

DIAMOND WAS NOT THE SAME

WAKEMAN SAYS THERE WAS A SUBSTITUTION.

Larceny by Bailee Case Before Judge Edwards, in Which Well-Known Scrantonians Figure—Mrs. Thomas Adjudged Not Guilty of Selling Liquor Illegally—Acquitted of Arson, on the Ground of Insanity. Raft of Divorce Cases Heard by Judge Kelly.

In Judge Edwards' court yesterday, John Ward, a well-known young Scrantonian, was defendant to a charge of larceny by bailee, preferred by B. S. Wakeman.

In October, 1900, Wakeman borrowed $100 from Ward, for six months, giving as security a diamond stud, which he claimed was worth $200. Ward left the stud in the care of a jeweler, and at the end of the six months took it out and returned it to Wakeman, who was ready to pay back the loan. When Ward handed back the stud, Wakeman looked at it critically, and then declared the stone had been substituted by a smaller and cheaper one. Ward denied having done any substitution and insisted further that no one else had. The stone was, he averred, the identical one that was in the stud when he received it. Wakeman refused to take the stud, and had Ward arrested.

For the defense, a number of witnesses testified to having examined the stud about the time it came into Ward's possession and that the stone it then contained is the same it now contains. Two jewelers also testified that the setting could not hold a three-karat diamond, such as Wakeman and his witnesses claimed was in it when it was in Wakeman's possession.

Joseph O'Brien, attorney for the defense, was satisfied that no comments on the evidence were needed from him to acquit his client and submitted the case without argument. John J. Murphy, private counsel for the prosecution, made a brief argument, in which he tried to make the jury see that while Mr. Ward possibly did not make a substitution, as alleged, a substitution, nevertheless, was made, and as it was made while the diamond was in Ward's care, Ward was responsible for it.

A jury in Judge Edwards' court acquitted Mrs. Mary Thomas, of Gannon's hill, West Scranton, of the charge of selling liquor without a license, preferred by Robert Wilson, agent of the Municipal league. Two of the league detectives, who had bought liquor at her place, July 6, 1900, she denied it. Her counsel, Joseph O'Brien, as a further defense, showed that the defendant's husband, Thomas Thomas, was convicted of this same offense and fined by the mayor in the early part of 1900 and argued that even if the jury believed she was selling after that date, she should be acquitted, as she was selling under conviction from her husband. The jury, it is said, acquitted her on the latter ground.

VERDICT NOT GUILTY. In the case in which Thomas Coleman, of South Scranton, was charged by his brother James, with aggravated assault and battery, the jury returned a verdict of not guilty, and divided the costs.

A plea of guilty was entered by W. W. Abbott to the charge of embezzling $150 from the Painters, Paper Hangers and Decorators union, of which he was treasurer. P. M. Stoff, secretary of the union, who appeared as prosecutor, spoke a kind word to the court concerning Abbott, saying he had had a lot of sickness in his family and probably used the money for medicines and doctors. Judge Edwards let him off with three months in the county jail. James Finnegan, bartender at Gorman's hotel, in Carbondale, pled guilty of aggravated assault and battery on Patrick S. Mannon. The latter became outrageous in the barroom and in ejecting him, the bartender gave him a shove, which caused him to fall and break his arm. Sentence was deferred until a week from Saturday.

Louisa Weaver, the Green Ridge woman, accused of setting fire to the house of which she was a tenant to secure $500 insurance, which she had on her furniture, was acquitted, before Judge Newcomb, on the ground of insanity. Jail Physician Longstreet and other jail attendants supplied the evidence of her defective mentality. Judge Newcomb ordered her sent to the Hillside Home.

CALLAHAN ACQUITTED. James Callahan was acquitted of the charge of malicious mischief, preferred by Liverman H. M. Snyder, of Carbondale, but the jury deemed him responsible for the breaking of the carriage and directed him to pay the costs.

A plea of guilty was entered by Telesamo Martino, of Old Forge, charged by his mother-in-law with wife-beating.

John O'Brien and John Baskerville, two Providence youths, were acquitted of the charge of aggravated assault and battery, preferred by John Moran. Their defense was mistaken identity. Ralph L. Levy defended them.

Morris L. Benewitz, of South Washington avenue, charged with obtaining from the Central Pennsylvania Brewing company $400 worth of beer on credit by falsely representing his assets, is on trial before Judge Newcomb.

Felix Gursky, Bernice Lamchewak, Joseph Sibina and John Sibina, four small boys, charged with stealing copper wire from the Scranton Railway company, offered to plead guilty, yesterday, but Judge Edwards refused to accept the plea, on the ground that they were too young to plead guilty. They were released, with instructions to be present next Thursday to appear against B. Graunfne, a junk dealer, who is indicted for receiving the goods the boys stole.

A capias was issued for John Dunleavy, charged with assault and battery on Thomas G. Francis.

At the last term of court, Frank Pendergast was arrested and charged with robbing the prosecutor, Constable McGovern, of Troop, Borough Solicitor F. E. Heers went before Judge Edwards yesterday and had the capias placed on the capy.

Judge Halsey, of Luzerne, who is presiding in No. 3, this week, was not present yesterday, on account of illness.

