

THE MODERN HARDWARE STORE.

Keeping a Razor

In good condition is the principal thing towards a easy and quick shave. With a good RAZOR STROP it is no trouble to do it. It is safe to say you will find no such variety of razor strops as we have here for you to choose from in any other Scranton store.

Prices, 25c to $1.50

Foot & Shear Co.
119 N. Washington Ave.

Mothers

THE FAMILY BUYER. HAVE you ever been in our store to see the many things we have to make your infant and children well dressed and comfortable. If not, it will repay you to give us a little of your time.

THE BABY BAZAAR
510 Spruce Street.

For Sale

S. E. WAYLAND,
On account of leaving the city, offers his handsome house at 436 Clay Avenue for sale at a sacrifice, if sold at once. Has Fourteen Rooms and two Bath Rooms, City Steam Heat, Hard Wood Floors, all Modern Conveniences.

Also, Barn for Rent, rear of 406 Jefferson Avenue.

THE PEOPLE'S BANK.

President—Cyrus D. Jones.
Vice President—G. F. Reynolds.
Cashier—H. M. Ives.

DIRECTORS:
Cyrus D. Jones, M. P. Carter, G. F. Reynolds, A. B. Warner, Thos. Sweeney, Richard O'Brien, W. G. Fulton, C. L. Woodworth, C. C. Healey, T. C. Von Sternberg, C. J. Ross, Samuel Sander.

PERSONAL.

Miss Anna Barnhart spent yesterday at Montrose.
Miss Tague, of West Nicholson, is visiting Mr. and Mrs. P. W. Tague, of Jackson street.
H. C. Colony, of North Sumner avenue, has returned home from a week's stay in Montrose.
Miss Tessie Curry, of North Main avenue, has returned from a visit with friends in Buffalo and Elmira.
Mrs. Joseph Alexander, jr., has been called to Allentown by the sudden death of her father, I. W. Gubb.
Miss M. E. Healey has returned home after a two weeks' visit with her sister, Mrs. J. T. Matting, of New York city.
Miss George Esterle, of North Sumner avenue, has returned home from a visit with friends in Wyoming county. Mr. and Mrs. Esterle spent yesterday at Elmira.

LINCOLN'S BIRTHDAY.

Sons of Veterans to Celebrate Event Tomorrow Night.

Elaborate preparations are being made by a committee from Camp 8, Sons of Veterans, for the celebration of Lincoln's Birthday tomorrow night in the G. A. R. Memorial building. A banquet will be served and among the speakers who will respond to toasts will be Dr. W. H. Heath, a veteran of the Mexican war; Colonel E. H. Ripple and Lieutenant Colonel F. W. Stillwell, of the Thirtieth regiment; Hon. John R. Farr will act as toastmaster.

The committee having the affair in charge consists of Hon. John R. Farr, J. B. Tilume, W. L. Nash and W. M. Hamlin.

FOR MCKINLEY MEMORIAL.

Some Recent Contributions Are Acknowledged.

The following contributions to the McKinley memorial fund are acknowledged:

John E. Roche	1.00
Mrs. John E. Roche	1.00
Genevieve Roche	1.00
Ether Roche	1.00
B. J. Roche	1.00
Mrs. Mary (Roche) Barrett	1.00
Conrad Barrett	1.00
John E. Barrett	1.00
May Barrett	1.00
W. D. Roche	1.00
Mrs. Agnes Roche	1.00
Total	$11.00

REMOVED TO PHILADELPHIA.

Offices of Consolidated Telephone Company Removed from Scranton.

The offices of the Consolidated Telephone Company of Pennsylvania have been removed from this city to Philadelphia, who has been made manager of the company, will be by this change to leave this place, making his permanent residence in Philadelphia.

It tastes like coffee.

GOOD TIME FOR THE VIADUCT.

West Scranton Councilmen Are Not Urging the Matter.

The plan to secure the passage of an ordinance providing for the erection of the West Lackawanna avenue viaduct, which was talked of by several West Scranton councilmen some months ago, seems to have fallen through.

The margin which the city council now have for the creation of a debt, without a vote of the citizens, is about $700,000, and when the $300,000 bond ordinance, which Recorder Connell proposes to have introduced in council, is passed there will still be $400,000 remaining, or more than a sufficient figure, in the opinion of many, to pay all damages incident to the construction of the viaduct.

Providing that this margin of $700,000 was entirely exhausted by the $300,000 issue and an issue of $400,000 for viaduct damages, there would still be a margin of over $200,000 in 1920, because within the next four years there are something like $211,000 worth of outstanding bonds to be redeemed.

Recorder Connell has stated that he will approve a viaduct ordinance providing he has assurance that the damages to be incurred will not be exorbitant, so that there seems to be no real obstacles to prevent the introduction and passage of such a measure.

