AT THE HOSPITAL.

Several Patients Received and One Discharged—Brakenham Humphrey Improving.

Patrick Healey, of the West Side, who was obliged on Saturday to submit to the loss of one eye in an operation at Emergency hospital, in order to preserve the other, is improving. The incision is most favorable, and the danger to the other eye that was apprehended when the afflicted eye was at its worst stage is now removed.

Edward Burke, of Pike street, the young man who slipped on an icy sidewalk a few days ago, has been removed to the hospital and is getting along well.

It will be good news to the friends of young William Priestley, of Birkett street, to learn that his leg will not have to be amputated. He was a driver of the West Side mine and had his foot badly squeezed while riding on a "bob-tail" engine, near the mine. Subsequently he was removed to the hospital, where the leg was placed in a plaster cast. This expedient availed, and while Priestley spends some time as a hospital patient, he will have the use of his limb.

Jacob Humphrey, of Cadonia, the Ontario and Western brakeman, who had such a narrow escape from death in the wreck in the yard here, several weeks ago, continues to improve and the danger at the hospital is correspondingly lessened, as his condition was almost hopeless when he was admitted for treatment. He was in an almost dying condition and had to suffer the amputation of one leg just below the knee. He was greatly run down, and despite the heroic work of the staff, unfavorable indications increased each day, until it was feared that either the leg would have to be amputated at the hip or he would die from septic poisoning. About a week ago an unexpected though hoped for, change for the better was manifested. Since then Humphrey has shown signs each day of increasing vitality and now the prospects are bright for his recovery.

AFTER THE STORM.

Local Railroad Traffic Opened—O. and W. Main Line Closed.

Things are beginning to adjust themselves after the big storm of Saturday night, and little inconvenience is felt in the city. Local traffic on the railroads is free, though the Ontario and Western still has some work in ballasting the roadbed where the wash-out occurred, below Olyphant station. On the Delaware and Hudson, everything is running smoothly. The main line of the Ontario and Western is still in trouble. North of Cadonia there is a blockade and as a consequence through trains are interfered with. The Erie made big demands on the lumber which was stored along the Jefferson division. The purpose was to use it in strengthening bridges that had been weakened.

Farmers who come from over Dunbar's way report bad breaks in the roadway. Just above "Joe" Schicks, on the Crystal lake road, there was quite a washout, barely leaving room for the safe passage of vehicles. All along the route, there were breaks here and there that made travel unpleasant as well as unsafe. Consequently, fewer farmers than usual have come to town with their produce this week. The supervisors of P. & W. have men at work making such repairs as are needed on that part of the road that is in the township.

HAS A MAGNIFICENT VOICE.

Opinion of One Who Heard Ernest Gamble, Who Will Be Here Soon.

One who heard Ernest Gamble, the magnificent singer, who will be the next entertainer in the Smith-Singer course, writing from Williamsport to a friend in this city, says:

"I heard Gamble the other day at Williamsport, and can only say with the Queen of Songs, that 'the half has not been told.' He has the most magnificent voice I have ever heard. Then, to sing with such command and a large share of his programme is made up of beautiful old ballads that everybody can understand and thoroughly enjoy."

Mildred Holland's Coming.

Victor Harmon, advance representative of Miss Mildred Holland in "The Power Behind the Throne," was a visitor to the Carbondale office of The Tribune. Besides diffusing sunshine and good cheer, with which he is abundantly blessed, he left a pretty souvenir. It is an aluminum card receiver, with a half-size reproduction of the most powerful scene of the play—the climax on the staircase of the palace. The greetings of the season are spread on a scroll at one

TEACHERS' INSTITUTE PASSES RESOLUTIONS.

Final Session of the Local Institute. Several Excellent Papers Read by Teachers and an Address by Dr. Whalen.

The school teachers held the final session of their annual institute last night in the central high school. It was a sort of an extra session, the institute proper having taken place during the first week in December. All of the local teachers were present last night and the meeting proved to be a most profitable one. It was presided over by city superintendent of schools, E. E. Gary, who by virtue of his office is chairman of the institute.

