

LETTER TO MOTHERS.

By Mrs. J. H. Haskins, of Chicago, Ill., President Chicago Arcade Club.

Comforting Words to Women Regarding Childbirth.

All who are at all familiar with social life at the southside of Chicago know well the Arcade Club, and will tell you that it is one of the largest and most influential clubs in Chicago.

A capable mother must be a healthy mother. The experience of maternity should not be approached without careful physical preparation.

Thousands and thousands of women have been carried through this trying ordeal safely and comfortably by a faithful reliance upon Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

MRS. J. H. HASKINS, President Chicago Arcade Club, Chicago, Ill.

"DEAR MRS. PINKHAM:—Mothers need not dread childbearing after they know the value of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. While I loved children I dreaded the ordeal, for it left me weak and sick for months after, and at the time I thought death was a welcome relief; but before my last child was born a good neighbor advised me to try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, and I used that, together with your Pills and Sanative Wash for four months before the child's birth.

"She is a Pinkham Baby."

"DEAR MRS. PINKHAM:—I cannot thank you enough for what you have done for me. I wrote you some time ago about not being able to go my full time during pregnancy. Now, after taking the treatment you advised, we have a dear little girl baby, the joy of our home. I tell my friends she is a Pinkham baby, for had it not been for Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound we never could have had her. My health is good, thanks to your medicine." Mrs. H. H. HASKINS, 3248 Indiana Ave., Chicago, Ill.

$5000 REWARD.—We have deposited with the National City Bank of Lynn, $5000 (Five thousand dollars) for the person who can find the whereabouts of the man who is not genuine, or were published without obtaining the writer's special permission. Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co., Lynn, Mass.

"DORRIE'S" OPINION.

Mr. Burdette, of Greenfield, Tells What He Thinks of the Races—He Hopes the Columbia Boys Will Soon Have Another Fair.

"I have just returned from the races at Crystal Ball, Pa., where I saw the Buckley Burdette, the sage of Greenfield.

"There was a fine day; a little cold for comfort. I suppose before this reaches you, you will know who won the purse, and was there, but I don't know who won as I was a spectator and not one of the judges. However, there was a race, a large crowd and every one seemed to enjoy the fine refreshments that neighbor "Dug" Mulaney furnished.

"I found Tom Gray—Tom's my little dog, you know, that I got in Jersey. I found him at the races when I arrived there. He came with me as far as Dundaff, and then he took an idea in his head that he would go to Forest City. I fear his little stay in Carbondale and Pell township has taught him some bad habits. He seemed to be inclined to fight, but I think he will get enough of that kind before he leaves the city of the Forest. If he doesn't, I will send him down to Monkey Run, that is if he comes back, which I think he will.

"As it is too dark to go to church, I think I will continue writing. There were great times at Dundaff last week. It was run by a bald-headed man by the name of Baker and a sort of a colored man. He wasn't full colored, by the name of Walker. They gave a pretty good show for a ten-cent one. There was a contest for the most popular lady, and I was in hopes you would come out and help me to vote. They were giving chances on each admission ticket. You could have two chances on a bottle of liniment, or three chances on a box of corn salve. I took chances on the corn salve, for I found it a good thing to rub on my boots to limber them up a bit.

"News is scarce as drinks on election day. There ain't a thing sold. Hope there'll be another fair at the Columbus soon, as I enjoyed myself at the last. They're gentlemen, that's what they are, even if they did take my paddy No. 57, which didn't win the wheel of fortune prize.

"Tours, dry, hungry and tired, "Would-be Tax Collector."

Young Arnold's Denial.

Young Arnold's Denial. The lad whose name was mentioned in a hearing in the Alderman Delavan's office, in connection with the theft of tobacco from one of two places, denies what the other boys asserted. He and his parents claim that he had no connection with any of the thefts or the lady concerned in them. As there was some misapprehension of the report in the Tribune of the hearing at the Alderman's office, in justice to young Arnold, it should be stated that he was not present when the other lads made the accusations or admissions, and therefore made no admissions himself, as some were led to believe from reading the report of the occurrence.

Lincoln's Birthday.

A Nation's Sorrow and Its Loving Remembrance Told in Verse by Colonel John McCormack.

