SURRENDERED

To Hot Biscuits and Warm Pic.

Bombarding a stomach with hot biscuits and warm pie, plenty of butter, bacon, greasy potatoes, and a few other choice delicacies will finally cause the fortifications to give way, Then how to build back on good food is worth knowing.

A man in Factoryville, Pa., attacked his stomach in about this way and says: "The sign of surrender was plain in my white, coloriess face, : A1 that time every article of food distressed me, and heartburn kept me in continued misery. I liked all sorts of breakfast foods, but they did not agree with me. Of course, much of the food that "1" ate contained nourishment, but my stomach could not get the nourish ment out. 1 tried pepsin and other alds to digestion which worked for a time and then gave out.

peared and I became thoroughly impressed with the new food and began to improve at once. Little by little my strength came back and slowly and surely I gained my lost weight. The wasted tissues and muscles built up, and today I am well, buoyant and strong.

I unreservedly give the chief credit to Grape-Nuts which met me in crisis and brought me over the dark period of despondency. Nothing else did it for nothing else could be endured.