OVERCOME BY SMOKE.

Three Firemen Rendered Unconscious While Fighting a Fire on South Washington Avenue.

Three firemen, all members of Engine company No. 4, were overcome by smoke Saturday morning, while fighting a fire in the basement of Max Judkovitz's store, on South Washington avenue. All three men revived shortly and none suffered any serious after-effects.

The blaze broke out in the basement of the store in a most mysterious manner shortly after 8 o'clock and an alarm turned in from Box 41 brought the central city and South Scranton companies to the scene. The smoke was pouring in dense volumes from the basement, but abated somewhat after the arrival of the firemen, and Permanent men Harry Rice and William Seagraves and Callahan J. Hay, of Engine company No. 4, ventured inside with a line of hose.

They had been inside some little time when the smoke grew denser, and as no sound came from the cellar Captain Troop decided that something was wrong, and went in with several other members of the company to investigate. They groped their way through the suffocating atmosphere and came upon the three firemen lying unconscious. The men were carried out into the open air and revived under treatment administered by the surgeon who came with the Lackawanna hospital ambulance.

The basement and part of the upper floor of the building were destroyed by the flames which damaged Judkovitz's stock to the extent of about $1,500. The building is owned by the Allen estate.

TWO BRASS THIEVES.

Sam Richards and James Long Arrested for Theft of Brass from the Carlucci Stone Yard.

Sam Richards, employed as a machinist by the Carlucci Stone company, and James Long, who was employed up to last week as a watchman at the company's stone yard, were arrested yesterday morning by Patrolmen Hart and Karius for the larceny of a piece of brass from the yard.

The brass, which is valued at $25, was stolen from the yard on Saturday night. Patrolman Hart, who is on the Pine Brook beat, noticed Richards carrying something very heavy to the city and followed him to Raymond street, having picked up Patrolman Karius on the way. The two men were noticed acting in a suspicious manner near a junk shop in the court and the officers decided to place them under arrest.

Superintendent Day had a heart to heart talk with Richards in the central police station and succeeded in getting him to admit having stolen the brass. He also told where it had been hidden in the court, and the police, after a little search, managed to locate it. Both men were arraigned before Magistrate Howe for a hearing and were committed to jail in default of bail.

The police believe that Richards has been implicated in other brass thefts, but have no direct evidence to connect him with them.

REFUSED TO SUSPEND SENTENCE.

Wednesday last, Adam Habrowski, of 715 Moosic street, plead guilty of selling liquor without a license. His attorney, ex-District Attorney John R. Jones, moved for a suspension of sentence on the ground that Habrowski believed he was not selling illegally. It was also shown that he is in bad health and for the past five years has been unable to do any laborious work. Habrowski sold bottled beer from a wagon, hawking it about the streets like so much garden truck. He brought the beer in barrels and bottled it at his home. On the bottle was pasted a label on which appeared in large letters the name of a Scranton wholesaler, with "A. Habrowski, Agent," beneath in small letters. Habrowski claimed that the wholesaler told him he had a right to sell at retail as his agent without taking out a retailer's license, and that he believed it. Judge Edwards postponed sentence until he could have the case investigated. District Attorney Lewis was instructed to make the investigation. Saturday, Judge Edwards called Habrowski for sentence and imposed the customary minimum penalty, a fine of $500, and three months in the county jail. Ex-County Detective Thomas Leysch, who is now agent for the Bottlers' association, was the prosecutor. James Flinnigan, who was convicted of assault and battery on Patrick S. Mannion, was fined $25 and sent to the county jail for thirty days.

THIS WEEK IN COURT.

The second week of the February session of criminal court begins today. Judge Kelly will be in the main court room; Judge Edwards, in No. 2, and Judge H. K. Weand, of Montgomery county, in No. 3. There are 168 cases on the list including 45 surety and desertion cases.

The case of most general interest is that of W. W. Scranton, president of the Scranton Gas and Water company, charged with criminal libel by Select Councilman Wade M. Flinn. It is set down for Thursday and as far as is known will go to trial. The three murder cases, growing out of the street

RIGID ENFORCEMENT.

Police to Look After Junk Shops and Junk Dealers.

It is understood that police will attempt to enforce more rigidly the act of 1899 which governs the running of junk shops and which is intended to correct as far as possible the evils of the stolen metals and other stolen property by junk dealers.

This act makes the purchase of junk by dealers from minors an offense punishable by imprisonment and fine and prohibits the purchase of junk of any kind or description from persons not known to the dealer. It also requires that an accurate description of all junk purchased shall be recorded in a book in the English language.

