IMPERIALISM

TWO CONGRESSMEN MET IN LYCEUM LAST NIGHT.

Champ Clark of Missouri Took the Ground That Imperialism Is Wrong and That We Made a Serious Mistake When We Took the Philippine Island-Hon. C. B. Landis of Indiana Ably Handled the Other Side of This Great

Hon, Champ Clark, of Missouri and Hon, C. B. Landis, of Indiana, two of he most noted speakers of congress, met in joint debate at the Lyceum last night, on the subject, "Imperialism." It was under the auspices of the Brockway lecture bureau. Regretable to say, the audience was smaller than that which usually attends the Brockway events. Had Scranton but known of the merit of the affair the capacity of the theatre would have een taxed.

The speakers were introduced and the details announced by Livy S. Richard, editor of The Tribune. Mr. Clark dealt with the Democratic side of the question for fifty minutes; Mr. Landis then spoke for an hour and five minutes, and Mr. Clark occupied fifteen minutes in rebuttal.

Expansion was the main question discussed. That it was thoroughly and interestingly discussed goes without saying. A resume of their arguments can do them scant justice. Each was rich in ant illustrative stories, ready of wit and possessed in a rare degree of the essential ability of making point and driving it home. Briefly stated, Mr. Clark said:

There are three leading questions today before the American people; Finance; the tariff, with its cognate branch, trusts; the colonial system, which has come to be called Imperialism. I will take them up in what I consider their order of importance. "My friend Landis will get more applause than I from a Pennsylvania au-times more sound American doctrine and common sense than his, IS OF SLOW GROWTH.

dience, but my speech will contain ten

"Fitness for American citizenship is, ike confidence, of slow growth. The declaration of independence didn't make us free and fit. The battle for human freedom began even before the time of Alfred the Great. The declaration of independence was simply one of the luminous milestones marking the progress of our march from barbarism to our present civilization. "Our institutions were purchased at a great price, yet my friend Landis and his fellow-jingoes would fritter them away in a chase after a will-o'the-wisp on the other side of the globe. "It is not square miles of land, navigable rivers and the like that makes greatness in a nation. Russia has all these and is the veriest of despotisms. Austria has them in a great measure, their aged monarch that prevents its dissolution "I am utterly opposed to taking to our palpitating bosom a horde of savages who can only degrade and corrupt us. This nation alone stands for the deathless idea of human freedom. Jefferson made us all propagandists of equal right's. After practicing this for one hundred and twenty-five years, have us resort to government by force. "In 1898, just before entering upon the Spanish war, we passed a resolution in congress declaring that we were not entering upon the war for self-aggrandizement. We declared in that resolution that we did not want to take Cuba or Porto Rico to ourselves. If any of us knew where the Philippines were we would have put them in, too, "What an enviable position we might have occupied at the close of the war if we had kept to the declarations of that resolution. We owed it to our fathers, ourselves, our children and the sacred cause of human liberty to have done so. We ought to have said to those whom we freed: 'You are free; form your governments and we will make other countries keep their hands off. If they don't keep them off, we will shoot them off.' But we didn't do it. We fell to the low estate of common land-grabbers. WHAT FILIPINOS ARE

"I want it to be understood that I am not wasting any sympathy on the Fillpinos. They are mere cumberers of the earth, as far as I know. But this is one thing sure. They are either fit for self-government or unfit. If they are fit, why in the name of heaven do we not let them govern themselves? If they are not fit for self-government. we do not want them for fellow-citizens. Let Mr. Landis take either horn of that dilemma and impale himself. We surely do not want them for fellow-citizens. We have 9,000,000 now, who are not strictly prime.

"Our undertaking to hold the Philippines is the most idiotic and un-American idea human ingenuity can devise. If we discovered those islands, with not soul on them, they would still be of no use to us. A white man can't live there. Oh, it's a lovely country. Our soldiers appealed to the war department not to pay them in paper money any more. The ants eat it.

"Why do we not learn something from other countries. Holland has held the Island of Java for three hundred years, and has spent vast sums of money in bounties and otherwise in attempting to colonize it with whites. The last census showed 26,000,000 n groes and 20,000 whites. The latter die out in the third generation. "What did we buy for the $20,000,000 paid for the Philippines? Today's papers tell of another severe battle in the Philippines. A few weeks ago a whole regiment of American regulars was practically wiped out. And there is no telling how long the slaughter will continue. I would not give one American boy for all the Filipinos that exist or will exist before Judgment day SLAVERY EXTIRPATED. "The Republican party started out forty years ago to extirpate slavery and polygamy. It succeeded at a great cost. While we were bouncing Bigamist Roberts from congress, General Bates entered into an agreement with completed the work of transcribing and that eminent Republican statesman, the abulating the assessment for the next Sultan of Sulu, that insured the profiscal year on January 15, and it will tection of the United States to his practice of polygamy and slavery. ately just how high the tax levy will Sultan of Sulu is on the pay roll of have black slaves in Missouri, it is The hearing of appeals will probably wrong to have brown ones in Sulu. not be begun until about January 19. | Wrong doesn't become right by trans-

