LOUIS DAVIS AND MISS MAY SAMUELS UNITED.

Ceremony Was Performed by Rev. William Davis of the Bellevue Welsh C. M. Church-A Large Number of Accidents of More or Less Severity-Special Services in the Churches-Coroner's Inquest Postponed-Coming Entertainment-Items of Interest.

A very pretty home wedding occurred last evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. James Samuels, 61 Archbald street, when their daughter, Miss May, was united in marriage to Louis Davis, of Twelfth street.

The bridal party entered the parlor to the sweet strains of the wedding march from Lohengrin, and were met under a canopy of cut flowers by Rev. William Davis, pastor of the Bellevuc Welsh Calvinistic Methodist church, who pronounced the words that made the happy couple one.

After the ceremony a bountiful wedthem a surprise party at their home Tuesday evening. ding supper was served. Mr. and Mrs. Davis were the recipients of many beautiful and useful presents. Margaret Horan, Nellie Horan, Kutis

Republicans Nominate a Borough Ticket in an Harmonious and Enthusiastic Convention.

The Republicans of the borough met in convention last night and nominated ticket to go before the people at the spring election.

The enthusiasm and good will of those in attendance was in marked contrast to the turbulent scenes enacted at the Democratic convention held Tuesday night. A large assemblage of representative Republicans were in attendance, and the sentiment of those present was that a first-class ticket had been named. The following were nominated: Treasurer, Charles P. Sayage; street commissioner, Adam Robinson: council, John Devercaux, Samuel Haddon; school directors, Gustav Hemple, Charles H. Blocs; auditor, Charles Oliver; poor director, Thomas Henwood.

A Good Exhibition.

A fast and interesting game of basket ball was played at St. John's hall on Stone avenue, last night between the local Defenders' team and the Allentown champions. The visitors played with a vim from start to finish, but they were clearly out-classed as the score at the close of the game shows, Defenders, 29; Allentown, 1.

The game, however, was not so near ly one-sided as the score shows and the players from down the valley did not let up until the whistle blew all over.
