CHOICE OF REPUBLICANS IN TWENTY-FIRST WARD.

He Was Unanimously Endorsed for the Nomination at a Meeting in the First District Last Night-Fifteenth Ward Republicans Will Caucus This Afternaan-The Candidates-Electric City Wheelmen Meeting - New Members Who Have Been Received-Notes.

A citizens' meeting of the representative Republican voters residing in the First district of the Twenty-first ward was held last evening in the regular polling place at James R. Mears' exchange, and Griffith T. Davis was unanimously endorsed for the office of school controller.

The meeting was called to order at 8 o'clock with about fifty voters present. Mr. Davis was selected as chair-

While he was averse to accepting the nomination, Mr. Davis finally permitted the use of his name and he was endorsed with much enthusiasm, John G. Nicholson was the choice of

Mr. Davis is one of the most representative men in the city and will make a stalwart candidate for the office of school controller. He is profoundly interested in the public schools, and with the increased Republican vote in the Twenty-first ward ought to be elected. His opponent will be Edward J. HIS NAME EVERYWHERE.

One Englishman Believed Chauncey Depew Was Extremely Popular.

A story has just come from the other side that illustrates the gullibility of Englishmen, and incidentally throws an amusing light on Senator Depew's popularity. An Englishman of reputation as a writer on social questions had come to the United States in order to study the nation preparatory writing a book on the subject. In the course of his investigations in New York he had noticed the frequent iron plates throughout the city covering manholes, and marked with the inthe department of public works-D. P. W. In the true spirit of the investigator he had sought expla nation of the initials from an American friend, who, unfortunately, happened to be a wag. After returning to England he was called upon at a public dinner for a speech on America, and in the course of his remarks he made this statement, based on the information received anent the manhole coverings

"The Americans, ladies and gentlemen, believe strongly in inciting in the breasts of all classes the spirit of emulation, and to that end they never lose an opportunity of calling the attention of citizens to the achievements and fame of successful men. Why, in New York they even incorporate the names of prominent men in the sidewalks, so that pedestrians cannot escape seeing them.
