

WEST SCRANTON

HELD A ROLL CALL SERVICE

GATHERING AT FIRST WELSH CONGREGATIONAL.

James Block Arrested on a Charge of Selling Liquor Without a License—Watch Night Service in a Number of Churches—This Will be the Annual Donation Day at the West Side Hospital—Concert Tonight at the Plymouth Congregational Church—Notes and Personals.

Last evening, roll call service was held at the First Welsh Congregational church. The meeting was opened at 10 o'clock. Thomas Davis acted as chairman. Remarks were made by the pastor, Rev. David Jones, followed by a hymn by the congregation. Scriptural lesson was read by S. R. Jones, after which D. E. Thomas offered a fervent prayer.

An address was given by David J. Evans, which was well received. The roll of members was then called by Secretary John R. Jones. Refreshments were served by the following ladies: Misses Norma Williams, Lizette Jenkins, Cassie Jenkins, Kato Williams, Anna Roberts, Sarah Davis, Mrs. Noah Davis, Mrs. David Jenkins, Mrs. J. Davis, Misses Maggie Davis, Esther Thomas, Mary Thomas, Anna Davis, Maggie Evans, Blodwin Jones, Cassie Evans, Amy Reynolds and several others.

Entertainment and Social. The Bellevue Basket Ball club held an entertainment and social in Mears' hall last evening. A very large number were in attendance. The following programme was rendered:

Musical Selection.....Bandfield Sisters Solo.....William Price Buck and Wing Dance.....John Mangan Solo.....John Ames Solo.....Miss Margaret Armes Selection.....Mandolin Club Buck and Wing Dance.....Ford and Murphy Piano Solo.....Miss Kate Beardon Solo.....Frank Kelly Selection.....Black Diamond Quartette Solo.....T. McLaughlin

A social was held after the entertainment.

Captured at Last. James Black, of Frink street, was captured yesterday afternoon on Jackson street by Lieutenant Davis. On Dufour's French Tar will promptly relieve and speedily cure coughs, colds and all lung troubles. For sale by G. W. JENKINS, 101 South Main avenue.

An Important Item of News... Comes from Our Cloak Department

And with the advent of the New Year comes stock taking. We believe in taking an inventory in a business-like way, and would never dream of inventing a fashionable stock of Ladies' Jackets, Coats, Newmarkets, etc., at anything like cost. For we know very well that if we have to carry any of them over for another year, they won't be worth cost to us or anything like it. This fact explains the Deep Price Cutting Which Goes Into Effect This Morning

And will continue for ten days only. Three-fourths of winter is yet to come, and With the Smartest 27-In. Jackets And the Newest 42-In. Coats

At such reductions as we quote below, the temptation to buy would seem to us to be irresistible.

A Few Price Cutting Examples Ladies' Coats That Sold for $7.50 are now $4.98 Ladies' Coats That Sold for $9.00 are now 5.98 Ladies' Coats That Sold for $10.00 are now 6.98 Ladies' Coats That Sold for $12.50 are now 7.98 Ladies' Coats That Sold for $15.00 are now 9.98 Ladies' Coats That Sold for $18 to $22.50 are now 12.50

Remember, there is not one last season's garment in all the hundreds of handsome garments, and the wealth of selection is unlimited. These quotations refer to half and three-quarter length coats, but Swell Raglans and Newmarket Coats Have got a similar price cut on them, while Children's Garments are just as deeply affected. There's a big money saving opportunity here for those who care to take advantage of it.

Globe Warehouse

AGREAT SURPRISE In a store for all who use Kemp's Balsam for the Throat and Lungs, the great guaranteed remedy. Would you believe that it is sold on its merits as any drugist is authorized by the proprietor of this wonderful remedy to give you a sample bottle free. It never fails to cure acute or chronic coughs. All drugists sell Kemp's Balsam. Price, 25c. and 50c.

school, will be repeated on Wednesday evening, January 8, to accommodate those who were unable to find room at the last rendition on Christmas night. The Onetta Social club will conduct a masquerade ball in Washington hall this evening.

Camp 33, Patriotic Order Sons of America, will meet this evening in Washington hall.

A matinee dance will be held at the Electric City Wheelmen's club house this evening.

