FACTORYVILLE.

Special to the Scranton Tribune.

Factoryville, Dec. 30.—There will be a good concert at the Methodist Episcopal church New Year's night under the auspices of the Epworth League.

George Oakley has moved his family from this place to Scranton where Mr. Oakley and son Horace are employed.

Owing to the regular meeting of the borough council falling on New Year's night, it will be held the following Thursday night.

The Wyoming county teachers' institute opened at Tunkhannock yesterday, and from the programme it looks as if it would be the most interesting one that has ever been held in this county, as the following will show: Monday evening, Maro, the great minstrel; Tuesday evening, "Dixie" King on "All the World's a Stage"; Wednesday evening, Bookert Washington on "The Solution of the Race Problem in the Black Belt of the South"; Thursday evening, J. William Macey, historian and bassoonist.

L. Edward Ace of Nicholson, and wife Clara A. Stark of East Lemon were married at the home of the bride's mother, Mrs. Sarah Stark, last Wednesday. Several from the place attended the wedding.

This county will elect a representative sheriff, register and recorder, three county commissioners, and two may commissioners next fall, besides voting for congressman and state senator. And already a number of statesmen are looking the assent over, wondering which of the lot they could make sure of.

Henry Hardling, esq., of Tunkhannock, is now located over at Scranton and has taken up the law business of the late Fred R. Stark. He will be pleased to see any of his Wyoming county friends who have business in the Electric City.

The smallpox scare over at the county seat is dying out, and all the cases that are there are doing well. The board of health over there is to be congratulated upon the way they handled and stamped out the epidemic.

The majority of the sidewalk so far this winter have been badly neglected in regard to clearing of the snow, and at times are in such shape as to compel pedestrians to take to the street. The council have decided it is time to take action and enforce the ordinance pertaining to the same, and it is not at all unlikely that some of the property owners will have to pay for clearing their walks with the cost added.

Miss Myra Sprague, a teacher in the schools at New Brighton, Pa., is on her spending the holidays with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. G. B. Sprague.

HONESDALE.

Special to the Scranton Tribune.

Honesdale, Dec. 30.—A committee from the members of the Christian Endeavor society, will hold a reception for them in the Presbyterian chapel on the afternoon of New Year's day, from two to five o'clock, to which the men are all invited.

Mr. and Mrs. Beverly Smith, of New York city, are the guests of Mrs. Jenkins and daughters Misses Anna and Lucy.

Mr. Jefferson Freeman who for several years has been the able leader of the orchestra, which bears his name, will on January 1, leave Honesdale, for future home, in the vicinity of Pittsburgh.

The opera house will be filled Wednesday evening, Jan. 1, to hear the famous "Ladon Symphony orchestra," which has been secured by the committee for the Endeavor course. The people will show their appreciation by liberal patronage, at the same time eating a rich treat.

The local washery, at Headley's, which has been operated by Messrs. Ferber and Hanlin, has served its usefulness as a washery. The present proprietors are about to equip the building with machinery for the manufacture of excelsior.

Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Carey, of Pittston, are guests at the home of Mrs. Carey's mother on Third street.

Miss Olive Haynes, of Scranton, has been spending the holidays with her sister at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. Grant Tallman.

The annual shut-down, of the Honesdale Shoe factories, which occurs the first of the year, will be shorter than on former years, on account of the pressure of orders. In fact all Honesdale industries are working full time.

HALF A MAN.

When a man is sick and can only work half the time he is practically half a man. It depletes his whole physical energy to do half as much work.

In general the weak run down condition which cuts the strength and energy in half is due to disease of the stomach and other organs of digestion and nutrition.

You could not expect a half starved man to work more than half the time. The condition of the man with weak stomach is that of the half starved man. He is weak through lack of nutrition.

Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery cures diseases of the stomach and other organs of digestion and nutrition. It enables the perfect nutrition of the body and restores the strength.

had stomach trouble from time to time. Mr. Wills Seaman, of Washingtonville, Oreg., age 57, had suffered for more or less as I grew up. At the age of 35 I was broken down with dyspepsia. My suffering was severe, but at without distress. Could only eat few certain things and was not able to digest them. Everything I tried only gave me temporary relief. My wife finally persuaded me to try Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery.

Pleasant Pellets. I took six bottles of "Golden Medical Discovery" and a bottle of Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets. I then felt so well that I stopped taking medicine. Several months have passed and I am in excellent kind of work, can eat anything that is set before me and enjoy it. At 77 years old and it is the first time I have ever been well."