It is a well known fact that the majority of junk dealers in this city have no hesitancy in purchasing junk from small boys and that no questions as to where the stuff purchased was obtained are asked.

FOR GOVERNMENT POSITIONS.

Civil Service Examinations to Be Conducted.

The United States civil service commission has given notice of the following examinations:

March 4, 5, 6—For positions of electrical engineer and draftsman in the supervising architect's office, treasury department.

March 25, 26—Assistant piece-work computer in the National Observatory and Nautical Almanac office.

FIRE AT ELBERTON.

By Exclusive Wire from The Associated Press.

Elberton, Ga., Feb. 9.—Fire here early today destroyed nearly all of the business section of this place, doing damage which is estimated at $400,000. The city has no fire protection and the bucket brigades formed by citizens were of no avail in a temperature of 30 degrees and a high wind.

AN ACQUITTAL IS EXPECTED

SILLIMAN VERDICT TO BE REPORTED TODAY.

That the Jury Has Agreed Is Generally Accepted as a Sure Indication That the Verdict Is in Favor of the Defendant—Report in Circulation That the Costs Are Placed on the County—Jury Out Seven Hours—The Closing Addresses of Messrs. O'Brien and Comegys.

The verdict of the jury in the Silliman bribery case will be announced at the opening of court this morning at 9 o'clock. The jury agreed at 9:45 o'clock Saturday night, after being out seven hours. The verdict was sealed and delivered to the foreman, to be reported to the court this morning.

The fact that the jury agreed created the general impression that the finding is an acquittal. So strong was the expectation that the verdict would be for the defense that there was a widespread belief that the only question on which the jury disputed was whether the costs should be placed on the county or the prosecutor. A report was in circulation yesterday that the verdict is "Not guilty; county pay the costs."

The verdict is one of acquittal, there can be no retrial and it will be impossible to effect a re-arrest on the same charges, or any of them, because two years—the statutory period of limitation—have elapsed.

The case was given to the jury at 2 o'clock Saturday afternoon. Mr. O'Brien closed for the defense and Mr. Comegys for the commonwealth.

Mr. O'Brien dwelt at length on the claim that the evidence of P. W. Gallagher was the uncorroborated testimony of an accomplice, at the best, and quoted from a Supreme court ruling to the effect that a jury should be slow to convict on such testimony. He also scorchingly arraigned Mr. Gallagher, arguing that he conspired with the prosecutor, William Repp, to work the case of the defense. The theory of the defense, Mr. O'Brien averred, was that Mr. Gallagher got the $500 from the company, ostensibly for Father Jordan's church, appropriated it to his own uses, and then reported that he spent it on the councilmen. Mr. Repp, he said, was prompted in the prosecution by the fact that he himself wanted to build a street railway in Old Forge, and hopes by convicting Mr. Silliman and proving fraud in connection with the granting of the franchise, the equity court will annul the franchise, in the proceedings now pending.

Mr. O'Brien spoke for more than two hours and was followed by Mr. Comegys, who spoke for an hour and a half. Mr. Comegys devoted himself mainly to showing that Mr. Gallagher's features by the accused councilmen themselves. They agreed to practically everything Mr. Gallagher said, except the actual taking of the money, Mr. Comegys maintained.

Judge Wheaton's charge was a clear and concise articulation of the law bearing on the case.

COURT HOUSE NEWS NOTES.

Court made an order, Saturday, changing the holding place of the next meeting of the Old Fellows' hall to the borough building. An application for divorce was made, Saturday, by Rudolph Wenska, of this city, who among railroad men as a strong advocate of temperance and abstinence, William Harris is named as co-respondent. They were married Jan. 10, 1880, and parted last Friday.

WARD WORKERS ARE SELECTED

List of the Men to Whom Will Be Entrusted the Detail Work of the City Fight.

Chairman C. E. Chittenden, of the Republican city committee, and Evan Masson, secretary of the committee, have agreed upon campaign committees for each ward in the city, and the names of those selected to comprise these committees are printed below.

A change of plans has necessitated the postponement of the committee meeting, which was to have been held on Saturday night, until Tuesday night, when a rally will be conducted for the purpose of enlisting the workers. A goodly number of workers assembled in headquarters on Saturday night and a general discussion of ways and means was indulged in.

The workers in the wards in which there are no fights and in which sympathy is likely to rule, are being especially impressed with the necessity of getting out the party vote, and this is being done by the city committee election day. The ward committees appointed are composed as follows:

First ward—Finley Ross, 2801 North Main avenue; First district, Daniel Evans; Second district, Charles Meade; Third district, Charles Constantine; Fourth district, Alfred Pearce; Fifth district, John McDougall.