Local 1425, United Mine Workers of America, will hold a special meeting Thursday evening, January 2. All members are requested to attend. The following officers will be installed: President, George Watkins; recording secretary, James Bolton; financial secretary, William Charles; treasurer, James Davis.

Before Alderman Kellow. Mrs. Harriet Seeger, of Scranton street, was the prosecutor in a case of adultery against Mary Seliger, of 411 Eighth street, before Alderman George F. Kellow yesterday afternoon.

After a hearing, the alderman thought the evidence sufficient to hold Miss Seliger in $400 bail to appear at the next term of court.

Notes and Personals. Mrs. J. O'Hara, of Scranton street, will spend New Year's in Jersey City. Miss Gertrude Bennett, of New Milford, has been visiting Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Fuller, of Eynon street.

P. F. O'Boyle has returned from an extended visit at Nashville, Tenn. Mr. and Mrs. Charles S. DeFuy and daughters, Vinona and Virginia, of North Lincoln avenue, have returned from Delaware Water Gap, where they visited Mr. DeFuy's mother, who is quite ill.

Louis Parry, of 1212 Hampton street, will leave Thursday for Philadelphia. Reese Samuels, of Back street, is ill. William Davis, of Academy street, is visiting in Carbondale.

William Jenkins, of North Garfield avenue, is ill. Miss Elsie Evans, of Lafayette street, has returned from Dalton, where she visited relatives.

Miss Kate Taylor, of Paterson, N. J., has returned after a visit with friends on this side.

Mr. and Mrs. Albert Kern, of Jackson street, is visiting at Danville. Mrs. Louis Ralph, of Camden, N. J., is visiting West Scranton friends.

The board of directors of the Electric City Wheelmen held a meeting last evening.

Louis Oberdoffer and family, of Tripp's Park, have returned from Reading, Pa.

Mr. and Mrs. Reuben Young, of North Rebecca avenue, have moved to Wyssok, Pa.

Miss Lizzie Jones, of North Lincoln avenue, is visiting relatives in Nanticoke.

Mrs. W. R. Williams, of Eynon street, is recovering from a long illness. Mrs. John James, of North Hyde Park avenue, is recovering from an illness.

Oscear Jones left yesterday morning for Bloomsburg State Normal school. Miss Avis Tibbets, of Tenth street, is recovering from an attack of tonsillitis. Joseph Heffron, clerk at Musgrave's drug store, is ill.

Miss Agnes Williams, of Sweetland street, is ill with diphtheria. A son has arrived at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Archie Jones, of Meridian street.

The home of Mr. and Mrs. Bert Hackett has been brightened by the arrival of a daughter.

Mrs. Woods and son, Jesse, and Alfred Shafer, of Binghamton, are the guests of James Shafer, of North Garfield avenue.

A false alarm of fire was sent out last night from box 57.

DUNMORE. The Women's Christian Temperance union will hold a parlor meeting at the home of Mrs. Gabriel Swartz, 233 Cherry street, Thursday afternoon at 3 o'clock. Mrs. Maria W. Vaughn, county president, will be present and address the society. Refreshments will be served, and every member of the society is requested to be present.

Announcement has been made of the coming marriage of Edward Johnson and Miss Catherine Higgins; also of M. J. McDonnell and Miss Catherine Walker.

H. E. Spencer's meat market in the grocery store of his brother, next door to the postoffice, will be all ready for business tomorrow.

Harry A. Smith has returned from a visit with friends in New York state. Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Yost, of North Blakely street, announce the engagement of their daughter, Ruby E., to Frank W. Winters, M. D.

Milner & Bradley's minstrels will hold the boards at Washington hall, January 10. At the close of the entertainment a social and dance will be held in Odd Fellows' hall.

Prof. J. G. Secor, who has been spending the week at the Methodist parsonage, has returned to his home at Wilkes-Barre.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward Gagle and family have returned to their home at New Haven, after a stay with friends in town.

Bernard Sweeney and son, Francis, left for Manchester, N. H., yesterday, where they will remain for several weeks. Rev. and Mrs. William F. Gibbons will tender a reception to the members of the Presbyterian congregation at the manse, on Elm street, tonight, from 7.30 o'clock.

SOUTH SCRANTON

MARRIAGE OF W. S. STEPHENSON AND LOUISE HELRIGEL.