Appropos of Abraham Lincoln's birthday, which falls on Wednesday, Feb. 12, the Tribune prints today an appropriate poem by Colonel John McCormack, in which the tragedy that made the nation mourn is graphically told in verse and the loving remembrance of the savior of the people he loved is fittingly expressed:

LINCOLN'S BIRTHDAY, BY JOHN MCCORMACK.

Great Lincoln died a martyr, with a bullet in his side; The God he sought for Freedom's cause wiped away our damning stain;

Mighty hosts in armed rebellion had yielded on the field; After four years' valiant fighting for the King upon their shield;

The manacles of slavery were forever cast away; And four million poorer chattels were rejoicing on that day;

The cruel war was over; there was happiness and joy; When a starved child a pistol that roared through the sky;

Four hundred thousand loyal lives were sacrificed in strife; To give our starry banner a triumphant lease of life;

Our soldier boys were coming home, glad that the day was over; And long home to the victors, Spang's fragrant zephyrs bore;

When the ruler of the Nation, the grandest man of all; Was called from his high station to repose beneath a pall;

The gloom that then spread over the land caused a grief most hard to bear; And in the loss each family were conscious of his share;

His memory may crumble, as they tell us it has done; But his name is on the tongues of men who know the lane he won;

And as his virtues come to light their hearts flood the earth; To teach our youth to honor him on the day he had his birth;

So February (which will mark a date each for this year; That calendar will bear in red his name when we appear;

For the name of Lincoln calls to mind a man of noble birth; Whose name is now exalted in the highest niche on earth.

ST. PAUL'S BUILDING FUND.

Congregation Makes Acknowledgment of Thanks.

Rev. F. Ehinger, pastor of St. Paul's Lutheran church and August Gerhardt, secretary of the congregation, have been authorized to make the following statement of the building fund and to make an acknowledgment of thanks to the contributors to the fund:

Cash received on first subscription list, $1,014; good outstanding balance on same, $571; total, $1,585. Liabilities—Two installments on mortgage, with interest, $525, and a loan of $550 to Dr. A. Schaeffer, of Philadelphia, our mission superintendent, who advanced this sum so liberally, without interest, and not even asking for a note as a personal help. We are going to pay off the mortgage in full in exchange for a quit claim deed from the Baptist association, so soon as it is ready for the same.

Our credit is good, because the Carbondale citizens are so good in so generally assisting us. We will have the greatest courage in putting in circulation a second subscription list, particularly among our friends to whom the first list was not offered. As it would take too much space to publish all the names and sums of the contributors, the books are open to callers at the home of our treasurer, Wilhelm Schroeder, on Elk street.

As often as we attend church we come face to face with the noble gift of one of our noble contributors, Rev. T. P. Coffey, for we see the Saviour on the cross, which he presented to us, and we hear him exclaim, "Let brotherly love continue." Hebrews, xiii:1.

Rev. F. Ehinger, pastor.

General Gordon Coming.

The indications are that Carbondale, as expected, will rise to the occasion and give General Gordon the distinguished southerner a fitting reception when he comes to lecture at the Grand on Tuesday night.

The Grand Army men of the town are manifesting a deep interest in General Gordon's coming, and there will be numerous military receptions that evening to listen to the noted Confederate general tell of the most interesting part of the war, the closing days of the strife that tore the same peoples of a nation. General Gordon was one of the staff appointed by General Robert Lee to confer with the staff of General Grant in order to facilitate the work of the surrender of the army of the South. This is a splendid qualification for him to discuss his subject.

The Columbia Anniversary.

The Columbia Hose company, which is the oldest fire company in the city, proposes to celebrate its forty-fifth anniversary in a becoming manner soon after the Lenten season.

The committee is already discussing the possibilities of a fitting reception which it proposes to have in 1907, in observance of the golden jubilee. Already provision is being made for this remote affair, and it is expected to have at least $5,000 to expend in the most elaborate exercises ever held in Carbondale.

St. Paul's Lutheran Church.

Services Sunday: Sabbath school, 9:30 a. m.; preaching, 10:30 a. m.; regular monthly council meeting, 2:30 p. m.