Second ward—Ernest Miller, 1829 North Main avenue; First district, H. S. Albrecht; Second district, William C. H. Wright; Third district, William Crasby; Fourth district, James Davis; Fifth district, John Thomas.

Third ward—Cliff Becker, 621 Cayuga street; Fourth ward—Leah Jones, 1217 Scotland street; First district, Robert Edridge; James Hyde Park avenue; Second district, James George; Third district, George Schmitt, Lataste street; Fourth district, David Harris, North Garfield avenue.

Fifth ward—F. B. Besse, city hall; First district, Joseph Harris, Broadway avenue; Second district, David Cosgrove, Meridian street; Third district, Richard Moran, Garfield avenue; Fourth district, Dr. T. N. Phillips, Wyoming avenue.

Sixth ward—Evan Lewis, 129 Acker avenue; Seventh ward—Edward Elsie, city hall; Eighth ward—C. C. Fisher; First district, W. A. Rosh, Spruce street; Second district, Ninth ward—James Moir, 408 Lackawanna avenue; First district, Ira Mitchell, W. A. Barrett; Second district, W. J. Welsh, P. S. S. Walsh; Third district, O. B. Wright, M. W. Lowry; Fourth ward—Charles Wagner, 502 Cedar avenue; Second district, Fred Schuman, Birch street; Third district, August Engelhardt, 1004 Washington avenue.

Tenth ward—B. T. Jayne, Capose avenue and Green Ridge street; First district, Albert Constantine; Second district, James M. Ardoin; Third district, William Perry.

Eleventh ward—Wm. B. Stevens, 129 South Main avenue.

Twelfth ward—John H. Fellows; First district, Edward Williams; Second district, Albert Rayner.

Thirteenth ward—J. G. Seaman; First district, Franklin Bannan; Second district, John B. Deane; Third district, Second district, Dr. James Stubb, Wyoming avenue and Mulberry street.

Fourteenth ward—W. S. Doherty; First district, Edward C. Hart; Second district, William Bennett; Third district, Robert T. Koehler.

Fifteenth ward—John Beaumont, 119 South Seventh street.

Sixteenth ward—Jacob Mantz, 504 Maple street; First district, Wm. E. Vaughan; Second district, George Jape; Third district, Henry Meyer; Fourth district, Louis Esson.

Seventeenth ward—Arthur Hewitt, South Water street; Second district, Charles Kloss, Stone street; Fourth district, Jacob W. Burghouse, 1227 Pittston avenue.

Eighteenth ward—Hon. John R. Farr, North Main avenue; Second district, Edward G. Thomas, 276 Frink street.

MENTION OF MEN OF HOUR

FRANK L. JONES OF THE LOCAL SWITCHMEN'S UNION.

Judge Wheaton Insists That Attorneys Show a Proper Respect for the Court—His Reminder to Attorney Hannah—Attorney S. B. Price's Address Before the Economic League—Attorney Thomas J. Duggan as a Post Prandial Talker. Councilman Costello.

One of the most ardent workers in the ranks of organized labor in this city is Frank F. Jones, of the Scranton Division of Switchmen's Union of North America. For a number of years he has been employed on the Lackawanna railroad, and has been an important factor in the adjustment of what differences have in the past arisen between the company and their switchmen.

MENTION OF MEN OF HOUR

Mr. Jones possesses much executive ability and is well and favorably known among railroad men as a strong advocate of organized labor. He is a son of William S. Jones, of the Internal revenue office, and resides with his parents at 1123 Hampton street. He is also a member of the Spanish-American Veterans association.

An instance of dignity which Judge Wheaton attaches to the honored office he fills and the courtesy which the bench should, to his mind, exact from the bar, arose in the trial of the Silliman case. The judge had made a ruling adverse to the prosecution in the matter of excluding evidence, after Mr. Hannah had contended strenuously for its admission. A little while later the judge had occasion to revert to this effort of the prosecution and when in the course of his remarks he said "the commonwealth wanted to show," etc., Mr. Hannah raised his head a little from his writing, and in an undertone interjected the remark, "As we had a right to do." Judge Wheaton finished his remarks and then turning to Mr. Hannah said in a very pointed way:

"Mr. Hannah, you will not repeat a remark of that kind in the presence of this court."

"No, sir," quickly responded Mr. Hannah in an apologetic tone. A moment later he added, "I was only expressing my views."

"I will listen to your views when they are given in a respectful way," remarked the judge, and the incident closed.

Judge Wheaton, incidentally speaking, is one of those judges who has a license to expect the most courteous treatment from the bar, for he, himself, is the soul of courtesy. Some men, when in authority seem to take a delight in exercising it in a way that will make those coming within the scope of their authority as uncomfortable as possible. Judge Wheaton takes pains to be considerate of other's feelings and to avoid anything that will cause another embarrassment. He is an example of the truth that breeding, like blood, will tell.