Pretty Ceremony Performed at the Home of the Bride's Parents Last Night—Fourteen Friends Celebrated the Coming of the New Year at Hotel Best—Watch Night Services Conducted in Many Churches Last Night—Fantastic Parade Today. Other News Notes.

A very pretty wedding took place on this side last evening when Miss Louise M. Helriegel and Walter S. Stephenson were joined in wedlock by Rev. William A. Nordt, at the home of the bride's parents, 1306 Cedar avenue.

The ceremony took place in the parlor which was tastefully and appropriately draped for the occasion with pinks, etc., at 7.30 p. m. in the presence of many friends and invited guests.

MISS LOUISE M. HELRIGEL.

The bride was given away by her father, Mr. Oscar Helriegel, and was beautifully attired in white Liberty satin trimmed with duchess lace and pearls.

The bridesmaid, Miss Caroline Scheuer, wore white chiffon, with pink satin trimmings and like the bride, carried a bouquet of roses. The groom was attended by Florence J. Helriegel, a brother of the bride, and two other brothers, Captain Joseph F. Helriegel, and Charles Helriegel acted as ushers.

After the ceremony a reception was held at the home of the bride, where the happy pair received the hearty congratulations of relatives and friends present. A supper was served and later Mr. and Mrs. Stephenson started on the 1.10 p. m. train for Brooklyn, N. Y., from whence they will go to Old Point Comfort, and later to Washington, D. C.

After the honeymoon they will reside in Brooklyn where Mr. Stephenson is well known as a member of the firm of A. N. Frecker company, wholesale hardware merchants.

Mrs. Stephenson is a handsome lady of modest disposition, and has the respect and esteem of countless friends. She was formerly stenographer for A. V. Bower, esq.

Fourteen Friends Celebrate. A delightfully arranged affair took place in the parlors of Hotel Best last evening on Cedar avenue, it being a watch night party made up of members only, their wives and sweethearts, of the "Fourteen Friends" society. It has been customary since the organization of this social club to meet and welcome the new year, and drink a toast to the old. The custom was observed amid surroundings of peculiar interest to those present last night and the committee spared no expense to make the affair a grand success. The parlors were lavishly decorated and at 10 o'clock a delicious supper was served in a manner tempting to the most fastidious appetite.

The following was the menu: Chicken, ham, roast beef, potato salad, mashed potatoes, cold slaw, pickles, beets, celery, olives, cake, ice cream, coffee, wine, champagne, cigars.

At midnight the guests rose in their places and drank a toast in silence to 1901. First class music was furnished for the dancing which followed and was kept up for several hours.

Those present were: Mr. and Mrs. Fred Ehrhardt, Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Best, Alderman John Lentz and wife, Mr. and Mrs. John Demuth, Mr. and Mrs. James F. Best, Dr. Albert Kolb and wife, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Neils, Mr. and Mrs. William Ziesmer, Mr. and Mrs. Albert Heiler, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Heiler, Mr. and Mrs. Philip Robinson, Mr. and Mrs. Adam Frechtel, Mr. and Mrs. James McCoy, Mr. and Mrs. Ben Moore, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Duffy, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Kirchoff, Messrs. Alfred Guthing, John Schunk, William Naegell, Fred Phaff, The Misses Emma Graebner, Nora and Mammie Loftus, Gussie Graebner, Kate Rosar.

Watch Night Services. Services were held at the various churches on this side last evening.

commencing at 8 o'clock and lasting until midnight.

At the Hickory Street Presbyterian church services were conducted by the pastor, Rev. W. A. Nordt, and were well attended.

Services were also held at the Cedar Avenue Methodist Episcopal church commencing at 7.30 p. m. A social time was enjoyed until 11 o'clock, when religious services commenced and lasted until the bells rang out the old, rang in the new.

Rev. Jacob Schoettle, of Hyde Park, officiated at the Church of Peace last evening in place of Pastor Schmidt, who had been called to attend the funeral of a niece, which took place in Brooklyn yesterday.

NUBS OF NEWS. A fantastic parade will take place this morning over the principal streets, which will be participated in by the P. O. S. of A. Bumperjerkel band, the Star Social club and the Meadow Brook society. They will wear laughable costumes, for the purpose of calling attention to the fact that their annual ball will be held in Music hall this evening.