No member should fail to attend. Subject of sermon, "Second Type of Christ and His True Followers," according to Ephesians, ii:21-22, "In whom all the building is framed together and groweth into a holy temple in the Lord." In whom you also are built. Come and listen.

Change of Business.

Thomas Judge, the South Main street restaurant, will abandon his business there when his license expires in April next. He proposes building a new one on Pike street, near his present home, and will erect a store and residence combined. He will occupy the store as a grocery.

"Fast Mail" Coming.

Lincoln Carter's big scenic piece, "The Fast Mail," his first great success, will be at the Grand on Friday evening, Feb. 11.

Meetings of Tonight.

Court Lily, Foresters of America, Diamond lodge, Shield of Honor, Local 1616, United Mine Workers.

Meetings of Sunday.

Pioneer Father-Munday society, St. Joseph's Catholics, Ogler Railway Conductors.

An Evening with Capable Actors.

Hockey Club Without a Job.

The members of the Swift Winds foot ball eleven organized a hockey team at the beginning of the winter season, and, with the expectation of meeting competing teams, sent a "delegation" through the Tribune to teams down the valley, particularly Scranton, and the sporting ardor of the Scrantonians must have cooled, for not a word has been heard from them. Must be frightened most to death. It is established now that there are four things that Scrantonians can't do. They can't play base ball, foot ball, hockey nor run fast horses. Carbondale, however, has knocked them out a cooled that in all of these "little matters," as "Dorrie" Burdette would put it, Scranton can do one thing; it can bowl. But wait until Carbondale gets its new bowling alley and bowls a few, and then it will be another story.

Annual Visitation.

Last night was a memorable occasion for the local Palestine congregation, the Knights Templar, it being the night on which Right Excellent Grand Commander T. F. Penman, of Scranton, made his annual installation. He was accompanied by grand officers and the division commander, R. A. Zimmerman, and a large delegation of Couer de Lion and council members. The party was met at the Seventh avenue station by a uniformed escort and taken to the local men's armory in Masonic Temple. In the hall was a great crowd and speeches by the most prominent members of the visiting party and the local men were given and after the speeches the inner man was furnished with a quantity of good things.

A Sleighride.

The Ladies Aid society, of Peckville, enjoyed a sleighride to this city yesterday afternoon and enjoyed a sumptuous supper in the Lackawanna house on Belmont street. Three large sleighs conveyed the party to this city and back. The following comprised the party: Mesdames Van Houten, J. G. Foster, Mrs. M. M. Miller, Krantz, Zupp, Shultz, McAuley, Miller, Michael, Dittenger, Hinkle, Teller, Farber, Bocher, Stender, Steinberg, Montline, Straight, Rogge, Ridgeway, Mink, Reynolds, Goecker, Jno Goch and Misses Annie Keers and Caroline Zupp.

At the Opera House.

Lee Rankin's famous play, "49," was the attraction at the Grand opera house last night and was given in an effective way by the excellent cast comprised in the Frankle company. A large audience witnessed the performance. Last night was to have been an amateur night but none appeared. This afternoon a matinee will be given and a ladies' gold watch given to the holder of the lucky ticket. The play will be the strong western melodrama, "An American Princess." One of the prominent parts in the play is taken by a trained bear, "Mickey," who scored a hit when the performance was given here last week. Tonight "Pawm Ticket No. 219," will be given.

Hon. John Littlefield.

Hon. John Littlefield, who will be the next and the final speaker in the Knights of Columbus course, is a platform speaker who has been before the public for years, and has earned a reputation as a noted speaker. His subject will be "Daniel O'Connell," the Irish statesman, orator and wit, a subject which will offer a wide field for a man of Mr. Littlefield's talents.

Children's Dancing Class.

Beginning today Miss Carrie Peck and Misses Louise and Edna are conducting a school of dancing in the Burke building for little misses, each Saturday afternoon from 2 until 4 o'clock. This means of the little ones receiving this accomplishment, will no doubt achieve sufficient popularity to warrant the efforts of the two young ladies in charge of the enterprise.

The Passing Throng.

P. H. Carey, of Green Island, was in the city yesterday.

Mrs. William Evans and Mrs. Elmer Stover, of Scranton, are visitors in the city.

George W. Harburt, of Scranton, made a business trip to Carbondale yesterday.