School District Sued. Willard, Warren & Knapp, representing P. F. & M. T. Howley, brought suit in trespass yesterday against the school district of Lackawanna township, to recover damages in the sum of $3,900.

The plaintiffs, in competition, secured a contract from the school district for the plumbing, heating and tinning of the township's new school building. After the contract was purchased, the school board rescinded the contract and awarded the job at a higher figure to another firm. The plaintiffs allege that there was no reason, just or otherwise, for taking the contract from them, and that the action of the board caused them a loss to the extent of the sum claimed.

Eight Divorce Hearings. Judge Kelly yesterday heard testimony in eight divorces, and put over the hearings in half as many more, because of his being called to pass upon the Old Forge caucus contest, on which the printing of the ballots waits.

The stories of the libellants did not vary much from the usual run of libellants' stories, and as usual, in none of the cases did the respondent appear.

M. Agatha Fitch, of Clark's Green, charged desertion against T. B. Fitch, who, she alleges, is now living in Elmira with another woman. They were married May 16, 1889, in East Lemon, and lived together in Elmira five years. C. S. Woodruff represented the libellant.

Lillian Whitbeck, of Scranton, whose husband, W. G. Whitbeck, was formerly a piano salesman for E. C. Hicken, sought divorce on the ground that her husband was grievously afflicted physically. She married him May 29, 1900, in this city, and left him a year later. J. E. Watkins is her attorney.

Emma A. Terwilliger, of Clark's Summit, complained that her husband, Warren S. Terwilliger, a painter and paperhanger, who is now supposed to be in Connecticut, deserted her two years ago, when they were living on Seventh street, after they had lived together four years. John P. Scraggs appeared for the libellant.

Harris Seibert, of Scranton, asked for a divorce from Myrtle Adel Seibert, on the ground that she had admitted to him a pre-nuptial occurrence which made her impossible to him as a wife. They were married Sept. 4, 1884. J. J. O'Malley represented the libellant.

Frederick Webb complained that Isabella Webb whom he married in Manchester, Eng., in 1881, deserted him in Peckville, five years ago. George M. O'Brien is his attorney.

Lena Patrick charged cruel treatment against William Patrick, whose fourth wife she became March 21, 1901. Catherine Beck alleged non-support against William Beck, now in jail for theft. They were married twelve years ago. Frank E. Boyle represented these two libellants.

John Tollman alleged desertion and unfaithfulness against Jennina Tollman. They were married Aug. 5, 1891, and lived together six years. A. Mr. Shannon was named as co-respondent. Joseph Jeffries is his attorney.

A TEST EXPERIMENT

Peculiar Power Possessed by a New Medicine.

Of new discoveries there is no end, but one of the most recent, most remarkable and one which will prove invaluable to thousands of people, is a discovery which it is believed will take the place of all other remedies for the cure of those common and obstinate diseases, dyspepsia and stomach troubles. This discovery is not a loudly advertised, secret patent medicine, but is a scientific combination of wholesome, perfectly harmless vegetable elements, fruit, salts, pure pepsin and bismuth.

These remedies are combined in lozenge form, pleasant to take, and will produce the best of food qualities indefinitely, whereas all liquid medicines rapidly lose whatever good qualities they may have had as soon as uncorked and exposed to the air. This preparation is called Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets and it is claimed that one of these tablets or lozenges will digest from 200 to 3,000 times its own weight of meat, eggs and other wholesome food. And this claim has been proven by actual experiments in the following manner: A hard boiled egg cut into small pieces was placed in a bottle containing warm water heated to ninety-eight degrees (or blood heat), one of these Tablets was then placed in the bottle and the proper temperature maintained for three hours and a half, at the end of which time the egg was completely digested as it would be in a healthy stomach. This experiment was undertaken to demonstrate that what it would do in the bottle it would also do in the stomach, hence its unquestionable value in the cure of dyspepsia and weak digestion. Very few people are free from some form of indigestion, but scarcely two will have the same symptoms. Some will suffer most from distress after eating, bloating from gas in the stomach and bowels, others have head dyspepsia or heartburn, others palpitation or headaches, sleeplessness, pains in chest and under shoulder blades, extreme nervousness as in nervous dyspepsia, but they all have same cause, failure to properly digest what is eaten. The stomach must have rest and assistance, and Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets give it both, by digesting the food for it and in a short time it is restored to its normal action and vigor. At same time the Tablets are so harmless that a child can take them with benefit. This new preparation has already made many astonishing cures, as for instance, the following:

After using only one package of Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets I have received such great and unexpected benefit that I wish to express my sincere gratitude. In fact, I have been six months since I took the package and I have not had one particle of distress or difficulty since. And all this in the face of the fact that the best doctors I consulted told me my case was Chronic Dyspepsia and absolutely incurable as I had suffered twenty-five years. I distributed half a dozen packages among my friends here, who are very anxious to try this remedy.

Mrs. Sarah A. Skeels, Lynnvill, Jasper Co., Mo. Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets are sold by druggists everywhere at 50 cents for full sized packages. A little book on Stomach Diseases mailed free by addressing F. A. Stuart Co., Marshall, Mich.