Miss Juliet Touhill, of Pittston, is the guest of Miss Freda Kornacker, on Pittston avenue.

Turn over a new leaf and read The Tribune. Comet lodge, Knights of Pythias, held a largely attended session in Hartman's hall, on Pittston avenue, last evening. There will be no meeting of the Ladies' auxiliary of the A. O. H. at Pharmacy hall tonight, owing to it being a holiday.

The Victor Social club will conduct a ball this afternoon and evening in Athletic hall.

NORTH SCRANTON NEWS. Mrs. Emma Fadden Struck by a Train—At the Y. W. C. A. Rooms Today—Other Notes.

Mrs. Emma Fadden, of Throop street, was struck by a passenger train at 6.30 o'clock yesterday morning on the Delaware and Hudson Railroad near Parker street, while walking towards her home.

She was thrown to one side of the track and struck on her head, rendering her unconscious and cutting a deep gash. Her arm and body were also badly bruised. She was removed to her home where Doctor Peck was called. She was resting comfortably last night.

Y. W. C. A. Notes. The following programmes will be rendered in the rooms of the Young Woman's Christian association this afternoon and evening. A cordial invitation is extended to both young men and young women:

Children's programme at 4 p. m. Song, "A Junior Friend," Sunbeam club; song, "Cin a Little Child Like Me," Sunbeam club; recitation, by Margaret Simms, Mabel Simms, Anna Boos; song, four girls; recitation, Katharine Cowles; club poem, "Only a Smile," Sunbeam club; recitation, Lorraine Jones; song, Archie Reese; recitation, "The Christmas Thought," Florence Jones; recitation, Eva Williams; solo, Alfred Williams; recitation, Annie Holloway; song, Florence Cox; recitation, May Reese; overture, orchestra; piano solo, Miss Margaret Morrison; recitation, Miss Ruth McDonald; duet, Misses Annie and Tidwell Reese; violin solo, Prof. Walkenshaw; recitation, Miss Lulu Constantine; piano solo, Mrs. William McDonald; violin solo, Prof. Walkenshaw; selection, orchestra.

At Congregational Church. The following programme will be rendered in the parlors of the Welsh Congregational church of West Market street tonight: Selection, glee party; recitation, Miss Mary Evans; solo, Mr. Evan Gabriel; duet, Misses Sarah Powell and Ogwen Jones; selection, William H. Price; selection, glee party; solo, Mr. John Evans; recitation, Miss Margaret Lewis; solo, Prof. O'Neill of New York; song, William Davis; recitation, Lorraine Price; solo, Prof. O'Neill of New York.

After the entertainment is over the Ladies' Aid society will serve a supper. Admission for supper and entertainment is 35c.

Illuminated Lecture. This evening, in the parlors of the North Main Avenue Baptist church, Prof. McMurray, director of the choir, will deliver an illuminated lecture in connection with a concert. The lecture will be illustrated with 125 magnificent views, illustrating Prof. McMurray's personal experiences in the Hawaiian Islands.

The programme will be as follows: Song, "Just for Today," Mrs. John Stafford; duet, "Merry Birds of Spring," Miss Martha Huntsman and William Davis; song, "Some Day," William Linney; bass solo, "The Skipper," R. J. Thomas; euphonium solo, "Beautiful Hawaii," Prof. McMurray; song, "Hello Central; Give Me Heaven," Master Tommy Morris; recitation, Rev. A. H. Smith; song, "Queen of the Earth," William Davis; duet, "The Last Ship," Messrs. Linney and McMurray.

NEWS NOTES. Simon Polisky caused the arrest of Voloda Samard for assault and battery, before Alderman Meyers last evening. Polisky claimed Samard struck him on the head, cutting a deep gash, which required several stitches to close it, while engaged in a drunken row. The alderman dismissed the case upon both parties paying the costs.

This afternoon the North End Stars will have as their opponents the strong Patriots of West Scranton. The game will be held at 2 o'clock. Admission, 15 cents; ladies free. There will be a social after the game.

This evening the well-known Evestone Dramatic club will produce the beautiful drama, entitled "The Flag of Truth."

