A VERY SORRY SPECTACLE

TEN-YEAR-OLD BOY WAS IN-TOXICATED.

John Martin, of Tenth Street, Picked Up at 11.30 O'Clock Last Night on West Lackawanna Avenue in a Helpless Condition - Special Revival Services in the Churches. Janitor Davis Injured-P. O. S. of A. Install Officers-Events of This Evening-Notes and Personals.

A boy, not over 10 years of age, who gave his name as John Martin and residence on Tenth street, was picked up at 11.30 o'clock last night opposite the Central Railroad of New Jersey passenger station in an intoxicated condition. He could neither talk intelligently or walk without staggering and falling, Shortly after 11 o'clock the lad entered one of the hotels in that vicinfty, and the bartender sent him out. A w minutes later he was found in a stupor in a nearby doorway.

He was picked up and taken to his home. An effort was made by them to ascertain where the boy obtained drink, but the victim was too intoxicated to

Number of Boys Arrested, Charged with Selling Sleds-Peter Hughes Injured in the Mines.

Fred Rorick, Michael Handley, Leo Ryan, James Gallagher and James Burke were arrested yesterday on charges preferred by Mathias Stipp, and James Tigue, Michael Hayes, Charles Reilly, Edward Lewis and Walter Ryan were also arrested on information sworn to by Colonel Osthaus, for stealing sleds and larceny committed at various times during the

It appears that for some time past, sleds owned by residents of Sanderson Hill, including Messrs. Stipp, Osthaus, Archbald, Scranton, Boles and Allen have mysteriously disappeared, and It was believed that a gang of young Herers were engaged in stealing articles and disposing of them to others. On this presumption, search warrants were issued and eleven sleds in all were traced to the boys' homes or were found in the possession of those who had purchased them. The entire gang were rounded up by Constable Woelkers and at a hearing before Alderman Lentes last evening pleaded guilty. Messrs Osthaus and Stipp were present at the hearing, as were the parents of the boys, and after the evidence was all in, it was agreed to drop the matter, on condition that the sleds were returned and all costs paid today. On this arrangement, the young pilferers were allowed to go, after listening to a severe lecture by the alderman, who informed them that if any other case was ever brought against them, they would get the full extent of the law.

Assault and Battery Charged. Gyula Csarni, a laborer, was arested yesterday by Max Firestein, on charge of assault and battery, preerred by M. L. Bennovits, of South
