

NORTHEASTERN PENNSYLVANIA

MONTRÖSE.

Special to the Scranton Tribune.
Montröse, Jan. 20.—On Saturday afternoon all business activity in Montröse stood still, and the people of the town turned out en masse to do silent homage to the memory of their departed fellow townsman, the Hon. W. H. Jessup.

As the hour for the afternoon train from Scranton to arrive drew near, a large assemblage of citizens at the Lackawanna and Montröse railroad station. Men, women and children turned out to pay their last respects to the distinguished dead.

There were large and representative delegations of the Susquehanna county Bar association, headed by President Judge Daniel W. Searle; Four Brothers Post, No. 453, G. A. R., in charge of Colonel W. H. Dennis and Rough and Ready Fire company, No. 1 (of which Judge Jessup had been a member for more than half a century).

The choir sang softly, "Asleep in Jesus," and, following an opportunity for those who wished to view the remains, the service at the church closed.

The burial was in the family plot in the Montröse cemetery, where a brief funeral service was conducted by Rev. Dr. Benton.

C. C. Knoll has purchased and moved into the old Nichols' homestead on Bank street.

Alvin Fish, of Stevensville, was the guest of friends in this place over Sunday.

Republican caucuses for the nomination of borough and ward officers will be held tomorrow evening.

Dr. E. R. Gardner and two nieces are ill with diphtheria and the Gardner residence has been quarantined by the board of health.

Mrs. H. B. Dennis, of Lestershire, is visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. T. D. Payne, at their home on Park street.

ble, Samuel Jenkins, councilman, Spencer D. Reed; judge of election, Martin Schlatter; inspector of election, Stephen Robertson. Second ward.—Constable, R. M. Platt; councilman, W. Dean Sampson; judge of election, H. E. Kitchin; inspector of election, Fred Herman.

Mrs. Polk Aldredge, of Springville, is visiting her daughter, Mrs. Solon K. Layman, on Putnam street.

Miss Inez Lelpham, of Duryea, who has been visiting Mrs. Stephen Robertson, on Second street, returned home on Monday.

The Misses Seigfrieds, of Russell Hill, were calling on friends in town on Monday.

FOREST CITY.
Special to the Scranton Tribune.
Forest City, Jan. 20.—The subscription dance given by a coterie of young men in the opera house Friday evening was in some respects the most pretentious affair of the kind ever attempted in Forest City.

The annual banquet and ball of the L. C. B. A. in the opera house Wednesday is now the main topic in a social way. The decorations in the opera house will be left up for this affair.

It now appears probable that the early spring will see the Erie station at this place removed and a new and more convenient structure erected.

Mrs. H. B. Dennis, of Lestershire, is visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. T. D. Payne, at their home on Park street.

HONESDALE.
Special to the Scranton Tribune.
Honesdale, Jan. 20.—When Rev. and Mrs. C. E. Percy returned from prayer meeting on Friday evening, they found that about twenty of their immediate neighbors had taken possession of their home.

Mrs. George P. Ross and her Sunday school class of young ladies will conduct a rummage sale on Thursday, Friday and Saturday of this week, in the Bauman store room, on lower Front street. Donations will be appreciated.