Thomas Mills, of North Main avenue, is a candidate for re-appointment for constable of the Second ward at the Republican primaries.

A New Year's service will be held this evening in the parlors of the Providence Presbyterian church, on North Main avenue. The subject will be, "Numbering Our Days."

The Providence Presbyterian church people will observe the week of prayer next week. A large attendance is expected each evening.

Mace lodge, Brotherhood of Trainmen, conducted a well-attended ball last night in the Auditorium.

J. B. Casterline, the present councilman of the Second ward, seeks the nomination for re-appointment, at the Republican primaries.

The funeral of Harry Frederick, the young man who was recently shot, will be held from his late home, on Blair

Jonas Long's

Blowing Colder How About the

Does it give satisfaction keep the room warm floor, make no dust?

Our Home Oak Cylinder He

Are noted for their heating capacity results in many ways. They have admitted large chunks and is air tight register grate for wood.

Our No. 10 size, former price $7.50 Our No. 12 size, former price $9.00 Our No. 14 size, former price $10.75 Our No. 16 size, former price $12.75 There are many other styles with

Banner Oil Heating

A little stove that you can carry perfect safety, at greatly reduced prices

The $4.50 kind, now..... The $4.97 kind, now..... The $5.39 kind, now.....

Lipton's Tea

Most everyone knows of the Lipton is anybody in Scranton that has not tried renowned teas they can have a chance onstration in our basement of its good cup to every lady. It doesn't cost you will soon see why there are ovelages of this tea sold every week.

Jonas Long's

AMUSEMENTS. Academy of Music Lyceum

Aubrey Stock Co. Presenting big scenic productions; a different play at every performance; new up-to-date specialties; 2 carloads of special scenery. Opening Monday night in the beautiful Russian drama.

"In the Palace of the Czar." Matinee Prices, 10 and 20 cents; night prices, 10, 20 and 30 cents. Prices for New Year's Day—Matinee, 10, 20 and 30 cents; night, 10, 20, 30 and 50 cents.

STAR THEATRE ALF. G. HERRINGTON, Manager. DECEMBER 30, 31 AND JANUARY 1. "Troadero Burlesquers" Matinee Every Day.

The Boston Ladies Symphony Orchestra High School Auditorium, Thursday, Jan. 2, 1902.

Fourth Course Number Twenty-Eighty-five Grand Young Ladies. One-Act Best of the Year. Programme Unusually Delightful. Mr. Frank W. McKee, Conductor. Mr. Carl Crane, Base.

Diagram now open at Powell's Music Store for unreserved course tickets and for single admissions.

avenue, tomorrow afternoon. Interment in the Forest Hill cemetery.

Miss E. J. Owens and niece have returned from Heart Lake, after visiting friends there.

William Evans, of Slatington, has returned home, after a few days' visit in this section.

Mrs. David Rosser and son, William Rosser, of Taylor, have returned home, after spending a few days with Mrs. D. D. Jones, of Putnam street.

The members and friends of the Providence Methodist Episcopal church are making two payments of a long standing church debt and an honored record of half a century for the church the occasion of which jubilee services will be held today at 10.30 a. m. and 7.00 p. m. Former pastors have been invited back, and many people trained in the old church, now being elsewhere, will return to join in loving remembrance and joy and hope. Following is a part of the programme:

Morning—Devotional services, Rev. John Laird; historical sketch, Laura Hawkey; honored names, C. W. Benjamin; reminiscences, Revs. W. L. Thorpe, R. W. Van Schoick, D. D. A. J. Van Cleft, M. D. Fuller, D. D. William Edgar; communion service administered by Rev. Austin Griffin, D. D. Evening—Opening service, Rev. S. W. Blatchley; "The Future of the Sunday School," Rev. M. D. Fuller, D. D.; "How May the Church Help the Sunday School?" Superintendent C. W. Dawson, esq.; "The Future of the Epworth League," Rev. W. L. Thorpe; "Total Abstinence and Prohibition," Rev. Wm. Edgar; "The Church and Evangelism," Revs. R. W. Van Schoick,

Has cradled American cities. Prices—Afternoon 20, 15c and $1.00 Sunday morning. Tickets for sale

D. D. A. J. service, Rev. Wm. Edgar, Prof. J. H. Cou