At a recent meeting of the Economic League, Attorney S. B. Price was heard, by many, for the first time, in an address other than that which has a court or jury for an audience. These aforementioned many were agreeably surprised. They knew of course, or at all events supposed, Mr. Price could make a good speech outside, as well as inside a court, and they did not expect though, that he could make such a speech as he did. It was a gem in the way of a strict, logical argument.

The manner of presenting his facts, the elegant diction in which his arguments were couched, and his impressive style of delivery combined to stamp him as one of the very best speakers Scranton can boast. Whether it is that his rare ability has been unknown to those who have been seeking public speakers, or that Mr. Price has been averse to speaking at public functions, is not known, but be that as it may, Scrantonians have been missing some good things in the oratorical line by reason of Mr. Price's absence from the public forum.

Attorney Thomas J. Duggan revealed himself as an after dinner speaker of rare abilities at the banquet given by the Knights of Columbus last week

GUESTS OF EMPLOYEES.

Officers and Men of Bolt and Nut Company Dine Together.

A happy spectacle was witnessed at the Scranton city club house on Saturday night when the president and other officers of the Scranton Bolt and Nut company sat down to dinner as the guests of their employees, the occasion being the first annual banquet of Electric City Lodge, No. 24, Amalgamated Association of Iron, Steel and Tin Workers.

Those present besides the employees of the company were President W. H. Zehender, Secretary-Treasurer L. M. Horton, Assistant Superintendent Alf Turner, Paymaster Theodore Fuller and Former Recorder Moir. William H. Landon, who presided as toastmaster, proposed a toast for the continuance of the happy relations now existing between the company and the men. It was drunk with enthusiasm.

President Zehender made a brief address in which he said that the interests of employer and employee are mutual and in which he advocated the organization of a beneficial association to aid employees when sick. The company, he said, would contribute $200 to such an association and $1 per year for each man employed. Former Recorder Moir spoke and expressed his satisfaction at the cordial relations existing between employer and employee.

The committee having charge of the affair was composed of the following members: W. H. Landon, chairman; Joseph Gill, Samuel Holtham, George Storm, M. Dougherty, I. Shoemaker, David Morris, Augustus Bender, John Loftus, P. Muldoon.

THEY ARE HERE

The new Spring Four-in-hands. All exclusive designs and colors, plenty of those very popular roman stripes in new colors.

The neat patterns are represented here too.

50c

"ON THE SQUARE"
403 Washington Ave.

Special

On Fancy Maine Corn, Fancy Cut Beans, Stringless Beans and Wax Beans and Bartlett Pears, 10c per can.

E. G. Coursen.
Wholesale and Retail.

MENTION OF MEN OF HOUR

FRANK L. JONES OF THE LOCAL SWITCHMEN'S UNION.

Judge Wheaton Insists That Attorneys Show a Proper Respect for the Court—His Reminder to Attorney Hannah—Attorney S. B. Price's Address Before the Economic League—Attorney Thomas J. Duggan as a Post Prandial Talker. Councilman Costello.

One of the most ardent workers in the ranks of organized labor in this city is Frank F. Jones, of the Scranton Division of Switchmen's Union of North America. For a number of years he has been employed on the Lackawanna railroad, and has been an important factor in the adjustment of what differences have in the past arisen between the company and their switchmen.

MENTION OF MEN OF HOUR

Mr. Jones possesses much executive ability and is well and favorably known among railroad men as a strong advocate of organized labor. He is a son of William S. Jones, of the Internal revenue office, and resides with his parents at 1123 Hampton street. He is also a member of the Spanish-American Veterans association.

An instance of dignity which Judge Wheaton attaches to the honored office he fills and the courtesy which the bench should, to his mind, exact from the bar, arose in the trial of the Silliman case. The judge had made a ruling adverse to the prosecution in the matter of excluding evidence, after Mr. Hannah had contended strenuously for its admission. A little while later the judge had occasion to revert to this effort of the prosecution and when in the course of his remarks he said "the commonwealth wanted to show," etc., Mr. Hannah raised his head a little from his writing, and in an undertone interjected the remark, "As we had a right to do." Judge Wheaton finished his remarks and then turning to Mr. Hannah said in a very pointed way:

"Mr. Hannah, you will not repeat a remark of that kind in the presence of this court."

"No, sir," quickly responded Mr. Hannah in an apologetic tone. A moment later he added, "I was only expressing my views."

"I will listen to your views when they are given in a respectful way," remarked the judge, and the incident closed.

