The Christmas entertainment given by the children of the Baptist Sunday school at the church on Friday evening was enjoyed by a large and appreciative audience. The children did their parts well and everyone seemed happy. At the close of the entertainments, gifts were distributed to all belonging to the school, a bag of candy, nuts and an orange were given to every child in the audience. At least, such was the intention of the committee in charge, and if any were missed it was owing to an oversight on ac-
