

The News of Carbondale.

RAILROAD TIME TABLES.

Delaware and Hudson Railroad.

December 24, 1901. Trains leave Carbondale at city station as follows: For Scranton and Wilkes-Barre—6:00, 7:00, 8:00, 9:00, 10:00, 11:21, 12:59, 2:59, 4:59, 6:59, 7:00, 10:01, 11:00 p. m. Sunday trains leave at 8:56, 11:31 a. m.; 1:16, 2:59, 5:00, 8:00 p. m. For Albany, Saratoga, Montreal, Boston, New England points, etc., 7:00 a. m.; 4:35 p. m. (D. H. R.). For Waymart and Honesdale, 7:22, 11:05 a. m.; 5:14, 8:15 p. m. Sunday trains leave Waymart and Honesdale at 9:30 a. m.; 4:45 p. m. Trains arrive at Carbondale from Wilkes-Barre and Scranton as follows: 6:30, 8:37, 9:20, 10:59 a. m.; 12:37, 2:06, 4:15, 4:28, 6:38, 7:01, 8:04, 9:51, 11:37 p. m.; 2:00, 4:00, 6:00, 8:00, 10:00, 11:30, 12:30, 2:30, 4:30, 6:30, 8:30, 10:30, 11:30 p. m. Sunday trains arrive at Carbondale from Waymart and Honesdale at 12:17 and 7:55 p. m.

New York, Ontario and Western.

Sept. 17, 1901. Trains leave Carbondale for Scranton at 7:00 a. m.; 1:00 p. m. Sunday trains at 7:00 a. m.; 1:00 p. m. Trains leave Carbondale for points north at 11:10 a. m. On Sunday at 9:10 a. m. Trains leave at 11:10 a. m. on week days, and on Sunday make connections for Albany, Saratoga, Montreal, Boston, New England, etc. Trains arrive from Scranton at 11:10 a. m.; 6:16 p. m.; from points north, 4:00 p. m.; from Scranton at 9:10 a. m.; and 7:45 p. m.; from Catskill at 6:06 p. m.

Erie Railroad.

June 23, 1901. Trains leave city station, Carbondale, daily (except Sunday) at 7:00 a. m. and 4:30 p. m. For Randolph and Newburg at 8:23 a. m. daily (except Sunday); for Binghamton, making connections for New York, Buffalo and other points, at 8:29 p. m. For Susquehanna, making connections for western points, at 9:57 a. m.; 4:10, 6:16, 8:16, 10:16, 12:16 p. m. and 5:45 p. m. with some connections. Trains arrive at 8:53 a. m. and 5:45 p. m. Sunday at 8:53 a. m.

DORRANCE BURDETTE AND SCHLATTER

The Philosopher of Newton Lake and the "Divine" Healer Have an Interesting Controversy in the Tribune Office—Dorie Has No Faith in the Healer and Frankly Tells Him So—Schlatter After Hearing His Wife Has Sued for Divorce Gets Money to Take Him to Scranton.

Francis Schlatter, the "divine" healer, whose presence in Carbondale, Pa., has attracted so much attention, received several hard blows on Saturday. He met with Dorrance Buckley Burdette, for short "Dorie" Burdette, the philosopher from Newton Lake, those who know Dorrance and those who have heard Schlatter, can believe that there was some interesting repartee between them. "The one thing above all others that Dorrance is well known in is things Scriptural. Dorie knows the Bible, and if you tell him so, he will say, 'You'd better believe I do.'"

THE PRIZE WINNERS.

Harry Seitz of Scranton Takes $50 in Gold at Mitchell Fair—Close of Enterprise.

The prize winners at the Mitchell fair were announced on Saturday night last when the fair came to a close. Harry Seitz of Scranton was the fortunate holder of the ticket which won the $50 in gold; Mrs. Engle won the 1901 washer and Miss Lizzie Hurd won the large turkey.

CONTRACT FOR BREWERY

Let to John Hanson & Son for $110,000—Work to Commence Immediately.

The contract for the new brewery at Scranton was let Friday to the contracting firm of John Hanson & Son, of this city. The bid was for $110,000.

SOUND AS A DOLLAR

That is the result of a course of treatment with Scott's Emulsion. We have special reference to persons with weak lungs and sensitive throats.

Woman's Relief Corps.

The following are the officers elected by Woman's Relief Corps, No. 1, at the annual meeting held at the city hall, Dec. 18, 1901.

MURPHY COMING HOME.

The Young Man Who Was Deranged Has Recovered. The family of Martin Murphy, the young man who became deranged several months ago, and had to be taken to Danville for treatment, will spend a pleasant Christmas than anticipated, as this absent one will be with them to enjoy the festive occasion.

CHRISTMAS MUSIC.

Programmes of the Feast Day of Peace and Joy at the Different Churches.

The joyous music of Christmas, the day of "glory to God and peace on earth to men," was heard in several of the churches yesterday.