Judge Wheaton, incidentally speaking, is one of those judges who has a license to expect the most courteous treatment from the bar, for he, himself, is the soul of courtesy. Some men, when in authority seem to take a delight in exercising it in a way that will make those coming within the scope of their authority as uncomfortable as possible. Judge Wheaton takes pains to be considerate of other's feelings and to avoid anything that will cause another embarrassment. He is an example of the truth that breeding, like blood, will tell.

At a recent meeting of the Economic League, Attorney S. B. Price was heard, by many, for the first time, in an address other than that which has a court or jury for an audience. These aforementioned many were agreeably surprised. They knew of course, or at all events supposed, Mr. Price could make a good speech outside, as well as inside a court, and they did not expect though, that he could make such a speech as he did. It was a gem in the way of a strict, logical argument.

The manner of presenting his facts, the elegant diction in which his arguments were couched, and his impressive style of delivery combined to stamp him as one of the very best speakers Scranton can boast. Whether it is that his rare ability has been unknown to those who have been seeking public speakers, or that Mr. Price has been averse to speaking at public functions, is not known, but be that as it may, Scrantonians have been missing some good things in the oratorical line by reason of Mr. Price's absence from the public forum.

Attorney Thomas J. Duggan revealed himself as an after dinner speaker of rare abilities at the banquet given by the Knights of Columbus last week

MENTION OF MEN OF HOUR

FRANK L. JONES OF THE LOCAL SWITCHMEN'S UNION.

Judge Wheaton Insists That Attorneys Show a Proper Respect for the Court—His Reminder to Attorney Hannah—Attorney S. B. Price's Address Before the Economic League—Attorney Thomas J. Duggan as a Post Prandial Talker. Councilman Costello.

One of the most ardent workers in the ranks of organized labor in this city is Frank F. Jones, of the Scranton Division of Switchmen's Union of North America. For a number of years he has been employed on the Lackawanna railroad, and has been an important factor in the adjustment of what differences have in the past arisen between the company and their switchmen.

MENTION OF MEN OF HOUR

Mr. Jones possesses much executive ability and is well and favorably known among railroad men as a strong advocate of organized labor. He is a son of William S. Jones, of the Internal revenue office, and resides with his parents at 1123 Hampton street. He is also a member of the Spanish-American Veterans association.

An instance of dignity which Judge Wheaton attaches to the honored office he fills and the courtesy which the bench should, to his mind, exact from the bar, arose in the trial of the Silliman case. The judge had made a ruling adverse to the prosecution in the matter of excluding evidence, after Mr. Hannah had contended strenuously for its admission. A little while later the judge had occasion to revert to this effort of the prosecution and when in the course of his remarks he said "the commonwealth wanted to show," etc., Mr. Hannah raised his head a little from his writing, and in an undertone interjected the remark, "As we had a right to do." Judge Wheaton finished his remarks and then turning to Mr. Hannah said in a very pointed way:

"Mr. Hannah, you will not repeat a remark of that kind in the presence of this court."

"No, sir," quickly responded Mr. Hannah in an apologetic tone. A moment later he added, "I was only expressing my views."

"I will listen to your views when they are given in a respectful way," remarked the judge, and the incident closed.

Judge Wheaton, incidentally speaking, is one of those judges who has a license to expect the most courteous treatment from the bar, for he, himself, is the soul of courtesy. Some men, when in authority seem to take a delight in exercising it in a way that will make those coming within the scope of their authority as uncomfortable as possible. Judge Wheaton takes pains to be considerate of other's feelings and to avoid anything that will cause another embarrassment. He is an example of the truth that breeding, like blood, will tell.

At a recent meeting of the Economic League, Attorney S. B. Price was heard, by many, for the first time, in an address other than that which has a court or jury for an audience. These aforementioned many were agreeably surprised. They knew of course, or at all events supposed, Mr. Price could make a good speech outside, as well as inside a court, and they did not expect though, that he could make such a speech as he did. It was a gem in the way of a strict, logical argument.

The manner of presenting his facts, the elegant diction in which his arguments were couched, and his impressive style of delivery combined to stamp him as one of the very best speakers Scranton can boast. Whether it is that his rare ability has been unknown to those who have been seeking public speakers, or that Mr. Price has been averse to speaking at public functions, is not known, but be that as it may, Scrantonians have been missing some good things in the oratorical line by reason of Mr. Price's absence from the public forum.

Attorney Thomas J. Duggan revealed himself as an after dinner speaker of rare abilities at the banquet given by the Knights of Columbus last week

MENTION OF MEN OF HOUR

FRANK L. JONES OF THE LOCAL SWITCHMEN'S UNION.

Judge Wheaton Insists That Attorneys Show a Proper Respect for the Court—His Reminder to Attorney Hannah—Attorney S. B. Price's Address Before the Economic League—Attorney Thomas J. Duggan as a Post Prandial Talker. Councilman Costello.

