ROMMELMEYER, TAPPAN AND EVANS NOMINATED AMONG THE DEMOCRATS.

The Choice for Mayor, Treasurer and Controller at the Republican Primaries on Saturday, the Most Interesting and Stirring in the History of the Town—The Normal Republican Vote Polled—Copeland, Evans and Lewis Nominated for School Directors—The Story of the Day.

The most interesting and stirring primaries ever conducted in Carbondale took place on Saturday evening when the Republican caucus for the first time in a municipal election under the Crawford county system and disposed of the nominations for the three most important offices in the city government as follows:

Mayor—Frank S. Rommelmeyer. Treasurer—Melvin H. Tappan. Controller—George W. Evans. The offices that held second place in interest were those of school director for the three year term and the one year term for the upper district. The successful nominees for the three year term was Wallace Copeland, who received three times as many votes as his opponent, Frank J. Love.

OBITUARY.

MRS. BRIDGET GALLAGHER, widow of the late John Gallagher, died Saturday evening at her home, on Woodlawn avenue. She had been ailing for some time, her ailment being characteristic of one of her advanced years.

MRS. WILLIAM WARREN, a former resident of Scranton and well known in Carbondale, died at her home in Durgen on Saturday. The deceased was an aunt of Mrs. Albert R. Jones, of this city, and used to visit her.

The funeral will take place this morning. There will be services at the residence in Durgen, commencing at 8:30 this morning. The deceased will be taken to Carbondale on the train reaching this city at 10:50, and will then be conveyed to Clifford for burial.

The following have been nominated by the Fell Republicans and will be the ticket at the February election: Town assessors—Philander Horn, John Bossick.

School directors—Peter Currow, John Keller. Poor director—John D. Thomas. Constable—Thomas Corby. Auditor—Homer Wilcox. Town clerk—Harry Currow.

At the Hospital. Thomas Collins, of Scott street, a conductor on the Ontario and Western railroad, was admitted to Emergency hospital on Saturday. It is believed he is developing typhoid fever. Yesterday there was noticeable improvement in his condition.

George Brovinsky, of Forest city, is at the hospital, suffering from a painfully bruised hand.

Sang a Solo. Joseph Battle, of this city, who is residing in Schenectady, N. Y., sang an "Ave Maria" with splendid effect during the offertory of the late mass in St. Rose church yesterday. Mr. Battle's robust tenor voice showed a remarkable development in strength and sweetness.

"A Sunday in Paris." Rev. Luther Waring, of Scranton, will deliver the second of his series of addresses before the young people of the Berean Baptist church tonight. His subject will be "A Sunday in Paris." The talk will be free. The public is cordially invited.

At St. Rose Church. At the late mass in St. Rose church yesterday a forceful sermon was delivered by Rev. M. J. O'Rourke, of this city, pastor of the Catholic church at Athens.

WEEK'S AMUSEMENTS.

The Columbia Fair to Open in Burke's Hall Tonight—Perry O'Dell & Dee's Repertoire Company at the Grand—The Lecture Courses.

This will be an important week in a social way. There will be numerous amusements to appeal to the young people and the older folks of the town, while two intellectual feasts in the way of lectures are likewise to be provided. The fair of the Columbia Home company, a week of repertoire at the Grand and a recital by Rev. E. A. Boyle and a lecture by Rev. Dr. William H. Kirby, of Washington, D. C., are embraced in the programme that spreads itself over the whole week.

The Columbia Fair. The enterprise of the Columbia Home company, the annual fair for which there has been so much planning, will make its bid tonight for the public's patronage for the week.

The fair will open in Burke's hall at 8 o'clock. There will be no opening parade, as is customary with these company fairs in this city. The features of amusement and pleasure will be awaiting the patrons so soon as the doors open and the throng enters the hall, which has been transformed by Decorator Fuhrman, of Scranton, whose artistic ideas are well expressed in the big picture of color in which the hall interior is set. There will be an entertaining programme of musical numbers, and at the conclusion the Mozart orchestra will play the latest dance music for the young people who are devotees of terpsichorean. The Mitchell and the Cottage companies, besides the Columbias, will be in uniform at the fair.

Repertoire Company at Grand. The Perry O'Dell & Dee company of comedians will open an engagement of five nights and two matinees at the Grand this evening. The opening bill will be "In Peril," which is said to be a strong drama, the kind that is strongest in favor with those whose preferences lean to comedies of repertoire. The company comes well recommended, and provides also a number of good specialties between acts.

"The Secret Despatch." On Wednesday night, at the Grand, the company in repertoire will give way to David Higgins' play, "The Secret Despatch." This piece was at the Academy of Music in Scranton the last three days of last week and gave probably the best satisfaction of any play at that house this season. Van Kenzie, who was seen here last season in the leading role of David Higgins' "Money Ridge," is the leading man in "The Secret Despatch." This announcement will be received with decided satisfaction, as Mr. Kenzie's acting was probably the best that was enjoyed by Carbondalians during last year. The price of seats for this performance will be 25 cents for all reserved seats. The gallery seats will be 25 cents.

