our friends and patrons we would like to bestow them.

Our Line of Holiday Goods

Includes Dolls, Toys, Games, Books, Bric-a-Brac, Jewelry, Clocks, Fancy Leather Goods, Art Needlework, Perfumery, Handkerchiefs,

Gloves, Men's Furnishings, Etc. And, as usual, we carry the complete assortments in town.

The Publisher's Trade Book Sale for or call and get a catalogue if you are a lover of good books. Our prices will be a revelation to you.

Mrs. W. W. Davis of South Hyde park avenue, delightfully entertained the members of her Sunday school class in the Simpson Methodist Episcopal church, at her home on Saturday evening. Games and music were indulged in, after which a dairy repast was served by Mrs. Davis, assisted by her daughter, Miss Katherine Davis.

Bold, May Neidman, Helen Hagen, Nellie Miller, Stella Shaw, Jean Munson, had tickets printed and are making the other necessary arrangements.

SOUTH SCRANTON NOTES.

Boys Arrested for Abusing a School-mate Because He Rode on the Cars.

The boys named William Shea, Patrick Padmore, and John Maher, of the twentieth ward, were held before Alderman Lentz yesterday on a charge of assault and battery preferred by Anthony Gardner of 1900 Pleasant avenue; the boy who was assaulted attends the Fig school, which with the other boys has been in the habit of riding on the street cars and for this has been called sede and other names.

In addition to all this, they laid violent hands on the offending patron of cars a few days ago, and then the parents invoked the protection of the law. The assault was proved by several witnesses, but owing to their extreme youth the boys were not committed. They were given a foreboding lecture, however, by the administer and let go on their promise to no molest their school mate again.

Probable Fatal Injury.

Marin Andine, Jr., the twelve-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Martin Andine, residing in the southern end of the Twentieth ward, met with a probably fatal injury in an accident at the Klundike breaker, near Connell park, Saturday afternoon.

The boy, a bright little fellow, was employed in the breaker as a steamer-porter. With his boy co-workers he was busily engaged Saturday and had occasion to perform some duty about the screens of the breaker. He was caught up by the revolving mechanism and in a twinkling was whirled around and banged against beams and various other projections. The machinery was stopped as soon as possible and the boy released, unconscious, terribly maimed and bleeding from his horrible experience. A mine ambulance conveyed Melvin to his home and Dr. Mul-ley was summoned to attend him.

Choral Union Practice.

There was a large attendance in the Gibney street Presbyterian church last evening when the Choral Union met in weekly session to practice the scriptural cantata, "Under the Palms."

Nearly every singer was in place and the voices are beginning to blend perfectly so that the tone is good and the time correct. The union will continue to practice every week until the new parish house is ready for occupancy and they will celebrate its opening with the above cantata.

Last Night's Ball.

The Comet Club held their annual ball in Athlete hall last evening and they were well patronized.

The programme consisted of twenty-four numbers and over one hundred couplets enjoyed the merry dances until 2 o'clock this morning.

arrange for their annual ball: Messrs.

Charles Phillips, the confectionery dealer of Pittston avenue, had his arm broken in a runaway Saturday afternoon. He is employed as a driver boy by the Steam Laundry, of Wilkes-barre, and was driving from the wagon when the horse took fright and ran away. Mr. Phillips was thrown beneath the wheels and suffered many severe bruises, besides a fractured arm.
He is now under the doctor's care.

William Hartman, of Cherry street,