One of the most ardent workers in the ranks of organized labor in this city is Frank F. Jones, of the Scranton Division of Switchmen's Union of North America. For a number of years

MENTION OF MEN OF HOUR

FRANK L. JONES OF THE LOCAL SWITCHMEN'S UNION.

Judge Wheaton Insists That Attorneys Show a Proper Respect for the Court—His Reminder to Attorney Hannah—Attorney S. B. Price's Address Before the Economic League—Attorney Thomas J. Duggan as a Post Prandial Talker. Councilman Costello.

One of the most ardent workers in the ranks of organized labor in this city is Frank F. Jones, of the Scranton Division of Switchmen's Union of North America. For a number of years

MENTION OF MEN OF HOUR

FRANK L. JONES OF THE LOCAL SWITCHMEN'S UNION.

Judge Wheaton Insists That Attorneys Show a Proper Respect for the Court—His Reminder to Attorney Hannah—Attorney S. B. Price's Address Before the Economic League—Attorney Thomas J. Duggan as a Post Prandial Talker. Councilman Costello.

One of the most ardent workers in the ranks of organized labor in this city is Frank F. Jones, of the Scranton Division of Switchmen's Union of North America. For a number of years

MENTION OF MEN OF HOUR

FRANK L. JONES OF THE LOCAL SWITCHMEN'S UNION.

Judge Wheaton Insists That Attorneys Show a Proper Respect for the Court—His Reminder to Attorney Hannah—Attorney S. B. Price's Address Before the Economic League—Attorney Thomas J. Duggan as a Post Prandial Talker. Councilman Costello.

One of the most ardent workers in the ranks of organized labor in this city is Frank F. Jones, of the Scranton Division of Switchmen's Union of North America. For a number of years

MENTION OF MEN OF HOUR

FRANK L. JONES OF THE LOCAL SWITCHMEN'S UNION.

Judge Wheaton Insists That Attorneys Show a Proper Respect for the Court—His Reminder to Attorney Hannah—Attorney S. B. Price's Address Before the Economic League—Attorney Thomas J. Duggan as a Post Prandial Talker. Councilman Costello.

One of the most ardent workers in the ranks of organized labor in this city is Frank F. Jones, of the Scranton Division of Switchmen's Union of North America. For a number of years

MENTION OF MEN OF HOUR

FRANK L. JONES OF THE LOCAL SWITCHMEN'S UNION.

Judge Wheaton Insists That Attorneys Show a Proper Respect for the Court—His Reminder to Attorney Hannah—Attorney S. B. Price's Address Before the Economic League—Attorney Thomas J. Duggan as a Post Prandial Talker. Councilman Costello.

One of the most ardent workers in the ranks of organized labor in this city is Frank F. Jones, of the Scranton Division of Switchmen's Union of North America. For a number of years

MENTION OF MEN OF HOUR

FRANK L. JONES OF THE LOCAL SWITCHMEN'S UNION.

Judge Wheaton Insists That Attorneys Show a Proper Respect for the Court—His Reminder to Attorney Hannah—Attorney S. B. Price's Address Before the Economic League—Attorney Thomas J. Duggan as a Post Prandial Talker. Councilman Costello.

One of the most ardent workers in the ranks of organized labor in this city is Frank F. Jones, of the Scranton Division of Switchmen's Union of North America. For a number of years

MENTION OF MEN OF HOUR

FRANK L. JONES OF THE LOCAL SWITCHMEN'S UNION.

Judge Wheaton Insists That Attorneys Show a Proper Respect for the Court—His Reminder to Attorney Hannah—Attorney S. B. Price's Address Before the Economic League—Attorney Thomas J. Duggan as a Post Prandial Talker. Councilman Costello.

One of the most ardent workers in the ranks of organized labor in this city is Frank F. Jones, of the Scranton Division of Switchmen's Union of North America. For a number of years

MENTION OF MEN OF HOUR

FRANK L. JONES OF THE LOCAL SWITCHMEN'S UNION.

Judge Wheaton Insists That Attorneys Show a Proper Respect for the Court—His Reminder to Attorney Hannah—Attorney S. B. Price's Address Before the Economic League—Attorney Thomas J. Duggan as a Post Prandial Talker. Councilman Costello.

One of the most ardent workers in the ranks of organized labor in this city is Frank F. Jones, of the Scranton Division of Switchmen's Union of North America. For a number of years

MENTION OF MEN OF HOUR

FRANK L. JONES OF THE LOCAL SWITCHMEN'S UNION.

Judge Wheaton Insists That Attorneys Show a Proper Respect for the Court—His Reminder to Attorney Hannah—Attorney S. B. Price's Address Before the Economic League—Attorney Thomas J. Duggan as a Post Prandial Talker. Councilman Costello.

