Proprietors Claim the Right to Sell Under a Club License-Mother and Child Burned by Fire-Weekly School Deposits - Two Funerals Fractured Her Arm-Events of This Evening-Other Notes and

The hearing in the speakeasy cases f John Carson, Mrs. Sheridan and armes Black were called yesterday afternoon before Police Magistrate Davies. The defendants and their friends assembled in large numbers, and Attorney Robert Murray was present to Assistant City Solicitor D. J. Davis appeared for the prosecution. The defense alleged that they were privileged to sell under what they termed a "club license," and offered their club books in evidence. There was no record therein to show that they had purchased any intoxicants for the club.

After a lengthy discussion, the magistrate adjourned the case until Thurs day afternoon at 5 o'clock.

Fell and Fractured Her Arm.

Mrs. Joseph Reynolds, of Hampton street, mother of the Reynolds Bros., stationers, and Hon, T. Jefferson Reynolds, fell on the ley pavement on South Main avenue, last evening, and fractured her left arm.

She was on her way to attend the services in the First Welsh Baptist church, when the accident occurred. Friends assisted her to her home, and a physician was called, who set the injured limb. At a late hour last night she was resting comfortably.

Important Meeting of the Borough Council-Large Amount of Business Considered.

The council met in regular session last night with all members present except Mr. Doudican. A committee consisting of Messrs. Brogan, Ward and McLaughlin, was appointed to confer with the Scranton Gas and Water ompany with reference to rebuilding Looked at from any viewpoint we say without the the Nay Aug bridge, which, it is claimslightest fear of successful contradiction that the values ed, was dislodged by reason of the exessive rush of water caused by the opening of the flood gates at their reservoirs at the time of the heavy rains recently.

The fire committee was instructed to arrange with the Gamewell fire Alarm company for the placing of a iew indicator in the O. S. Johnson hose house. A complaint of a water nuisance was received from Attorney H. question you need consider is, how to get to the store in D. Carey, representing W. H. Derby and others, of Electric avenue, which was referred to the streets and bridges committee. Complaints of a like nature were received from attorneys representing John Gately, of Bloom street; John McCann, of Webster avenue, and W. H. McCullough, which were, similarly referred. Burgess Burschell reported no fines collected during the month of December. Chief Teevan recommended the purchase of 500 feet of additional hose. Mr. Hart, of the Fabric Fire Hose Lot extra heavy Egyptian Ribbed Shirts and Drawers, in all sizes; were 3714c. Choice of the lot at sell on one year's time at 90 cents per fcot. The matter was referred to the fire committee with full power to act. Treasurer Wahlers reported that there was $4,000 in the sinking fund. and recommended the redeeming of six borough bonds. The chief of police reported three arrests during the past month and electric lights burning poor-The street commissioner's time sheet for $245.75 was approved. The judiciary committee was empowered to engage counsel to conduct the case of Mrs. Bridget McLane, of Grove street, against the borough, which is on the trial list for Jan. 28, Borough Attorney McDonald having been retained by the plaintiff previous to his election as borough attorney. A resolution was introduced by Mr. McLaughlin in reference to the increase in the rate for fire hydrants from $5 to $20 per year by the Scranton Gas and Water company. A bid had been re-ceived from the water company for $637.50 being the cost of sixty fire plugs for six months, with a charge of $30 for the stone crusher and $7.50

Mr. McLaughlin's resolution called for the drawing of an order for $187.50, being the amount due at the old rate. The chief of police's time sheet for $350 was approved; also the chief fire department's time sheet for $150 was ordered paid. Miscellaneous bills amounting to $1.093.06 were ordered paid. ### OBITUARY.

JAMES POWELL-The home of Mrs Louis Powell, of Margaret avenue, has been plunged into profound grief by the sudden death of James Powell, who was visiting the family. Mr. Powell was a native of Mountain Ash, Wales, and was 39 years of age. He was a prominent hotel keeper in his native town. Two months ago Mr. Powell came to this country to visit his relatives in this section. Mr. Powell was a fine specimen of manhood and the short time he was in this country he won for himself hosts of friends. During his stay he affiliated himself with the North End Glee club and the North End Choral society who sang with them in the recent eisteddfod held in this section. The cause of his death was Brights' disease. The funeral arrangements will be made latter.

MRS. MARY REED, aged 75 years, died Sunday night at her home, 401 Eynon street. Deceased is survived by two sons and two daughters, namely, Martin Reed, of Denver, Col.; John, and Kate, of this city, and Mrs. P. M. Gilligan, of Wilkes-Barre. The funeral will take place tomorrow morning at o'clock. Interment will be made in the Dunmore cemetery.

MRS. BRIDGET CUDAHY, aged 38 ears, a resident of 311 Broadway, died at the Hillside Home on Saturday. The funeral services will be held at Holy 'ross church at 9 o'clock tomorrow morning. Burial will be made in the Cathedral cemetery.

EDWARD DAVIS, the 19-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Davis, of Thirteenth and Eynon streets, died at an early hour yesterday morning. The funeral will take place tomorrow afternoon with interment in the Washburn street cemetery.

Funerals.

There were signs of beaver at the upper end of the lake, and a trapper succeeds ed in trapping one of the wily dam

"When the beaver was brought into camp the camp cook went nearly wild And so did the lumbermen when they heard the news. All because they had been trying to trap a beaver for weeks -not for its fur, but for its tail, as they were pining, they said, for beavertail soup. The cook took that broad appendage of the beaver, mailed like in armadillo, took from it the underlying bone and meat, and from it made such a soup as never came from any other stock at the beck of the most scientific chef that ever put a kettle was with Colonel Park, of Columbus, on. We could do the same thing, and perhaps better, on the Eastern shore, region of Michigan one fall. We lived but we lack one thing. We haven't

An Excellent Combination. The pleasant method and beneficial