The session opened with music, after which Miss Alice Haskins delivered an excellent paper on "The Standard of Education." She was followed by Miss Davis, who spoke on "Elements of Governing Power." One of the best papers of the evening was "How to Raise the Standard of Our Schools," more music followed and then Rev. H. J. Whalen, D. D., delivered the address of the evening. His subject was "The Equalizing Influence of Education."

The thoughts expounded by the eloquent doctor seemed to strike right home for he received great applause.

The following resolutions were submitted by the committee and were unanimously passed:

Resolved, That the fifth annual institute of the Carbondale city teachers held at Carbondale, Pa., Dec. 12 to 16, 1901, has been in every way a success.

Resolved, That we as teachers fully appreciate the labor, responsibility and care that our worthy superintendent had in securing for us some of the able speakers, and while we gratefully thank him for his efforts, we also congratulate him on the success of the institute.

Resolved, That we fully appreciate having our state superintendent, Dr. Schaeffer, with us, and that his address on education should have been heard by every parent in our city.

Resolved, That our thanks are due to the high school orchestra for their services, to the high school for the use of the piano and the young people who so kindly helped in the evening entertainment.

Resolved, That we acknowledge the kindness of the Press in giving us such liberal space for reporting the work done at our institute.

Resolved, That we most deeply deplore the death of our former superintendent, J. J. Forbes, in whom the teachers had a warm and sympathizing friend, and we shall ever remember that the aim of his life was the advancement of education and the improvement of our city schools. We extend our united sympathies to his bereaved wife and children who have suffered so great a loss.

Katharine Jay, Anna Farrell, Lizzie Tighe, committee.

WHEEL AND LAD GONE.

Paul Clifford Alias Chauncey Walker Wanted on Several Charges.

Constable Edward Neary would like to lay his hands on one Paul Clifford, alias Chauncey Walker, of Binghamton, who has been charged with several offenses, taking with him a bicycle belonging to his room-mate, Fred Shepherd, a bell boy at the American house. All that he left behind him was a small unpaid board bill and not a very good reputation for his life and integrity.

Clifford came here a few weeks ago in company with Shepherd. They arrived here from Honesdale and came to solicit orders for a portrait company. A week or so ago the pair left the picture company, Shepherd getting employment at the American house, Clifford remaining on Easy street. They boarded at the Webb boarding house, but Shepherd changed to the hotel when he began work there. When he went for his wheel Monday he learned it was gone. Clifford or Black was also missing and he has not been seen since. He said nothing about going away and what was of more importance he forgot, purposely or otherwise, to pay his week's board.

It is not believed that the wheel was taken away, but was disposed of either in Carbondale or near this city. The police in Binghamton, which Clifford claims is his home, were notified.

O. & W. HAPPENINGS.

Passenger engine No. 11 of the Ontario and Western, in its service again after being repaired and refitted at the Middletown shops of the company. No. 11 looks swell in its black enamel finish and silver trimmings. Engineer Reuben Lewis is quite proud of his "flyer."

SORE NECK.

Take Scott's Emulsion for scrofula. Children often have sores on the neck that won't heal up. The sores may not know what the matter nor what to do. Scrofula is the trouble and Scott's Emulsion is the medicine.

Scott's Emulsion heals the sores. But that is not all. Scrofula leads to consumption. This is the real danger.

Scott's Emulsion is the "ounce of prevention" that keeps off consumption.

Will send you a little to try, if you like. SCOTT & BOWNE, 409 Pearl street, New York.

HE WAS FROM WILKES-BARRE.

Wouldn't Pay the Fare and Was Sent to Jail.