Rev. E. A. Boyle's Recital. The people's lecture course, under the auspices of the Berean Baptist church trustees, will be opened on Friday night by Rev. E. A. Boyle, who will give a miscellaneous recital. This includes selections of every description, from comic to tragedy, readings from Shakespeare and "Ben Hur" are features of the programme. Mr. Boyle has studied with three of the largest schools in America, and is a graduate of the King's School of Oratory, of Pittsburgh, Pa. He is an ecumenist of rare training and ability.

There will be no admission, but a silver offering, whatever one feels disposed to offer, will be accepted.

The Labor Question. Rev. Dr. William J. Kirby, professor of sociology in the Catholic university at Washington, D. C., will be the next speaker in the lecture course of the Knights of Columbus.

His engagement will be Friday evening, in St. Rose hall. Dr. Kirby will discuss "The Public and the Lecture Course," a subject that is pertinent and which he is well qualified to treat.

Woodmen's Officers. The following officers of Crystal camp, Woodmen of the World, were installed at the meeting on Friday evening:

Past commander, W. B. Chase; council commander, A. L. Gurney; lieutenant advisor, A. E. Nichol; banker, W. E. Whitlock; clerk, C. P. Whitecock; escort, George Beattie; watchman, A. A. Ramsay; sentry, Andrew Patten; camp physician, Dr. Mark L. Bailey; managers, Clayton Curtis, two years; M. C. Rierdon, one year.

It was also decided to change the place of meeting from the Green building to the J. E. Watt building on the corner of Main street and Salem avenue.

District Deputy A. L. Gurney presided. A smoker followed the exercises.

Meeting Tonight. Common council. Olive Leaf Lodge, I. O. O. F. Federal Union, No. 7204. Patriotic Order Sons of America. Carbondale council Knights of Columbus.

Jordan Improving. The condition of Martin Jordan, who was shot by Patrick McNulty a few weeks ago, is slightly improved. He is not out of danger, however.

THE PASSING THROG. Miss Katie Gilligan is spending a few days in Archbold.

Miss Loretta Coleman, of Vine street, is home after a visit in Scranton.

Miss Maude Drennan, of Belmont street, spent Saturday in Scranton.

Peter A. Coleman, of Scranton, spent yesterday at his home on the West Side.

Michael Neary, traveling salesman for Joseph Hannigan, of Buffalo, spent Sunday in Carbondale.

Peter A. Coleman, of Scranton, spent Saturday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. P. H. Gillean, on River street.

Mrs. William Piley and daughter, Ligoria, of Scranton, were the guests yesterday of Miss Minnie Bowen, of Terrace street.

PECKVILLE. Israel Ferris, aged 31 years, died at his home on South Main street yesterday morning. Deceased had been ill for several weeks, having contracted a severe cold. He was one of Peckville's oldest residents, and was highly respected by the entire community. He was a member of Hiram lodge, Free and Accepted Masons, of Providence. Deceased is survived by a widow and two daughters, namely, Mrs. Martha

SICK AND AILING WOMEN

Should Write to Mrs. Pinkham, Lynn, Mass., for Advice—It is Absolutely Free and Has Restored Thousands of Women to Health.

All Letters Are Sacredly Confidential and No Names Are Published Without Special Permission of the Writer—All Letters Are Received, Opened and Answered by Women Only—During the Last 20 Years Mrs. Pinkham Has Gained a Greater Knowledge Regarding Female Ills Than Any Other Person, and is Consequently Better Qualified to Advise and Guide Sick Women.

LYDIA E. PINKHAM, Discoverer of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Mrs. Pinkham's Standing Invitation.

In addressing Mrs. Pinkham you are confiding your private ills to a woman—a woman whose experience in treating woman's diseases is greater than that of any living physician—male or female.

You can talk freely to a woman when it is revolting to relate your private troubles to a man—besides a man does not understand—simply because he is a man.

Many women suffer in silence and drift along from bad to worse, knowing full well that they ought to have immediate assistance, but a natural modesty impels them to shrink from exposing themselves to the questions and probably examinations of even their family physician. It is unnecessary. Without money or price you can consult a woman whose knowledge from actual experience is greater than any local physician. The following invitation is freely offered; accept it in the same spirit.

Women suffering from any form of female weakness are invited to promptly communicate with Mrs. Pinkham at Lynn, Mass. All letters are received, opened, read and answered by women only. A woman can freely talk of her private illness to a woman; thus has been established the eternal confidence between Mrs. Pinkham and the women of America which has never been broken. Out of the vast volume of experience which she has to draw from, it is more than possible that she has gained the very knowledge that will help your case. She asks nothing in return except your good-will, and her advice has relieved thousands. Surely any woman, rich or poor, is very foolish if she does not take advantage of this generous offer.

