THE EMPRESS IN COMMAND

China's Figurehead Ruler Is Said to Appear Melancholy and Listless.

THE DOWAGER SUFFERS FROM NERVOUSNESS

Does Not Like to Hear Steam Whistles—Desires to Have Foreign Troops Handy—The American and Japanese Officers Who Guarded the Imperial Palace During the Court's Absence Will Be Decorated. An Edict Ordering the Decapitation of Tung Fuh Siang.

By Exclusive Wire from The Associated Press. Peking, Jan. 8.—All evidences indicate that the emperor of China is now more completely under the domination of the dowager empress than he was before the Chinese court went into exile. Several high officials were granted audiences today during which the emperor filled the role of a figurehead.

Relations at Peking ARE AGAIN STRAINED

The Row Between American Sailors and Russian Soldiers May Cause International Complications.

By Exclusive Wire from The Associated Press. Peking, Jan. 8.—While the actual casualties during the fighting at New Chung between American sailors belonging to the United States gunboat Vicksburg, which is wintering there, and Russian soldiers attached to the garrison of that port, are trifling up to date, the matter has resulted in unpleasantly strained relations between the American, Russian and British authorities there.

SENTIMENTAL FAVORS PANAMA ROUTE

Developed by Debate on the Nicaragua Canal Bill in the Senate.

16 MEMBERS ADVOCATE MORRIS AMENDMENT

Messrs. Shackelford, Littlefield and Others Discuss the Question—The Matter of Pensions Before the Senate—No Decision Reached in the Case of the Widow of the Heroic Doctor Lazare, Whose Life Was Sacrificed in Yellow Fever Investigations and Experiments.

By Exclusive Wire from The Associated Press. Washington, Jan. 8.—The debate on the Nicaragua canal bill in the house today developed sentiment in favor of giving consideration to the recent offer of the Panama company to sell its franchises and property for forty million dollars, this sentiment taking the form of advocating the Morris amendment to empower the president to select the latter route if the canal commission, upon considering the company's offer, recommends it and the required conditions can be obtained by the end of the year.
