PROGRESS IN PORTO RICO

EXHIBITED IN LECTURE BY PROFESSOR BRUMBAUGH.

How Choas in Educational Methods in That Beautiful Little Island Was, Under American Initiative, Converted Into Order and What This Means for the Future of the Porto Ricans and of This Country.

The following abstract of a lecture given recently by Professor M. G. Brumbaugh, of the University of Pennsylvania, before its Graduate club will be of interest both to his many Scranton friends and to all who are conserned in the educational welfare of Porto Rico. Professor Brumbaugh was appointed commissioner of education for Porto Rico by the late President efficient. He said:

"When the smoke of the Spanish-4,000 feet and an outlook upon a dreamland of luxuriance and of poverty. A population of aimost 1,000,000 3,600 square miles, and for their education Spain allotted about 240,000 pesos, or less than 3 per cent, of the annual budgetary funds. The American army organized a provisional government, and, under a military governor, the island was ruled during the terrible hurricane of 1899 and sue the course. until the congress made provision for civil government. Spain never gave the people a voice in their government. The so-called autonomous government was never organized. April 12, 1900, the the act of congress known as the Foraker bill-'an act temporarily to provide for civil government in Porto Rico." This act provided that civil government should become operative in May, 1900, and that there should be a governor, an executive council of eleven members and a house of delegates of thirty-five members. The executive council is made up of the six cabinet officers of the governor and five native citizens. They also sit as a senate during sessions of the legislature, and have entire control of all franchise matters in the PROGRESS SHOWN. "Among these councilmen is the commissioner of education. When, by personal insistence of the president, I was given leave of absence from my university labors to assume this office, no one could foresee the tremendous task that was awaiting us: 945,000 human beings in Porto Rico and $8 per cent.

"At the outset of the civil government the people were discontented and hos-tile to the schools. The reason's for this are too complex for analysis. That the Hoar and Hallett will report at Y. M. C. A. military authorities made mistakes and that the people were all too prone to J. W. Devine, J. A. Bush, C. McGovern, A. F. that the people were all too prone to censure are allke true; and it is also just to state that many good things Duffy, J. J. Kearney, at 7.30 p. m., for examination. were done during the reign of martial law. The fact remains that a new system-in fact a system where none exlsted-was yet to be created.

"A new school law in many provisions similar to that used in our oldest states, was written and promptly thas now been in operation for almost one year. Its provisions have proven eminently wise, and under it the schools have become a tremendous force in Americanizing the Island. The only note of opposition heard in many months comes from a hostile pro-Spanish paper, which claims that the system of two ago to speak a good word for one of his constituents who wants an office. The president like the two senses who wants an office. The president like the state of the sulogy for a tew moments and then interrupted him. "Senator," he said, "was not this man in jail five years ago." It was twelve years ago. But," he added, "he was the victim of misrepresented circumstant of the providence of the constituents who wants an office. The president like the state of the constituents who wants an office. This, of course, is more a compliment than a criticism. It will be many years before Forto Rico need fear its education is overdone. its education is overdone.

MINORITY REPRESENTATION. "The political parties in the respective municipalities one year ago fused minority representation on the school board and forbade the election of teachers holding political opinions at and the teachers chosen solely upon their merit. The Spanish conception, that a school is a vested right, existing for the teachers, is gone. The American conception, that a school is an opportunity, that it exists for the child, is now universal. Good teachers are sought; poor ones are discharged.

"Over one hundred teachers from the states, and over eight hundred natives are now employed. The native teachers almost all teach English. In all schools the children sing our national songs in English and read from English books. Every school is carefully supervised and inspected monthly by competent supervisors-all but one being Americans who are the personal agents of the commissioner of education and report to him daily. There are sixteen of these and they have done a good work.

CONTRASTS.

"Spain in 400 years never erected a single school house in Porto Rico. We have expended $200,000 in the erection McKinley and his work in that post has of twenty-one agricultural and fifteen been notably painstaking, patriotic and graded school buildings. The school in the meantime is held in the summer palace of the governor. High schools, as good as any in the cities of equal size here, are organized in every city in which pupils are ready to pur-

"This is, in brief, an outline of a work that has been entrancingly interesting, without precedent, and successful beyond the dreams of the most sanguine. the equity proceedings of Michael Lyden against Patrick Philbin, John Fitzhenry, Thomas Sullivan, Thomas Burke and James Durkin, members of the school board of Lackawanna

Some months ago, the defendants met and awarded the contract for furnishing 400 desks to the school district to P. J. Noom of Pittston, agent for Seavey & Company, of Chicago. The price of the desks was to be $2.60, $2.50 and $2.40, according to size. The contract was awarded in the absence of Thomas Coyne, a member of the board, who it was shown was not notifled of the calling of the special meeting at which the desk mat-ter was considered. It was fur-ther alleged that the price paid for the desks was too high, that they were of an inferior character and that in any event only 100 desks were needed by the district, as it had a By Exclusive Wire from The Associated Press. stock of 300 on hand.

HOME FURNISHINGS

This annual after-Christmas trade festival is an event wise buyers have learned to wait for, with patience. The "crumbs" or in other words, the odd pieces left by Holiday shoppers, are immediately collected in the different departments, and marked for the slaughter-with but one consideration-"move them and do it quickly." New sping goods are arriving daily and display space must be made for them. This progressive policy is what causes so many customers to exclaim: "O! how bright and new everything is here."

Please bear in mind one important fact: "Economy" goods are all marked in plain figures. Thousands of people have lately inspected the bargains referred to below, and they, particularly, will more than appreciate "Christmas Crumb" offerings and the sweeping price reductions.

A Happy New Year

With sincere appreciation for the extensive and liberal patronage bestowed upon us during the past year, we desire to cordially thank those who have seen fit to extend to us their valuable friendship.

During the past year we have actually doubled the volume of business in our 28 Stores. We are the Leading Credit Clothiers of America. That isn't a mere statement—it's a very big fact. Our policy is ever FORWARD!

We shall endeavor during the coming year to earn a larger share of public confidence. We shall continue to sell Clothing, Hats and Shoes for Men, Women and Chilren, at cash store prices on the most generous terms of credit. We shall persist in keeping up quality without sacri-ficing a particle of style. Why not accept our earnest invitation to begin the New Year by opening a charge account with us. You'll be the gainer-you can wear better clothes and more of them, and by our unmatchable system of small and convenient payments, the money that would otherwise be spent in unnecessary
