NOON-DAY NUPTIALS.

Pretty Wedding of Miss Mary Nealon and Henry J. Battle.

A noon-day wedding, marked with a ceremony pretty beyond the ordinary, was solemnized in the beautiful church of St. Rose yesterday, while the angelus was ringing. The principals were Miss Mary Nealon, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Stephen Nealon, one of the oldest families of the city, and Henry J. Battle, son of Select Councilman Thomas Battle and Mrs. Battle. The bridesmaid was Miss Willie Nealon, the bride's sister, and Joseph Battle, of Schenectady, N. Y., a brother of the groom, was best man.

While the peal of the angelus was sounding, the bridal party moved up the aisle, while the organ rolled out the joyful melody of the wedding hymn. The bridesmaid, Miss Nealon, sister of the bride, and Joseph Sherman, of Wilkes-Barre, were in the lead. Grouped in front of the sanctuary when the procession ended, the party made a beautiful tableau. Here the nuptials were solemnized by Very Rev. F. Coffey, A. C., in the presence of the multitude of admiring and well-wishing friends, many of whom were guests from distant parts. The bride was radiant in loveliness. Her gown was an artistic creation and greatly enhanced her appearance. She wore a duchess satin with an embroidered chiffon overdress. She carried a bridal veil of point lace, decorated with orange blossoms. She carried bride roses. The bridesmaid was robed in white silk over mousseline de soie. She wore a picture hat and carried pink roses.

Following the ceremony was the reception at the home of the bride's parents, on Pike street, where the heartfelt wishes of relatives and friends poured in. The bride and groom, the wedding dinner followed. The interior of the home presented a beautiful floral picture to the bride and groom and the guests. Turnbull had transformed the rooms with his arrangement of palms, ferns and cut flowers and blooming plants. The dining room was perhaps the most elaborate and from every corner and nook the flowers smiled their beauty. The tables were likewise resplendent with their silver and cut glass, set off with floral decorations. There was an array of reminiscences from the young couple's friends, and conspicuous among the gifts were the cut glass and silver pieces.

At 4 o'clock the bride and groom left over the Delaware and Hudson on their wedding trip. They will return in about two weeks and will be home after Feb. 1 at their pleasantly arranged home on Eighth avenue. Mrs. Battle has been most conspicuous in the society in which she moved and she was warmly admired by her associates. She is endowed with many charms of person, such that win and hold friendships. The warm-hearted wishes of her friends accompany her in her new sphere. Mr. Battle can likewise flatter himself on the friendships that he enjoys. He has the talent of music, which he has developed, having entertained many an audience in this section. He is a faithful employe of the Pioneer Steam Laundry.

Among the guests from out of the city were: Misses May Finnelly and Angela Finnelly, Honesdale; Miss May Savage, Buffalo, N. Y.; Mr. and Mrs. Luke Connors, Misses Hannah and Stella Connors, Mr. and Mrs. John Fleming, Pittston; Mr. and Mrs. Michael Ticho, Misses Anna Dowling, Miss Nell Ticho, Mrs. John J. Goodson, Miss Rose Campbell, Scranton; Mr. and Mrs. John Riley, Mr. and Mrs. Michael Sweeney, Misses Alice, Sadie and Mame Sweeney, Archbald; Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Nealon, Archbald; Mr. and Mrs. John J. Grady, Mayfield; Mr. and Mrs. Frank Battle, Archbald; Mrs. Sarah Sweeney and daughter, of Green Ridge; Mrs. Michael McNamara, Wilkes-Barre; Misses Mame Purton, Mame Saltry, Providence; Annie McLaughlin, Mame Hoban, Olyphant, and Messrs. James For-

FIVE DOLLARS A BOX

The Price Cut No Figure With Him

"I want to say for the benefit of some people dyspeptic that Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets will give comfort and a cure every time. Five dollars a box would not stop my purchasing them should I ever suffer again as I did for a week before using them. The one 50-cent box I bought at my druggist's did the work and my digestion is all right again. Many of my neighbors have also tried these tablets and found them to be just as represented and Mr. Elms also wants me to use his name in endorsing Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets. (Signed) A. Elms and Chas. F. Buzzell, Assistant Postmaster, South Sudbury, Mass.

Mrs. James Barton, of Toronto, Canada, writes: "For eighteen months I suffered from what I supposed was bladder and kidney trouble, and took medicine from three different doctors, without any benefit. I was so ill at last I was hardly able to do my work. I thought I would try a box of Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets and see if they would make me feel better, never realizing that I had dyspepsia, but after only three or four tablets had been taken all the acid trouble disappeared and then I discovered I had had acid dyspepsia, while the doctors had been treating me for kidney and bladder trouble and one of them treated me for rheumatism. My digestion is fine, my complexion clear and I am able to do my work and lose weight as usual."

"I am so thankful for finding a cure so good and so pleasant to take as Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets. I am surprised at the change they have made in me." All druggists sell and recommend Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets, because they contain only the simple natural digestives, and taken after meals prevent acidity and cause prompt digestion and assimilation of food. Physicians everywhere endorse them because they are as safe for the child as for the adult; they are invaluable for sour stomach, nervous dyspepsia, heartburn, gas on stomach and bowels and every form of stomach derangement.

patronage however, to call for this change. Nobody rides except the single passenger who has ridden since the strike started. The company will make no attempt, it is believed, to run cars to Forest City until the spring. This, of course, will be the coming year, and now welcome in Forest City where the merchants have been appreciably benefited by the inauguration of the strike. All of the buying of the inhabitants is confined to that thriving place instead of being divided between it and Carbondale as was true before the strike.