One of the most ardent workers in the ranks of organized labor in this city is Frank F. Jones, of the Scranton Division of Switchmen's Union of North America. For a number of years

MENTION OF MEN OF HOUR

FRANK L. JONES OF THE LOCAL SWITCHMEN'S UNION.

Judge Wheaton Insists That Attorneys Show a Proper Respect for the Court—His Reminder to Attorney Hannah—Attorney S. B. Price's Address Before the Economic League—Attorney Thomas J. Duggan as a Post Prandial Talker. Councilman Costello.

One of the most ardent workers in the ranks of organized labor in this city is Frank F. Jones, of the Scranton Division of Switchmen's Union of North America. For a number of years

MENTION OF MEN OF HOUR

FRANK L. JONES OF THE LOCAL SWITCHMEN'S UNION.

Judge Wheaton Insists That Attorneys Show a Proper Respect for the Court—His Reminder to Attorney Hannah—Attorney S. B. Price's Address Before the Economic League—Attorney Thomas J. Duggan as a Post Prandial Talker. Councilman Costello.

One of the most ardent workers in the ranks of organized labor in this city is Frank F. Jones, of the Scranton Division of Switchmen's Union of North America. For a number of years

MENTION OF MEN OF HOUR

FRANK L. JONES OF THE LOCAL SWITCHMEN'S UNION.

Judge Wheaton Insists That Attorneys Show a Proper Respect for the Court—His Reminder to Attorney Hannah—Attorney S. B. Price's Address Before the Economic League—Attorney Thomas J. Duggan as a Post Prandial Talker. Councilman Costello.

One of the most ardent workers in the ranks of organized labor in this city is Frank F. Jones, of the Scranton Division of Switchmen's Union of North America. For a number of years

MENTION OF MEN OF HOUR

FRANK L. JONES OF THE LOCAL SWITCHMEN'S UNION.

Judge Wheaton Insists That Attorneys Show a Proper Respect for the Court—His Reminder to Attorney Hannah—Attorney S. B. Price's Address Before the Economic League—Attorney Thomas J. Duggan as a Post Prandial Talker. Councilman Costello.

One of the most ardent workers in the ranks of organized labor in this city is Frank F. Jones, of the Scranton Division of Switchmen's Union of North America. For a number of years

MENTION OF MEN OF HOUR

FRANK L. JONES OF THE LOCAL SWITCHMEN'S UNION.

Judge Wheaton Insists That Attorneys Show a Proper Respect for the Court—His Reminder to Attorney Hannah—Attorney S. B. Price's Address Before the Economic League—Attorney Thomas J. Duggan as a Post Prandial Talker. Councilman Costello.

One of the most ardent workers in the ranks of organized labor in this city is Frank F. Jones, of the Scranton Division of Switchmen's Union of North America. For a number of years

MENTION OF MEN OF HOUR

FRANK L. JONES OF THE LOCAL SWITCHMEN'S UNION.

Judge Wheaton Insists That Attorneys Show a Proper Respect for the Court—His Reminder to Attorney Hannah—Attorney S. B. Price's Address Before the Economic League—Attorney Thomas J. Duggan as a Post Prandial Talker. Councilman Costello.

One of the most ardent workers in the ranks of organized labor in this city is Frank F. Jones, of the Scranton Division of Switchmen's Union of North America. For a number of years

MENTION OF MEN OF HOUR

FRANK L. JONES OF THE LOCAL SWITCHMEN'S UNION.

Judge Wheaton Insists That Attorneys Show a Proper Respect for the Court—His Reminder to Attorney Hannah—Attorney S. B. Price's Address Before the Economic League—Attorney Thomas J. Duggan as a Post Prandial Talker. Councilman Costello.

One of the most ardent workers in the ranks of organized labor in this city is Frank F. Jones, of the Scranton Division of Switchmen's Union of North America. For a number of years

MENTION OF MEN OF HOUR

FRANK L. JONES OF THE LOCAL SWITCHMEN'S UNION.

Judge Wheaton Insists That Attorneys Show a Proper Respect for the Court—His Reminder to Attorney Hannah—Attorney S. B. Price's Address Before the Economic League—Attorney Thomas J. Duggan as a Post Prandial Talker. Councilman Costello.

One of the most ardent workers in the ranks of organized labor in this city is Frank F. Jones, of the Scranton Division of Switchmen's Union of North America. For a number of years

MENTION OF MEN OF HOUR

FRANK L. JONES OF THE LOCAL SWITCHMEN'S UNION.

Judge Wheaton Insists That Attorneys Show a Proper Respect for the Court—His Reminder to Attorney Hannah—Att