A. E. Berry, Fred Emerich and Al. Blandin, of Scranton, were at the American house yesterday.

Dr. F. L. Potts, of Washington, D. C., and Andrew Gennell, of Pulaski City, Va., were at the Harrison house yesterday.

JERMYN AND MAYFIELD.

The Jermyrn borough council held their regular monthly meeting last evening when all members were present and the report of the committee on the ordinance authorizing the contract with the Jermyrn Electric Light company was read but before being adopted the councilman Theron Burke objected to the contract because the price was too high and he further, more objected to the terms, Councilman Albert Moon spoke briefly in favor of the ordinance, the adoption of which he thought would be beneficial to the borough. On the motion of Albert Moon, a seconded motion was adopted, his vote against it. On motion the certified check for $300 was turned over to the treasurer until such time as the contract was legally executed.

The following two vendors and ordered paid: Coal for Anthracite Hotel, $6.50; Burgess Pender's salary, $25; Evening Leader, $4.00; J. G. Avery, $6.50; chief of police, salary, $45; Peck-Lumber company, 60 cents; salary and postage of Chairman of Finance for six months, $27.50; electric lights, $125.64. A bill from Morgan and Nyce amounting to $12.50 was laid over and bills for salaries of board of health officers amounting to $115, were also laid over. The board of health is reported $50 for the board secretary was instructed to write an order for that amount.

The annual report of the board of health was read in which the number of deaths for the year was 100 and cases of contagious diseases, 82. The board offered some suggestions to prevent the introduction of small-pox into the borough one of which was that action be taken to prevent pack peddlers from coming into the town and exposing their goods for sale. The report concluded by asking the co-operation of the council in preventing the much dreaded disease gaining a foothold here. The report was adopted and placed upon file.

A petition was read from the Anthracite Hose company asking for the exoneration of their members from their liability in case of fire. The petition was granted, Chairman Badger reappointed Dr. I. S. Graves to the board of health for the period of five years. The appointment was confirmed by the council. The board of health was instructed to get the necessary supplies printed, and send their bill to council. The chief of police was instructed to keep out all pack peddlers from the borough in accordance with the ordinance. Monday night's subject will be "Man-Life's Old Question Answered," Tuesday evening, "The Unpardonable Sin—What is It?" Wednesday evening, "Profit and Loss."

Thursday evening, "Memory and Its Relation to the Future Life;" Friday evening, "The Talents—Who is Responsible." A cordial invitation is extended to all to attend.

The meetings at the Baptist church, which the pastor is being assisted by Rev. and Mrs. Clark Wilson, have steadily grown during the week in attendance and interest. Mr. Wilson will preach a sermon Sunday morning, which will be of unusual interest, especially to thoughtful and well educated persons. The subject is "Why Must a Man Be Born Again to See the Kingdom of God?" Mr. Fred Willson and Miss Daisy B. Hall, of Scranton, are expected to be present Sunday evening, to assist in the singing. The meetings will continue next week, every evening except Saturday. All are invited.

Rev. Dr. Whalen, of Carbondale, was a visitor here yesterday.

Attorney and Mrs. H. D. Carey spent Thursday evening with Scranton friends.

There will be a special meeting of the members of the fund in connection with the Daughters of St. George Monday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock sharp. All members are requested to be present.

PECKVILLE.

The Presbyterian church, Rev. S. H. Moon, D. D., pastor. Services Sunday evening, 7:30 p. m. Subject in morning, "Preliminary Considerations," evening, "Two Bible Revivals." All are welcome.

The preaching on the Sabbath in the Methodist Episcopal church will be by Rev. F. General, on subject, "The Datalogy of the Redeemed," evening, "Perils on the Deep." All the other services as usual, and everybody welcome to all the services.

Peckville Baptist church, Rev. J. S. Thomas, pastor. Services tomorrow at 10:30 a. m. and 7 p. m. Morning subject, "The Prophet Joel;" evening subject, "Jesus Christ, the Founder of Christianity." All are welcome.

Arthur Craig, a former resident of Peckville, died at his home in West Scranton yesterday morning.

The largest crowd that has been present any night during the Wilson Fire company's fair was present Thursday evening. The building was filled to its utmost capacity. The Avoca Hose company, of Avoca, was present on that evening.