John Van Nome, of Wilkes-Barre, came to Carbondale yesterday. He had all the characteristics of a native of the little town along the Susquehanna. Chief among these was his exaggerated idea of himself that the men from down that way have. Van Nome could see no reason why he should pay his fare for riding on a Delaware and Hudson train and the conductor could see no good reason why he shouldn't produce. First, the Wilkes-Barre man secreted himself in the car toilet room. Subsequently he took his seat among the other passengers, when the conductor requested his ticket or cash fare, he assumed the air of an offended Wilkes-Barre man; there's only one man, and that's a Wilkes-Barre man, who can become real earnest over an imaginary offense. This is what this man did, protesting that he had paid his fare to Wilkes-Barre, when he was told to produce earlier in the day. Conductors meet with all kinds of jokes, but this one was in a class of his own. He persisted in his little attempt at force until Detective Martin Crippen, of the company, came on the scene and gave him a sound thrashing. Van Nome was sized up to be a Wilkes-Barre man and was put off at the next station, in charge of Mr. Crippen, who took him to Alderman Jones' office. In this city, where a charge of stealing a ride on a train was preferred against him.

The alderman, when he heard the evidence, believed there was a good case against the Luzerne county man, and gave him over to the charge of Constable Neary, who took him to the county jail, where he will eat his Christmas dinner.

THE FELL SCHOOL BOARD.

Business Transacted at the Last Regular Session Monday Night.

The Fell school board met last evening in Shuppan's hall, and after the regular order of business the directors decided to close the township schools on December 26, and open them again on January 6, 1902.

The report of Superintendent Dolan showed an attendance of 82 pupils for the month of November, as against 429 during the month of October. This falling off in attendance is due to the negligence of parents and guardians. The board of education wants these parents to be more prompt in sending their children to school, or it will enforce the school law.

The hearing of room No. 3 in Shuppan school was referred to a committee.

The board adjourned, to meet at the call of the chair.

OLCOTT'S RECEPTION.

A Crowded House Greeted the Actor-Singer in "Garrett O'Magh."

Chauncey Oclott, the actor of many graces and the sweet-voiced singer, whose songs have delighted thousands, was given a characteristic reception by the Carbondale people last night, when the Grand was filled with a crowded audience. It was an expression of warm-hearted admiration that surely must have pleased Oclott, though he may be accustomed to singing before big audiences.

The play, "Garrett O'Magh," in which Oclott is in the title role, is of the same type in which this Irish minstrel is to be found each year. He is a romantic lover, a role in which he is at home, and makes everybody else about him feel the same way. The piece is of the lightest comedy, with plenty of funny situations, though it may not sparkle with wit. The fun is pure, light-hearted and wholesome, there is an abundance of it, and coupled with Oclott's singing, it offers a truly delightful evening.

OLYPHANT.

Arrangements are nearly completed for the fair of the Excelsior hose company which will open on Christmas night in Lloyd's hall on Lackawanna street, and it promises to be one of the most successful affairs of its kind ever conducted here. The organization is one of the oldest in the valley and one of the most popular as well. A feature of the fair will be the high class programme which the amusement committee will provide. Electrician Darius will have charge of the revolving picture machine which will have new and up-to-date pictures.

Miss Kate Nealon, of Danmore street, is ill with the grip.

A barn owned by Frank Major, which was used for cow sheds, was carried down Hill's creek from Fourth street to First street, blackly, by the rushing water during the big storm. The building became overturned during its course and it was necessary to remove the roof before the animals could be extricated. Sixty chickens belonging to Mr. Major were drowned in the flood.

John T. Craven, of Gravity street, was taken ill while at work in No. 2 mine about 8 o'clock yesterday morning. The man was found in an unconscious condition by his fellow workmen and removed to his home in the company's ambulance, where he received medical attention.

GLENBURN.

Last evening, about 7 o'clock, Master Leighton Miles hooked up his grandfathers' (Andrew Leighton's) young Hambletonian mare, Dolly, to drive to church at Waverly, a mile and a half distant. Leaving her at the door without tying, he ran into the house and hastily donning his overcoat and arctic, returned two or three minutes later to find her gone. A quick investigation proved that the mare had not gone back to the barn. Next followed a hurried visit to neighboring premises, on all sides, equally fruitless. A council of war decided that the next objective point should be the church at Waverly. In half an hour, young Miles drove up at a lively pace, having found Dolly standing patiently in the cold blast, not tied, in the driveway between the parsonage and the church. The lines were over the dashboard and blanket, buffalo robe and cushion all in their places in the phaeton.