"If you ask a Republican why we possess the Philippines he will answer Destiny did it—and they pay.' He will also tell you it is our duty to carry the blessings of settled government to the ends of the earth, on our bayonets. I say no. Let us attend to our own With our lynchings, burnings at the stake, tarring and feathering of monsters, debauched politics and the like can we well claim to be in a position to carry the blessings of set-tled government to the ends of the

'There will be revolutions,' Landis will say. Let them revolute, I say, To revolute and evolute is a law of national progress. Are we in a position to deny them the luxury of revolutions. Let them arrive at political perfection

"The Jingoes say: 'We want the trade of the Philippines.' Leave everything else aside for the sake of argument, and consider the question from the low plane of dollars and cents, and see how we come out.

"The Philippines have so far cost us $245,000,000, and it is still costing us $12,000,000 a month. How much is the trade of the Philippines worth? All told export and import it amounts to only $30,000,000 a year. A fair profit on that would be 10 per cent. or $3,000,000. We get one-tenth of it. Our part of the swag is $300,000 a year. And the money loss is not the worst of it. The sacrifice of the lives of our American boys is the greatest loss, and that sacrifice will continue until we say to the Filipinos: 'You are free,' or until Gabriel blows his horn. In concluding Mr. Clark dwelt upon the big pension fund the war is going to make necessary and the inauguration of the scandal-breeding pro-consular form of government. He also declared that he hoped confidentially for the return of the Democratic party to power in 1904. "I pin my faith,' said he, 'on President Roosevelt kicking the party into smithereens."

MR. LANDIS' REPLY.

In opening his address, Mr. Landis said the pleasure of speaking in Scranton was, to him, heightened by the fact that it is the home of Congressman Connell. After telling of the high regard in which Mr. Connell is held in Washington, Mr. Landis turned to his opponent and said: "Read the story of his life. It is a continual rebuke to the average Democrat who can see nothing to glorify in this country. Continuing, he said in part:

"With the Democrat it is always : wail. Mark the speech just deliveredthis miserere. They protest against everything but their protests are not always well timed. The time they should have protested against expansion was before the war started. heard Clark himself declare that the Democrats took the Republican party by the scruff of the neck and dragged it into the war. When they were doing this, as they claim, and when they were defaming William McKinley was the time for them to think of slavery and polygamy and the other problems the war would entail. "At the time when the people were lemanding that we take action, when the Maine was blown up, I was one who went to the white house to urge the president to act. He said then it was not any question as to the outcome of but it is only the love of the people for the war that caused him to proceed so cautiously. Spain would be whipped n ninety days, he said. What he worried about were the problems the war would entail. William McKinley knew where the Philippines were, if Mr. Clark

SPAIN WAS WHIPPED. "The war took place. We whipped Spain in ninety days. Commissioners went to Paris to arrange terms. Landis and the other Jingoes would first difficulty they had to contend with was the Philippine question. propositions were advanced: (1) Give the islands back to Spain; (2) Sell hem to the highest bidder; (3) Give them independence; (4) Take them and do the best we can with them.

> "The first two propositions were, o course, not to be given a second thought. As to the third, I will cuote Mr. Clark's declaration that not one in thousand is fit for self government. The only thing we could do was to take them and do the best we could with them

"The ratification of this agreement needed a two-thirds vote in the senate. To ratify it, sixteen free silver votes were necessary. Colonel William Jennings Bryan left his regiment in Florida and lobbied for the ratification. The sixteen Bryanite votes were se cured and the agreement was ratified by a majority of one. If it was not for he prophet, priest and king of the Democrats, we would not have the Philippines. Bryan declared, afterwards, he did it just to settle the question of imperialism, practically admitting he did it to make an issue. "To accept the Philippines and solve the Philippine problem is a national responsibility. Our honor, dignity and duty are at stake. "The Republican party settled the slavery and polygamy questions in this country, as it said it would. It will settle the polygamy and slavery questions in Sulu, and thereby cause great regret to the Democrats. Steps have already been taken to extirpate them."

SOVERNING WITHOUT CONSENT. Mr. Landis made a display of rare power of sarcasm in answering the point regarding "governing without the consent of the governed.

"Clark says 'We govern without the consent of the governed'—and then quotes Jefferson. Did Jefferson secure the consent of the governed in the Louisiana purchase? Jefferson then owned one hundred slaves-without the

One of the reasons we could not let the Filipino "revolute and evolute," as GAMBLERS OUT Mr. Clark would have him, Mr. Landis OF BUSINESS went on to explain, was because there are subjects of most of the civilized nations on those islands, and having taken a government away from them