AMUSEMENTS.

The Xmas Attraction. Miss Elita Proctor Otis will appear at the Grand opera house on Christmas afternoon and evening in David Belasco's brilliant society drama, "La Belle Russe."

THE NEWMAN DANCE.

Invitations have been received in this city to the annual dance of the Catholic Historical Society and Newman Club, which will take place in the Knights' Club hall on Monday night, December 26.

A Successful Star.

Mildred Holland, who is booked to appear once more at the Grand opera house on Thursday evening, December 28, besides being a very successful young star, is a returned actress and accomplished, not only an actress, but a clear-headed woman of business, an expert with the fobs, an amateur photographer, and with artistic leanings in other directions also.

THE PASSING THROUGH.

Patrick Kierwood, of Schenectady, N. Y., is home for the holidays.

TAYLOR.

The parlors of the Calvary Baptist church was the scene of a pleasant gathering on Saturday evening, where the members of the church tendered Mrs. M. J. Taylor a very cordial and friendly reception.

THE CEE-SEE-BEE.

Will Conduct a Dance on New Year's Night.

The "Cee-See-Bee," a social organization composed of young men conspicuous in the social life of the town, will dance on New Year's night, Tuesday evening, at the city hall.

OBITUARY.

MICHAEL BROWN, a well-known resident of this city, died yesterday morning at his home on Sand street.

SUNDAY STREET CARS.

The first cars to be run on Sunday since the strike began were operated yesterday, when the schedule of the street cars was put up to 10 o'clock in the afternoon, and on week days, the people refrained from riding, only two passengers, two women.

RECEIPTS FROM EUCHE.

At all the messes in St. Rose church the amount of the receipts from the Euchre party, held under the auspices of the Ladies' Catholic Benevolent association, were announced as being $152.85.

HOME FROM PHILIPPINES.

Michael Flannery, of Farview street, and Edward Sullivan are home from the United States volunteer army, where their enlistments expired some time ago, and are here to spend Christmas with their families.

REMOVED DECORATIONS.

Harry Seitz and David Martin, of the decorating firm of Seitz & Martin, of Scranton, are in the city removing the splendid decorations which adorned Watts' hall during the Mitchell fair last week.

A NEW CLERK.

E. A. Carroll, the South Main street merchant, has added a new clerk to the store force. She is Miss Lillian Patton, of Park street.

MEETINGS OF TONIGHT.

Common council, Federal union No. 729, J. Patriotic Order Sons of America, Olive Leaf Lodge, I. O. O. F., Carbondale council, Knights of Columbus.

OLYPHANT

Decorators are transforming Lloyd's hall into a scene of beauty for the women's fair, which will open on Christmas night. Booths have been erected along the sides and at the end of the hall a stage is being constructed.

MOOSIC.

Edward Johnson, of Stroudsburg, is visiting in town.

WIMMERS.

The school children of Wimmers gave a Christmas entertainment on Friday evening, which was in every way a success.

IMPOSSIBLE INSTEAD.

Miss High-Water-Posey Fish cried when she saw the dentist without him.

REMOVED DECORATIONS.

Harry Seitz and David Martin, of the decorating firm of Seitz & Martin, of Scranton, are in the city removing the splendid decorations which adorned Watts' hall during the Mitchell fair last week.

A NEW CLERK.

E. A. Carroll, the South Main street merchant, has added a new clerk to the store force. She is Miss Lillian Patton, of Park street.

MEETINGS OF TONIGHT.

Common council, Federal union No. 729, J. Patriotic Order Sons of America, Olive Leaf Lodge, I. O. O. F., Carbondale council, Knights of Columbus.

OLYPHANT

Decorators are transforming Lloyd's hall into a scene of beauty for the women's fair, which will open on Christmas night. Booths have been erected along the sides and at the end of the hall a stage is being constructed.

MOOSIC.

Edward Johnson, of Stroudsburg, is visiting in town.

WIMMERS.

The school children of Wimmers gave a Christmas entertainment on Friday evening, which was in every way a success.

IMPOSSIBLE INSTEAD.

Miss High-Water-Posey Fish cried when she saw the dentist without him.

REMOVED DECORATIONS.

Harry Seitz and David Martin, of the decorating firm of Seitz & Martin, of Scranton, are in the city removing the splendid decorations which adorned Watts' hall during the Mitchell fair last week.

A NEW CLERK.

E. A. Carroll, the South Main street merchant, has added a new clerk to the store force. She is Miss Lillian Patton, of Park street.

ENAMEL-LINE THE MODERN STOVE POLISH LIQUID-BETTER YET! FIRE PROOF! BIGGER BOX SAME PRICE Brilliant, Clean, Easily Applied, Absolutely Odorless.

being observed on the cars during the day. It is a singular circumstance of the running of the cars that when ever women are seen riding, there is always two of them, no more nor less on any occasion.