HONEST DOCTORS

As a rule doctors are absolutely honest. The fancy which some people have that doctors make frequent visits to run up bills is simply born of lack of knowledge of the delicacy and difficulty of the doctor's work. As a rule, when the doctor has reached the limit of his skill he will say so, and refuse to take money for services which he knows must be unavailing. But even the most honest doctor sometimes falls into the error of limiting the possibilities of a cure to the measure of his own skill. He says, practically, "I have exhausted all my knowledge and skill in the case. Nobody can do more than I can. The patient cannot get well." This statement may be made in perfect good faith and in all honesty, and yet it is very often proven wrong by the recovery of the patient as a result of the use of Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery.

"My sister (of Arlington, Washington Co., Neb.) was taken very sick and had several doctors," writes Mrs. C. L. Harrison, of Elk City, Douglas Co., Neb. "They could not do her any good, and told my mother they would not come any more, as no doctor could help her that she could not get well. She had 'wasting of the digestive organs.' My mother said to my sister, 'Well, almost know that Dr. Pierce's medicine will cure her.' So she bought six bottles, three of 'Golden Medical Discovery,' three of 'Favorite Prescription,' and some of the 'Pellets,' and now my sister is a well woman."

The testimonial of Mrs. Harrison is an admirable illustration of the fact that honest doctors can be mistaken. Several doctors were in attendance. They said, "We want more as the patient can't get well, and no doctor could help her," and yet the use of Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery effected a complete cure. This is not an exceptional case. It has happened again and again that after doctors had decided no cure was possible, a perfect cure has followed the use of "Golden Medical Discovery."

"I am truly glad that I can do the least thing to show my gratitude for your great medicine," writes Mrs. Mollie Birchfield, of Handley, Kanawha Co., W. Va. "I was taken six years ago with a severe pain in my back. The spot seemed no larger than a twenty-cent piece, and at times it worked around to my stomach, but I had no relief except when under the influence of morphine. The pain would last longer every attack, until finally gave up last winter and did not believe I could live a day longer, my misery was so great. I had no appetite and craved cold water all the time. I had eight doctors to see me and all pronounced my trouble gall-stones. Some said I would get well, and others said I would never get well. I took Dr. Pierce that I am living, and have had no operation performed either. I just took your treatment right along and it has saved my life. No one thought they would ever again see me in health. Just to think how I suffered for six long years, and here this cure within reach of me all the time, yet I did not think of it. After the first dose of your medicine I did not have to take any more morphine. I have now taken twelve bottles of Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery and 'Favorite Prescription,' and now I can work all day with ease. No pains, and no morphine. I have a splendid appetite, sleep good, and feel like a new woman. I hope no one will ever suffer as I did and not try to get this great cure and blessing, for it is a blessing to the sick."

It might be asked, with reason, "How can Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery cure when so many doctors fail?" The answer must be that "Golden Medical Discovery" is the product of a larger experience in disease and superior skill in treatment than theirs. Many a sailor can pilot his boat about the familiar waters of his own coast who would be powerless to accomplish an ocean voyage. Many a doctor can treat successfully certain familiar forms of disease who finds himself helpless when the larger problems of complicated diseases confront him. Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery was perfected in years of study and experience. Dr. Pierce found that many diseases of organs remote from the stomach had their origin in diseases of the stomach and other organs of digestion and nutrition. He argued that a medicine which would cure the diseased stomach and its allied organs, would also cure the diseases in other organs when they were caused by disease of the digestive and nutritive tracts. To produce such a curative medicine was the effort of Dr. Pierce. His success is testified by thousands upon thousands of cures.

Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery cures diseases of the stomach and other organs of digestion and nutrition, and so enables the perfect nutrition of the body. Perfect nutrition is perfect health. Blood is only digested food, and a common cause of impure blood is food undigested. The "Discovery," therefore, heals the stomach and purifies the blood. It increases the blood supply and so strengthens the heart, liver, lungs, kidneys, etc., whose vitality and vigor depend on an abundant supply of pure blood. It cures biliousness and cleanses the blood from poisonous excreta, the product of a sluggish liver. It builds up the whole body with sound solid flesh, and gives new strength and new life to worn-out, run-down, weak and emaciated men and women.