LYDIA E. PINKHAM'S VEGETABLE COMPOUND.

Has restored more women to health than any other medicine the druggists have ever sold—It outsells all other medicines for female ills two to one—Therefore it must be unequalled. Accept no substitute.

Four Letters Showing the Result of Mrs. Pinkham's Advice.—Thousands More of the Same Kind Are on File in Her Office at Lynn, Mass.

"DEAR MRS. PINKHAM:—I have been for some years a great sufferer and thought I would write and explain my case to you as you had helped so many others. Menstruation is irregular and very painful. I have suffered with painful periods for ten years but the pains grow worse as I grow older.

"I suffer most with my back, lower part of abdomen and left side. I have been flowing all the month and a part of August, not constantly, but will stop for two or three days and then begin again.

"The doctor says I have misplacement of the womb. I have bearing-down pains when passing urine, and my abdomen is very badly swollen and sore. Please advise me at your earliest convenience."—Mrs. A. V. SCOTT, 21 Page St., Kingston, Pa. (Sept. 30, 1900.)

"DEAR MRS. PINKHAM:—When I wrote to you asking advice no one could describe my suffering. The doctors said I could not be relieved unless I had an operation performed, but thanks to you and your medicine I got along without having the dreaded operation. I have taken ten bottles of your medicine and am once more well and happy. Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound is a fine medicine and a God-send to suffering women. I trust my letter may be the means of bringing many of my suffering sisters to accept your kind aid."—Mrs. A. V. SCOTT, 21 Page St., Kingston, Pa. (Jan. 30, 1901.)

"DEAR MRS. PINKHAM:—Some time ago I wrote you that my regular physician had made an examination and told me I was afflicted with a tumor in my womb. I had headache, lumbago, bearing-down pains, and very profuse menstruation. My limbs would ache so I could not sleep, and I was very weak and nervous. I was blunted from my head to my feet. After receiving your letter I took Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and Blood Purifier, and followed all the rest of your advice as near as I could, and the tumor was expelled in pieces, and I regained my natural size. I continued taking your Vegetable Compound for a while longer and felt like a new woman. I cannot thank you enough for your kind advice, and what your medicine did for me. It certainly saved my life."—Mrs. PERLEY S. WILHE, Vershire, Vt.

"DEAR MRS. PINKHAM:—One year ago I read a letter in a paper telling how much good one woman had derived from Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. I had been sick all winter and was nearly discouraged, as the medicine the doctor gave me did me no good. I had kidney complaint, leucorrhoea, itching, bearing-down feeling, and painful menstruation. I wrote to you describing my trouble and soon received an answer telling me what to do. I followed your instructions, and have taken nine bottles of Vegetable Compound, and used one package of Sassailla Wash, and one box of Liver Pills. I am well now, do not have those sick spells at the monthly period, but can work all day, and that I never could do until I began taking the Compound. I cannot praise the Compound too highly. I do hope every suffering woman will learn of your remedies and be cured, as I have been. I wish all success to the Compound; it has done wonders for me and I am so thankful."—Mrs. GENIE KELLOGG, Berlin Heights, Ohio.

less prevented her hearing the whistle. Mrs. Pierce was 55 years of age and a daughter of the late James Mitchell, of Meredith. She was the widow of James Pierce, and for a long time had resided in Davenport, where she was much esteemed. She is survived by a sister, two brothers, a step-son and step-daughters.

Alumps is quite prevalent among the youngsters in town.

Mrs. Lydia Styles, of Carbondale, is visiting her daughter, Mrs. Hayden Samson.

The Liver Is Seldom Healthy While Coffee is the daily drink. DOCTORS RECOMMEND POSTUM.

German, of Peckville, and Mrs. Belle Snyder, who resides near Priceburg. The funeral will take place at 2:30 o'clock Tuesday afternoon at the Peckville Baptist church. Interment in Prospect cemetery.

Mr. and Mrs. G. M. Pierce are at Meredith, N. Y., where they attended the funeral of the former's step-mother, Mrs. Jane Pierce, which was held Friday. We slip the following from the Oneonta Herald, giving the account of Mrs. Pierce's untimely death:

to ascend. Mrs. Pierce remained on the track and was waiting to be carried to her friends, when train E, which was behind time, came up, and despite the efforts of the engineer, who saw her danger and had sounded the whistle and applied the brakes, the engine struck her with great force, throwing her against the timbers supporting the embankment. Death was instantaneous, her spine for some inches being crushed. An east-bound freight train was passing on the other track at the time and its noise doubt-