At all the messes in St. Rose church the amount of the receipts from the Euchre party, held under the auspices of the Ladies' Catholic Benevolent association, were announced as being $152.85.

Michael Flannery, of Farview street, and Edward Sullivan are home from the United States volunteer army, where their enlistments expired some time ago, and are here to spend Christmas with their families.

Invitations have been received in this city to the annual dance of the Catholic Historical Society and Newman Club, which will take place in the Knights' Club hall on Monday night, December 26.

Mildred Holland, who is booked to appear once more at the Grand opera house on Thursday evening, December 28, besides being a very successful young star, is a returned actress and accomplished, not only an actress, but a clear-headed woman of business, an expert with the fobs, an amateur photographer, and with artistic leanings in other directions also.

Patrick Kierwood, of Schenectady, N. Y., is home for the holidays.

The parlors of the Calvary Baptist church was the scene of a pleasant gathering on Saturday evening, where the members of the church tendered Mrs. M. J. Taylor a very cordial and friendly reception.

The "Cee-See-Bee," a social organization composed of young men conspicuous in the social life of the town, will dance on New Year's night, Tuesday evening, at the city hall.

MICHAEL BROWN, a well-known resident of this city, died yesterday morning at his home on Sand street.

The first cars to be run on Sunday since the strike began were operated yesterday, when the schedule of the street cars was put up to 10 o'clock in the afternoon, and on week days, the people refrained from riding, only two passengers, two women.

Rev. W. T. Thomas, of Pittston, will preach in Welsh.

H. J. Cooper, of Main street, was in Wilkes-Barre on business, Saturday.

Misses Mamie Francis and Jennie Harris, students at Bloomsburg State Normal school, are home to spend their holiday vacation with their parents.

Miss Jessie Harlos, of Stroudsburg State Normal school, and William Harlos, of Western university, Pittsburg, are home for the holidays.

The following friends of Mr. Jacob Hisecker tendered him a surprise party Wednesday evening, in honor of his thirty-first birthday.

Mr. and Mrs. Wombacher, Mr. and Mrs. S. B. Brown, Mr. and Mrs. Philip Swartz, Mr. and Mrs. Ambrose Wardell, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Krotzer and children, Mrs. Cook, Rev. and Mrs. Powell, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Perry, Messrs. John Jones, Isaac Hisecker, Frank Hisecker, Misses Rita Cook, Hazel Cook, Mabel Wardell and Miss Shear.

J. E. Loveland has purchased a handsome new team.

The funeral of the young son of Mr. and Mrs. Dowd was held from his late home Thursday morning.

William Brown has returned home from Philadelphia, where he has been spending several months of his life.

The young friends of James Shaw gathered at his home Wednesday evening, in honor of his thirtieth birthday.

Games of various kinds were played during the evening, after which a family refreshment was served. A flashlight picture of the young people was taken by Thomas Glover.

The engagement of the "Old Commodore" company at the opera house on Christmas night has been cancelled.

An interesting programme has been arranged for the Christmas tree exercises in the Susselmann street Baptist church tomorrow evening.

The members of the church tendered Mrs. M. J. Taylor a very cordial and friendly reception.

The "Cee-See-Bee," a social organization composed of young men conspicuous in the social life of the town, will dance on New Year's night, Tuesday evening, at the city hall.

MICHAEL BROWN, a well-known resident of this city, died yesterday morning at his home on Sand street.

The first cars to be run on Sunday since the strike began were operated yesterday, when the schedule of the street cars was put up to 10 o'clock in the afternoon, and on week days, the people refrained from riding, only two passengers, two women.

SCRANTON'S BUSINESS HOUSES. THESE ENTERPRISING DEALERS CAN SUPPLY YOUR NEEDS OF EVERY CHARACTER PROMPTLY AND SATISFACTORILY. BUILDING CONTRACTOR. THESE ENTERPRISING DEALERS CAN SUPPLY YOUR NEEDS OF EVERY CHARACTER PROMPTLY AND SATISFACTORILY. HANLEY'S BAKERY. 420 SPRUCE ST. HUNTINGTON. We make a specialty of the bread stuffs. HORN'S MEAT MARKET. W. A. HARVEY. KINGSBURY & SCRANTON. MINE AND MILL SUPPLIES.

REMOVAL SALE. We have determined to reduce our stock prior to our removal to our new building at our former location, 129 Wyoming avenue. Special Clearance Prices on Entire Stock. Carpets, Draperies, WALL PAPER, Rugs, Linoleums, Shades, etc. GOODS STORED FREE OF CHARGE. Williams & McAnulty, Temporary Store, 126 Washington Avenue.

RAISING VALUES. Possibilities of Bars of Iron Placed in Hands of Artisans. The January Success contains an interesting article showing what may be produced from a number of bars of iron, one each being placed in the hands of various mechanics. How Harlan Told the News. A good story is told of the clever manner in which Justice Harlan managed to give a tip on the result of the case.