DISCUSSED BY LEADING MEN

SUBJECT OF MUNICIPAL OWNERSHIP DEBATED.

Regular Meeting of the Economic League Deals with a Question Especially Interesting to Scrantonians at This Time—Attorneys S. B. Price and Walter Liddell Hill Lead Discussion—Bishop Hoban, Rev. Dr. Israel, Prof. Joslin and Chairman Dimmick Participate.

"Municipal Ownership of Public Utilities" was discussed last night at the regular meeting of the Economic League, held at the board of trade rooms, 200 North Second street, and attended by a large number of leading citizens.

Mr. Price discussed the subject from both sides as a student rather than a debater. He, however, indicated that he was not an unqualified believer in the efficacy of municipal ownership. Every power delegated to a government by a people, be that government national, state or municipal, Mr. Price went on to say, is the deprivation of that people of just that much of its rights which it has not reserved.

NECESSITY ARISES. Necessity sometimes does demand, Mr. Price admitted, that the control of public utilities should be taken from private parties, and given to a monopoly in order to grow rationally.
