COUNCIL REFUSES TO RAISE MAYOR'S SALARY

Ordinance Introduced at Last Night's Meeting of Lower Branch Hardly Saw the Light of Day-Only Two Votes in Its Favor, Kennedy, the Father of the Measure, and Loftus. Talk About Exonerations - Other

An effort was made in common council last night to add to the office of mayor something that it has lacked for years, namely, remuneration in keeping John Harvey, D. W. Humphrey, J. H. with the dignity and honor; but the Bagley, P. J. Foster, J. M. Stevens. effort failed. There was an ordinance introduced raising the salary of mayor from $300 to $700 per annum, but in the language of "Chuck" Connors, it was His Fest Were Badly Frozen Ten "properly trimmed." The councilmen would hear nothing of such a move at this time, and the ordinance was hastily rejected. The rejection was quite unceremonious, only two votes being re-corded in its favor, that of Mr. Kenthat of Mr. Loftus.

The ordinance was dealt such a fell blow, not because it was considered without merit, but because it was considered inopportune. In other words, it was believed to be bad judgment, or rather not good policy, to make any change in the salary after the nomination of officers and when there was an election pending for this office. The time for such a change, a desirable and proper change, the majority of council was of the opinion was some time beto take effect after the next election of

The ordinance, which was introduced by Mr. Kennedy, was as follows: An ordinance fixing the salary of the mayor of the city of Carbondale. Section 1-Be it ordained by the select and common councils of the city of Carbondale, and it is hereby ordained by the authority of the same, that the salary of the mayor of the said city shall hereafter be seven hundred dolhars ner annum

Section 2-All ordinances or parts of hereof are hereby repealed. On motion of Mr. Loftus, it was given to the judiciary and legislation committee with instructions to report forthwith. Mr. Evans and W. H. Masers were the members of the committee present. It took them only a minute to formulate a report, which was unfavorable. When the report was presented, Mr. Kennedy prose and made an earnest talk in support of the mean He said that perhaps the menibers of the committee had good reasons for reporting unfavorably, but in his judgment the salary of the mayor of Carbondale should reach the same level of the office. At present this was no true. Twenty-five dollars per month was a poor inducement to a good man to accept such an office. In justice to himself he could not go into the office and discharge its duties in the manner called for. By so doing it would be disadvantage to his other interests and a loss to him. It was a sort of a joke among the citizens of other towns, the valary that the mayor of Carbondale to go home. ecceived. The salary of other mayors m towns smaller than Carbondale was arger, notably Pittston, where the shief executive was paid one thousand

Sollars per annum, Mr. Stone could not concur in Mr. Kennedy's judgment that the mayor's salary was inadequate. Good councilmen were paramount in the life of city, but they, the law-makers, received no salary. W. H. Masters, one of the committee reporting the ordinance adversely, conceded that the salary of the mayor was too low, but he questioned the policy of making the change to raising it at this time. Though no other members ex- of the residence. As she was 84 years pressed themselves, it can be said that this belief was shared by them. When the question was put there was chorus of ayes to adopt the report to give the ordinance its finish, while only the voice of Mr. Kennedy and of Mr. Loftus was heard among the nays.

Mr. Masters called attention to the complaints of citizens against the fast

Scranton Railway Company Makes Some Promises.

The Tribune has been assured that there will be no more fast running of trolley ears through the streets of

This assurance comes from officials of the Scranton Railway company, who are vested with such authority that weight can be attached to this assertion. It was claimed by these same officials that the cars had been running at no higher rate of speed than before the strike, but this, however, is a matter of argument in which the rallway people are in a minority. How-ever, it is hoped that the discussion or ventilating that this question has been given will result in the, exercise of greater judgment and care on the part of the motormen who have shown a disposition to put on extra speed and shoot through the streets. Eight miles an hour is the speed limit fixed by orlinance of councils and this should be observed, the wishes or whims of the motormen to the contrary, notwith-

At the closing session of the Episcopal archdencoury, held at Wilkes-Barre last week, Hev. C. E. Fessenden, rector of St. James church of this borough. preached the sermon. The following clipping is taken from the Wilkes-Earre Record:

'At the communion service the sermon was by Rev. Charles E. Fessenden, of Jermyn, an address appropriate to the epiphany season. He unfold-Christ to the Gentiles in a most interesting manner. He told about the coming of the wise men from the east and the various traditions that cluster around the event, together with the speculations of philosophers as to hether the star of Bethlehem was a natural phenomenon or a miraculous luminary created for the event. As the preacher proceeded, he elaborated the idea that religion and science are not at variance and that some of the greatest minds have accepted the miraculous birth of Christ as a fact. The ser mon was a splendid defence of the Christian faith against the modern tendency to pick the Bible to pieces and to subject it to the destructive process of higher criticism. Mr. Fessenden's effort was highly complimented."