Public Installation. There will be a public installation of officers of William H. Davies' post, G. A. R., this evening. Senior Vice-Commander A. R. Stevens, of Scranton, will officiate at the ceremony. The officers of the Woman's Relief corps will also be installed, preceding the veterans in their work. Commander John McComb of Davies' post, is in charge of the evening's programme which will be varied and interesting. Refreshments will be served. A jocular and profitable evening is anticipated.

Wedding Announcement. The marriage of Miss Catherine Cuff and Thomas Tierney, both of Mayfield, is announced to take place at St. Rose church on Wednesday, January 15. The couple have a host of friends among the young people of the town.

and purposed running it themselves in future." There has been considerable trouble for some time past about the division of cars which the men complain are unfairly divided, the leading men getting more than their share. On the other hand the company has stated that a few headings that it was to drive have been retarded owing to the action of the boys and men. It is a matter of relief to the town generally to know the cause of the present ailment and it is to be hoped for the benefit of all concerned that the men will meet and take such action that the difficulty will soon be amicably adjusted and work again resumed.

John H. Moreau, son of Joel Moreau, of Fourth street, who goes to his home yesterday afternoon from the Delaware and Hudson pay car had the misfortune to lose his pay amounting to $15.22, which he had placed in a pocket in which he had his handkerchiefs. In pulling out the latter, he pulled out the money, also, without noticing the fact. It was not until he reached his home that he discovered his loss. By a fortunate circumstance it fell into honest hands. William Williams, a young man of West Mayfield, picked it up and as soon as he discovered the owner restored it.

Isaac Mendelson, of Mayfield, yesterday returned to the physicians and surgeons college, Baltimore, to resume his studies. Miss Mary Stulek was a Carbondale visitor yesterday. The Hill or Miss Cooking club met last evening at the home of Miss Emily Rich on Main street. G. Arthur Fowler is taking a business course of study in the Scranton college. Roy, Wilson Bentley, of Priceburg, will preach in the Primitive Methodist church at both services on Sunday. D. D. S. C. Henry Chapman installed the following officers of Jermyn commandery: A. O. K. of the M. C.; Sir B. Commander, Benjamin Davis; Sir V. Commander, George Harvey; Marshall, D. E. Jones; chaplain, Henry Maynard; recording scribe, William Calk; financial scribe, William Benson; treasurer, William Langman; inside guard, John O. Evans; outside guard, John Jenkins; trustees for ensuing term, Thomas Maynes, Samuel Penny, Paul Jones.

PECKVILLE. The second annual banquet of the Peckville Forest and Stream club was held Monday evening in Odd Fellows' hall. The occasion was a delightful one. Caterer William Goyne furnished the refreshments. The menu was elaborate and of a high standard. After all had partaken of the bountiful supper, the members of the club and the invited guests, repaired to the auditorium, where Toastmaster James W. Smith held full sway. There was an speech-making by the members and guests; Mrs. W. W. Watkins sang several solos, which were highly appreciated. The president of the club, Mr. J. D. Peck, made the opening address. His remarks were listened to with marked attention. Among those who responded to toastmaster Smith's invitation to talk were: Dr. P. L. Van Sickle, Attorney Joseph Gilroy, William Allen, W. W. Watkins, C. J. Ganzemuller, Frank Benjamin and George W. Hawley. Jollity and good humor reigned supreme. Those who were present and enjoyed the evening's festivities were: Messrs. J. D. Peck, William Allen, W. S. Bloss, R. J. Reese, W. W. Watkins, N. E. Johnson, W. S. Seales, C. J. Ganzemuller, William Hughes, J. H. Schner, Joseph R. Bell, John Bembo, David Evans, Edward W. Moore, P. Benjamin, G. B. Reed, George Dando, Winton, William Gunn, George Clark, Edward Wallick, Charles Wiley, Dr. F. L. Van Sickle, Olyphant; Frank Reese, George W. Hawley, C. H. Beattie, Joseph P. Gilroy, G. M. Pierce, John Shone, W. W. Watkins, Robert B. Johnson, William Walker, William Goyne, Stanley Newton, Floyd Greiner, Harry Simpson, C. E. Clark, Scranton.

List of letters remaining unclaimed in the postoffice at Peckville, week ending Jan. 7, 1902: Mrs. Katie Bennett, Frank Moore, Postoffice; Anthony Louch, J. J. Sedlitz, Thomas Sulcav. Persons claiming the above will please say "Advertised," and give the date of this list. C. V. Mace, Postmaster.

The residence of the vicinity of William Hughes' home, on North Hickory street, were startled by the cry of fire, and upon emerging from their homes, discovered smoke issuing from the kitchen of the Hughes building. It seems that Mrs. Hughes was cooking some meat on the kitchen stove and was in another part of the house when the contents of the kettle caught fire. The flames reached to the ceiling and huge volumes of smoke arose. When Mrs. Hughes returned to the kitchen, to find it filled with smoke and flames, she fled to the alarm and at once set about to quench the fire. This she succeeded in doing, thus no doubt saving the building. The damage done was slight.

OLYPHANT. Perry, O'Neil and Dee will present the thrilling melodrama, "In Peril," at the Father Matthew opera house Friday evening. Besides the company they carry ten vaudeville artists, and the famous little comedienne, La Petite Bonnie Dee, who performs between the acts. An excellent attraction is expected. W. J. Davis, of Philadelphia, is visiting his brother, John L. Davis, of Susquehanna street. An entertainment will be held in the Congregational church Monday evening, January 13. A. V. Bower, e. g. of Scranton, will present a large collection.
