FIRST RETURN OF GRAND JURY MANY IMPORTANT CASES ARE

REPORTED.

Three Traction Company Men, Charged with the Shooting of Daniel McAuliffe, Must Stand Trial for Murder-Several Cases Growing Out of Strike Disturbances Are Reported-Meehan Acquitted of the Murder of Supposed Chicken Thief-Other Cases.

True bills were returned by the grand jury yesterday in its first report, against Sylvester F. Cosgrove, Frank Kingsley and Frank Kofeznus-ki, the three men charged with the shooting of Daniel McAuliffe, at Moran's saloon on Luzerne street, Dec. 9, during a fracas following an attempt on the part of the defendants to make arrests for an attack made on a trolley car, the night before.

Bills against McAuliffe, in which he was charged with riot, assault and battery and malicious mischief were all ignored and the costs placed on Robert Ballentine, an imported trolleyman who acted as prosecutor.

True bills were found in all the Lafayette street riot cases except in the one in which Frank Raymond, one of the strikers, was the defendant. This case was ignored at the cost of the prosecutor, Morgan Sweeney.

There were a number of other strike cases of a minor nature reported. Where the bill was ignored the costs were placed on the prosecutor. The jury acquitted John Meehan, the Priceburg man charged with the murder of Frank Skacrylas, who, it will be remembered was shot while perched in a tree at midnight, supposedly stealing chickens,

Meehan's story was to the effect that he and his boarding boss were aroused by a commotion among the chickens, and seizing a shot gun he went out and fired aimlessly in the air to scare off the intruders. The charge brought Skacrylas tumbling from the tree dead. Meehan avows that he did not notice that the gun was pointed at the tree and further that he did not know there was anybody in the tree. The true bills returned follow ting the contract to the Lackawanna JONAS LONG'S SONS. Valley company. Mr. Walsh and other citizens proceeded to secure an injunction to restrain the councils, alleging the award to be illegul because it went to the highest bidder, and, further, because it was made by resolution in-stead of ordinance. I, H, Burns and H. C. Butler appeared for the plaintiffs. The city was represented by City Solicitor R. D. Stuart. The case of S. B. Robinson and othrs against John M. Kemmerer and

William Creighton was continued until next term on account of the illness of Mr. Robinson. This is a suit growing out of the reorganization of the Scranton Lace Manufacturing company. The plaintiffs are suing to recover the value of stock of which it is alleged they were illegally deprived.

For Frightening a Child.

Suit for $10,000 damages was instituted yesterday by Peter G. Walsh for himself and minor child against he Jersey Central Railroad company. Last summer, the company was doing some excavating in the vicinity of Walsh's home at the westerly end of Linden street bridge. One of the blasts sent a large rock flying through the air and against the door of the Walsh residence. Mr. Walsh's 11-yearold daughter, who was just inside the door, was frightened into hysterics and according to her physicians is likely to be grievously affected in her nervous system for the rest of her life. Hon, M. F. Sando and O'Brien & Martin are attorneys for the plaintiff.

Decisions by Judge Kelly.

Four opinions were handed down yesterday by Judge John P. Kelly. In the case of Norman Leach against Silas Hartley a new trial was awarded. The rule to open judgment was dis-charged in two cases in which R. C. Wills is plaintiff and Stephen Flanaghan, defendant. The rule for a new trial was discharged in the case of Mary Henry igainst Annna E. Zurflieh, administratrix of the estate of John Shaffer, deeased.

CASES HEARD YESTERDAY.

The grand jury yesterday passed on the cases in which John Argentis and in the penitentiary. Wladyslav Konstansynouricz are accused of murder.

Argentis is alleged to be one of the two Italians who made an attempt to entrance to the home of Anna Huleatt, on Providence road, late at night. She refused to admit them, whereupon they grew insulting. Harry Frederick, who was in the house, came to the woman's assistance, armed with beer bottle. When the two men attempted to force their way in, Fred-crick threw the bottle at them, striking one of them in the head. At this, one of the two fired three shots from a revolver. Two of them took effect in Frederick's body, causing death, a few days later. About a week after the shooting, there was a hearing in Magistrate Fidler's office, in a case in which all the parties were Italians. There was a large crowd in attendance, and the police thought it possible the slayer of Frederick might be among them. Miss Huleatt was brought quietly to the office to see if she could identify him. She immediately picked out Argentis, who was the defendant in the case, as the one who did the shooting. His companion is still at large.

Konstansynowicz is charged with the killing of George Bernetski, at Providence, last July. He got into a fight with him and threw him from a porch. breaking his neck. He has not been captured, but the police expect to locate

The Scranton-Finn libel case was also heard yesterday.

In Equity Court.

In equity court, yesterday, Judge Kelly heard the case of J. B. Walsh and others against the city of Carndale, in which the contract for lighting the city is at issue. The city, recently, advertised for hids for furnishing electric light. The Lackawanna Valley Electric Light company bid $74 a year for each light, on a one-year contract, and $70 a light per year, on a three years' contract. The Carbondale Gas company bid $67 a year per light on a five-year contract and $65 on a ten-year contract. The councils passed a resolution let-