The school board, at a recent meeting, moved to purchase one dozen Fyrdale fire extinguishers, the same to be distributed in the different school buildings.

Miss Nora Pickering has accepted a position with the Colliery Engineer company, of Scranton, and has resigned the position as clerk at the postoffice.

The concert this evening promises the people of Peckville and vicinity a rare treat. Miss Daisy B. Hall, of Scranton, has been engaged for the evening, and has been fortunate in securing several talented artists to assist her, namely, the bright, winning little elocutionist, Miss Ida Smith; Eugene Wenzel, the popular baritone, of Scranton, and Fred E. Wilson, of Peckville, most popular home singer, Miss Nellie Glanville, will also be heard in a duet with Miss Hall. Mr. Wenzel, it will be remembered, made a great hit in the opera carnival in Scranton, a short time ago, and whose song is the most popular singer in Scranton at this time. The following is the programme: Recitation, "The Inventor's Wife," Miss Ida Smith, Scranton; vocal solo, "The Handlore," Eugene Wenzel; instrumental duet, "Our Village," Eugene Wenzel and Fred E. Wilson; recitation, "Seeing Things at Night," Miss Ida Smith; vocal solo, "The Gay Hussar," Eugene Wenzel; vocal duet, "Beautiful Moonlight," Miss Nellie Glanville and Fred E. Wilson; recitation, "Trouble in the Amen corner," Miss Ida Smith.

OLYPHANT

The council and school board will meet on Monday evening.

Miss Alice O'Hara, of Upper Dundas street, gave a delightful euchre party at her home on Thursday evening. At the conclusion of the game a delicious luncheon was served. Those present were: Misses Kate McHale, Margaret Hayes, Willie Barrett, Alice O'Hara, Margaret McHale, Mary Clancy, Annie Walsh, William McHale, Thomas Walsh, Edward Keogh, Martin Grimes, Patrick O'Hara, William Burke and P. J. Walsh.

The following is the menu for the supper which will be served in the Father Mathew hall Tuesday evening, from 5 to 10 o'clock by the members of St. Patrick's congregation: Roast turkey, oyster stuffing, giblet sauce, cranberry sauce, French peas, cold ham, baked beans, cabbage salad, potato salad, tomato aspic, corn, olives, pickles, beets, assorted cakes, fruit, ice cream, coffee. Supper 50 cents.

A large number of people enjoyed the excellent supper served by the Ladies Aid society in the Bakery Baptist church parlor last evening.

Mrs. C. S. Lewlesley was tendered a surprise party by the members of her Sunday school class of the Susquehanna Street Baptist church at her home on Delaware street Thursday evening. The time was most enjoyably spent in various amusements and at 11 o'clock refreshments were served.

A sleighing party from here went to Jermyrn last evening.

The members of the Rebecca and Independent order of Odd Fellows lodges are requested to meet in their rooms tomorrow evening at 8 o'clock to attend divine service in the Primitive Methodist church.

Rev. H. H. Ryland, of Pittsburg, will conduct the services in the Presbyterian church tomorrow morning and evening. All are invited.

MOSCOW.

The funeral of Stanley W. Bortree, who died of appendicitis at Mayaguez, Porto Rico, January 16, was held from the Daleville church January 30, Mr. Bortree was born in Moscow, Pa., May 14, 1856, he was received into the Moscow Methodist Episcopal church in full membership October 2, 1881, and licensed a local preacher January 23, 1892.

His advanced school privileges were one year at Factoryville, three years at Wyoming Seminary, and five years at the State Normal school at Millersville, Pa. In the fall of 1889 he went to Porto Rico and entered the employ of the government as a public school teacher. On the 18th of September he married Miss Irene E. Vort, of Mayaguez, Porto Rico, and immediately they went to Porto Rico where he soon became supervisor of Aguadillo district, comprising about sixty schools. Two memorial services in English were held at Mayaguez and one in Spanish at Aguadillo, his place of residence, and many letters of condolence to the widowed attest the esteem in which the deceased was held by Porto Ricans. The funeral services lasted about two hours. Remarks were made by Rev. G. H. Prentice, pastor of the Moscow M. E. church, prayer was offered by
